PART 4003—SUBSIDIES; SUPPORT PRICES

PART 4004—PRICE STABILIZATION; MAXIMUM PRICES

DRIED FRUITS, 1944 PACK

The Price Administrator having submitted certain information and recommendations to me dated June 15, 1944, and August 17, 1944, and the War Food Administrator having submitted certain information and recommendations to me dated June 24, 1944, and August 11, 1944, with reference to a program, (1) to fix maximum prices for the 1944 pack of dried fruits, (2) to establish and pay growers support prices for certain dried fruits produced in 1944, and (3) to develop and introduce a subsidy program for dried prunes and raisins, it is hereby found and determined that the purposes of the hold-the-line order, specifically, the policy established by Executive Order 9250 and 9323 (3 C.F.R. Cum. Supp., pp. 1212, 1267) will be effectuated by the adoption of such a program.

A. The Price Administrator is, therefore, hereby authorized and directed to take the following price action in respect to 1944 dried fruits:

1. Establish maximum prices covering packers sales of dried prunes and raisins to Government agencies which will reflect returns to producers of natural condition dried fruit equal to the grower support prices to be announced by the War Food Administration pursuant to the authorization given herein below.

2. Establish maximum prices covering packers sales of dried prunes and raisins in civilian trade channels which will reflect the increase in legal minimums for 1944 and processor's costs at 1942 levels.

3. Establish maximum prices covering packers sales of dried apricots, peaches, and pears to both Government agencies and civilians which will reflect returns to producers of natural condition dried fruit equal to the grower support prices to be announced by the War Food Administration pursuant to the authorization given herein below.

4. Establish maximum prices for packed processed dried figs for sales to both Government agencies and civilians which will reflect the following average grower prices per ton:

Calimyrnas (75% test)	$380
Adriatics (80% test)	250
Kadotas, tree picked (90% test)	240
Kadotas, natural (85% test)	230
Black Missions (85% test)	200

5. Establish maximum prices for natural condition unpacked dried prunes and raisins sold by producers, dehydrators, or dry-yard operators to reflect the support prices.

B. The War Food Administrator is hereby authorized and directed to take the following action in respect to dried fruits produced in 1944:

1. For dried prunes to establish and pay grower support prices as follows:

10 cents per pound basis for California Three-District dried prunes;

9¾ cents per pound basis for California Outside-District dried prunes and for Oregon and Washington dried prunes the same prices as those for California Outside-District dried prunes of comparable size.

2. To announce and pay grower support prices for 1944 sun-dried natural condition raisins not to exceed $180 per ton for Sultana and Thompson seedless and $195 per ton for Muscats.

3. Insofar as the Office of Economic Stabilization is concerned, to distribute among raisin variety grape producers any profits which may accrue through the purchase and sale of raisin variety grapes.

4. To establish support prices for 1944 for dried apricots, peaches and pears not to exceed the following averages per ton:

Apricots	$560
Peaches:
Clingstone	330
Freestone	440
Pears	340

5. To develop and enter into a subsidy program which will permit packers to pay producers the support prices for natural condition dried prunes and raisins and to meet the increased costs of processing since 1942. These subsidies will enable processor to sell these fruits, when processed and packed, in civilian trade channels at maximum prices to be established by the Office of Price Administration for packers sales in civilian trade channels.

Effective date: June 26, 1944, except as to B (1) above, for which the effective date is August 24, 1944.

Now, THEREFORE, the Charterer and the Owner do mutually agree to amend the Charter effective upon the date hereinafter set forth so that such Charter will be as follows:

CLAUSE A. PERIOD OF CHARTER. From the time of delivery to the time of expiration of the voyage current at the end of the emergency proclaimed by the President of the United States on May 27, 1941: Provided, however, That either party may sooner terminate this Charter upon not less than thirty (30) days' written or telegraphic notice to the other. In either case, the Vessel shall be redelivered as hereinafter provided.

CLAUSE B. TRADING LIMITS. As and where the Charterer may from time to time determine, subject to normal trading limits for a Vessel of her size, type and description.

CLAUSE C. HIRE. The hire shall be $_____ _____ per calendar month or pro rata for any portion thereof, of which the sum of $_____ per calendar month shall be compensation to the owner for the use of the Vessel (herein sometimes referred to as the use rate) and the balance shall be compensation to the Owner for services required under the terms of this Charter (herein sometimes referred to as the service rate).

RATE REVISION. At any time, either party may request a redetermination of the rate of charter hire upon thirty (30) days' written or telegraphic notice to the other, but no rate redetermination prior to July 1, 1945 shall involve a change in the use rate factor of the charter hire. If a revised rate is determined and agreed upon within such 30-day period, it shall become effective as of the date specified in the determination and shall continue for the balance of the period of this Charter, subject to further redetermination in accordance with the provisions of this paragraph. If a revised rate is not determined and agreed upon within such a period, then the Owner shall be entitled to receive from the Charterer for the period commencing with the end of such period a fair and reasonable charter hire for the use of the Vessel and the services required under the terms of this Charter, the rate of hire to be not more or less favorable than the compensation that would have been payable if the Vessel were documented under the laws of the United States. Pending a determination of such a fair and reasonable charter hire either by mutual agreement or by judicial determination, the Charterer shall pay to the Owner on account thereof 75 percent of the charter hire payable prior to the end of such 30 day period, from month to month. A change in the rate of charter hire under this paragraph shall not terminate the period of or otherwise modify the provisions of this Charter, and any such change shall be without prejudice to the rights of either party to terminate this Charter as provided in Clause A. Part I.

In the event of such termination by either party, the Charterer may, at its option, defer compliance with any or all of its redelivery obligations hereunder provided, however, that compliance with such obligations shall not be extended beyond the expiration of the emergency proclaimed by the President of the United States on May 27, 1941.

CLAUSE D. VALUATION. For the period ending noon, e. w. t., April 20, 1945, the agreed valuation of the Vessel for the purposes of this Charter and the insurance provided by the Charterer, is the sum of $_____ For each subsequent twelve (12) month period the valuation, unless otherwise agreed, shall be reduced by _____ per cent. By mutual agreement the valuation provisions of this Clause may be superseded as of the date of loss or any other mutually agreeable date in the event that the Charterer shall adopt any plan with respect to replacement of vessels which is applicable to this Vessel.

CLAUSE E. PORT OF DELIVERY.

CLAUSE F. TIME AND DATE OF DELIVERY.

CLAUSE G. PORT OF REDELIVERY. Port of delivery, unless otherwise agreed; Provided, however, That at Owner's option, redelivery shall be made at the U. S. continental port where the Owner maintains its principal operating headquarters.

CLAUSE H. NOTICE OF REDELIVERY. The Charterer shall give not less than thirty (30) days' written or telegraphic notice.

CLAUSE I. UNIFORM TERMS. This Charter consists of this Part I and Part II, conforming to the Amended Time Charter for Foreign Flag Dry Cargo Vessels, published in the FEDERAL REGISTER of September 1944. The provisions of Part II shall be incorporated by reference in and need not be attached to Part I of this Charter, and unless in this Part I otherwise expressly provided, all of the provisions, of Part II shall be part of this Charter as though fully set forth in this Part I.

CLAUSE J. EFFECTIVE DATE OF THIS AMENDED CHARTER. Unless otherwise agreed this Amended Charter (Addendum) shall, conditioned upon the Vessel being in every way fitted for service as required by Clause I of Part II, be effective upon completion of discharge of the Vessel in a port in the Continental United States, excluding Alaska, on the voyage current on _____, 1944, or if the vessel be in a port in the Continental United States, excluding Alaska, on _____, 1944, then effective _____, 1944, or if the Vessel has not returned to a port in the Continental United States, excluding Alaska, prior to _____ 1944 then effective _____, 1944 if the Vessel be in any port at that date, otherwise effective upon the Vessel's safe arrival at the Vessel's next port of call.

CLAUSE K. SPECIAL PROVISIONS. (1) With respect to reimbursement of war bonuses by the Charterer under any provisions of this Charter the individual war bonuses paid to the crew (including the Master and officers), shall not be in excess of the same percentage relation to the individual basic wages paid as exist between the individual basic wages and war bonuses paid on an American-flag ship with a like complement in the same service: Provided, That in no event shall the war bonuses for each member of the crew exceed those payable to the corresponding individual crew members of an American-flag vessel (including the Master and officers) with a like complement in the same service. If the Owner's arrangement is for the payment of a flat rate of wage per man (including the war bonuses), the Charterer agrees to reimburse the Owner the aggregate amount by which the aggregate flat wages paid by the Owner to the Master, officers or crew of the Vessel during the period of this Charter, exceeds the aggregate wages (excluding the war bonuses) which would have been payable to the Master, officers and crew of an American-flag ship with a like complement in the same service: Provided, That in no event shall any aggregate amount so to be reimbursed be in excess of the aggregate of the war bonuses which would have been payable to the Master, officers and crew of an American-flag ship in the same service.

WAR SHIPPING ADMINISTRATION

UNIFORM TIME CHARTER TERMS AND CONDITIONS FOR DRY CARGO VESSELS

(PART II)—(REVISED)

CLAUSE 1. The Vessel shall be placed at the disposal of the Charterer at the port of delivery at such safe ready dock, wharf, or place as the Charterer may direct. Any time lost by the Vessel awaiting the availability of such dock, wharf, or place shall count as time on hire. The Vessel on her delivery shall be ready to receive cargo with clean-swept holds and, as far as due diligence can make her so, tight, staunch, strong, and in every way fitted for normal commercial service for a vessel of her size, type, and description, having winches and power sufficient to run all winches at one and the same time and a Master, and a sufficient complement of officers and crew (hereinafter referred to collectively as the crew) for a vessel of her tonnage, and due diligence shall be exercised by the Owner to maintain her in such state during the currency of this Charter.

The Vessel shall be employed in carrying passengers (to the extent permitted by law and available accommodations) and lawful merchandise, including petroleum or its products in proper containers, in lawful trades between safe ports or places, as the Charterer or its agents may direct.

The Vessel may be employed to tow or may be towed, but the Charterer shall indemnify the Owner for any loss, damage, claims or expenses resulting from any such use of the Vessel.

For the purpose of this Charter the Owner shall be entitled to the benefits of all waivers in the navigation and inspection laws granted by an authorized officer or by law or regulation.

If radio or other equipment is required to enable the Vessel to comply with this Clause and such equipment is leased by the Owner, it shall pay the rental and maintenance charges therefor, or if such charges are paid by the Charterer, such charges may be deducted from the hire.

CLAUSE 2. The whole reach and burthen of the Vessel's holds, decks, and usual places of loading (but not more than she can reasonably stow and carry), shall be at the Charterer's disposal, reserving only space proper and sufficient in the opinion of the Master for Vessel's crew, Master's cabin, tackle, apparel, furniture, provisions, fresh water, stores and fuel.

CLAUSE 3A. Commencing with the time this Amended Charter becomes effective, the Charterer shall (except as otherwise expressly provided in this Charter) pay hire for the use of the Vessel and for the services required under the terms of this Charter at the rate provided in Clause C, of Part I of this Amended Charter, and subject to the provisions of said Clause C, such hire, or payments on account as therein provided, shall continue until the time of the redelivery of the Vessel to the Owner as in this Charter provided, unless the parties hereto otherwise agree: Provided, however, That if the Vessel shall be an actual total loss, such hire or payments on account shall continue until the time of her loss, if known, or if the date of loss cannot be ascertained, or if the Vessel is unreported, such hire or payments shall continue for one-half the calculated time necessary for the Vessel to proceed from her last known position to the next port of call, but not exceeding 14 days. If the Vessel is a constructive total loss under the terms of any insurance thereon or is declared a constructive total loss by the Charterer under the provisions of Schedule A, such hire or payments shall continue until noon (E. W. T.) of the day of the last casualty resulting in or causing or contributing to her loss, except as otherwise provided in Clause 31 of this Charter.

CLAUSE 3B. If at the time of redelivery under this Charter, the Vessel shall require repairs of any damage arising from risks insured against or assumed by the Charterer or for which the Charterer is otherwise liable, hire or payments on account as herein provided shall continue until completion by the Charterer of such repairs and of any work required of the Charterer by Clause 11, Part II, subject to the provisions of Clause 11D hereof.

CLAUSE 3C. On the first day of each calendar month, the hire or payments on account of just compensation provided for in this Amended Charter, and all other monies accruing during the preceding month in favor of the Owner, shall be due and payable.

CLAUSE 3D. The Charterer or its agents may advance currency or perform any services, or furnish any supplies or equipment, which are required by the Owner and are for the Owner's account under this Charter, and the Owner, upon being furnished evidence thereof, shall reimburse or secure the Charterer for the fair and reasonable dollar value of any currency so advanced, services so performed, or supplies and equipment so furnished, or at the Charterer's election the equivalent thereof may be deducted from the hire. It is understood that any such advances made or services performed or supplies and equipment furnished by the government of any country as aid to or for the account of the United States shall be deemed currency advanced, services performed, or supplies and equipment furnished by the Charterer.

CLAUSE 4. In the event that the Vessel is detained because of the happening of any event caused or contributed to by another vessel, person, corporation, or others, for which detention such third parties are or may be liable (the period of such detention to include the time necessary to proceed to, survey, and effect repairs unaccomplished upon the date of redelivery of the Vessel under this Charter), then for such period of detention the Charterer's obligation to the Owner for hire and for other sums otherwise accruing hereunder shall cease: Provided, however, That the Charterer shall indemnify and save the Owner harmless from any loss whatsoever by reason of the cessation of such obligations, and notwithstanding said cessation shall pay to the Owner a sum not less than the amount which would otherwise be payable to the Owner for such obligations in the same manner and to the same extent as if such cessation had not occurred, but on performance of this indemnity the Charterer shall immediately become subrogated, to the extent of such indemnity, to all rights whatsoever of the Owner to recover for such detention from or against such vessel, person, corporation, or others, and the Charterer shall be entitled to bring and maintain suit or suits thereon in its own name or in the name of the Owner as the Charterer may see fit: Provided, however, That on the written request of the Charterer, the Owner shall in each instance, assert and prosecute such claims in the name of the Owner, but for and on behalf of the Charterer and at the Charterer's expense, such claims to be in a sum not less than the amount of the indemnity paid by the Charterer.

CLAUSE 5A. Insofar as it is a factor in the Vessel's rate and valuation, deadweight capacity is to be established in accordance with normal Summer Freeboard as assigned pursuant to the International Load Line Convention, 1930, and shall be her capacity (in tons of 2,240 lbs.) for cargo, fuel, fresh water, spare parts and stores but exclusive of permanent ballast. Deadweight shall be calculated without deduction for weight lost by reason of cargo refrigeration installation heretofore made, if any, and weight added by installation of refrigerated cargo capacity (including offsetting permanent ballast required thereby), arming, degaussing, demagnetising, or the installation of splinter-protection equipment or because of ice-strengthening, or other extraordinary wartime installation or equipment, including permanent ballast, heretofore or hereafter made or required by the Charterer or any other agency of the United States.

CLAUSE 5B. In the event that the Vessel's deadweight or bale cubic refrigerated capacity, when finally determined as herein provided, shall not be in accord with the description contained in Part I hereof, the hire and valuation (if any) shall be equitably adjusted to be appropriate for the Vessel's deadweight and bale cubic refrigerated capacity. Certificates of deadweight or bale cubic refrigerated capacity, in satisfactory form, heretofore or hereafter furnished by the American Bureau of Shipping, shall be accepted as final proof of deadweight capacity and bale cubic refrigerated capacity.

CLAUSE 6. Except as otherwise provided in this Charter:

(a) The Owner shall provide and pay for
(1) Wages of Master and crew;
(2) Subsistence;
(3) Galley, cabin, deck and engine room stores, supplies and equipment (except all water and fuel, for any purpose);
(4) Maintenance and repair of Vessel and equipment to the extent required of the Owner under this Charter;
(5) Sales or other taxes based on the foregoing items; and
(6) Owner's overhead expenses.

(b) The Charterer shall provide and pay for all other charges and expenses whatsoever reasonably and properly incurred in the use, operation or employment of the Vessel hereunder.

For the purposes of this Charter:

(1) The term "wages" as used herein shall include all basic and emergency wages, bonuses for seniority or length of service, overtime and vacation allowances, life, health, retirement or other insurance benefits which are not required to be provided or paid for by the Charterer hereunder.

(2) The term "subsistence" shall include the cost, including delivery, loading and inspection charges thereon, of all edibles for consumption by Master and crew, and other persons covered by Clause 7C hereof, and shall also include board and room allowances to Master and crew in lieu of subsistence and lodging aboard the Vessel.

(3) The term "galley, cabin, deck and engine room stores, supplies and equipment" shall mean those items referred to under the headings of "(15)" and "(24) Stores, Supplies and Equipment", page 8, of the General Financial Statement of the U. S. Maritime Commission, approved by the Budget Bureau No. 62-RO, 10-42.

(4) The term "maintenance and repair of Vessel and equipment" shall mean the items referred to under the headings "(25) Other Maintenance Expense" and "(40)" and "(49) Repairs", page 8 of said General Financial Statement.

(5) The term "overhead expense" shall include administrative and general expenses as presently itemized in General Order No. 22 of the U. S. Maritime Commission, Owner's advertising expenses, Owner's taxes (except sales and similar taxes, taxes assessed or based upon freights earned, and other taxes of any kind determined by the Charterer to be properly classifiable as voyage expenses), and the cost of employing agents or branch houses to perform any of the services required of the Owner under this Charter.

CLAUSE 7A. The Charterer shall reimburse the Owner for actual out-of-pocket expenses, including all taxes paid by the Owner with respect to such expenses, for:

(1) All war bonuses (war risk compensation) paid to the Master and crew (which term as used in this Clause 7 shall refer to the actual crew on board, even though in excess of the normal complement) in the manner and to the extent provided for in applicable decisions or advices of the Maritime War Emergency Board, as amended or modified from time to time, or in judicial decisions relating hereto.

(2) All extra compensation, including overtime, paid to the crew for services performed by the crew (a) in connection with cargo, at sea or in port, (b) in connection with shifting of Vessel in port for Charterer's purposes, or (c) preparatory to loading or discharging or sailing in convoy. If the Vessel operates in the Alaska trade, the Charterer shall also pay the extra crew costs exceeding costs that would have been incurred in similar operations in other ocean-going trades.

(3) All wages, and overtime paid to any extra crew members beyond the normal complement of the Vessel, or to other persons carried, who are required to be employed by the Owner because of (a) the Vessel's service under this Charter, (b) the loading or discharging of cargo, or (c) to care for any persons covered by Clause 7 C hereof. Extra wages or overtime paid to the normal complement of the Vessel in lieu of employing extra crew members or persons for the purposes above set forth shall also be reimbursed to Owner. The term "normal complement" as used in this Charter shall refer to the normal peacetime complement for off shore foreign trading for the average vessel of the same size, type and description as the Vessel chartered hereunder, as determined by the Administrator.

(4) All wages and overtime paid to security watchmen provided in compliance with any security requirements of any United States or other Government agency, and all overtime or additional wages paid to the crew by reason of compliance with such requirements.

(5) All extra clothing or effects for the Master and crew necessitated by the Vessel's service under this charter (Charterer to have title to such extra clothing and effects).

CLAUSE 7B. The Charterer shall, to the extent the Owner is not reimbursed under the provisions of Schedule A attached hereto, reimburse the Owner for out-of-pocket expenses or disbursements made on behalf of the Master or crew, or payments made to the Master or crew, for repatriation transportation (including return to port of shipment), and for wages and subsistence while awaiting and during such transportation, where such expenses, disbursements, or payments are assumed by the terms of the Ship's Articles, the Owner's collective bargaining agreements or found by the Owner to be reasonably necessary or desirable. The Owner shall also be reimbursed for the cost reasonably incurred in furnishing men to replace members of the crew whose employment has terminated at ports in Alaska or outside the continental United States where suitable replacements are not readily available.

CLAUSE 7C. The Charterer shall pay the Owner at the rate of $1.50 per day per person (not in excess of fifty (50) persons) for providing subsistence aboard the Vessel for any person carried at the request of the Charterer or any agency of the United States or the military authorities of any Allied Government, or any extra crew members beyond the Vessel's normal complement required because of the Vessel's service under this Charter, and $1.50 per day per person for providing subsistence aboard the Vessel for any extra complement thereby required. If a total of more than 50 extra persons referred to in this Clause 7C are carried on the Vessel at any one time, the Owner shall be reimbursed for his actual costs for subsistence of the number in excess of 50, unless subsistence rates or schedules applicable to such excess number have been agreed upon between the Owner and the Charterer, in which event such rates or schedules shall govern. The term "subsistence" as used in this subsection shall include victualling, supplying with linens, bedding, laundry, and similar services, but the Owner shall not be obliged to furnish linens and bedding for such extra persons in excess of 50, unless otherwise agreed.

CLAUSE 8A. The Charterer may disallow in whole or in part, as may be appropriate, and deny reimbursement for any expenses for which it is required to reimburse the Owner which are in contravention of the terms of this Charter, or are otherwise improvident or excessive.

CLAUSE 8B. The Charterer shall reimburse the Owner for any additional extraordinary costs incurred which the Charterer, in its discretion, may allow upon finding that such costs are not intended to be covered in the allowance for services hereunder. In the event the Vessel is assigned by the Charterer for service between foreign ports, the Charterer shall make such adjustment, if any, as it deems appropriate to allow for increased cost of operation.

CLAUSE 8C. In the event the Vessel is physically incapable of working for a period in excess of twenty (20) days while in a Continental United States port (excluding Alaska) or for a period of thirty (30) days while in Alaska or outside the Continental United States, the charter hire otherwise payable hereunder shall be reduced for the excess period by an amount equal to twenty (20) per cent of the service rate, plus eighty (80) per cent of the actual savings in wages for Master and crew during the entire period of lay-up. The Owner shall furnish reports of wage savings as soon as practicable after the termination of each month of such lay-up.

CLAUSE 9. The Charterer shall provide necessary dunnage and shifting boards, also any extra fittings and materials requisite for a special trade or for the carriage of livestock or other unusual cargo, but the Owner shall allow the Charterer the use of any dunnage and shifting boards and fittings and materials already aboard the Vessel. The Charterer shall have the privilege of using shifting boards for dunnage. Upon redelivery of the Vessel, the Charterer shall make good any damage to or shortage of shifting boards, fittings or materials which are on board at delivery.

CLAUSE 10. The Charterer shall pay for all fuel on board upon delivery, and the Owner shall pay for all fuel on board on redelivery not in excess of Owner's normal requirements, at market prices current at the ports and times of delivery and redelivery, respectively.

CLAUSE 11A. The Charterer or any agency of the United States may, at the expense of the Charterer or such agency and on the Charterer's time, install any equipment, gear or armament, and may make any alterations or additions to the Vessel. Such equipment, gear or armament so installed are to be considered Charterer's property and are to be maintained at Charterer's expense. Such work shall be done so as not to affect the seaworthiness of the Vessel or the safety of the crew, and as not to be in contravention of any applicable law of the United States or regulation made pursuant thereto. The Charterer shall, before redelivery and at its expense and on its time, remove any equipment, gear and armament installed by or at the request of the Charterer or any agency of the United States and restore the Vessel to her condition prior to any such installations, alterations, additions or changes, whether such installations, alterations, additions or changes were made under this Charter or prior to delivery under this Charter, except as may be otherwise provided herein.

CLAUSE 11B. Commencing with the time this Amended Charter becomes effective, the Charterer shall pay the full actual cost of providing and maintaining all equipment and installations on the Vessel, beyond normal peace-time standards, then or thereafter set forth in sub-chapter O of Chapter I of the Regulations of the United States Coast Guard (Title 46, U.S.C.R.), or by other wartime regulations of any agency of the United States, except that if and so long as the Vessel remains under time charter, the Owner shall provide and pay for renewals, replacements and repairs to lifeboat equipment and for minor repairs to lifeboats not belonging to the Owner, unless any such renewals, replacements or repairs are caused by subsequent increases and changes in wartime Governmental requirements. Provided, however, That if the Owner has not entered into a form of addendum to the original time charter covering this Vessel designated as "Uniform Addendum to Time Charter Covering Adjustments of Certain Disputed Questions" and has not entered into a special agreement as and if contemplated in Paragraph Fourth of said addendum, then the obligations of the Charterer under this Clause 11B shall be limited to items hereafter required and shall not cover items heretofore required as aforesaid. All such equipment and installations installed in or relating to lifeboats belonging to the Owner shall be the property of the Owner and all other equipment or installations shall belong to the Charterer and shall be considered as equipment installed or as alterations or additions made by the Charterer pursuant to Clause 11A of the Charter.

The payments provided for in this paragraph shall be made in the same manner and shall not exceed in amount those payable to like American-flag vessels operating under similar Warshiptime (Rev.) or Warshipoiltime (Rev.) charters containing a clause substantially the same as the foregoing provisions of this paragraph.

CLAUSE 11C. Any equipment, furniture, furnishings or appliances belonging to the Vessel and not required by the Charterer may be removed by the Charterer, at the Charterer's expense, and upon termination of the Charter, unless the Vessel has been lost or requisitioned for title, any such removals are to be replaced on board the Vessel or made good by the Charterer at its expense. Storage charges arising from such removal shall be paid for by the Charterer.

CLAUSE 11D. If, at the time of redelivery under this Charter, the Vessel shall require any work or repairs of any damage arising from risks insured against or assumed by the Charterer, or for which the Charterer is otherwise liable under this Clause, Clause 11A or any other Clause hereunder, the Charterer may, at its option, discharge such obligations by payment to the Owner in advance of an amount for reconditioning sufficient to provide for such work or repairs, which amount shall also include compensation at the rate of hire that would otherwise have been payable under this Charter, for the time reasonably required under then existing conditions to complete such work or repairs and compensation for other expenses incident to such work or repairs. If the Owner and Charterer agree such obligations may be discharged by a mutually satisfactory agreement.

CLAUSE 12. The Owner agrees at its expense to drydock the Vessel for the purpose of cleaning and painting her bottom, when necessary and not less than once in every nine months unless the Charterer otherwise agrees, and, when drydocking is due, the Charterer agrees to send the Vessel to a port where she can so drydock, clean and paint. All towage, pilotage, and other expenses incidental to such drydocking and all port charges incurred in connection therewith, shall be for the Owner's account regardless of whether Charterer's repairs are concurrently made.

CLAUSE 13. The Charterer shall furnish the Master from time to time with all requisite instructions and sailing directions, in writing, and the Master, to the extent permitted by governmental orders or directions, shall keep a full and correct log of the voyage or voyages, which shall be patent to the Charterer or its agents, and furnish the Charterer or its agents, when required and to the extent permitted by governmental orders or directions, with a true copy of port and daily logs, showing the course of the Vessel, the distance run and the consumption of fuel.

CLAUSE 14. Subject always to the directions of the Charterer the Master shall prosecute his voyages with the utmost dispatch and shall render all customary assistance with ship's crew and boats; and shall use due diligence in caring for and ventilating the cargo. The Master (although employed by the Owner) shall be under the orders and directions of the Charterer as regards employment, agency and prosecution of the voyages; and the Charterer shall load, stow, trim and discharge the cargo at its expense under the supervision of the Master, who, if requested, is to sign bills of lading for cargo as presented, in conformity with Mate's or Tally Clerk's receipts. Bills of lading are to be signed in the form and at any rate of freight that Charterer or its agents may direct, without prejudice to this Charter. The Charterer hereby agrees to indemnify the Owner against all consequences or liabilities that may arise from the Charterer or its agents (including the Master) signing bills of lading or other documents inconsistent with this Charter, or from any irregularities in papers supplied by the Charterer or its agents.

CLAUSE 15. Cargo may be laden or discharged in any dock or at any wharf or place that the Charterer or its agents may direct, provided that the Vessel can safely lie afloat at any time of tide.

CLAUSE 16. The Owner shall provide and maintain gear for all derricks and shall maintain the gear of the ship as fitted, and shall also provide ropes, falls and blocks customary in normal commercial operation. The Owner shall also provide on the Vessel lanterns and oil for night work, and give the use of electric lights when the Vessel is so fitted. The Charterer shall have the use of any gear on board the Vessel, including slings.

CLAUSE 17. The Vessel shall work night and day, if required by the Charterer, and all winches are to be at the Charterer's disposal during loading and discharging. Shore winchmen, when available and where required, shall be provided and paid by the Charterer.

CLAUSE 18. All bills of lading issued hereunder shall contain, directly or by reference, substantially the following clauses:

(i) Clause paramount. "This bill of lading shall have effect subject to the provisions of the Carriage of Goods by Sea Act of United States, approved April 16, 1936, which shall be deemed to be incorporated herein, and nothing herein contained shall be deemed a surrender by the Carrier of any of its rights or immunities or an increase of any of its responsibilities or liabilities under said Act. If any term of this bill of lading be repugnant to said Act to any extent, such term shall be void to that extent but no further."

(ii) Both-to-blame collision clause. "If the ship comes into collision with another ship as a result of the negligence of the other ship and any act, neglect or default of the master, mariner, pilot or the servants of the carrier in the navigation or in the management of the ship, the owners of the goods carried hereunder will indemnify the carrier against all loss or liability to the other or noncarrying ship or her owners in so far as such loss or liability represents loss of, or damage to, or any claim whatsoever of the owners of said goods, paid or payable by the other or noncarrying ship or her owners to the owners of said goods and set-off, recouped or recovered by the other or noncarrying ship or her owners as part of their claim against the carrying ship or carrier. The foregoing provisions shall also apply where the owners, operators or those in charge of any ship or ships or objects other than, or in addition to, the colliding ships or objects are at fault in respect of a collision or contact."

(iii) General average clause. "General average shall be adjusted, stated, and settled, according to Rules 1 to 15, inclusive, 17 to 22, inclusive, and Rule F of York-Antwerp Rules 1924, at such port or place in the United States as may be selected by the carrier, and as to matters not provided for by these Rules, according to the laws and usages at the port of New York. In such adjustment, disbursements in foreign currencies shall be exchanged into United States money at the rate prevailing on the dates made and allowances for damage to cargo claimed in foreign currency shall be converted at the rate prevailing on the last day of discharge at the port or place of final discharge of such damaged cargo from the ship. Average agreement or bond and such additional security, as may be required by the carrier, must be furnished before delivery of the goods. Such cash deposit as the carrier or his agents may deem sufficient as additional security for the contribution of the goods and for any salvage and special charges thereon, shall, if required, be made by the goods, shippers, consignees, or owners of the goods to the carrier before delivery. Such deposit shall, at the option of the carrier, be payable in United States money, and be remitted to the adjuster. When so remitted the deposit shall be held in a special account at the place of adjustment in the name of the adjuster pending settlement of the general average and refunds or credit balances, if any, shall be paid in United States money."

(iv) Amended "Jason" clause. "In the event of accident, danger, damage, or disaster before or after commencement of the voyage resulting from any cause whatsoever, whether due to negligence or not, for which or for the consequence of which the carrier is not responsible by statute, contract, or otherwise, the goods, shippers, consignees, or owners of the goods shall contribute with the carrier in general average to the payment of any sacrifices, losses or expenses of a general average nature that may be made or incurred, and shall pay salvage and special charges incurred in respect of the goods. If a salving ship is owned or operated by the carrier, salvage shall be paid for as fully as if the salving ship or ships belong to strangers."

(v) Liberties clauses. "In any situation whatsoever and wheresoever occurring and whether existing or anticipated before commencement of or during the voyage, which in the judgment of the carrier or master is likely to give rise to risk of capture, seizure, detention, damages, delay or disadvantage to or loss of the ship or any part of her cargo, or to make it unsafe, imprudent, or unlawful for any reason to commence or proceed on or continue the voyage or to enter or discharge the goods at the port of discharge, or to give rise to delay or difficulty in arriving, discharging at or leaving the port of discharge or the usual place of discharge in such port, the carrier may before loading or before the commencement of the voyage require the shipper or other person entitled thereto to take delivery of the goods at port of shipment and upon their failure to do so, may warehouse the goods at the risk and expense of the goods; or the carrier or master, whether or not proceeding toward or entering or attempting to enter the port of discharge or reaching or attempting to reach the usual place of discharge therein or attempting to discharge the goods there, may discharge the goods into depot, lazaretto, craft or other place; or the ship may proceed or return, directly or indirectly, to or stop at any such port or place whatsoever as the master or the carrier may consider safe or advisable under the circumstances, and discharge the goods, or any part thereof, at any such port or place; or the carrier or the master may retain the cargo on board until the return trip or until such time as the carrier or the master thinks advisable and discharge the goods at any place whatsoever as herein provided; or the carrier or the master may discharge and forward the goods by any means at the risk and expense of the goods. The carrier or the master is not required to give notice of discharge of the goods or the forwarding thereof as herein provided. When the goods are discharged from the ship, as herein provided, they shall be at their own risk and expense; such discharge shall constitute complete delivery and performance under this contract and the carrier shall be freed from any further responsibility. For any service rendered to the goods as herein provided the carrier shall be entitled to a reasonable extra compensation.

"The carrier, master and ship shall have liberty to comply with any orders or directions as to loading, departure, arrival, routes, ports of call, stoppages, discharge, destination, delivery or otherwise howsoever given by the government of any nation or department thereof or any person acting or purporting to act with the authority of such government or of any department thereof, or by any committee or person having, under the terms of the war risk insurance on the ship, the right to give such orders or directions. Delivery or other disposition of the goods in accordance with such orders or directions shall be a fulfillment of the contract voyage. The ship may carry contraband, explosives, munitions, warlike stores, hazardous cargo, and may sail armed or unarmed and with or without convoy.

"In addition to all other liberties herein the carrier shall have the right to withhold delivery of, reship to, deposit or discharge the goods at any place whatsoever, surrender or dispose of the goods in accordance with any direction, condition or agreement imposed upon or exacted from the carrier by any government or department thereof or any person purporting to act with the authority of either of them. In any of the above circumstances the goods shall be solely at their risk and expense and all expenses and charges so incurred shall be payable by the owner or consignee thereof and shall be a lien on the goods."

This Charter shall also be subject to the provisions of (ii), (iii) and (iv) of this Clause 18.

CLAUSE 19. The Vessel, her Master and Owner shall not, unless otherwise in this Charter expressly provided, be responsible for any loss or damage or delay or failure in performing under this Charter, arising or resulting from: Any act, neglect, default or barratry of the Master, pilots, mariners or other servants of the Owner, in the navigation or management of the Vessel; fire, unless caused by the personal design or neglect of the Owner; collision, stranding, or peril, danger or accident of the sea or other navigable waters, saving or attempting to save life or property; wastage in weight or bulk, or any other loss or damage arising from inherent defect, quality or vice of the cargo; any act or omission of the Charterer, the Owner, shipper or consignee of the cargo, their agents or representatives; insufficiency of packing; insufficiency or inadequacy of marks; explosions, bursting of boilers, breakage of shafts, or any latent defects in hull, equipment or machinery; unseaworthiness of the Vessel unless caused by want of due diligence on the part of the Owner to make the Vessel seaworthy or to have her properly manned, equipped and supplied; or from any other cause of whatsoever kind arising without the actual fault or privity of the Owner. And neither the Vessel, her Master or Owner, nor the Charterer shall, unless otherwise in this Charter expressly provided, be responsible for any loss or damage or delay or failure in performing under this Charter arising or resulting from: Act of God; act of war; act of public enemies, pirates, or assailing thieves; arrest or restraint of princes, rulers or people, or seizure under legal process; strike or lockout or stoppage or restraint of labor from whatever cause, either partial or general; or riot or civil commotion. The Vessel shall have liberty to sail with or without pilots, to tow or to be towed, to go to the assistance of vessels in distress and to deviate for the purpose of saving life or property or of landing any ill or injured person on board. No exemption afforded to the Charterer under this Clause shall diminish its obligations or hire under the other provisions of this Charter.

CLAUSE 20. The Insurance, Indemnity and Waiver program set forth in Schedule A annexed is hereby incorporated by reference in and made part of this Charter as though fully set forth in this Clause.

CLAUSE 21. All salvage moneys earned by the Vessel shall be divided equally between the Owner and the Charterer, after deducting the Master and crew's shares, legal expenses, hire of the Vessel during time lost, value of fuel consumed, repairs of damage, if any, and any other extraordinary loss or expense sustained as a result of the service, which shall always be a first charge on such moneys; Provided, however, That to the extent necessary to effectuate the purposes of the Insurance, Indemnity and Waiver program (Schedule A), claims for salvage on behalf of the Owner shall be made solely at the discretion of the Charterer.

CLAUSE 22. If the Charterer shall notify the Owner that the employment or the continued employment of the Master or any member of the crew or any agent of the Owner is prejudicial to the interests of the United States in the prosecution of the war, the Owner shall make any changes necessary in the appointment.

If the Charterer shall have reason to be dissatisfied with the conduct of any member of the crew, the Owner shall, on receiving particulars of the complaint, investigate and make any changes practicable in the appointments or practices aboard the Vessel with respect to the maintenance of proper discipline, necessary to eliminate the reasons for such dissatisfaction by the Charterer.

CLAUSE 23. Any provisions of this Charter to the contrary notwithstanding, the Owner shall have the benefit of all limitations of, and exemptions from, liability accorded to the Owner of vessels by any statute or rule of law for the time being in force. Nothing herein shall be deemed to affect the Charterer's right of limitation or exemption from liability accorded under the provisions of Section 4 of Public Law 17, 78th Congress.

CLAUSE 24. Nothing herein stated is to be construed as a demise of the Vessel to the Charterer.

CLAUSE 25. Liability for nonperformance of this Charter shall be proved damages.

CLAUSE 26. The Charterer shall have the option of subletting or assigning this Charter, but the Charterer shall always remain responsible for the due fulfillment of this Charter in all its terms and conditions.

CLAUSE 27. The Charterer shall have a lien on the Vessel for all moneys paid in advance and not earned.

CLAUSE 28. The Master and the Vessel shall have liberty to comply with any orders or directions as to loading, departure, arrival, routes, ports of call, stoppages, discharge, destination, delivery or otherwise howsoever given by the government of any nation or department thereof or any person acting or purporting to act with the authority of such government or of any department thereof, and if by reason of or in compliance with any such orders or directions anything is done or is not done, such shall not be deemed a deviation or breach of orders or neglect of duty by the Master or the Vessel. Provided, however, That whenever any such orders or directions given otherwise than by the Government of the United States or its representative are contrary to sailing directions or other orders of the Charterer as to the employment of the Vessel, the Master shall, if practicable, apply to the Charterer or its agents or to a representative of the United States for consent or advice and shall not comply with such orders or directions unless such consent or advice to comply is first obtained. Provided further, however, That if it is impracticable in any case to act in accordance with the foregoing proviso, the Master's decision as to compliance with any such orders or directions shall be made with due regard to the interests of all concerned, including the Charterer, the Owner, and the Vessel, her crew and cargo.

CLAUSE 29. If after redelivery the Vessel is arrested or attached upon any cause of action arising or alleged to have arisen from previous possessions or operation of the Vessel by the Charterer, or any subcharterer, or for which the Charterer is liable, the Charterer undertakes to use its best efforts to cause the release of the Vessel under the Suits in Admiralty Act or any other special remedy available to the Charterer, subject to the approval of the Attorney General of the United States.

CLAUSE 30. The Charterer (except as to matters affecting only the stability of the Vessel) shall be exclusively responsible for proper loading, stowage and discharge of goods of an inflammable, explosive or dangerous nature, and shall comply with all applicable regulations and furnish any necessary fittings.

CLAUSE 31. The Charterer shall reimburse the Owner for all expenses for wages, bonuses and subsistence of the Master and crew and other out-of-pocket costs, incurred by the Owner subsequent to the date of and arising from an actual or constructive total loss of the Vessel to the extent not recovered or reimbursed under any insurance on the Vessel or under this Charter or otherwise. If the extent of the damage or injury is not sufficient to entitle the Owner to collect for an actual or constructive total loss under the provisions of any insurance on the Vessel in the absence of a declaration by the Charterer, then in addition to reimbursement of expenses as aforesaid, the Owner shall be entitled: (a) to charter hire at the rate of 3½ per cent per annum on the then current valuation of the Vessel under valuation Option II, commencing with the date when charter hire would otherwise terminate and ending four months thereafter or on the date of such declaration, whichever date is earlier; and (b) if the Vessel is declared a constructive total loss more than four months after the date charter hire would otherwise terminate, then to charter hire in an amount equal to the use rate payable under Part I from the end of such four months until the date of such declaration.

CLAUSE 32. The Administrator (Charterer), acting pursuant to delegation of authority by the War Contracts Price Adjustment Board to the Administrator by instrument dated February 26, 1944, having found that this Agreement is in the nature of a lease contract and that the profits of the use rate and agreed valuation (if any) hereunder can now be determined with reasonable certainty, that such use rate and agreed valuation (if any) are not in excess of just compensation to which the Owner is or may be entitled, and that the provisions of this Charter with respect thereto adequately prevent excessive profits, the said use rate and agreed valuation (if any) are hereby exempted from the provisions of the Renegotiation Act, pursuant to subsection (i) (4) of the said act. Nothing in this Clause 32 shall be construed as an admission by the Owners that the items exempted from renegotiation as aforesaid would be subject to the Renegotiation Act in the absence of the foregoing provisions. The service rate under this Charter shall be subject to renegotiation in accordance with the provisions of said act, and with respect thereto this Charter shall be deemed to contain all the provisions required by subsection (b) of said act, with the expressed understanding and agreement that the aggregate of the amount received or accrued to the Owner on account of the service rate under this and all other warshiptime or warshipoiltime Charters containing similar renegotiation provisions shall be treated as a unit for the purpose of such renegotiation. There shall be inserted in each subcontract, subject to the Renegotiation Act and involving an estimated amount of more than $100,000, a clause reciting in substance that such subcontract shall be deemed to contain all the provisions required by the Renegotiation Act. This Clause 32 shall be applicable only from the effective date of this Amended Charter. Nothing in this Clause 32 shall be construed as an admission or agreement by the Owner as to the applicability of the Renegotiation Act to this Charter for the period prior to the effective date of this Amended Charter or to any charter hire or other sums accruing prior to the effective date of this Amended Charter, provided, however, that all rights, if any, which the Administrator may have to renegotiate any charter hire or other sums accruing prior to the effective date of this Amended Charter are hereby reserved by the Administrator.

CLAUSE 33A. No member of or delegate to Congress or Resident Commissioner is or shall be admitted to any share or part of this Charter or to any benefit that may arise therefrom, except to the extent allowed by Title 18 U. S. Code, section 206. The Owner agrees not to employ any member of or delegate to Congress or Resident Commissioner, either with or without compensation, as an attorney, agent, officer or director.

CLAUSE 33B. The Owner shall not employ any person who advocates, or who is a member of an organization that advocates, the overthrow of the government of the United States by force or violence, to perform any work under this Charter. As a condition to the employment of any person for the performance of such work, the Owner shall, if the Charterer so directs, require each person to execute and file an affidavit in such form as to satisfy the requirements of Public Law No. 678, 77th Congress, or Public Law No. 23, 77th Congress, but the execution and filing of such affidavit shall be without prejudice to the right of the Charterer to require such further evidence in the premises as may be in the possession of the Owner as the Charterer may deem desirable.

CLAUSE 33C. The Owner agrees that in performing the work required of it by this Charter, it will not discriminate against any worker because of race, creed, color, or national origin.

CLAUSE 33D. The Owner shall not employ any person undergoing sentence of imprisonment at hard labor.

CLAUSE 33E. The Owner warrants that it has not employed any person to solicit or secure this Charter upon any agreement for a commission, percentage, brokerage, or contingent fee. Breach of this warranty shall give the Charterer the right to annul this Charter or, in its discretion, to deduct from any sums payable under this Charter the amount of such commission, percentage, brokerage, or contingent fee. This warranty shall not apply to commissions payable by the Owner upon agreements or sales secured or made through bona fide established commercial or selling agencies maintained by the Owner for the purpose of securing business.

CLAUSE 34. Failure of the Master or Owner to protest against any act or omission of the Charterer, or any other agency of the United States, including any act, omission or order which in the opinion of the Master may affect the Vessel's seaworthiness or may be in contravention of the laws or regulations of the United States shall not prejudice the rights of the Owner under this Charter.

CLAUSE 35. Unless otherwise provided in this Charter or mutually agreed upon, all payments, notices and communications from the Charterer to the Owner, pursuant to the terms of or in connection with this Charter, shall be made or addressed to the Owner at the address provided in Part I, and all payments, notices and communications from the Owner to the Charterer, pursuant to the terms of or in connection with this Charter, shall be made or addressed to the Charterer at its offices in Washington, District of Columbia.

CLAUSE 36A. In the event that this form of time charter is modified by the Charterer at any time prior to July 1, 1944, the Owner shall, at its option, have the benefit of any such modifications, subject to the assumption by the Owner, at the request of the Charterer, of any obligations imposed in connection with such modifications. Said option shall be exercised within such reasonable time as the Charterer may prescribe, and, upon such exercise, the modifications shall become effective as of the date of this Charter. In the event of non-exercise by the Owner of said option, this Charter shall remain in full force and effect in accordance with its original terms.

CLAUSE 36B. This Charter may be amended, modified or terminated at any time by mutual agreement between the parties hereto.

CLAUSE 37. This Charter consists of this Part II and of Part I which incorporates this Part II therein by reference. In the event of conflict between the provisions of this Part II and those of Part I, the provisions of Part I shall govern to the extent of such conflict.

SCHEDULE A (FORFLAG)—INSURANCE INDEMNITY AND WAIVER PROGRAM

I. INSURANCE

(A) Unless otherwise mutually arranged, at all times during the currency of this Charter the Charterer shall provide and pay for or assume as insurer:

(1) Insurance on the Vessel under the terms and conditions of the full form of standard hull war risk policy of the War Shipping Administration (designated as Warshipreq (FOR.), a copy of which is attached hereto), in the amount of the agreed value under this Charter, and covering only war risks (including malicious damage, sabotage, strikes, riots, and civil commotion.)

It is especially agreed, however:

(a) That the Owner, at its own expense except as provided in subparagraph (b) below will insure the Vessel with the American Marine Hull Insurance Syndicate in an amount to be determined by the Owner, and under the conditions of AMERICAN HULL FORM REVISED (Requisitioned Vessels 1943) which Insurance shall include the interest of War Shipping Administration as Charterer.

(b) That the Charterer will reimburse the Owner for premiums paid on insurance taken out by the Owner with the American Marine Hull Insurance Syndicate pursuant to subparagraph (a) above. Provided, however, Such reimbursement shall not exceed the amount of premiums payable on the value set forth in the Charter on the attachment of said insurance and at the time any further annual premium is due and payable. In consideration of such reimbursement, any recapture of profits from said Syndicate shall accrue to the sole benefit of the Charterer, and any return of premiums under the insurance procured by the Owner shall, to the extent that they represent premiums originally reimbursed by the Charterer, be repayable to the Charterer.

(c) That the Owner (at its option and expense) may procure excess insurance, including liability insurance (without benefit of salvage, subrogation or right of contribution) above the limits of the insurance so procured, but such insurance shall not be on terms inconsistent with the provisons of this Charter or with the provisions of the insurance provided for above.

(d) That the insurance procured by the Owner pursuant to subparagraph (a) hereof as well as any additional insurance procured by the Owner pursuant to subparagraph (c) hereof, and any amount of self-insurance carried by the Owner in excess of the limits of the insurance procured pursuant to subparagraph (a) hereof, shall be subject to the provisions of Clause II of this Schedule A. In consideration of the foregoing, the Charterer hereby insures the Owner against any claim by the United States for damage to property or vessels of the United States or for loss of freight, demurrage or other claims covered by the collision clause in the AMERICAN HULL FORM REVISED (Requisitioned Vessels 1943) policy, arising out of collision with the Vessel.

(e) That in the event of cancellation or termination of the insurance referred to in subparagraph (a) above (except for non-payment of premium), or upon thirty (30) days' written notice from Charterer to the Owner, the Vessel shall thereafter be insured for marine risks by the Charterer under the terms and conditions of the full form of standard hull policy of the War Shipping Administration (designated as Warshipreq (For.) for the amount of the agreed value under this Charter.

(f) The Charterer hereby insures the Owner for payments of (a) sue and labor charges, (b) general average and salvage, and (c) collision liabilities, not recoverable under the insurance on the Vessel taken out by the Owner with the American Marine Hull Insurance Syndicate pursuant to sub-paragraph (a) above solely by reason of the insured valuation of said policies being insufficient to provide complete indemnity to the vessel Owner in respect of the liabilities specifically referred to in this sub-paragraph (f), and not recoverable under insurance arranged pursuant to sub-paragraph (c) above. Provided, however, That the liability of the Charterer under this subparagraph (f), in respect of any one such class of liabilities, shall be limited for any one collision, casualty or occurrence to the amount, if any, by which the market value of the Vessel in sound condition at the date of such collision, casualty or occurrence, plus the Vessel's then pending freight, exceeds the insured value of the Vessel for total loss purposes under the insurance taken out by the Owner pursuant to subparagraph (a) above; it being understood that the amount of the Charterer's liability hereunder, if any, shall be applicable separately to each of the foregoing three classes of liabilities, with the full amount open for each.

(g) Without limiting the liability of the Charterer as insurer under this Charter, all repairs to the Vessel coming within the terms of the insurance assumed by the Charterer or procured by the Owner pursuant to this Schedule A shall be subject to the approval of the Charterer as to the extent, time and place of repairs. All repairs shall be carried out under the supervision of the Owner.

(h) In the event the Vessel is covered by a mortgage or lien held by any department or instrumentality of the United States, then any sum or sums payable by virtue of the provisions of this Clause I of Schedule A shall be payable for distribution to such department or instrumentality and/or the persons entitled thereto as their interests may appear.

(2) All insurance which the Owner may be obligated to provide, covering the crew with respect to loss of life, disability (including dismemberment and loss of function), detention, repatriation and similar situations, and loss of or damage to personal effects. Unless otherwise directed by the Charterer, the owner shall agree with the crew to provide the war risk insurance covering such items afforded by the Decisions of the Maritime War Emergency Board (as amended or modified from time to time) and the marine risk insurance covering such items afforded by the Second Seamen's War Risk Policy (published in the FEDERAL REGISTER of March 20, 1943, as Decision 1A of the Maritime War Emergency Board), as amended from time to time, and such Decisions and Policy shall be the measure and limit of the Charterer's liability under this Clause. The Owner shall give effect to the foregoing by inserting the following language, or such other language as the Charterer may from time to time direct, in the form of a rider or otherwise, in the Ship's Articles or other contract of employment on all voyages of the Vessel under this Charter:

"It is agreed that the Master, Officers, and Members of the Crew shall be furnished the war risk insurance protection covering loss of life, disability (including dismemberment and loss of function), detention, repatriation and similar situations and loss of or damage to personal effects, required by the Decisions of the Maritime War Emergency Board, as amended or modified from time to time, and the marine risk insurance afforded by the Second Seamen's War Risk Policy, as amended from time to time."

(3) War risk protection and indemnity insurance under the terms and conditions of the standard WAR RISK PROTECTION AND INDEMNITY policy prescribed by the War Shipping Administration, a copy of which is attached hereto, for the benefit of the Owner and the Charterer, as their interests may appear.

It is specially agreed, however,

(a) That the Owner, unless otherwise agreed, shall procure marine protection and indemnity insurance under the terms and conditions of the WARTIMEPANDI Policy (Requisitioned Vessels 1943) from an American Protection and Indemnity Underwriter approved by the Charterer which issues said form of policy, which insurance shall include the interests of the Charterer and its Time Charter Agents under Service Agreements, Berth Agents and Sub-Agents acting on their behalf. The Charterer shall reimburse the Owner for all premiums paid on such insurance in consideration of which any readjustment of premiums and any return premium shall be for account of the Charterer.

(b) That to the extent that cargo claims are recoverable under said insurance or are reimbursable to the Owner under the terms of this Charter, the Charterer, and its duly authorized Agents are authorized by the Owner to attend to the adjustment and settlement of or otherwise dispose of cargo claims in such manner (not inconsistent with the terms of said Protection and Indemnity Insurance) as may be determined by the Charterer.

(c) That in the event of cancellation (except for non-payment of premium) of the insurance referred to in subparagraph (a) above by the Protection and Indemnity Underwriters, or upon thirty days' written notice from the Charterer to the Owner of its intention to terminate such insurance, the Charterer will then provide and pay for or assume as insurer, identical marine protection and indemnity insurance for the benefit of the Owner and the Charterer and the Charterer's Agents as their interests may appear.

(d) That the Charterer assumes as insurer any liability of the Owner or the Charterer on account of loss, damage or expense in respect of lend-lease cargo or cargo owned by the United States or any agency or department thereof, including but not limited to the War Department, Navy Department, Metals Reserve Company, Rubber Reserve Company, Defense Supplies Corporation, Reconstruction Finance Corporation or Foreign Economic Administration, which would be recoverable under the WARTIMEPANDI Policy (Requisitioned Vessels, 1943) in the absence of the specific exclusion relating thereto, therein.

(e) That the Charterer hereby insures the Owner for excess protection and indemnity liabilities on said Vessel on terms and conditions identical to that provided by WARTIMEPANDI Policy (Requisitioned Vessels 1943) to the extent that said WARTIMEPANDI Policy (by reason of the insured amounts in said policy) does not provide the Owner with complete protection and indemnity: Provided, however, That the liability of the Charterer under this subparagraph (e) in respect of any one accident or occurrence shall be limited to the amount, if any, by which the market value of the vessel in sound condition at the date of such accident or occurrence plus the vessel's then pending freight exceeds the insured amounts in said WARTIMEPANDI Policy.

(f) That the Owner (at its option and expense) may procure additional insurance in excess of the limits of the insurance procured or provided pursuant to subparagraphs (a) and (e) hereof, but such insurance shall not be on terms inconsistent with the provisions of this Charter.

(g) That the Charterer shall reimburse the Owner for all claims paid by the Owner and not recoverable pursuant to the provisions of the standard WAR RISK PROTECTION AND INDEMNITY Policy, and WARTIMEPANDI Policy (Requisitioned Vessels 1943) referred to above, solely by reason of deductible average, franchise or other similar deductions appearing in such policies.

(h) That the Charterer hereby insures the Owner for marine and war risk insurance against all carrier's liabilities with respect to cargo to be carried, carried, or which has been carried on Board the Vessel directly incurred in consequence of the operation of the Vessel and not covered by the standard protection and indemnity insurance provided or procured pursuant to this paragraph (3), including, but not limited to, liability for deviation or over-carriage, liability for drydocking with cargo on board the Vessel, liability under ad valorem Bills of Lading, and liability for carrying on deck, cargo covered by under deck Bills of Lading.

(4) Marine and war risk insurance covering the Owner's actual less (or in the case of slop chests, the actual loss of the owner thereof) as determined by the Charterer, for (i) slop chests, (ii) cash carried on board the Vessel but not in excess of $5,000 unless otherwise agreed, and (iii) consumable stores. "Consumable Stores" within the meaning of this paragraph (4) shall mean all consumable and subsistence stores (but not radio supplies, spares, expendable equipment, scrap and junk) listed in United States Maritime Commission Voyage Stores Reports, Forms 7918A, 7916A, 7918A, and 7919A (Revised Forms 1939).

(B) (a) If the Charterer elects to insure with commercial underwriters any of the risks assumed or insured against by it pursuant to this Schedule A, the Owner agrees, if so instructed by the Charterer, to file with such underwriters, on behalf of the Charterer, reports, declarations, claims and the customary insurance documents, it being understood that except to the extent of any payment to the Owner by the underwriters such action on the part of the Owner shall in no way affect the Charterer's direct liability to the Owner with respect to risks assumed or insured against by the Charterer under this Charter.

(b) As soon as practicable after attachment of this insurance, the Owner shall furnish to the Charterer a statement of all unrepaired damage known to the Owner existing at the time of attachment of this insurance, together with a report of all casualties known to the Owner which may have given rise to damage subsequent to the last drydocking in a U. S. Continental Port. Upon the request of the Charterer, the Owner shall also furnish to the Charterer copies of, or at Charterer's option permit it to inspect, all deck and engine room logs, if available, and all surveys made at or subsequent to the last drydocking of the Vessel in a U. S. Continental Port.

(c) In no case shall the insurance herein provided for cover loss or damage incurred prior to the attachment of this insurance.

(d) Insurance heretofore provided by the Charterer under this Charter shall terminate upon the attachment of this insurance: Provided, however, That claims for unrepaired damage under said prior insurance shall not be due and payable until the repairs are effected or if not so effected, until the termination of this insurance, but in no case shall the Charterer, as Charterer or insurer, be liable for such unrepaired damage in addition to a subsequent total or constructive total loss under this insurance or Charter.

(e) General average adjusters shall be appointed by the Owner, from a list of adjusters satisfactory to the Charterer, and shall attend to the settlement and collection of the general average, subject to customary charges. If the Vessel should put into a port of distress or be under average, she is to be consigned to the Charterer's agents who shall be entitled to receive the usual charges and commissions.

II. WAIVERS

(a) The Owner shall and does hereby waive all claims for general average, salvage, collision or demurrage against any vessel (1) owned by the United States, or (2) under charter to the United States on terms which would make the United States liable as Charterer, insurer or otherwise for such claims or (3) under charter to the United States and insured under the terms of the AMERICAN HULL FORM REVISED (Requisitioned Vessels 1943).

(b) The Owner shall and does hereby waive all claims for general average, salvage, collision or demurrage against any other vessel owned by or under charter to any Government, and against any cargo carried on any such vessel or on any vessel described in subparagraph (a) above, to the extent such waiver may be required by the Charterer in any specific case or cases in order to give effect to any agreement for mutual or reciprocal waiver of claims entered into by the United States on behalf of vessels owned by or under charter to it.

(c) The waivers provided in this Clause II of Schedule A shall be effective only as to claims relating to the Vessel and arising out of her use or operation under this Charter, and such waivers shall not relieve the Charterer of any liability it may have to the Owner under the terms of this Charter.

(d) The Owner shall and does hereby waive any claim against any ship repairer, based on negligence or otherwise, arising out of repair or custody of the Vessel during the period of this Charter, to the extent that such claim, if not waived, would ultimately be borne by the United States under contract or insurance arrangement between the United States and the repairer: Provided, however, That such waiver shall not preclude recovery by the Owner against the repairer for amounts less than the customary contractual limit of $300,000 on the repairer's liability, nor for any claim by the Owner for proper replacement of defective workmanship or material in connection with any repairs which are for the Owner's account under the terms of this Charter.

(e) The Owner shall and does hereby waive any claim for loss of or damage to the vessel against any stevedore to the extent that such claim, if not waived, would ultimately be borne by the United States under contract or insurance arrangement between the United Sttes and the stevedore, except with respect to claims which the Owner cannot recover under the provisions of Clause I, (A), (1) (a) of this Schedule A, by reason of the franchise in the insurance provided pursuant to said Clause.

III. INDEMNITY AND INSURANCE

(a) The Charterer shall insure the Owner for and against any loss or damage suffered, or liabilities incurred, by the Owner for which claim is waived under the provisions of Clause II of this Schedule A (except claims for salvage in excess of actual cost in connection therewith), and which is not recovered by the Owner under any other provision of this Charter: Provided, however, That this indemnity shall not entitle the Owner to recover for loss or damage to the Vessel in an aggregate sum in excess of the agreed valuation: And provided further, That this indemnity shall not entitle the Owner to recover for any period of detention or loss of use of the Vessel an aggregate sum in excess of the amount which would be payable to the Owner under the other terms of this Charter for such period.

(b) The Charterer shall reimburse, indemnify, and hold harmless the Owner, the Master and the Vessel for or from all consequences, losses and liabilities whatsoever directly resulting from compliance with or efforts to comply with any orders or directions of the Charterer, its agents, representatives or employees, or any other agency of the United States or of any allied government, or orders or directions given as provided in Clause 26 of this Charter, unless properly chargeable to the Owners under this Charter or Schedule, or recoverable under (or within the franchise of) any of the insurance procured pursuant to the terms of this Schedule A. The Owner shall, as far as may be practicable, keep the Charterer currently informed in writing as to any oral orders (involving substantial delay, expense or risk to the Vessel or her cargo) not promptly confirmed in writing by the person giving such orders.

(c) The Charterer hereby assumes and indemnifies the Owner for any loss or liability, if not covered by the terms and conditions of any of the insurances provided for in this Schedule A, arising out of performance of services under any towage or pilotage contract customarily in use in the trades in which the Charterer uses the Vessel or which is specially agreed to by the Owner upon request or instructions of the Charterer.

IV. CONSTRUCTIVE TOTAL LOSS DECLARATION BY CHARTERER

If the Charterer finds, in case of casualty or serious damage or injury to the Vessel during the period of this Charter, not constituting an actual or constructive total loss under the insurance provided in this Schedule A, that the continuation of the Charter is inadvisable because of the probable high cost of repairs or indefinite loss of use of the Vessel then the Charterer nonetheless shall have the option of declaring her a constructive total loss by so notifying the Owner in writing as soon as practicable after the occurrence causing such damage or injury. In the event of such a declaration by the Charterer, the Charterer as insurer, shall forthwith pay or cause to be paid to the Owner an amount to be determined in accordance with the valuation provisions of this Charter as though the Vessel were an actual total loss. Provided, however, If the Vessel is in fact a constructive total loss within the terms of the insurance provided by the Owner pursuant to this Schedule A, no such payment shall be made by or on behalf of the Charterer, or if the Owner shall have elected to recover for the estimated cost of repairing the damage to the Vessel under the terms and conditions of American Hull Form Revised (Requisitioned Vessels 1943) the amount payable by the Charterer to the Owner shall be reduced by the amount payable under such insurance. If the Owner does not so elect or shall not have so elected within ninety (90) days of declaration of a constructive total loss by the Charterer then the Charterer shall be subrogated to all of the rights of the Owner under such insurance. Against any such payments received by the Owner from the Charterer or the Owner's assurer, as the case may be, the Owner will, if the Charterer elects to take title, give such releases and instruments granting the Vessel or the property of her remaining to the Charterer as the Charterer may require and that are not inconsistent with the terms and conditions of the AMERICAN HULL FORM REVISED (Requisitioned Vessels 1943).

V. ATTACHMENT OF INSURANCE

This Schedule shall be effective, and the insurance to be provided by the Charterer hereunder shall attach simultaneously with the effective date and time of this Amended Charter (Addendum) to which it is affixed; Provided, however, If the Vessel be then at sea the insurance provided by the Charterer shall not attach until Vessel's next arrival in safe port.

SPECIAL CONDITIONS

A. The following conditions shall apply to all Vessels insured hereunder.

1. (a) This policy shall respond for payments of general average, salvage, and collision liabilities incurred by the vessel, if covered hereby, even though the amount of such charges or liabilities may exceed the sum insured hereby or the contributory value or limitation of liability value may be greater than the value named herein; provided, however, except as provided in subparagraph (b) hereof, the total amount payable hereunder in respect of all claims arising out of any one occurrence or disaster, for liabilities under the Collision Clause and liabilities for salvage and general average shall not exceed, in the aggregate, double the amount insured on the vessel, plus any expenses of litigation incurred with the written consent of the War Shipping Administration; but (in addition to the foregoing limitation on the aggregate amount payable) in the case of vessels built in 1934 or thereafter neither (a) the amount recoverable in respect of liabilities under the Collision Clause nor (b) the aggregate amount recoverable in respect of salvage and general average shall (in respect of any one occurrence or disaster), exceed 110% of the amount insured, plus the amount of any such expenses of litigation.

(b) It is further agreed that the limits of liability as stated above and sue and labor charges recoverable under this policy shall be increased by the amount, if any, by which the market value of the vessel in sound condition at the time of such collision, casualty or occurrence, plus the vessel's then pending freight, exceeds the insured value hereunder for total-loss purposes; it being understood that the amount of such additional coverage shall be applicable separately to (a) sue and labor charges, (b) general average and salvage, and (c) collision liabilities, with the full amount open for each.

(c) Nothing contained in this Clause I shall be construed as increasing the amount recoverable in respect of claims for physical loss of or damage to the insured vessel.

2. This insurance shall not be prejudiced by the participation of the Assured in any agreement as to the Waiver of claims entered into by the United States on behalf of vessels owned by or under charter to it.

3. With respect to the risks and perils insured against hereunder, it is warranted that no insurance in excess of the value hereinafter provided for, whether for hull, machinery, disbursements, or other similar interests however described, exists or will be placed during the currency of this insurance except as permission to place additional insurance is granted by the Administrator, and then only in accordance with the terms of such permission. Provided always, That a breach of this warranty shall not afford the assurers any defense to a claim by mortgagee or other third parties who may have accepted this Policy without notice of such breach of warranty, nor shall it restrict the right of the Assured and/or their managers to insure in addition General Average and/or Salvage Disbursements whilst at risk, or general average, salvage or collision liabilities.

4. This insurance shall be subject to the following clauses:

(a) With leave to sail or navigate with or without pilots, to go on trial trips and to assist or tow vessels or craft whether customary or in distress or not, and whether under a pre-arranged contract or not, or be towed, all at no additional premium.

(b) This insurance shall not be subject to any Trading Warranties.

(c) Any notice required by the terms of this policy shall be transmitted by the Assured to the Director of Wartime Insurance as soon as may be reasonably practicable. In transmitting such notice the Assured shall comply with all relevant Security Orders of the War Shipping Administration.

(d) Radio apparatus and equipment and other apparatus or equipment used for the purposes of communication or as aids to navigation or safety devices shall be covered by this insurance and included within the amount insured on the vessel as hereinbefore set forth, even when not owned by the vessel owner, provided the vessel owner has prior to date of loss assumed liability therefor; but the liability of underwriters (either as to amount or as to the risks covered) shall not exceed the vessel owner's liability or the liability to which underwriters would be subject if the property were fully owned by the vessel owner, whichever shall be the lesser.

5. In the event of claims arising from collision between the insured vessel and a sister-ship, or in the event of claims for salvage services rendered to the insured vessel by a sister-ship the sister-ship salvage clause and the sister-ship collision clause contained in the attached form of policy shall be deemed deleted therefrom in any case where the assured by any charter, or other agreement entered into by the War Shipping Administration and binding upon the Assured, would be bound to waive such claims if the vessels were not sister-ships.

6. This policy is issued pursuant to the obligation assumed by the War Shipping Administration in Schedule A of the Charter Party referred to herein, and shall not be deemed to govern the relationship between the War Shipping Administration and the owner except as to such obligation nor to override any other provisions of the Charter Party.

7. It is agreed that liability for damage to cargo arising under any agreement to which the War Shipping Administration is a party or is bound, for the waiver or adjustment of collision claims, shall be among the liabilities covered by the Collision Clause herein, subject, however, to the same limitations and conditions which apply to other liabilities covered by the same clause. It is further agreed that where, under any such agreement, cargo's liability for General Average is waived, the cargo's proportion of any General Average sacrifices and expenses incurred by the vessel shall be payable under this policy as part of the hull's proportion of General Average, to the extent provided in Special Condition No. 1 hereinabove.

8. As between this Policy and any other policy covering the same or similar risks on the insured Vessel, such other policy shall be deemed primary and this insurance secondary. It is agreed, nevertheless, that any losses which would be payable hereunder in the absence of such other insurance shall be advanced under this Policy if the Assured is unable to collect them under such other policy within 60 days after filing the usual proofs of loss and interest. Thereafter the Assured shall, at the expense and under the direction of the Administrator, take whatever steps the Administrator may deem necessary or advisable for the collection of such loss under such other policy; and the net recovery under such other policy shall be applied, so far as necessary to the reimbursement of the amount advanced by the Administrator.

9. Where, under the terms of the Charter Party, the Administrator has a right to declare and does declare the vessel a constructive total loss as between himself and the Assured, the Assurer shall not be liable for unrepaired damage.

B. This insurance covers only those risks which would be covered by this policy (including the Collision Clause) in the absence of the F. C. & S. Warranty contained herein but which are excluded by that warranty (such insurance being subject to the warranties and additional clauses contained in the War Risk Clauses).

C. Said Vessel, for so much as concerns the Assured, by agreement between the Assured and Underwriters in this policy, is and shall be valued at the amount in accordance with the provisions of the Charter Party, referred to above. Unless deleted or superseded by the Underwriters the following warranty shall be paramount, and shall supersede and nullify any contrary provision of the policy:

F. C. & S. CLAUSE

(1) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in the Policy, this insurance is warranted free from any claim for loss, damage, or expense caused by or resulting from capture, seizure, arrest, restraint, or detainment, or the consequences thereof or of any attempt thereat, or any taking of the vessel, by requisition or otherwise, whether in time of peace or war and whether lawful or otherwise; also from all consequences of hostilities or warlike operations (whether there be a declaration of war or not), piracy, civil war, revolution, rebellion, or insurrection, or civil strife arising therefrom.

(2) For the purpose of this warranty the term "consequences of hostilities or warlike operations" shall be deemed to include the following:

(a) Collision caused by failure, in compliance with wartime regulations, of the insured vessel or any vessel with which she is in collision to show the usual full peacetime navigation or anchorage lights.

(b) Stranding caused by the absence of lights, buoys, or similar peacetime aids to navigation consequent upon wartime regulations.

(c) Stranding caused by the failure of the insured vessel to employ a pilot in waters where a pilot would ordinarily be employed in peacetime but in which the employment of a pilot is dispensed with in compliance with military, naval or other Governmental orders, or with a view to avoiding imminent enemy attack.

For the purposes of this paragraph (2) any such failure to show lights, or absence of lights, buoys, or similar peacetime aids to navigation, or failure to employ a pilot, shall be presumed to be the cause of the collision or stranding unless the contrary be proved, and stranding shall include sinking consequent upon stranding or contact with any part of the land.

(d) Collision with another vessel in the same convoy or collision with any military or naval vessel, that is to say, a vessel manned by and under the control of military or naval personnel and designed to be employed primarily in armed combat service.

(e) Stranding, collision or contact with any external substances other than water (ice included) as a result of deliberately placing the vessel in jeopardy in compliance with military, naval or other Governmental orders in order to avoid imminent enemy attack, or as an act or measure of war taken in actual process of embarking or disembarking troops or material of war.

(3) The fact that the insured vessel or any vessel with which she is in collision is carrying troops or military or other supplies, or is proceeding to or from a war base, or is manned or operated by military or naval personnel, shall not alone be sufficient to exclude from this policy any claim which is not excluded under the terms of paragraph (2) above.

(4) Where by reason of any of the foregoing provisions damage sustained by the insured vessel in collision would not be payable under this policy, it is understood and agreed that liability of the assured for damage caused in such collision shall not be covered by the Collision Clause in the policy.

(5) It is agreed for the purposes of subdivision (2) (d) above all vessels manned and operated by the Department of the Navy of the United States of America shall be treated as though designed to be employed primarily in armed combat service.

This policy is made and accepted subject to the foregoing stipulations and conditions and to the printed conditions on the following pages which are specially referred to and made part of this policy, it being understood and agreed in the case of any conflict or inconsistency the foregoing shall prevail over those which follow.

In no case shall the insurance herein provided for cover loss or damage incurred prior to the attachment of this insurance.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the War Shipping Administration has caused this policy to be signed by the Administrator, but it shall not be valid unless countersigned by or on behalf of the Director of Wartime Insurance.

Administrator.

Countersighed at Washington, D. C., this ------ day of ----------, 19---

Beginning the adventure. Beginning the adventure upon the said Vessel, as above, and so shall continue and endure during the period aforesaid, as employment may offer, in port and at sea, in docks and graving docks, and on ways, gridirons and pontoons, at all times, in all places, and on all occasions, services, and trades whatsoever and wheresoever, under steam, motor power, or sail; with leave to sail or navigate with or without pilots, to go on trial trips and to assist and tow vessels or craft in distress, but if without the approval of Assurers the Vessel be towed, except as is customary or when in need of assistance, or undertakes towage or salvage services under a prearranged contract made by Owners and/or Charterers, the Assured shall pay an additional premium if required by the Assurers, but no such premium shall be required for customary towage by the Vessel in connection with loading and discharging. With liberty to discharge, exchange and take on board goods, specie, passengers, and stores, wherever the Vessel may call at or proceed to, and with liberty to carry goods, live cattle, etc., on deck or otherwise. Including all risks of docking, undocking, changing docks, or moving in harbor and going on or off gridiron or graving dock as often as may be done during the currency of this Policy.

Notice of accident and survey. In the event of accident whereby loss or damage may result in a claim under this Policy, notice shall be given in writing to the Assurers, where practicable, prior to survey, so that they may appoint their own surveyor if they so desire. All repairs shall be subject to the approval of the Assurer as to the extent, time and place of repairs and without limiting the foregoing the Assurers shall be entitled to decide the port to which a damaged Vessel shall proceed for docking or repairing (the actual additional expense of the voyage arising from compliance with Assurers' requirements being refunded to the Assured) and Assurers shall also have a right of veto in connection with the place of repair or repairing firm proposed and whenever the extent of the damage is ascertainable the majority (in amount) of the Assurers may take or may require to be taken tenders for the repair of such damage.

Adventures and perils—Sue and labor. Touching the Adventures and Perils which the Assurers are content to bear and take upon themselves, they are of the Seas, Men-of-War, Fire, Enemies, Pirates, Rovers, Thieves, Jettisons, Letters of Mart and Counter-Mart, Surprisals, Takings at Sea, Arrests, Restraints, and Detainments of all Kings, Princes, and Peoples, of what nation, condition, or quality soever, Barratry of the Master and Mariners and of all other like Perils, Losses, and Misfortunes that have or shall come to the Hurt, Detriment, or Damage of the said Ship, etc., or any part thereof; excepting, however, such of the foregoing perils as may be excluded by provisions elsewhere in the policy or by endorsement. And in case of any Loss or Misfortune, it shall be lawful for the Assured, their Factors, Servants, and Assigns, to sue, labor, and travel for, in, and about the Defense, safeguard, and Recovery of the said Vessel, etc., or any part thereof, without prejudice to this insurance, to the Charges whereof the Assurers will contribute their proportion as provided below. And it is expressly declared and agreed that no acts of the Assurers or Assured in recovering, saving, or preserving the property insured shall be considered as a waiver or acceptance of abandonment.

Latent defect and negligence. This insurance also specially to cover (subject to the Average Warranty) loss of or damage to hull or machinery directly caused by the following: Accidents in loading, discharging or handling cargo, or in bunkering or in taking in fuel; Explosions on Shipboard or elsewhere; Bursting of boilers, breakage of shafts or any latent defect in the machinery or hull (excluding, however, the cost and expense of repairing or renewing the defective part); Contact with Aircraft; Negligence of Master, Charterers, Mariners, Engineers, or Pilots; Provided such loss or damage has not resulted from want of due diligence by the Owners of the Vessel, or any of them, or by the Managers, Masters, Mates, Engineers, Pilots, or Crew not to be considered as part owners within the meaning of this clause should they hold shares in the vessel.

Sister-ship salvage. And it is further agreed that in the event of salvage, towage or other assistance being rendered to the Vessel hereby insured by any vessel belonging in part or in whole to the same Owners or Charterers, the value of such services (without regard to the common ownership or control of the Vessels) shall be ascertained by arbitration in the manner below provided for under the Collision Clause, and the amount so awarded so far as applicable to the interest hereby insured shall constitute a charge under this Policy.

General average. General Average, Salvage, and Special Charges payable as provided in the contract of affreightment, or failing such provision, or there be no contract of affreightment, payable in accordance with the law and Usages of the Port of New York, Provided always, That when an adjustment according to the laws and usages of the port of destination is properly demanded by the owners of the cargo, General Average shall be paid in accordance with same.

G. A. and S. Liability. When the contributory value of the Vessel is greater than the valuation herein, the liability of the Assurers for General Average contribution (except in respect to amount made good to the vessel) or Salvage shall not exceed that proportion of the total contribution due from the Vessel that the amount insured hereunder bears to the contributory value; and if because of damage for which the Assurers are liable as Particular Average the value of the Vessel has been reduced for the purpose of contribution, the amount of the Particular Average claim under this policy shall be deducted from the amount insured hereunder and the Assurers shall be liable only for the proportion which such net amount bears to the contributory value.

S., S. C., and S. and L. Liability. In the event of expenditure for Salvage, Salvage Charges, or under the Sue and Labor Clause, this Policy shall only be liable for its share of such proportion of the amount chargeable to the property hereby insured as the insured value, less loss and/or damage, if any, for which the Assurers are liable, bears to the value of the salved property: Provided, That where there are no proceeds or there are expenses in excess of the proceeds, the expenses, or the excess of the expenses, as the case may be, shall be apportioned upon the basis of the sound value of the property at the time of the accident and this policy without any deduction for loss and/or damage shall bear its pro rata share of such expenses or excess of expenses accordingly.

Average warranty. Notwithstanding anything herein contained to the contrary, this Policy is warranted free from Particular Average under 3 percent, or unless amounting to $4,850; but nevertheless when the Vessel shall have been stranded, sunk, on fire, or in collision with any other Ship or Vessel, the Assurers shall pay the damage occasioned thereby, and the expense of sighting the bottom after stranding shall be paid, if reasonably incurred, even if no damage be found.

Grounding in the Panama Canal, Suez Canal, or in the Manchester Ship Canal or its connections, or in the River Mersey above Rock Ferry Slip, or in the River Plate (above a line drawn from the North Basin, Buenos Aires, to the Mouth of the San Pedro River) or its tributaries, or in the Danube or Demerara Rivers, or on the Yenikale Bar, shall not be deemed to be a stranding.

Average payable on each valuation separately or on the whole, without deduction of thirds, new for old, whether the Average be Particular or General.

No claim shall in any case be allowed in respect of scraping or painting the Vessel's bottom.

Voyage. The Warranty and conditions as to Average under 3 percent to be applicable to each voyage as if separately insured, and a voyage shall be deemed to commence at one of the following periods to be selected by the Assured when making up the claim, viz: at any time at which the Vessel (1) begins to load cargo or (2) sails in ballast to a loading port. Such voyage shall be deemed to continue during the ensuing period until either she has made one outward and one homeward passage (including an intermediate ballast passage, if made) or has carried and discharged two cargoes, whichever may first happen, and further in either case, until she begins to load a subsequent cargo or sails in ballast for a loading port. When the Vessel sails in ballast to effect damage repair such sailing shall not be deemed to be a sailing for a loading port although she loads at the repairing port. In calculating the 3 percent above referred to, Particular Average occurring outside the period covered by this Policy may be added to Particular Average occurring within such period provided it occur upon the same voyage (as above defined), but only that portion of the claim arising within such period shall be recoverable hereon. The commencement of a voyage shall not be so fixed as to overlap another voyage on which a claim is made on this or the preceding policy.

Constructive total loss. No recovery for a Constructive Total Loss shall be had hereunder unless the expense of recovering and repairing the Vessel shall exceed the insured value.

In ascertaining whether the Vessel is a Constructive Total Loss, the insured value shall be taken as the required value, and nothing in respect of the damaged or break-up value of the Vessel or wreck shall be taken into account.

In the event of Total or Constructive Total Loss, no claim to be made by the Assurers for freight, whether notice of abandonment has been given or not.

Unrepaired damage. In no case shall the Assurers be liable for unrepaired damage in addition to a subsequent Total Loss sustained during the term covered by this Policy.

Full collision—sister-ship collision. And it is further agreed that if the Vessel hereby insured shall come into collision with any other ship or vessel and the Owners or Charterers in consequence thereof or the Surety for either or both of them in consequence of their undertaking shall become liable to pay and shall pay by way of damages to any other person or persons any sum or sums in respect of such collision, the Assurers will pay the Owners or Charterers such proportion of such sum or sums so paid as the Assurers' subscription hereto bears to the value of the Vessel hereby insured, provided always that their liability in respect of any one such collision shall not exceed their proportionate part of the value of the Vessel hereby insured. And in cases where the liability of the Vessel has been contested, or proceedings have been taken to limit liability, with the consent in writing of a majority (in amount) of the Underwriters on the hull and/or machinery, the Assurers will also pay a like proportion of the costs which the Owners or Charterers shall thereby incur, or be compelled to pay; but when both vessels are to blame, then unless the liability of the Owners or Charterers of one or both of such vessels becomes limited by law, claims under the Collision Clause shall be settled on the principle of Cross-Liabilities as if the Owners or Charters of each Vessel had been compelled to pay to the Owners or Charterers of the other of such Vessels such one-half or other proportion of the latter's damages as may have been properly allowed in ascertaining the balance or sum payable by or to the Owners or Charterers in consequence of such collision; and it is further agreed that the principles involved in this clause shall apply to the case where both Vessels are the property in part or in whole, of the same Owners or Charterers, all questions of responsibility and amount of liability as between the two Vessels being left to the decision of a single Arbitrator, if the parties can agree upon a single Arbitrator, or failing such agreement, to the decision of Arbitrators, one to be appointed by the Managing Owners or Charterers of both Vessels, and one to be appointed by the majority (in amount) of Hull Underwriters interested; the two Arbitrators chosen to choose a third Arbitrator before entering upon the reference, and the decision of such single, or of any two of such three Arbitrators, appointed as above, to be final and binding: Provided always, That this clause shall in no case extend to any sum which the Owners or Charterers may become liable to pay or shall pay for removal of obstructions under statutory powers for injury to harbors, wharves, piers, stages and similar structures, consequent on such collision, or in respect of the cargo or engagements of the Insured Vessel, or for loss of life, or personal injury: And provided also, That in the event of any claim being made by the Charterers under this clause they shall not be entitled to recover in respect of any liability to which the Owners of the Vessel, if interested in this Policy at the time of the Collision in question, would not be subject, nor to a greater extent than the Shipowners would be entitled in such event to recover.

WAR RISK CLAUSES

It is agreed that this insurance also covers those risks which would be covered by the attached policy (including the Collision Clause) in the absence of the F. C. & S. Warranty contained therein but which are excluded by that warranty.

This insurance, insofar as it relates to war risks, is also subject to the following warranties and additional clauses:

The Adventures and Perils Clause shall be construed as including the risks of piracy, civil war, revolution, rebellion or insurrection, or civil strife arising therefrom, floating and/or stationary mines and/or torpedoes whether derelict or not, and/or military or naval aircraft and/or other engines of war including missiles from the land, and warlike operations and the enforcement of sanctions by members of the League of Nations, whether before or after declaration of war and whether by a belligerent or otherwise; but excluding arrest, restraint, or detainment under customs or quarantine regulations, and similar arrests, restraints, or detainments not arising from actual or impending hostilities or sanctions.

If the vessels be insured under marine policies which include the risks of pirates, claims arising from piracy shall nevertheless be paid under this policy and the underwriters hereof shall have no right to contribution from the underwriters of such marine policies it being understood that as between the two sets of policies losses due to piracy are payable under marine policies only to the extent that such losses are not collectible under the war risk policies.

The Franchise warranty in the attached policy is waived and average shall be payable irrespective of percentage and without deduction of new for old. The provisions of the attached policy with respect to constructive total loss shall apply only to claims arising from physical damage to the insured vessel.

Warranted free of any claim for delay or demurrage and warranted not to abandon in case of capture, seizure, or detention, until after condemnation of the property insured. Also warranted not to abandon in case of blockade and free from any claims for loss or expense in consequence of blockade or of any attempt to evade blockade; but in the event of blockade to be at liberty to proceed to an open port and there end the voyage.

Warranted free of any claim based upon loss of or frustration of the insured voyage or adventure caused by arrests, restraints, or detainments, of kings, princes or peoples.

Warranted free from any claim arising from capture, seizure, arrests, restraints, detainment, condemnation, preemption, or confiscation by the Government of the United States of America or any State or political subdivision thereof or any government which is or may become party signatory of the "United Nations Pact", promulgated on or about January 2, 1943.

This insurance also covers damage to or destruction of the property insured directly caused by strikers, locked out workmen, or persons taking part in labor disturbances or riots or civil commotions including damage caused by persons acting maliciously, but this paragraph shall not be construed to include or cover any loss, damage, or expense caused by or resulting from (a) civil war, revolution, rebellion, or insurrection, or civil strife arising therefrom, or (b) delay, detention, or loss of use.

Where, as a result of a risk or peril hereby insured against, damage sustained by the insured vessel in collision would be payable under the provisions of this policy, liability of the Assured for damage caused by such collision shall be deemed to be covered hereunder subject to the terms and provisions of the Collision Clause of this policy.

WAR RISK ONLY CLAUSE

The following War Risk only Clauses (Clauses A, B and C) shall be deemed to over-ride F. & I. Clauses (Articles 1 to 25 inclusive) wherever they may be in conflict.

Clause A. This insurance covers only those liabilities which would be covered by this Policy under Articles 1 to 25 inclusive in the absence of the F. C. & S. Clause (Article 25 (d)), but which are excluded by that Clause. The Assurer agrees to indemnify the Assured against loss, damage or expense as aforesaid which the Assured shall become liable to pay and shall pay by reason of the fact that the Assured is the owner, or charterer, or the general or time charter agent or agent or berth-agent or sub-agent of the owner or charterer (mortgagee, trustee, or receiver thereof as the case may be) of the insured vessel.

Clause B. The Assurer shall also indemnify the Assured against losses arising as a result of the Assured's contractual liability, or against costs incurred by the Assured at the direction or in conformity with the wishes of the War Shipping Administration or any other Governmental agency, for repatriation of the crew to a United States port, as required, resulting from capture, seizure, arrest, restraint or detainment, or the consequences thereof or of any attempt thereat, or the consequences of hostilities or warlike operations, whether before or after declaration of war.

Clause C. This Policy is warranted free from any claim arising from capture, seizure, arrests, restraints, detainment, condemnation, preemption, requisition or confiscation by the Government of the United States of America, or any state or political sub-division thereunder, or any Government which is, or may become a party signatory of the "United Nations Pact" promulgated on or about January 2nd, 1942.

"F. AND I. CLAUSES"

(1) Loss of life, injury and illness. Liability for life salvage, loss of life of, or personal injury to, or illness of, any person, not including, however, unless otherwise agreed by endorsement hereon, liability to an employee (other than a seaman) of the assured, or in case of his death to his beneficiaries, under any compensation act. Liability hereunder shall also include burial expenses not exceeding $200, were reasonably incurred by the assured for the burial of any seaman. The term "Person" as aforesaid shall include any Person or Persons carried on the insured vessel.

(a) Insurance hereunder, shall cover the liability of the assured for claims under any compensation act (other than hereafter excepted) in respect of employees (i) who are members of the crew of the insured vessel, or (ii) who are placed on board the insured vessel with the intention of becoming a member of her crew, or (iii) who, in the event of the vessel being laid up and out of commission, or engaged in the upkeep, maintenance or watching of the insured vessel, or (iv) who are engaged by the insured vessel or its Master to perform stevedoring work in connection with the vessel's cargo at ports in Alaska and ports outside the Continental United States where contract stevedores are not readily available. This insurance, however, shall not be considered as a qualification under any Compensation Act, but, without diminishing in any way the liability of the Assurer under this policy, the Assured may have in effect policies covering such liabilities. All claims under such Compensation Acts for which the Assurer is liable under the terms of this policy are to be paid without regard to such other policies.

(b) Insurance hereunder shall not cover any liability under the provisions of the Act of Congress approved September 7th, 1916 and as amended, Public Act #267, Sixty-fourth Congress, known as the U. S. Employees Compensation Act.

(c) Insurance hereunder in connection with the handling of cargo for the insured vessel shall commence from the time of receipt by the Assured of the cargo on dock or wharf, or on craft alongside for loading, and shall continue until due delivery thereof from dock or wharf of discharge or until discharge from the insured vessel on to a craft alongside.

(d) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in Paragraph (20), liability hereunder shall be extended to cover claims of seamen under any Workmen's Compensation Act whether the liability of the Assured for such claims arises under contract or otherwise.

(2) Repatriation expenses. Liability for expenses reasonably incurred in necessarily repatriating any member of the crew or any other person employed on board the insured vessel: Provided, however, That the Assurer's liability for repatriation expenses shall be no greater than if the vessel were privately owned by an American Citizen or than if the employer were a private American Shipowner, and that the Assured shall not be entitled to recover any such expenses incurred by reason of the expiration of the shipping agreement, other than by sea perils, or by reason of the voluntary termination of the agreement. Wages shall be included in such expenses when payable under statutory obligation during unemployment due to the wreck or loss of the insured vessel.

(3) Collision. Liability for loss or damage arising from collision of the insured vessel with another ship or vessel insofar as such liability is excluded from the liabilities insured under the Four-fourths Collision Clause in the American Institute Hull Form of policy: "And it is further agreed that if the vessel hereby insured shall come into collision with any other ship or vessel and the Assured or the Charterers in consequence thereof or the Surety for either or both of them in consequence of their undertaking shall become liable to pay and shall pay by way of damages to any other person or persons any sum or sums in respect of such collision, we, the Underwriters, will pay the Assured or Charterers such proportion of such sum or sums so paid as our respective subscriptions hereto bear to the value of the vessel hereby insured, provided always that our liability in respect of any one such collision shall not exceed our proportionate part of the value of the vessel hereby insured. And in cases where the liability of the vessel has been contested, or proceedings have been taken to limit liability, with the consent in writing of a majority (in amount) of the Underwriters on the hull and/or machinery, we will also pay a like proportion of the costs which the Assured or Charterers shall thereby incur, or be compelled to pay; but when both vessels are to blame, then, unless the liability of the Owners or Charterers of one or both of such vessels becomes limited by law, claims under the Collision Clause shall be settled on the principal of Cross-Liabilities as if the Owners or Charterers of each vessel had been compelled to pay to the Owners or Charterers of the other of such vessels such one-half or other proportion of the latter's damages as may have been properly allowed in ascertaining the balance or sum payable by or to the Assured or Charterers in consequence of such collision; and it is further agreed that the principles involved in this clause shall apply to the case where both vessels are the property, in part or in whole, of the same Owners or Charterers, all questions of responsibility and amount of liability as between the two vessels being left to the decision of a single Arbitrator, if the parties can agree upon a single Arbitrator, or failing such agreement, to the decision of arbitrators, one to be appointed by the Managing Owners or Charterers of both vessels, and one to be appointed by the majority (in amount) of Hull Underwriters interested; the two Arbitrators chosen to choose a third Arbitrator before entering upon the reference, and the decision of such single, or of any two of such three Arbitrators, appointed as above, to be final and binding. Provided always that this clause shall in no case extend to any sum which the Assured or Charterers may become liable to pay or shall pay for removal of obstructions under statutory powers, for injury to harbors, wharves, piers, stages and a similar structures, consequent on such collision, or in respect of the cargo or engagement of the insured vessel, or for loss of life, or personal injury."

Provided, however, That insurance hereunder shall not extend to any liability, whether direct or indirect, in respect of the engagements of or the detention or loss of time of the insured vessel.

(a) Claims hereunder shall be settled on the principles of Cross-Liabilities to the same extent only as provided in the four-fourths Collision Clause above mentioned.

(b) Claims hereunder shall be separated among the several classes enumerated in this policy and each class shall be subject to the special conditions applicable in respect to such class.

(c) Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Assurer shall not be liable for any claims hereunder where the various liabilities resulting from such collision, or any of them, have been compromised, settled or adjusted without the written consent of the Assurer.

(4) Damage caused otherwise than by collision. Liability for loss of or damage to any other vessel or craft, or to property on board such other vessel or craft, caused otherwise than by collision.

(a) Where there would be a valid claim hereunder but for the fact that the damaged property belongs to the Assured, the Assurers shall be liable as if such damaged property belonged to another, but only for the excess over any amount recoverable under any other insurance applicable on the property.

(5) Damage to docks, buoys, etc. Liability for damage to any dock, pier, jetty, bridge, harbor, breakwater, structure, beacon, buoy, lighthouse, cable or to any fixed or movable object or property whatsoever, except another vessel or craft or property on another vessel or craft or on the insured vessel unless elsewhere covered herein.

(a) Where there would be a valid claim hereunder but for the fact that the damaged property belongs to the Assured, the Assurers shall be liable as if such damaged property belonged to another, but only for the excess over any amount recoverable under any other insurance applicable on the property.

(b) Insurance hereunder shall cover all liabilities for said damages that the insured vessel or her owners would have if she were privately owned by an American citizen and irrespective of the ownership of any property the vessel may damage: Provided, however, That the rights of the Assurer shall be the same as though the vessel were privately owned.

(6) Wreck removal. Liability for costs or expenses of or incidental to the removal of the wreck of the insured vessel if legally liable therefore: Provided, however, That:

(a) From such costs and expenses shall be deducted the value of any salvage from or which might have been recovered from the wreck inuring, or which might have inured, to the benefit of the Assured;

(b) The Assurer shall not be liable for any costs or expenses which would be covered by full insurance under the American Institute Hull form of policy, 7/1/41 issued by the American Marine Hull Insurance Syndicate.

(c) The Assurer shall not be liable for any costs or expenses for which a private American vessel owner would not be legally liable, or for any costs or expenses from which a private American vessel owner could relieve himself by abandonment of the wreck to the United States Government or by other appropriate action.

(7) Cargo. Liability for loss of or damage to or in connection with cargo or other property (except mail or parcels post), including baggage and personal effects of persons other than members of the crew, and not exceeding $100 per person, to be carried, carried or which has been carried on board the insured vessel: Provided, however, That no liability shall exist hereunder for:

(a) Specie, bullion, jewelry, etc. Loss, damage or expense incurred in connection with the custody, carriage or delivery of specie, bullion, precious metals, precious stones, jewelry, silks, furs, banknotes, bonds or other negotiable documents, or similar valuable property.

(b) Refrigeration. Loss, damage or expense arising out of or in connection with the care, custody, carriage or delivery of cargo requiring refrigeration, unless the spaces, apparatus, and means used for the care, custody and carriage thereof have been surveyed by a classification or other competent disinterested surveyor under working conditions before the commencement of each round voyage and found in all respects fit, and unless the Assurer has approved in writing the form of contract under which such cargo is accepted for transportation;

(c) Deviation. Loss, damage or expense arising from any deviation or proposed deviation, not authorized by the contract of affreightment, known to the Assured in time to insure specifically the liability therefor, unless notice thereof is given to the Assurer and the Assurer agrees, in writing, that such insurance is unnecessary. Knowledge of the United States Governmental Departments or Agencies, other than the War Shipping Administration, its General or Time Charter Agents or Berth Agents in the continental United States, shall not be considered as knowledge of the Assured in respect to deviation or proposed deviation; furthermore, the Assured shall not be prejudiced in respect to insurance hereunder in event of delay in reporting any deviation to the Assurer due to laws or governmental regulations or practices due to military reasons.

(d) Stowage in improper spaces. Loss, damage or expense arising with respect to under deck cargo stowed on deck or with respect to cargo stowed in spaces not suitable for its carriage, unless the Assured shall show that every reasonable precaution has been taken by him to prevent such improper stowage;

(e) Misdescription of goods. Loss, damage, or expense arising out of or as a result of the issuance of bills of lading which, to the knowledge of the Assured, improperly described the goods or their containers as to condition or quantity;

(f) Loss, damage or expense arising from issuance of clean bills of lading for goods known to be missing, unsound or damaged;

(g) Loss, damage or expense arising from the intentional issuance of bills of lading prior to receipt of the goods described therein, or covering goods not received at all;

(h) Loss, damage or expense arising from delivery of cargo without surrender of order bills of lading;

(i) Freight. Freight on cargo short-delivered, whether or not prepaid or whether or not included in the claim and paid by the Assured: And provided further, That:

(j) Liability hereunder shall in no event exceed that which would be imposed by law in the absence of contract;

(k) Protective clauses required in contract of affreightment. Liability hereunder shall be limited to such as would exist if the charter party, bill of lading, or contract of affreightment contained (i) a negligence general average clause in the form hereinafter specified under paragraph (12); (ii) a clause providing that any provision of the charter party, bill of lading, or contract of affreightment to the contrary notwithstanding, the Assured and the insured vessel shall have the benefit of all limitations of and exemptions from liability accorded to the owner or chartered owner of vessels by any statute or rule of law for the time being in force; (iii) such clauses, if any, as are required by law to be stated therein; (iv) and such other protective clauses as are generally in use in the particular trade;

(l) Carriage of goods by Sea Act. When cargo carried by the insured vessel is under a bill of lading or similar document of title subject or made subject to the Carriage of Goods by Sea Act of the United States or a law of any other country of similar import, liability hereunder shall be limited to such as is imposed by said Act or law, and if the Assured or the insured vessel assumes any greater liability or obligation, either in respect of the valuation of the cargo or in any other respect, then the minimum liabilities and obligations imposed by said Act or law, such greater liability or obligation shall not be covered hereunder;

(m) Limit of $500 per package. When cargo carried by the insured vessel is under a charter party, bill of lading, or contract of affreightment not subject or made subject to the Carriage of Goods by Sea Act of the United States or a law of any other country of similar import, liability hereunder shall be limited to such as would exist if said charter party, bill of lading, or contract of affreightment contained a clause exempting the Assured and the insured vessel from liability for losses arising from unseaworthiness provided that due diligence shall have been exercised to make the vessel seaworthy and properly manned, equipped and supplied, and a clause limiting the Assured's liability for total loss or damage to goods shipped to $500 per package, or in case of goods not shipped in packages, per customary freight unit, and providing for pro rata adjustment on such basis for partial loss or damage. The provisions of clauses (k), (l) and (m) herein may, however, be waived or altered by the Assurer, on terms agreed, in writing.

(n) Oral contract. In the event cargo is carried under an arrangement not reduced to writing, such cargo shall be deemed to be carried under a charter party, bill of lading, or contract of affreightment incorporating the terms and conditions of the War Shipping Administration uniform bill of lading in the present form as published in Vol. 7, No. 134, p. 5246–5251 of the FEDERAL REGISTER or as modified by the War Shipping Administration;

(o) Assured's. Where cargo on board the insured vessel is the property of the Assured, such cargo shall be deemed to be carried under a contract containing the protective clauses described in clauses (k), (l) and (m) herein; and such cargo shall be deemed to be fully insured under the usual form of cargo policy, and in case of loss of or damage to such cargo the Assured shall be insured hereunder in respect of such loss or damage only to the extent that he would have been if the cargo had belonged to another, but only in the event and to the extent that the loss or damage would not be recoverable from marine insurers under a cargo policy as above specified;

(p) Land transportation. No liability shall exist hereunder for any loss, damage or expense in respect of cargo being transported on land or on another vessel;

(q) Cargo on dock. No liability shall exist hereunder for any loss, damage or expense in respect of cargo before loading on or after discharge from the insured vessel caused by flood, tide, windstorm, earthquake, fire, explosion, heat, cold, deterioration, collapse of wharf, leaky shed, theft or pilferage unless such loss, damage or expense is caused directly by the insured vessel, her master, officers or crew;

(8) Fines and penalties. Liability for fines and penalties for the violation of any laws of the United States, or of any state thereof, or of any foreign country, provided, however, that the Assurer shall not be liable to indemnify the Assured against any such fines or penalties resulting directly or indirectly from the failure, neglect or fault of the Assured or its managing officers to exercise the highest degree of diligence to prevent a violation of any such laws.

(9) Mutiny misconduct. Liability for expenses incurred in resisting any unfounded claim by the master or crew or other persons employed on board the insured vessel, or in prosecuting such persons or persons in case of mutiny or other misconduct; not including, however, costs which would not reasonably be incurred by a private American vessel owner under similar circumstances, nor costs of successfully defending claims elsewhere protected in this policy.

(10) Quarantine expenses. Liability for extraordinary expenses, incurred in consequence of the outbreak of plague or other disease on the insured vessel, for disinfection of the vessel or of persons on board, or for quarantine expenses, not being the ordinary expenses of loading or discharging, nor the wages or provisions of crew or passengers; provided, however, that no liability shall exist hereunder if the vessel be ordered to proceed to a port where it is known that she will be subjected to quarantine;

(11) Putting in expenses. Liability for port charges incurred solely for the purpose of putting in to land an injured or sick seaman, and the net loss to the Assured in respect of bunkers, insurance stores and provisions as the result of the deviation.

(12) Cargo's Propn. G/A. Liability for Cargo's proportion of General Average, including special charges, so far as the Assured cannot recover the same from any other source: Provided, however, That if the charter party, bill of lading or contract of afreightment does not contain the negligence general average clause quoted below, the Assurer's liability hereunder shall be limited to such as would exist if such clause were contained therein, viz:

Negligence G/A Clause. "In the event of accident, danger, damage or disaster, before or after commencement of the voyage resulting from any cause whatsoever, whether due to negligence or not, for which, or for the consequence of which, the Carrier is not responsible, by statute, contract, or otherwise, the goods, the shipper and the consignee, jointly and severally, shall contribute with the Carrier in general average to the payment of any sacrifices, losses, or expenses of a general average nature that may be made or incurred, and shall pay salvage and special charges incurred in respect of the goods. If a salving ship is owned or operated by the Carrier, salvage shall be paid for as fully and in the same manner as if such salving ship or ships belonged to strangers."

(13) Expenses and law costs. Liability for costs, charges and expenses reasonably incurred and paid by the Assured in connection with any liability insured under this policy, provided that the Assured shall not be entitled to indemnity for the cost or expense of prosecuting or defending any claim or suit unless the same shall have been incurred with the approval in writing of the Assurer, or the Assurer shall be satisfied that such approval could not have been obtained under the circumstances without unreasonable delay, or that the expenses were reasonably and properly incurred. The cost and expense of prosecuting any claim in which the Assurer shall have an interest by subrogation or otherwise, shall be divided between the Assured and the Assurer, in proportion to the amounts which they would have been entitled to receive respectively, if the suit should be successful.

(14) If the master of the insured vessel shall be sued by reason of any event which imposes on the Assured a liability against which the Assured is indemnified under this policy, the Assurer will pay the costs and expenses of the defense of such suit subject to the provisions of paragraph (13), and will indemnify the master of such vessel to the same extent as though he were an assured under this policy: Provided, however, That the Assurer shall not be liable to indemnify the master in excess of the amount (a) for which the owner of said vessel would have been liable, or to which such owner could have limited liability, if such owner has been sued instead of the master, or (b) for which the Assurer would be liable under this policy had the suit been brought against the owner of the vessel.

(15) Expenses which the Assured may incur under authorization of the Assurer in the intrest of the Assurer.

GENERAL CONDITIONS AND LIMITATIONS

(16) Prompt notice of claim. In the event of any happening which may result in loss, damage or expense for which the Assurer may become liable, prompt notice thereof, on being known to the Assured, shall be given by the Assured to the Assurer, but failure to give such prompt notice because of wartime emergency conditions shall not prejudice this insurance.

The assurer shall not be liable for any claim not presented to the Assurer with proper proofs of loss within twelve (12) months after payment by the Assured.

(17) Time for suit. In no event shall suit on any claim be maintainable against the Assurer unless commenced within eighteen (18) months after the loss, damage or expenses resulting from liabilities, risks, events, occurrences and expenditures specified under this policy shall have been paid by the Assured.

(18) Settlement of claims. The Assured shall not make any admission of liability, either before or after any occurrence which may result in a claim for which the Assurer may be liable. The Assured shall not interfere in any negotiations of the Assurer for settlement of any legal proceedings in respect of any occurrences for which the Assurer is liable under this policy: Provided, however, That in respect of any occurrence likely to give rise to a claim under this Policy, the Assured is obligated to and shall take such steps to protect his and the Assurer's interests as would reasonably be taken in the absence of this or similar insurance. If the Assured shall fail or refuse to settle any claim as authorized by Assurer, the liability of the Assurer to the Assured shall be limited to the amount for which settlement could have been made.

(19) Defense of claims. Whenever required by the Assurer, the Assured shall aid in securing information and evidence, subject to any governmental limitations as to the confidential character of such information or evidence, and in obtaining witnesses and shall cooperate with the Assurer in the defense of any claim or suit or in the appeal from any judgment, in respect of any occurrence as hereinbefore provided.

(20) Assumed contractual liability. Unless otherwise agreed by endorsement hereon, the Assurer's liability shall in no event exceed that which would be imposed on the Assured by law in the absence of contract: Provided, however, That the acceptance by the Assured of towage contract or agreement limiting the liability of towboats or their owners shall not affect the Assured's right of indemnity from the Assurer for any liability, loss, damage or expense covered under this policy.

(21) Assignment. No claim or demand against the Assurer shall be assigned or transferred, and no person, other than a receiver of the property or the estate of the Assured, shall acquire any right against the Assurer without the express consent of the Assurer: Provided, however, That this shall not affect the rights of any assignee under an assignment made by virtue of any governmental order or decree, in which event such assignee shall have and possess all of the rights of its predecessor in assignment.

(22) Subrogation. The Assurer shall be subrogated to all the rights which the Assured may have against any other person or entity, in respect of any payment made under this policy, to the extent of such payment, and the Assured shall, upon the request of the Assurer, execute all documents necessary to secure to the Assurer such rights.

(23) Double insurance. The Assurer shall not be liable for any loss or damage against which, but for the insurance hereunder, the Assured is or would be insured under existing insurance excepting as provided in Paragraph (1) (a) hereof.

(24) Limitation of liability. If and when the Assured under this policy has any interest other than as an owner or bare boat charterer of the insured vessel, in no event shall the Assurer be liable hereunder to any greater extent than if such Assured were the owner or bare boat charterer and were entitled to all the rights of limitation to which a shipowner is entitled.

(25) Nothwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this policy, the Assurer shall not be liable for any loss, damage, or expense sustained, directly or indirectly, by reason of:

(a) Loss, damage or expense to hull, machinery, equipment or fittings of the insured vessel, including refrigerating apparatus and wireless equipment, whether or not owned by the Assured;

(b) Cancelment or breach of any charter or contract, detention of the vessel, bad debts, insolvency, fraud of agents, loss of freight, passage money, hire, demurrage, or any other loss of revenue;

(c) Any loss, damage, sacrifice, or expense which would be payable under the terms of the American Institute Hull form of policy, 7/1/44 issued by the America Marine Hull Insurance Syndicate on hull, machinery, etc., whether or not the insured vessel is fully covered by insurance sufficient in amount to pay such loss, damage, sacrifice, or expense.

(d) Capture, seizure, arrest, restraint or detainment, or the consequences thereof, or of any attempt thereat, or the consequences of hostilities or war-like operations, whether before or after the declaration of war;

(e) The insured vessel towing any other vessel or craft, unless such towage was to assist such other vessel or craft in distress to a port or place of safety; provided, however, that this exception shall not apply to claims covered under paragraph (1) of this policy.

(f) For any claim for loss of life, personal injury or illness in relation to the handling of cargo where such claim arises under a contract of indemnity between the Assured and his sub-contractor.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the War Shipping Administration has caused this policy to be signed by the Administrator, but it shall not be valid unless countersigned by or on behalf of the Director of Wartime Insurance.

Forflag".* The Administrator, War Shipping Administration, adopts the following standard form of addendum for time charters, for such foreign flag tank vessels as the Administrator in his discretion may determine, heretofore entered into by the United States of America acting by and through the Administrator, to be known as "Warshipoiltime (Rev.) Forflag";

AMENDED TIME CHARTER FOR TANK VESSELS

WHEREAS, the Owner and the Charterer have heretofore entered into a charter agreement dated as of _____, 1942, providing for the charter of the Vessel upon the terms and conditions therein set forth, and

WHEREAS, the Charterer has found that in order to facilitate the prosecution of the war and otherwise to benefit the interests of the United States, it is necessary and desirable that the Charter be further amended to the extent provided for by this Addendum,

NOW, THEREFORE, the Charterer and the Owner do mutually agree to amend the Charter effective upon the date hereinafter set forth so that such Charter will be as follows:

AMENDED TIME CHARTER (hereinafter sometimes referred to as the Charter), dated as of _____, 19____, between

Address _____
OWNER of the SS/MS _____
(herein called the "Vessel"), and UNITED STATES OF AMERICA, acting by and through the Administrator, War Shipping Administration, CHARTERER, the terms of the Charter being as follows:

PART I (REVISED)

The Vessel's particulars on which the rate of hire and valuation have been based in part by the Administrator are as follows:

DEADWEIGHT capacity, as defined in Clause 8, Part II.

CLASSED _____

BALE CAPACITY of refrigerated cargo space, as represented by the Owner, exclusive of ship's stores and space installed by or at the expense of Charterer _____ cubic feet _____

YEAR BUILT _____

CLAUSE A. PERIOD OF CHARTER. From the time of delivery to the time of expiration of the voyage current at the end of the emergency proclaimed by the President of the United States on May 27, 1941: Provided, however, That either party may sooner terminate this Charter upon not less than thirty (30) days' written or telegraphic notice to the other. In either case, the Vessel shall be redelivered as hereinafter provided.

CLAUSE B. TRADING LIMITS. As and where the Charterer may from time to time determine, subject to normal trading limits for a Vessel of her size, type and description.

CLAUSE C. HIRE. The hire shall be $_____ per calendar month or pro rata for any portion thereof, of which the sum of $_____ per calendar month shall be compensation to the Owner for the use of the Vessel (herein sometimes referred to as the use rate) and the balance shall be compensation to the Owner for services required under the terms of this Charter (herein sometimes referred to as the service rate).

RATE REVISION. At any time, either party may request a redetermination of the rate of charter hire upon thirty (30) days' written or telegraphic notice to the other, but no rate redetermination prior to July 1, 1945 shall involve a change in the use rate factor of the charter hire. If a revised rate is determined and agreed upon within such 30-day period, it shall become effective as of the date specified in the determination and shall continue for the balance of the period of this Charter, subject to further redetermination in accordance with the provisions of this paragraph. If a revised rate is not determined and agreed upon within such a period, then the Owner shall be entitled to receive from the Charterer for the period commencing with the end of such period a fair and reasonable charter hire for the use of the Vessel and the services required under the terms of this Charter, the rate of hire to be not more or less favorable than the compensation that would have been payable if the Vessel were documented under the laws of the United States. Pending a determination of such a fair and reasonable charter hire either by mutual agreement or by judicial determination, the Charterer shall pay to the Owner on account thereof 75 percent of the charter hire payable prior to the end of such 30 day period, from month to month. A change in the rate of charter hire under this paragraph shall not terminate the period of or otherwise modify the provisions of this Charter, and any such change shall be without prejudice to the rights of either party to terminate this Charter as provided in Clause A, Part I.

In the event of such termination by either party, the Charterer may, at its option, defer compliance with any or all of its redelivery obligations hereunder; provided, however, that compliance with such obligations shall not be extended beyond the expiration of the emergency proclaimed by the President of the United States on May 27, 1941.

CLAUSE D. VALUATION. For the period ending noon, e. w. t., April 30, 1945, the agreed valuation of the Vessel for the purposes of this Charter and the insurance provided by the Charterer, is the sum of $_____. For each subsequent twelve (12) month period the valuation, unless otherwise agreed, shall be reduced by _____

By mutual agreement the valuation provisions of this Clause may be superseded as of the date of loss or any other mutually agreeable date in the event that the Charterer shall adopt any plan with respect to replacement of vessels which is applicable to this Vessel.

CLAUSE E. PORT OF DELIVERY.

CLAUSE F. TIME AND DATE OF DELIVERY.

CLAUSE G. PORT OF REDELIVERY. Port of delivery, unless otherwise agreed; provided however, that at Owner's option, redelivery shall be made at the U. S. continental port where the Owner maintains its principal operating headquarters.

CLAUSE H. NOTICE OF REDELIVERY. The Charterer shall give not less than thirty (30) days' written or telegraphic notice.

CLAUSE I. UNIFORM TERMS. This Charter consists of this Part I and Part II, conforming to the Amended Time Charter for Foreign Flag Tank Vessels, published in the Federal Register of September, 1944. The provisions of Part II shall be incorporated by reference in and need not be attached to Part I of this Charter, and unless in this Part I otherwise expressly provided, all of the provisions, of Part II shall be part of this Charter as though fully set forth in this Part I.

CLAUSE J. EFFECTIVE DATE OF THIS AMENDED CHARTER. Unless otherwise agreed this Amended Charter (Addendum) shall, conditioned upon the Vessel being in every way fitted for service as required by Clause 1 of Part II, be effective upon completion of discharge of the Vessel in a port in the Continental United States, excluding Alaska, on the voyage current on _____, 1944, or if the Vessel be in a port in the Continental United States, excluding Alaska, on _____, 1944, then effective _____, 1944, or if the Vessel has not returned to a port in the Continental United States, excluding Alaska, prior to _____, 1944, then effective _____, 1944 if the Vessel be in any port at that date, otherwise effective upon the Vessel's safe arrival at the Vessel's next port of call.

CLAUSE K. SPECIAL PROVISIONS. (1) With respect to reimbursement of war bonuses by the Charterer under any provisions of this Charter the individual war bonuses paid to the crew (including the Master and officers), shall not be in excess of the same percentage relation to the individual basic wages paid as exist between the individual basic wages and war bonuses paid on an American-flag ship with a like complement in the same service: Provided, That in no event shall the war bonuses for each member of the crew exceed those payable to the corresponding individual crew members of an American-flag vessel (including the Master and officers) with a like complement in the same service. If the Owner's arrangement is for the payment of a flat rate of wage per man (including the war bonuses), the Charterer agrees to reimburse the Owner the aggregate amount by which the aggregate flat wages paid by the Owner to the Master, officers or crew of the Vessel during the period of this Charter, exceeds the aggregate wages (excluding the war bonuses) which would have been payable to the Master, officers and crew of an American-flag ship with a like complement in the same service: Provided, That in no event shall any aggregate amount so to be reimbursed be in excess of the aggregate of the war bonuses which would have been payable to the Master, officers and crew of an American-flag ship in the same service.

UNIFORM TIME CHARTER TERMS AND CONDITIONS FOR TANK VESSELS

(PART II) (REVISED)

CLAUSE 1. The Vessel shall be placed at the disposal of the Charterer at the port of delivery at such safe ready dock, wharf, or place as the Charterer may direct. Any time lost by the Vessel awaiting the availability of such dock, wharf, or place shall count as time on hire. The Vessel on her delivery, as far as due diligence can make her so, shall be ready to receive cargo with pipe lines and pumps in good working condition, and tight, staunch, strong, and in every way fitted for normal service for a Vessel of her size, type and description, with a Master, and a sufficient complement of officers and crew (hereinafter referred to collectively as the crew) for a Vessel of her tonnage, and due diligence shall be exercised by the Owner to maintain her in such state during the currency of this Charter.

The Vessel shall be employed in carrying petroleum or its products in bulk, in lawful trades between safe ports or places, as the Charterer or its agents may direct.

The Vessel may be employed to tow or may be towed, but the Gharterer shall indemnify the Owner for any loss, damage, claims or expenses, resulting from any such use of the Vessel.

For the purpose of this Charter the Owner shall be entitled to the benefits of all waivers in the navigation and inspection laws granted by an authorized officer or by law or regulation.

If radio or other equipment is required to enable the Vessel to comply with this Clause and such equipment is leased by the Owner, it shall pay the rental and maintenance charges therefor or, if such charges are paid by the Charterer, such charges may be deducted from the hire.

CLAUSE 2. The whole reach and burthen of the Vessel's holds, decks, and usual places of carriage (but not more than she can reasonably stow and carry), shall be at the Charterer's disposal reserving only space proper and sufficient in the opinion of the Master for Vessel's crew, Master's cabin, tackle, apparel, furniture, provisions, fresh water, stores, and fuel. The Charterer shall have the option of shipping lawful merchandise in cases, cans or other packages in the Vessel's forehold, 'tween decks or other suitable space available, subject, however, to the Master's approval as to kind, character, amount and stowage, and to the extent that the Owner is not required thereby to obtain a certificate of convenience and necessity therefor under the Transportation Act of 1940. All expenses for dunnage, loading, stowing and discharging so incurred shall be paid by the Charterer, but the Owner is not to provide any equipment not already on board for handling such cargo, and such merchandise shall be shipped at the Charterer's risk and peril.

CLAUSE 3A. Commencing with the time this Amended Charter becomes effective, the Charterer shall (except as otherwise expressly provided in this Charter) pay hire for the use of the Vessel and for the services required under the terms of this Charter at the rate provided in Clause C, of Part I of this Amended Charter, and subject to the provisions of said Clause C, such hire, or payments on account as therein provided, shall continue until the time of the redelivery of the Vessel to the Owner as in this Charter provided, unless the parties hereto otherwise agree; provided, however, that if the Vessel shall be an actual total loss, such hire or payments on account shall continue until the time of her loss, if known, or if the date of loss cannot be ascertained, or if the Vessel is unreported, such hire or payments shall continue for one-half the calculated time necessary for the Vessel to proceed from her last known position to the next port of call, but not exceeding 14 days. If the Vessel is a constructive total loss under the terms of any insurance thereon or is declared a constructive total loss by the Charterer under the provisions of Schedule A, such hire or payments shall continue until Noon (EWT) of the day of the last casualty resulting in or causing or contributing to her loss, except as otherwise provided in Clause 30 of this Charter.

CLAUSE 3B. If at the time of redelivery under this Charter, the Vessel shall require repairs of any damage arising from risks insured against or assumed by the Charterer or for which the Charterer is otherwise liable, hire as herein provided shall continue until completion by the Charterer of such repairs and of any work required of the Charterer by Clause 11, Part II; subject to the provisions of Clause C, Part I and Clause 11D, Part II hereof.

CLAUSE 3C. On the first day of each calender month, the hire provided for in this Amended Charter, and all other monies accruing during the preceding month in favor of the Owner, shall be due and payable.

CLAUSE 3D. The Charterer or its agents may advance currency or perform any services, or furnish any supplies or equipment, which are required by the Owner and are for the Owner's account under this Charter, and the Owner, upon being furnished evidence thereof, shall reimburse or secure the Charterer for the fair and reasonable dollar value of any currency so advanced, services so performed, or supplies and equipment so furnished, or at the Charterer's election the equivalent thereof may be deducted from the hire. It is understood that any such advances made or services performed or supplies and equipment furnished by the government of any country as aid to or for the account of the United States shall be deemed currency advanced, services performed, or supplies and equipment furnished by the Charterer.

CLAUSE 4. In the event that the Vessel is detained because of the happening of any event caused or contributed to by another vessel, person, corporation, or others, for which detention such third parties are or may be liable (the period of such detention to include the time necessary to proceed to, survey, and effect repairs unaccomplished upon the date of redelivery of the Vessel under this Charter), then for such period of detention the Charterer's obligation to the Owner for hire and for other sums otherwise accruing hereunder shall cease; provided, however, that the Charterer shall indemnify and save the Owner harmless from any loss whatsoever by reason of the cessation of such obligations, and notwithstanding said cessation shall pay to the Owner a sum not less than the amount which would otherwise be payable to the Owner for such obligations in the same manner and to the same extent as if such cessation had not occurred, but on performance of this indemnity the Charterer shall immediately become subrogated, to the extent of such indemnity, to all rights whatsoever of the Owner to recover for such detention from or against such vessel, person, corporation, or others, and the Charterer shall be entitled to bring and maintain suit or suits thereon in its own name or in the name of the Owner as the Charterer may see fit; provided however, that on the written request of the Charterer, the owner shall in each instance, assert and prosecute such claims in the name of the Owner, but for and on behalf of the Charterer and at the Charterer's expense, such claims to be in a sum not less than the amount of the indemnity paid by the Charterer.

CLAUSE 5A. Insofar as it is a factor in the Vessel's rate and valuation, deadweight capacity is to be established in accordance with normal Summer Freeboard as assigned pursuant to the International Load Line Convention, 1930, and shall be her capacity (in tons of 2240 lbs.) for cargo, fuel, fresh water, spare parts and stores but exclusive of permanent ballast. Deadweight shall be calculated without deduction for weight lost by reason of cargo refrigeration installation heretofore made, if any, and weight added by installation of refrigerated cargo capacity (including offsetting permanent ballast required thereby), arming, degaussing, demagnetizing, or the installation of splinter-protection equipment or because of ice-strengthening, or other extraordinary wartime installation or equipment, including permanent ballast, heretofore or hereafter made or required by the Charterer, or any other agency of the United States.

CLAUSE 5B. In the event that the Vessel's deadweight or bale cubic refrigerated capacity, when finally determined as herein provided, shall not be in accord with the description contained in Part I hereof, the hire and valuation shall be equitably adjusted to be appropriate for the Vessel's deadweight and bale cubic refrigerated capacity. Certificates of deadweight or bale cubic refrigerated capacity, in satisfactory form, heretofore or hereafter furnished by the American Bureau of Shipping shall be accepted as final proof of deadweight capacity and bale cubic refrigerated capacity.

CLAUSE 6. Except as otherwise provided in this Charter: (a) The Owner shall provide and pay for:

(1) Wages of Master and crew;
(2) Subsistence;
(3) Galley, cabin, deck and engine room stores, supplies and equipment (except all water and fuel for any purpose);
(4) Maintenance and repair of Vessel and equipment to the extent required of the Owner under this Charter;
(5) Sales or other taxes based on the foregoing items; and
(6) Owner's overhead expenses.

(b) The Charterer shall provide and pay for all other charges and expenses whatsoever reasonably and properly incurred in the use, operation or employment of the Vessel hereunder.

For the purposes of this Charter:

(1) The term "wages" as used herein shall include all basic and emergency wages, bonuses for seniority or length of service, overtime and vacation allowances, life, health, retirement or other insurance benefits which are not required to be provided or paid for by the Charterer hereunder.

(2) The term "subsistence" shall include the cost, including delivery, loading and inspection charges thereon, of all edibles for consumption by Master and crew, and other persons covered by clause 7C hereof, and shall also include board and room allowances to Master and crew in lieu of subsistence and lodging aboard the Vessel.

(3) The term "galley, cabin, deck and engine room stores, supplies and equipment" shall mean those items referred to under the heading of "(15)" and "(24) Stores, Supplies and Equipment," page 8, of the General Financial Statement of the U. S. Maritime Commission, approved by the Budget Bureau No. 62–RO, 10–42.

(4) The term "maintenance and repair of Vessel and equipment" shall mean the items referred to under the headings "(25) Other Maintenance Expense" and "(40)" and "(49) Repairs," page 8 of said General Financial Statement.

(5) The term "overhead expense" shall include administrative and general expenses as presently itemized in General Order No. 22 of the U. S. Maritime Commission, Owner's advertising expenses, Owner's taxes (except sales and similar taxes, taxes assessed or based upon freights earned, and other taxes of any kind determined by the Charterer to be properly classifiable as voyage expenses), and the cost of employing agents or branch houses to perform any of the services required of the Owner under this Charter.

CLAUSE 7A. The Charterer shall reimburse the Owner for actual out-of-pocket expenses, including all taxes paid by the Owner with respect to such expenses, for:

(1) All war bonuses (war risk compensation) paid to the master and crew (which term as used in this Clause 7 shall refer to the actual crew on board even though in excess of normal complement), in the manner and to the extent provided for in applicable decisions or advices of the Maritime War Emergency Board, as amended or modified from time to time, or in judicial decisions relating thereto.

(2) All extra compensation, including overtime, paid to the crew for services performed by the crew (a) in connection with cargo, at sea or in port (b) in connection with shifting of Vessel in port for Charterer's purposes, or (c) preparatory to loading or discharging or sailing in convoy. If the Vessel operates in the Alaska trade, the Charterer shall also pay the extra crew costs exceeding costs that would have been incurred in similar operations in other ocean-going trades.

(3) All wages and overtime paid to any extra crew members beyond the normal complement of the Vessel, or to other persons carried, who are required to be employed by the Owner because of (a) the Vessel's service under this Charter, (b) the loading or discharging of cargo, or (c) to care for any persons covered by Clause 7C hereof. Extra wages or overtime paid to the normal complement of the Vessel in lieu of employing extra crew members or other persons for the purposes above set forth shall also be reimbursed to the Owner. The term "normal complement" as used in this Charter shall refer to the normal peacetime complement for offshore foreign trading for the average vessel of the same size, type and description as the Vessel chartered hereunder, as determined by the Administrator.

(4) All wages and overtime paid to security watchmen, provided in compliance with any security requirements of any United States or other Government agency, and all overtime or additional wages paid to the crew by reason of compliance with such requirements.

(5) All extra clothing or effects for the Master and crew necessitated by the Vessel's service under this Charter (Charterer to have title to such extra clothing and effects).

CLAUSE 7B. The Charterer shall, to the extent the Owner is not reimbursed under the provisions of Schedule A attached hereto, reimburse the Owner for out-of-pocket expenses or disbursements made on behalf of the Master or crew, or payments made to the Master or crew, for repatriation transportation (including return to port of shipment), and for wages and subsistence while awaiting and during such transportation, where such expenses, disbursements, or payments are assumed by the terms of the Ship's Articles, the Owner's collective bargaining agreements or found by the Owner to be reasonably necessary or desirable. The Owner shall also be reimbursed for the cost reasonably incurred in furnishing men to replace members of the crew whose employment has terminated at ports in Alaska or outside the Continental United States, where suitable replacements are not readily available.

CLAUSE 7C. The Charterer shall pay the Owner at the rate of $1.50 per day per person (not in excess of fifty (50) persons) for providing subsistence aboard the Vessel for any person carried at the request of the Charterer or any agency of the United States or the military authorities of any Allied Government, or any extra crew members beyond the Vessel's normal complement required because of the Vessel's service under this Charter, and $1.50 per day per person for providing subsistence aboard the Vessel for any extra complement thereby required. If a total of more than 50 extra persons referred to in this Clause 7C are carried on the Vessel at any one time, the Owner shall be reimbursed for his actual costs for subsistence of the number in excess of 50, unless subsistence rates or schedules applicable to such excess number have been agreed upon between the Owner and the Charterer, in which event such rates or schedules shall govern. The term "subsistence" as used in this subsection shall include victualling, supplying with linens, bedding, laundry, and similar services, but the Owner shall not be obliged to furnish linens and bedding for such extra persons in excess of 50, unless otherwise agreed.

CLAUSE 8A. The Charterer may disallow in whole or in part, as may be appropriate, and deny reimbursement for any expenses for which it is required to reimburse the Owner which are in contravention of the terms of this Charter, or are otherwise improvident or excessive.

CLAUSE 8B. The Charterer shall reimburse the Owner for any additional extraordinary costs incurred which the Charterer, in its discretion, may allow upon finding that such costs are not intended to be covered in the allowance for services hereunder. In the event the Vessel is assigned by the Charterer for service between foreign ports, the Charterer shall make such adjustment, if any, as it deems appropriate to allow for increased cost of operation.

CLAUSE 8C. In the event the Vessel is physically incapable of working for a period in excess of twenty (20) days while in a Continental United States port (excluding Alaska) or for a period of thirty (30) days while in Alaska or outside the Continental United States, the charter hire otherwise payable hereunder shall be reduced for the excess period by an amount equal to twenty (20) per cent of the service rate, plus eighty (80) per cent of the actual savings in wages for Master and crew during the entire period of lay-up. The Owner shall furnish reports of wage savings as soon as practicable after the termination of each month of such lay-up.

CLAUSE 9. The Charterer shall provide necessary dunnage and shifting boards, also any extra fittings and materials requite for a special trade or for the carriage of livestock or other unusual cargo, but the Owner shall allow the Charterer the use of any dunnage and shifting boards and fittings and materials already aboard the Vessel. The Charterer shall have the privilege of using shifting boards for dunnage. Upon redelivery of the Vessel, the Charterer shall make good any damage to or shortage of shifting boards, fittings or materials which are on board at delivery.

CLAUSE 10. The Charterer shall pay for all fuel on board upon delivery, and the Owner shall pay for all fuel on board on redelivery not in excess of Owner's normal requirements, at market prices current at the ports and times of delivery and redelivery, respectively.

CLAUSE 11A. The Charterer or any agency of the United States may, at the expense of the Charterer or such agency and on the Charterer's time, install any equipment, gear or armament, and may make any alterations or additions to the Vessel. Such equipment, gear or armament so installed are to be considered Charterer's property and are to be maintained at Charterer's expense. Such work shall be done so as not to affect the seaworthiness of the Vessel or the safety of the crew, and as not to be incontravention of any applicable law of the United States or regulation made pursuant thereto. The Charterer shall, before redelivery and at its expense and on its time, remove any equipment, gear and armament installed by or at the request of the Charterer or any agency of the United States and restore the Vessel to her condition prior to any such installations, alterations, additions or changes, whether such installations, alterations, additions or changes were made under this Charter or prior to delivery under this Charter, except as may be otherwise provided herein.

CLAUSE 11B. Commencing with the time this Amended Charter becomes effective, the Charterer shall pay the full actual cost of providing and maintaining all equipment and installations on the Vessel, beyond normal peace-time standards, then or thereafter set forth in sub-chapter O of Chapter I of the Regulations of the United States Coast Guard (Title 46, U.S.C.R.) or in other wartime regulations of any agency of the United States, except that if and so long as the Vessel remains under time charter, the Owner shall provide and pay for renewals, replacements and repairs to lifeboat equipment and for minor repairs to lifeboats not belonging to the Owner, unless any such renewals, replacements or repairs are caused by subsequent increases and changes in wartime Governmental requirements. Provided, however, That if the Owner has not entered into a form of addendum to the original time charter covering this Vessel designated as "Uniform Addendum To Time Charter Covering Adjustments of Certain Disputed Questions" and has not entered into a special agreement as and if contemplated in Paragraph Fourth of said addendum, then the obligations of the Charterer under this Clause 11B shall be limited to items hereafter required and shall not cover items heretofore required as aforesaid. All such equipment and installations installed in or relating to lifeboats belonging to the Owner shall be the property of the Owner and all other equipment or installations shall belong to the Charterer and shall be considered as equipment installed or as alterations or additions made by the Charterer pursuant to Clause 11A of the Charter.

The payments provided for in this paragraph shall be made in the same manner and shall not exceed in amount those payable to like American-flag vessels operating under similar Warshiptime (Rev.) or Warshipotltime (Rev.) charters containing a clause substantially the same as the foregoing provisions of this paragraph.

CLAUSE 11C. Any equipment, furniture, furnishings or appliances belonging to the Vessel and not required by the Charterer may be removed by the Charterer, at the Charterer's expense, and, upon termination of the Charter, unless the Vessel has been lost or requisitioned for title, any such removals are to be replaced on board the Vessel or made good by the Charterer at its expense. Storage charges arising from such removal shall be paid for by the Charterer.

CLAUSE 11D. If, at the time of redelivery under this Charter, the Vessel shall require any work or repairs of any damage arising from risks insured against or assumed by the Charterer, or for which the Charterer is otherwise liable under this Clause, Clause 11A or any other Clause hereunder, the Charterer may, at its option, discharge such obligations by payment to the Owner in advance, of an amount for reconditioning sufficient to provide for such work or repairs, which amount shall also include compensation at the rate of hire that would otherwise have been payable under this Charter, for the time reasonably required under then existing conditions to complete such work or repairs and compensation for other expenses incident to such work or repairs. If the Owner and Charterer agree such obligations may be discharged by a mutually satisfactory agreement.

CLAUSE 12. The Owner agrees at its expense to drydock the Vessel for the purpose of cleaning and painting her bottom, when necessary, but not less than once in every nine (9) months unless the Charterer otherwise agrees, and, when drydocking is due, the Charterer agrees to send the Vessel to a port where she can so drydock, clean and paint. The Owner undertakes to put the Vessel in drydock for cleaning and painting the bottom as soon thereafter as the Vessel is at the Owner's disposal, clear of oil and gas, at the port having suitable accommodations for the purpose. The Owner is always and solely responsible for clearing the Vessel of oil and gas but the expense and time thereof shall be for Charterer's account. The expenses incidental to sending the Vessel to drydock for painting her bottom and all port charges incurred therein shall be for the Owner's account.

Except as otherwise provided herein the expense of clearing the Vessel of oil and gas as well as all other expenses incidental to sending the Vessel to drydock or repair yard and all port charges incurred therein shall be:

(1) For Owner's account when required primarily for Owner's repairs, or

(2) For Charterer's account when required primarily for Charterer's repairs, or

(3) For account of both Owner and Charterer when repairs under (1) and (2) above are carried out concurrently and such expense shall be apportioned in accordance with normal commercial practice.

CLAUSE 13. The Charterer shall furnish the Master from time to time with all requisite instructions and sailing directions, in writing, and the Master, to the extent permitted by governmental orders or directions, shall keep a full and correct log of the voyage or voyages, which shall be patent to the Charterer or its agents, and furnish the Charterer or its agents, when required and to the extent permitted by governmental orders or directions, with a true copy of port and daily logs, showing the course of the Vessel, the distance run and the consumption of fuel.

CLAUSE 14. Subject always to the directions of the Charterer the Master shall prosecute his voyages with the utmost dispatch and shall render all customary assistance with Ship's crew and boats; and shall use due diligence in caring for the cargo. The Master (although employed by the Owner) shall be under the orders and directions of the Charterer as regards employment, agency and prosecution of the voyages. Bills of lading are, if requested by the Charterer, to be signed by the Master in the form and at any rate of freight that Charterer or its agents may direct, without prejudice to this Charter. The Charterer hereby agrees to indemnify the Owner against all consequences or liabilities that may arise from the Charterer or its agents (including the Master) signing bills of lading or other documents inconsistent with this Charter, or from any irregularities in papers supplied by the Charterer or its agents.

CLAUSE 15. Cargo may be laden or discharged in any dock or at any wharf or place that the Charterer or its agents may direct, provided that the Vessel can proceed thereto, lie at, and depart therefrom always safely afloat.

CLAUSE 16. Neither the Owner nor the Vessel shall be responsible for any admixture, if more than one quality of oil is shipped nor for leakage, contamination or deterioration in quality of the cargo. No injurious cargoes, including acids that are injurious to the Vessel, are to be shipped, it being understood that gasoline, Ethyl gasoline, benzol, creosote, molasses, and the various vegetable oils, customarily carried in tank vessels, are not to be considered as injurious. Charterer undertakes in case it employs the Vessel to carry any other cargo than petroleum and its products in bulk to indemnify the Owner against any damage that may arise to such cargo owing to the Vessel having previously loaded oil, or to oil after having loaded other cargo. If the Vessel's tanks at the time of delivery are gas free and clean and fit for the transportation of clean products, such as refined petroleum or naphtha, the Vessel is to be redelivered in the same condition as on delivery. Similarly, if her tanks are soiled at the time of delivery the Vessel may be redelivered with tanks in like condition.

CLAUSE 17. No petroleum product shall be shipped which fails to meet one or the other of the two following requirements: (1) The vapor pressure at one-hundred degrees Fahrenheit (100° F.) shall not exceed thirteen pounds (13 lbs.) as determined by the A. S. T. M. Method (Reid Method) identified as D-323 current at the time shipment is made. (2) The distillation loss shall not exceed four per cent (4%) and the sum of the distillation loss and the distillate collected in the receiving graduate shall not exceed ten per cent (10%) when the thermometer reads one-hundred twenty-two degrees Fahrenheit (122° F.). Note—The distillation test shall be made by A. S. T. M. Method identified as D-86 current at the time shipment is made. When products other than naphtha or gasoline are tested, the distillation loss may be determined by distilling not less than twenty-five per cent (25%) and deducting from one-hundred per cent (100%) the sum of the volumes of the distillate and the residue in the flask (cooled to a temperature of sixty degrees Fahrenheit (60° F.)).

CLAUSE 18. All bills of lading issued hereunder shall contain, directly or by reference, substantially the following clauses:

(i) Cause Paramount. "This bill of lading shall have effect subject to the provisions of the Carriage of Goods by Sea Act of United States, approved April 16, 1936, which shall be deemed to be incorporated herein, and nothing herein contained shall be deemed a surrender by the Carrier of any of its rights or immunities or an increase of any of its responsibilities or liabilities under said Act. If any term of this bill of lading be repugnant to said Act to any extent, such term shall be void to that extent but no further."

(ii) Both-To-Blame Collision Clause. "If the ship comes into collision with another ship as a result of the negligence of the other ship and any act, neglect or default of the master, mariner, pilot or the servants of the carrier in the navigation or in the management of the ship, the owners of the goods carried hereunder will indemnify the carrier against all loss or liability to the other or noncarrying ship or her owners in so far as such loss or liability represents loss of, or damage to, or any claim whatsoever of the owners of said goods, paid or payable by the other or noncarrying ship or her owners to the owners of said goods and set-off, recouped or recovered by the other or noncarrying ship or her owners as part of their claim against the carrying ship or carrier. The foregoing provisions shall also apply where the owners, operators or those in charge of any ship or ships or objects other than, or in addition to, the colliding ships or objects are at fault in respect of a collision or contact."

(iii) General average clause. "General average shall be adjusted, stated, and settled, according to Rules 1 to 15, inclusive, 17 to 22, inclusive, and Rule F of York-Antwerp Rules 1924, at such port or place in the United States as may be selected by the carrier, and as to matters not provided for by these Rules, according to the laws and usages at the port of New York. In such adjustment, disbursements in foreign currencies shall be exchanged into United States money at the rate prevailing on the dates made and allowances for damage to cargo claimed in foreign currency shall be converted at the rate prevailing on the last day of discharge at the port or place of final discharge of such damaged cargo from the ship. Average agreement or bond and such additional security, as may be required by the carrier, must be furnished before delivery of the goods. Such cash deposit as the carrier or his agents may deem sufficient as additional security for the contribution of the goods and for any salvage and special charges thereon, shall, if required, be made by the goods, shippers, consignees, or owners of the goods to the carrier before delivery. Such deposit shall, at the option of the carrier, be payable in United States money, and be remitted to the adjuster. When so remitted the deposit shall be held in a special account at the place of adjustment in the name of the adjuster pending settlement of the general average and refunds or credit balances, if, any, shall be paid in United States money."

(iv) Amended "Jason" clause. "In the event of accident, danger, damage, or disaster before or after commencement of the voyage resulting from any cause whatsoever, whether due to negligence or not, for which or for the consequence of which the carrier is not responsible by statute, contract, or otherwise, the goods, shippers, consignees, or owners of the goods shall contribute with the carrier in general average to the payment of any sacrifices, losses or expenses of a general average nature that may be made or incurred, and shall pay salvage and special charges incurred in respect of the goods. If a salving ship is owned or operated by the carrier, salvage shall be paid for as fully as if the salving ship or ships belong to strangers."

(v) Liberties clauses. "In any situation whatsoever and wheresoever occurring and whether existing or anticipated before commencement of or during the voyage, which in the judgement of the carrier or master is likely to give rise to risk of capture, seizure, detention, damages, delay or disadvantage to or loss of the ship or any part of her cargo, or to make it unsafe, imprudent, or unlawful for any reason to commence or proceed on or continue the voyage or to enter or discharge the goods at the port of discharge, or to give rise to delay or difficulty in arriving, discharging at or leaving the port of discharge or the usual place of discharge in such port, the carrier may before loading or before the commencement of the voyage, require the shipper or other person entitled thereto to take delivery of the goods at port of shipment and upon their failure to do so, may warehouse the goods at the risk and expense of the goods; or the carrier or master, whether or not proceeding toward or entering or attempting to enter the port of discharge or reaching or attempting to reach the usual place of discharge therein or attempting to discharge the goods there, may discharge the goods into depot, lazaretto, craft or other place; or the ship may proceed or return, directly or indirectly, to or stop at any such port or place whatsoever as the master or the carrier may consider safe or advisable under the circumstances, and discharge the goods, or any part thereof, at any such port or place; or the carrier or the master may retain the cargo on board until the return trip or until such time as the carrier or the master thinks advisable and discharge the goods at any place whatsoever as herein provided; or the carrier or the master may discharge and forward the goods by any means at the risk and expense of the goods. The carrier or the master is not required to give notice of discharge of the goods or the forwarding thereof as herein provided. When the goods are discharged from the ship, as herein provided, they shall be at their own risk and expense; such discharge shall constitute complete delivery and performance under this contract and the carrier shall be freed from any further responsibility. For any service rendered to the goods as herein provided the carrier shall be entitled to a reasonable extra compensation.

"The carrier, master and ship shall have liberty to comply with any orders or directions as to loading, departure, arrival, routes, ports of call, stoppages, discharge, destination, delivery or otherwise howsoever given by the government of any nation or department thereof or any person acting or purporting to act with the authority of such government or of any department thereof, or by any committee or person having, under the terms of the war risk insurance on the ship, the right to give such orders or directions. Delivery or other disposition of the goods in accordance with such orders or directions shall be a fulfillment of the contract voyage. The ship may carry contraband, explosives, munitions, warlike stores, hazardous cargo, and may sail armed or unarmed and with or without convoy.

"In addition to all other liberties herein the carrier shall have the right to withhold delivery of, reship to, deposit or discharge the goods at any place whatsoever, surrender or dispose of the goods in accordance with any direction, condition or agreement imposed upon or exacted from the carrier by any government or department thereof or any person purporting to act with the authority of either of them. In any of the above circumstances the goods shall be solely at their risk and expense and all expenses and charges so incurred shall be payable by the owner or consignee thereof and shall be a lien on the goods."

This Charter shall also be subject to the provisions of (ii), (iii) and (iv) of this Clause 18.

CLAUSE 19. The Vessel, her Master and Owner shall not, unless otherwise in this Charter expressly provided, be responsible for any loss or damage or delay or failure in performing under this Charter, arising or resulting from: Any act, neglect, default or barratry of the Master, pilots, mariners or other servants of the Owner, in the navigation or management of the Vessel; fire, unless caused by the personal design or neglect of the Owner; collision, stranding, or peril, danger or accident of the sea or other navigable waters; saving or attempting to save life or property; wastage in weight or bulk, or any other loss or damage arising from inherent defect, quality or vice of the cargo; any act or omission of the Charterer, the owner, shipper or consignee of the cargo, their agents or representatives; insufficiency of packing; insufficiency or inadequacy of marks; explosions, bursting of boilers, breakage of shafts, or any latent defects in hull, equipment or machinery; unseaworthiness of the Vessel unless caused by want of due diligence on the part of the Owner to make the Vessel seaworthy or to have her properly manned, equipped and supplied; or from any other cause of whatsoever kind arising without the actual fault of privity of the Owner. And neither the Vessel, her Master or Owner, nor the Charterer shall, unless otherwise in this Charter expressly provided, be responsible for any loss or damage or delay or failure in performing under this Charter arising or resulting from: Act of God; act of war; act of public enemies, pirates, or assailing thieves; arrest or restraint of princes, rulers of people, or seizure under legal process; strike or lock-out or stoppage or restraint of labor from whatever cause, either partial or general; or riot or civil commotion. The Vessel shall have liberty to sail with or without pilots, to tow or to be towed, to go to the assistance of vessels in distress and to deviate for the purpose of saving life or property or of landing any ill or injured person on board. No exemption afforded to the Charterer under this Clause shall diminish its obligations for hire under the other provisions of this Charter.

CLAUSE 20. The Insurance, Indemnity and Waiver program set forth in Schedule A annexed is hereby incorporated by reference in and made a part of this Charter as though fully set forth in this Clause.

CLAUSE 21. All salvage moneys earned by the Vessel shall be divided equally between the Owner and the Charterer, after deducting the Master and crew's shares, legal expenses, hire of the Vessel during time lost, value of fuel consumed, repairs of damage, if any, and any other extraordinary loss or expense sustained as a result of the service, which shall always be a first charge on such moneys: Provided, however, That to the extent necessary to effectuate the purposes of the Insurance, Indemnity and Waiver Program (Schedule A), claims for salvage on behalf of the Owner shall be made solely at the discretion of the Charterer.

CLAUSE 22. If the Charterer shall notify the Owner that the employment or the continued employment of the Master or any member of the crew or any agent of the Owner is prejudicial to the interests of the United States in the prosecuting of the war, the Owner shall make any changes necessary in the appointment.

If the Charterer shall have reason to be dissatisfied with the conduct of any member of the crew, the Owner shall, on receiving particulars of the complaint, investigate and make any changes practicable in the appointments or practices aboard the Vessel with respect to the maintenance of proper discipline, necessary to eliminate the reasons for such dissatisfaction by the Charterer.

CLAUSE 23. Any provisions of this Charter to the contrary notwithstanding, the Owner shall have the benefit of all limitations of, and exemptions from, liability accorded to the Owner of vessels by any statute or rule of law for the time being in force. Nothing herein shall be deemed to affect the Charterer's right of limitation or exemption from liability accorded under the provisions of Section 4 of Public Law 17, 78th Congress.

CLAUSE 24. Nothing herein stated is to be construed as a demise of the Vessel to the Charterer.

CLAUSE 25. Liability for nonperformance of this Charter shall be proved damages.

CLAUSE 26. The Charterer shall have the option of subletting or assigning this Charter, but the Charterer shall always remain responsible for the due fulfillment of this Charter in all its terms and conditions.

CLAUSE 27. The Charterer shall have a lien on the Vessel for all moneys paid in advance and not earned.

CLAUSE 28. The Master and the Vessel shall have liberty to comply with any orders or directions as to loading, departure, arrival, routes, ports of call, stoppages, discharge, destinations, delivery or otherwise howsoever given by the government of any nation or department thereof or any person acting or purporting to act with the authority of such government or of any department thereof, and if by reason of or in compliance with any such orders or directions anything is done or is not done, such shall not be deemed a deviation or breach of orders or neglect of duty by the Master or the Vessel: Provided, however, That whenever any such orders or directions given otherwise than by the Government of the United States or its representative are contrary to sailing directions or other orders of the Charterer as to the employment of the Vessel, the Master shall, if practicable, apply to the Charterer or its agents or to a representative of the United States for consent or advice and shall not comply with such orders or directions unless such consent or advice to comply is first obtained: Provided further, however, That if it is impracticable in any case to act in accordance with the foregoing proviso, the Master's decision as to compliance with any such orders or directions shall be made with due regard to the interests of all concerned, including the Charterer, the owner, and the Vessel, her crew and cargo.

CLAUSE 29. If after redelivery the Vessel is arrested or attached upon any cause of action arising or alleged to have arisen from previous possessions or operation of the Vessel by the Charterer, or any subcharterer, or for which the Charterer is liable, the Charterer undertakes to use its best efforts to cause the release of the Vessel under the Suits in Admiralty Act or any other special remedy available to the Charterer, subject to the approval of the Attorney General of the United States.

CLAUSE 30. The Charterer shall reimburse the Owner for all expenses for wages, bonuses and subsistence of the Master and crew and other out-of-pocket costs incurred by the Owner subsequent to the date of and arising from an actual or constructive total loss of the Vessel to the extent not recovered or reimbursed under any insurance on the Vessel, or under this Charter or otherwise. If the extent of the damage or injury is not sufficient to entitle the Owner to collect for an actual or constructive total loss under the provisions of any insurance on the Vessel in the absence of a declaration by the Charterer, then in addition to reimbursement of expenses as aforesaid, the Owner shall be entitled: (a) to charter hire at the rate of 3½ per cent per annum on the then current valuation of the Vessel commencing with the date when charter hire would otherwise terminate and ending four months thereafter or on the date of such declaration, whichever date is earlier; and (b) if the Vessel is declared a constructive total loss more than four months after the date charter hire would otherwise terminate, then to charter hire in an amount equal to the use rate payable under Part I from the end of such four months until the date of such declaration.

CLAUSE 31. The Administrator (Charterer), acting pursuant to delegation of authority by the War Contracts Price Adjustment Board to the Administrator by instrument dated February 26, 1944, having found that this Agreement is in the nature of a lease contract and that the profits of the use rate and agreed valuation (if any) hereunder can now be determined with reasonable certainly, that such use rate and agreed valuation (if any) are not in excess of just compensation to which the Owner is or may be entitled, and that the provisions of this Charter with respect thereto adequately prevent excessive profits, the said use rate and agreed valuation (if any) are hereby exempted from the provisions of the Renegotiation Act, pursuant to subsection (i) (4) of the said Act. Nothing in this Clause 31 shall be construed as an admission by the Owners that the items exempted from renegotiation as aforesaid would be subject to the Renegotiation Act in the absence of the foregoing provisions. The service rate under this Charter shall be subject to renegotiation in accordance with the provisions of said Act, and with respect thereto this Charter shall be deemed to contain all the provisions required by subsection (b) of said Act, with the expressed understanding and agreement that the aggregate of the amount received or accrued to the Owner on account of the service rate under this and all other WARSHIPTIMES or WARSHIPOILTIMES Charters containing similar renegotiation provisions shall be treated as a unit for the purpose of such renegotiation. There shall be inserted in each subcontract, subject to the Renegotiation Act and involving an estimated amount of more than $100,000, a clause reciting in substance that such subcontract shall be deemed to contain all the provisions required by the Renegotiation Act. This Clause 31 shall be applicable only from the effective date of this Amended Charter.

Nothing in this Clause 31 shall be construed as an admission or agreement by the Owner as to the applicability of the Renegotiation Act to this Charter for the period prior to the effective date of this Amended Charter or to any charter hire or other sums accruing prior to the effective date of this Amended Charter: Provided, however, That all rights, if any, which the Administrator may have to renegotiate any charter hire or other sums accruing prior to the effective date of this Amended Charter are hereby reserved by the Administrator.

CLAUSE 32A. No member of or delegate to Congress or Resident Commissioner is or shall be admitted to any share or part of this Charter or to any benefit that may arise therefrom, except to the extent allowed by Title 10 U. S. Code, Section 206. The Owner agrees not to employ any member of or delegate to Congress or Resident Commissioner, either with or without compensation, as an attorney, agent, officer or director.

CLAUSE 32B. The Owner shall not employ any person who advocates, or who is a member of an organization that advocates, the overthrow of the government of the United States by force or violence, to perform any work under this Charter. As a condition to the employment of any person for the performance of such work, the Owner shall, if the Charterer so directs, require each person to execute and file an affidavit in such form as to satisfy the requirements of Public Law No. 678, 77th Congress, or Public Law No. 28, 77th Congress, but the execution and filing of such affidavit shall be without prejudice to the right of the Charterer to require such further evidence in the premises as may be in the possession of the Owner as the Charterer may deem desirable.

CLAUSE 32C. The Owner agrees that in performing the work required of it by this Charter, it will not discriminate against any worker because of race, creed, color, or national origin.

CLAUSE 32D. The Owner shall not employ any person undergoing sentence of imprisonment at hard labor.

CLAUSE 32E. The Owner warrants that it has not employed any person to solicit or secure this Charter upon any agreement for a commission, percentage, brokerage, or contingent fee. Breach of this warranty shall give the Charterer the right to annul this Charter or, in its discretion, to deduct from any sums payable under this Charter the amount of such commission, percentage, brokerage, or contingent fees. This warranty shall not apply to commissions payable by the Owner upon agreements or sales secured or made through bona fide established commercial or selling agencies maintained by the Owner for the purpose of securing business.

CLAUSE 33. Failure of the Master or Owner to protest against any act or omission of the Charterer, or any other agency of the United States, including any act, omission or order which in the opinion of the Master may affect the Vessel's seaworthiness or may be in contravention of the laws or regulations of the United States shall not prejudice the rights of the Owner under this Charter.

CLAUSE 34. Unless otherwise provided in this Charter or mutually agreed upon, all payments, notices and communications from the Charterer to the Owner, pursuant to the terms of or in connection with this Charter, shall be made or addressed to the Owner at the address provided in Part I, and all payments, notices and communications from the Owner to the Charterer, pursuant to the terms of or in connection with this Charter, shall be made or addressed to the Charterer at its offices in Washington, District of Columbia.

CLAUSE 35A. In the event that this form of time charter is modified by the Charterer at any time prior to October 1, 1944 the Owner shall, at its option, have the benefit of any such modifications, subject to the assumption by the Owner, at the request of the Charterer, of any obligations imposed in conjunction with such modifications. Said option shall be exercised within such reasonable time as the Charterer may prescribe, and, upon such exercise, the modifications shall become effective as of the date of this Charter. In the event of non-exercise by the Owner of said option, this Charter shall remain in full force and effect in accordance with its original terms.

CLAUSE 35B. This Charter may be amended, modified or terminated at any time by mutual agreement between the parties hereto.

CLAUSE 36. This Charter consists of this Part II and of Part I which incorporates this Part II therein by reference. In the event of conflict between the provisions of this Part II and those of Part I, the provisions of Part I shall govern to the extent of such conflict.

SCHEDULE A (FORFLAG)—INSURANCE INDEMNITY AND WAIVER PROGRAM

I. INSURANCE

(A) Unless otherwise mutually arranged, at all times during the currency of this Charter the Charterer shall provide and pay for or assume as insurer:

(1) Insurance on the Vessel under the terms and conditions of the full form of standard hull war risk policy of the War Shipping Administration, (designated as Warshipreq (FOR.), a copy of which is attached hereto) in the amount of the agreed value under this Charter, and covering only war risks (including malicious damage, sabotage, strikes, riots, and civil commotion.)

It is specially agreed, however:

(a) That the Owner, at its own expense except as provided in subparagraph (b) below will insure the Vessel with the American Marine Hull Insurance Syndicate in an amount to be determined by the Owner, and under the conditions of AMERICAN HULL FORM REVISED (Requisitioned Vessels 1943) which insurance shall include the interest of War Shipping Administration as Charterer.

(b) That the Charterer will reimburse the Owner for premiums paid on insurance taken out by the Owner with the American Marine Hull Insurance Syndicate pursuant to subparagraph (a) above. Provided, however, Such reimbursement shall not exceed the amount of premiums payable on the value set forth in the Charter on the attachment of said insurance and at the time any further annual premium is due and payable. In consideration of such reimbursement, any recapture or profits from said Syndicate shall accrue to the sole benefit of the Charterer, and any return of premiums under the insurance procured by the Owner shall, to the extent that they represent premiums originally reimbursed by the Charterer, be repayable to the Charterer.

(c) That the Owner (at its option and expense) may procure excess insurance, including liability insurance, (without benefit of salvage, subrogation or right of contribution) above the limits of the insurance so procured, but such insurance shall not be on terms inconsistent with the provisions of this Charter or with the provisions of the insurance provided for above.

(d) That the insurance procured by the Owner pursuant to subparagraph (a) hereof as well as any additional insurance procured by the Owner pursuant to subparagraph (c) hereof, and any amount of self-insurance carried by the Owner in excess of the limits of the insurance procured pursuant to subparagraph (a) hereof, shall be subject to the provisions of Clause II of this Schedule A. In consideration of the foregoing, the Charterer hereby insures the Owner against any claim by the United States for damage to property or vessels of the United States or for loss of freight, demurrage or other claims covered by the collision clause in the AMERICAN HULL FORM REVISED (Requisitioned Vessels 1943) policy, arising out of collision with the Vessel.

(e) That in the event of cancellation or termination of the insurance referred to in subparagraph (a) above (except for nonpayment of premium), or upon thirty (30) days written notice from Charterer to the Owner, the Vessel shall thereafter be insured for marine risks by the Charterer under the terms and conditions of the full form of standard hull policy of the War Shipping Administration (designated as Warshipreq (FOR.) for the amount of the agreed value under this Charter.

(f) The Charterer hereby insures the Owner for payments of (a) sue and labor charges, (b) general average and salvage, and (c) collision liabilities, not recoverable under the insurance on the Vessel taken out by the Owner with the American Marine Hull Insurance Syndicate pursuant to sub-paragraph (a) above solely by reason of the insured valuation of said policies being insufficient to provide complete indemnity to the vessel Owner in respect of the liabilities specifically referred to in this sub-paragraph (f), and not recoverable under insurance arranged pursuant to sub-paragraph (c) above. Provided, however, That the liability of the Charterer under this subparagraph (f), in respect of any one such class of liabilities, shall be limited for any one collision, casualty or occurrence to the amount, if any, by which the market value of the Vessel in sound condition at the date of such collision, casualty or occurrence, plus the Vessel's then pending freight, exceeds the insured value of the Vessel for total loss purposes under the insurance taken out by the Owner pursuant to subparagraph (a) above; it being understood that the amount of the Charterer's liability hereunder, if any, shall be applicable separately to each of the foregoing three classes of liabilities, with the full amount open for each.

(g) Without limiting the liability of the Charterer as insurer under this Charter, all repairs to the Vessel coming within the terms of the insurance assumed by the Charterer or procured by the Owner pursuant to this Schedule A shall be subject to the approval of the Charterer as to the extent, time and place of repairs. All repairs shall be carried out under the supervision of the Owner.

(h) In the event the Vessel is covered by a mortgage or lien held by any department or instrumentality of the United States, then any sum or sums payable by virtue of the provisions of this Clause I of Schedule A shall be payable for distribution to such department or instrumentality and/or the persons entitled thereto as their interests may appear.

(2) All insurance which the Owner may be obligated to provide, covering the crew with respect to loss of life, disability (including dismemberment and loss of function), detention, repatriation and similar situations, and loss of or damage to personal effects. Unless otherwise directed by the Charterer, the Owner shall agree with the crew to provide the war risk insurance covering such items afforded by the Decisions of the Maritime War Emergency Board (as amended or modified from time to time) and the marine risk insurance covering such items afforded by the Second Seamen's War Risk Policy (published in the Federal Register of March 20, 1943, as Decision 1A of the Maritime War Emergency Board), as amended from time to time, and such Decisions and Policy shall be the measure and limit of the Charterer's liability under this Clause. The Owner shall give effect to the foregoing by inserting the following language, or such other language as the Charterer may from time to time direct, in the form of a rider or otherwise, in the Ship's Articles or other contract of employment on all voyages of the Vessel under this Charter:

"It is agreed that the Master, Officers, and Members of the Crew shall be furnished the war risk insurance protection covering loss of life, disability (including dismemberment and loss of function), detention, repatriation and similar situations and loss of or damage to personal effects, required by the Decisions of the Maritime War Emergency Board, as amended or modified from time to time, and the marine risk insurance afforded by the Second Seamen's War Risk Policy, as amended from time to time."

(3) War risk protection and indemnity insurance under the terms and conditions of the standard WAR RISK PROTECTION AND INDEMNITY policy prescribed by the War Shipping Administration, a copy of which is attached hereto, for the benefit of the Owner and the Charterer, as their interests may appear.

It is specially agreed, however,

(a) That the Owner, unless otherwise agreed, shall procure marine protection and indemnity insurance under the terms and conditions of the WARTIMEPANDI Policy (Requisitioned Vessels 1943) from an American Protection and Indemnity Underwriter approved by the Charterer which issues said form of policy, which insurance shall include the interests of the Charterer and its Time Charter Agents under Service Agreements, Berth Agents and Sub-Agents acting on their behalf. The Charterer shall reimburse the Owner for all premiums paid on such insurance in consideration of which any readjustment of premiums and any return premium shall be for account of the Charterer.

(b) That to the extent that cargo claims are recoverable under said insurance or are reimbursable to the Owner under the terms of this Charter, the Charterer, and its duly authorized Agents are authorized by the Owner to attend to the adjustment and settlement of or otherwise dispose of cargo claims in such manner (not inconsistent with the terms of said Protection and Indemnity Insurance) as may be determined by the Charterer.

(c) That in the event of cancellation (except for nonpayment of premium) of the insurance referred to in subparagraph (a) above by the Protection and Indemnity Underwriters, or upon thirty days' written notice from the Charterer to the Owner of its intention to terminate such insurance, the Charterer will then provide and pay for or assume as insurer, identical marine protection and indemnity insurance for the benefit of the Owner and the Charterer and the Charterer's Agents as their interests may appear.

(d) That the Charterer assumes as insurer any liability of the Owner or the Charterer on account of loss, damage or expense in respect of lend lease cargo or cargo owned by the United States or any agency or department thereof, including but not limited to the War Department, Navy Department, Metal Reserves Company, Rubber Reserves Company, Defense Supplies Corporation, Reconstruction Finance Corporation or Foreign Economic Administration, which would be recoverable under the WARTIMEPANDI Policy (Requisitioned Vessels 1943) in the absence of the specific exclusion relating thereto, therein.

(e) That the Charterer hereby insures the Owner for excess protection and indemnity liabilities on said Vessel on terms and conditions identical to that provided by WARTIMEPANDI Policy (Requisitioned Vessels 1943) to the extent that said WARTIMEPANDI Policy (by reason of the insured amounts in said policy) does not provide the Owner with complete protection and indemnity: Provided, however, That the liability of the Charterer under this subparagraph (e) in respect of any one accident or occurrence shall be limited to the amount, if any, by which the market value of the vessel in sound condition at the date of such accident or occurrence plus the vessel's then pending freight exceeds the insured amounts in said WARTIMEPANDI Policy.

(f) That the Owner (at its option and expense) may procure additional insurance in excess of the limits of the insurance procured or provided pursuant to subparagraphs (a) and (e) hereof, but such insurance shall not be on terms inconsistent with the provisions of this Charter.

(g) That the Charterer shall reimburse the Owner for all claims paid by the Owner and not recoverable pursuant to the provisions of the standard WAR RISK PROTECTION AND INDEMNITY Policy, and WARTIMEPANDI Policy (Requisitioned Vessels 1943) referred to above, solely by reason of deductible average, franchise or other similar deductions appearing in such policies.

(h) That the Charterer hereby insures the Owner for marine and war risk insurance against all carrier's liabilities with respect to cargo to be carried, carried, or which has been carried on board the Vessel directly incurred in consequence of the operation of the Vessel and not covered by the standard protection and indemnity insurance provided or procured pursuant to this paragraph (3), including, but not limited to, liability for deviation or overcarriage, liability for drydocking with cargo on board the Vessel, liability under ad valorem Bills of Lading, and liability for carrying on deck, cargo covered by under deck Bills of Lading.

(4) Marine and war risk insurance covering the Owner's actual loss (or in the case of slop chests, the actual loss of the owner thereof) as determined by the Charterer, for (i) slop chests, (ii) cash carried on board the Vessel but not in excess of $5,000 unless otherwise agreed, and (iii) consumable stores. "Consumable Stores" within the meaning of this paragraph (4) shall mean all consumable and subsistence stores (but not radio supplies, spares, expendable equipment, scrap and junk) listed in United States Maritime Commission Voyage Stores Reports, Forms 7915A, 7916A, 7918A and 7919A (Revised Forms 1939).

(B) (a) If the Charterer elects to insure with commercial underwriters any of the risks assumed or insured against by it pursuant to this Schedule A, the Owner agrees, if so instructed by the Charterer, to file with such underwriters, on behalf of the Charterer, reports, declarations, claims and the customary insurance documents, it being understood that except to the extent of any payment to the Owner by the underwriters such action on the part of the Owner shall in no way affect the Charterer's direct liability to the Owner with respect to risks assumed or insured against by the Charterer under this Charter.

(b) As soon as practicable after attachment of this insurance, the Owner shall furnish to the Charterer a statement of all unrepaired damage known to the Owner existing at the time of attachment of this insurance, together with a report of all casualties known to the Owner which may have given rise to damage subsequent to the last drydocking in a U. S. Continental Port. Upon the request of the Charterer, the Owner shall also furnish to the Charterer copies of, or at Charterer's option permit it to inspect, all deck and engine room logs, if available, and all surveys made at or subsequent to the last drydocking of the Vessel in a U. S. Continental Port.

(c) In no case shall the insurance herein provided for cover loss or damage incurred prior to the attachment of this insurance.

(d) Insurance heretofore provided by the Charterer under this Charter shall terminate upon the attachment of this insurance; provided, however, that claims for unrepaired damage under said prior insurance shall not be due and payable until the repairs are effected or if not so effected, until the termination of this insurance, but in no case shall the Charterer, as Charterer or insurer, be liable for such unrepaired damage in addition to a subsequent total or constructive total loss under this insurance or Charter.

(e) General average adjusters shall be appointed by the Owner, from a list of adjusters satisfactory to the Charterer, and shall attend to the settlement and collection of the general average, subject to customary charges. If the Vessel should put into a port of distress or be under average, she is to be consigned to the Charterer's agents who shall be entitled to receive the usual charges and commissions.

II. WAIVERS

(a) The Owner shall and does hereby waive all claims for general average, salvage, collision or demurrage against any vessel (1) owned by the United States, or (2) under charter to the United States on terms which would make the United States liable as Charterer, insurer or otherwise for such claims or (3) under charter to the United States and insured under the terms of the AMERICAN HULL FORM REVISED (Requisitioned Vessels 1943).

(b) The Owner shall and does hereby waive all claims for general average, salvage, collision or demurrage against any other vessel owned by or under charter to any Government, and against any cargo carried on any such vessel or on any vessel described in subparagraph (a) above, to the extent such waiver may be required by the Charterer in any specific case or cases in order to give effect to any agreement for mutual or reciprocal waiver of claims entered into by the United States on behalf of vessels owned by or under charter to it.

(c) The waivers provided in this Clause II of Schedule A shall be effective only as to claims relating to the Vessel and arising out of her use or operation under this Charter, and such waivers shall not relieve the Charterer of any liability it may have to the Owner under the terms of this Charter.

(d) The Owner shall and does hereby waive any claim against any ship repairer, based on negligence or otherwise, arising out of repair or custody of the Vessel during the period of this Charter, to the extent that such claim, if not waived, would ultimately be borne by the United States under contract or insurance arrangement between the United States and the repairer: Provided, however, That such waiver shall not preclude recovery by the Owner against the repairer for amounts less than the customary contractural limit of $300,000 on the repairer's liability, nor for any claim by the Owner for proper replacement of defective workmanship or material in connection with any repairs which are for the Owner's account under the terms of this Charter.

(e) The Owner shall and does hereby waive any claim for loss of or damage to the vessel against any stevedore to the extent that such claim, if not waived, would ultimately be borne by the United States under contract or insurance arrangement between the United States and the stevedore; except with respect to claims which the Owner cannot recover under the provisions of Clause I, (A), (1) (a) of this Schedule A, by reason of the franchise in the insurance provided pursuant to said Clause.

III. INDEMNITY AND INSURANCE

(a) The Charterer shall insure the Owner for and against any loss or damage suffered, or liabilities, incurred, by the Owner for which claim is waived under the provisions of Clause II of this Schedule A (except claims for salvage in excess of actual cost in connection therewith), and which is not recovered by the Owner under any other provision of this Charter: Provided, however, That this indemnity shall not entitle the Owner to recover for loss or damage to the Vessel in an aggregate sum in excess of the agreed valuation: And provided further, That this indemnity shall not entitle the Owner to recover for any period of detention or loss of use of the Vessel an aggregate sum in excess of the amount which would be payable to the Owner under the other terms of this Charter for such period.

(b) The Charterer shall reimburse, indemnify, and hold harmless the Owner, the Master and the Vessel for or from all consequences, losses and liabilities whatsoever directly resulting from compliance with or efforts to comply with any orders or directions of the Charterer, its agents, representatives or employees, or any other agency of the United States or of any allied government, or orders or directions given as provided in Clause 26 of this Charter, unless properly chargeable to the Owners under this Charter or Schedule, or recoverable under (or with the franchise of) any of the insurance procured pursuant to the terms of this Schedule A. The Owner shall, as far as may be practicable, keep the Charterer currently informed in writing as to any oral orders (involving substantial delay, expense or risk to the Vessel or her cargo) not promptly confirmed in writing by the person giving such orders.

(c) The Charterer hereby assumes and indemnifies the Owner for any loss or liability, if not covered by the terms and conditions of any of the insurances provided for in this Schedule A, arising out of performance of services under any towage or pilotage contract customarily in use in the trades in which the Charterer uses the Vessel or which is specially agreed to by the Owner upon request or instructions of the Charterer.

IV. CONSTRUCTIVE TOTAL LOSS DECLARATION BY CHARTERER

If the Charterer finds, in case of casualty or serious damage or injury to the Vessel during the period of this Charter, not constituting an actual or constructive total loss under the insurance provided in this Schedule A, that the continuation of the Charter is inadvisable because of the probable high cost of repairs or indefinite loss of use of the Vessel then the Charterer nonetheless shall have the option of declaring her a constructive total loss by so notifying the Owner in writing as soon as practicable after the occurrence causing such damage or injury. In the event of such a declaration by the Charterer, the Charterer as insurer, shall forthwith pay or cause to be paid to the Owner an amount to be determined in accordance with the valuation provisions of this Charter as though the Vessel were an actual total loss. Provided, however, If the Vessel is in fact a constructive total loss within the terms of the insurance provided by the Owner pursuant to this Schedule A, no such payment shall be made by or on behalf of the Charterer, or if the Owner shall have elected to recover for the estimated cost of repairing the damage to the Vessel under the terms and conditions of American Hull Form Revised (Requisitioned Vessels 1943) the amount payable by the Charterer to the Owner shall be reduced by the amount payable under such insurance. If the Owner does not so elect or shall not have so elected within ninety (90) days of declaration of a constructive total loss by the Charterer then the Charterer shall be subrogated to all of the rights of the Owner under such insurance. Against any such payments received by the Owner from the Charterer or the Owner's assurer, as the case may be, the Owner will, if the Charterer elects to take title, give such releases and instruments granting the Vessel or the property of her remaining to the Charterer as the Charterer may require and that are not inconsistent with the terms and conditions of the AMERICAN HULL FORM REVISED (Requisitioned Vessels 1943).

V. ATTACHMENT OF INSURANCE

This Schedule shall be effective, and the insurance to be provided by the Charterer hereunder shall attach simultaneously with the effective date and time of this Amended Charter (Addendum) to which it is affixed; Provided, however, If the Vessel be then at sea the insurance provided by the Charterer shall not attach until Vessel's next arrival in safe port.

SPECIAL CONDITIONS

A. THE FOLLOWING CONDITIONS SHALL APPLY TO ALL VESSELS INSURED HEREUNDER:

1. (a) This policy shall respond for payments of general average, salvage, and collision liabilities incurred by the vessel, if covered hereby, even though the amount of such charges or liabilities may exceed the sum insured hereby or the contributory value or limitation of liability value may be greater than the value named herein: Provided, however, Except as provided in subparagraph (b) hereof, the total amount payable hereunder in respect of all claims arising out of any one occurrence or disaster, for liabilities under the Collision Clause and liabilities for salvage and general average shall not exceed, in the aggregate, double the amount insured on the vessel, plus any expenses of litigation incurred with the written consent of the War Shipping Administration; but (in addition to the foregoing limitation on the aggregate amount payable) in the case of vessels built in 1934 or thereafter neither (a) the amount recoverable in respect of liabilities under the Collision Clause nor (b) the aggregate amount recoverable in respect of salvage and general average shall (in respect of any one occurrence or disaster), exceed 110% of the amount insured, plus the amount of any such expenses of litigation.

(b) It is further agreed that the limits of liability as stated above and sue and labor charges recoverable under this policy shall be increased by the amount, if any, by which the market value of the vessel in sound condition at the time of such collision, casualty or occurrence, plus the vessel's then pending freight, exceeds the insured value hereunder for total loss purposes; it being understood that the amount of such additional coverage shall be applicable separately to (a) sue and labor charges, (b) general average and salvage, and (c) collision liabilities, with the full amount open for each.

(c) Nothing contained in this Clause I shall be construed as increasing the amount recoverable in respect of claims for physical loss of or damage to the insured vessel.

2. This insurance shall not be prejudiced by the participation of the Assured in any agreement as to the Waiver of claims entered into by the United States on behalf of vessels owned by or under charter to it.

3. With respect to the risks and perils insured against hereunder, it is warranted that no insurance in excess of the value hereinafter provided for, whether for hull, machinery, disbursements, or other similar interests however described, exists or will be placed during the currency of this insurance except as permission to place additional insurance is granted by the Administrator, and then only in accordance with the terms of such permission. Provided always, That a breach of this warranty shall not afford the assurers any defense to a claim by mortgages or other third parties who may have accepted this Policy without notice of such breach of warranty, nor shall it restrict the right of the Assured and/or their managers to insure in addition General Average and/or Salvage Disbursements whilst at risk, or general average, salvage or collision liabilities.

4. This insurance shall be subject to the following clauses: (a) With leave to sail or navigate with or without pilots, to go on trial trips and to assist or tow vessels or craft whether customary or in distress or not, and whether under a pre-arranged contract or not, or be towed, all at no additional premium.

(b) This insurance shall not be subject to any Trading Warranties.

(c) Any notice required by the terms of this policy shall be transmitted by the Assured to the Director of Wartime Insurance as soon as may be reasonably practicable. In transmitting such notice the Assured shall comply with all relevant Security Orders of the War Shipping Administration.

(d) Radio apparatus and equipment and other apparatus or equipment used for the purposes of communication or as aids to navigation or safety devices shall be covered by this insurance and included within the amount insured on the vessel as hereinbefore set forth, even when not owned by the vessel owner, provided the vessel owner has prior to date of loss assumed liability therefor; but the liability of underwriters (either as to amount or as to the risks covered) shall not exceed the vessel owner's liability or the liability to which underwriters would be subject if the property were fully owned by the vessel owner, whichever shall be the lesser.

5. In the event of claims arising from collision between the insured vessel and a sister-ship, or in the event of claims for salvage services rendered to the insured vessel by a sister-ship the sister-ship salvage clause and the sister-ship collision clause contained in the attached form of policy shall be deemed deleted therefrom in any case where the assured by any charter, or other agreement entered into by the War Shipping Administration and binding upon the Assured, would be bound to waive such claims if the vessels were not sister-ships.

6. This policy is issued pursuant to the obligation assumed by the War Shipping Administration in Schedule A of the Charter Party referred to herein, and shall not be deemed to govern the relationship between the War Shipping Administration and the owner except as to such obligation nor to override any other provisions of the Charter Party.

7. It is agreed that liability for damage to cargo arising under any agreement to which the War Shipping Administration is a party or is bound, for the waiver or adjustment of collision claims, shall be among the liabilities covered by the Collision Clause herein, subject, however, to the same limitations and conditions which apply to other liabilities covered by the same clause. It is further agreed that where, under any such agreement, cargo's liability for General Average is waived, the cargo's proportion of any General Average sacrifices and expenses incurred by the vessel shall be payable under this policy as part of the hull's proportion of General Average, to the extent provided in Special Condition No. 1 hereinabove.

8. As between this Policy and any other policy covering the same or similar risks on the insured Vessel, such other policy shall be deemed primary and this insurance secondary. It is agreed, nevertheless, that any losses which would be payable hereunder in the absence of such other insurance shall be advanced under this Policy if the Assured is unable to collect them under such other policy within 60 days after filing the usual proofs of loss and interest. Thereafter the Assured shall, at the expense and under the direction of the Administrator, take whatever steps the Administrator may deem necessary or advisable for the collection of such loss under such other policy; and the net recovery under such other policy shall be applied, so far as necessary to the reimbursement by the amount advanced by the Administrator.

9. Where, under the terms of the Charter Party, the Administrator has a right to declare and does declare the vessel a constructive total loss as between himself and the Assured, the Assurer shall not be liable for unrepaired damage.

B. This insurance covers only those risks which would be covered by this policy (including the Collision Clause) in the absence of the F. C. & S. Warranty contained herein but which are excluded by that warranty (such insurance being subject to the warranties and additional clauses contained in the War Risk Clauses).

C. Said Vessel, for so much as concerns the Assured, by agreement between the Assured and Underwriters in this policy, is and shall be valued at the amount in accordance with the provisions of the Charter Party, referred to above. Unless deleted or superseded by the Underwriters the following warranty shall be paramount, and shall supersede and nullify any contrary provision of the policy:

F. C. & S. CLAUSE

(1) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in the Policy, this insurance is warranted free from any claim for loss, damage, or expense caused by or resulting from capture, seizure, arrest, restraint, or detainment, or the consequences thereof or of any attempt thereat, or any taking of the vessel, by requisition or otherwise, whether in time of peace or war and whether lawful or otherwise; also from all consequences of hostilities or warlike operations (whether there be a declaration of war or not), piracy, civil war, revolution, rebellion, or insurrection, or civil strife arising therefrom.

(2) For the purpose of this warranty the term "consequences of hostilities or warlike operations" shall be deemed to include the following:

(a) Collision caused by failure, in compliance with wartime regulations, of the insured vessel or any vessel with which she is in collision to show the usual full peacetime navigation or anchorage lights.

(b) Stranding caused by the absence of lights, buoys, or similar peacetime aids to navigation consequent upon wartime regulations.

(c) Stranding caused by the failure of the insured vessel to employ a pilot in waters where a pilot would ordinarily be employed in peacetime but in which the employment of a pilot is dispensed with in compliance with military, naval or other Governmental orders, or with a view to avoiding imminent enemy attack. For the purposes of this Paragraph (2) any such failure to show lights, or absence of lights, buoys, or similar peacetime aids to navigation, or failure to employ a pilot, shall be presumed to be the cause of the collision or stranding unless the contrary be proved, and stranding shall include sinking consequent upon stranding or contact with any part of the land.

(d) Collision with another vessel in the same convoy or collision with any military or naval vessel, that is to say, a vessel manned by and under the control of military or naval personnel and designed to be employed primarily in armed combat service.

(e) Stranding, collision or contact with any external substances other than water (ice included) as a result of deliberately placing the vessel in jeopardy in compliance with military, naval or other Governmental orders in order to avoid imminent enemy attack, or as an act or measure of war taken in actual process of embarking or disembarking troops or material of war.

(3) The fact that the insured vessel or any vessel with which she is in collision is carrying troops or military or other supplies, or is proceeding to or from a war base, or is manned or operated by military or naval personnel, shall not alone be sufficient to exclude from this policy any claim which is not excluded under the terms of Paragraph (2) above.

(4) Where by reason of any of the foregoing provisions damage sustained by the insured vessel in collision would not be payable under this policy, it is understood and agreed that liability of the assured for damage caused in such collision shall not be covered by the Collision Clause in the Policy.

(5) It is agreed for the purposes of subdivision (2) (d) above all vessels manned and operated by the Department of the Navy of the United States of America shall be treated as though designed to be employed primarily in armed combat service.

This policy is made and accepted subject to the foregoing stipulations and conditions and to the printed conditions on the following pages which are specially referred to and made part of this policy, it being understood and agreed in the case of any conflict or inconsistency the foregoing shall prevail over those which follow.

In no case shall the insurance herein provided for cover loss or damage incurred prior to the attachment of this insurance.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the War Shipping Administration has caused this Policy to be signed by the Administrator, but it shall not be valid unless countersigned by or on behalf of the Director of Wartime Insurance.

Administrator

Countersigned at Washington, D. C. this ------ day of ----------, 19-----.

Beginning the adventure. Beginning the adventure upon the said Vessel, as above, and so shall continue and endure during the period aforesaid, as employment may offer, in port and at sea, in docks and graving docks, and on ways, gridirons and pontoons, at all times, in all places, and on all occasions, services, and trades whatsoever and wheresoever, under steam, motor power, or sail; with leave to sail or navigate with or without pilots, to go on trial trips and to assist and tow vessels or craft in distress, but if without the approval of Assurers, the Vessel be towed, except as is customary or when in need of assistance, or undertakes towage or salvage services under a prearranged contract made by Owners and/or Charterers, the Assured shall pay an additional premium if required by the Assurers, but no such premium shall be required for customary towage by the Vessel in connection with loading and discharging. With liberty to discharge, exchange and take on board goods, specie, passengers, and stores, wherever the Vessel may call at or proceed to, and with liberty to carry goods, live cattle, etc., on deck or otherwise. Including all risks of docking, undocking, changing docks, or moving in harbor and going on or off gridiron or graving dock as often as may be done during the currency of this Policy.

Notice of accident and survey. In the event of accident whereby loss or damage may result in a claim under this Policy, notice shall be given in writing to the Assurers, where practicable, prior to survey, so that they may appoint their own surveyor if they so desire. All repairs shall be subject to the approval of the Assurers as to the extent, time and place of repairs and without limiting the foregoing the Assurers shall be entitled to decide the port to which a damaged Vessel shall proceed for docking or repairing (the actual additional expense of the voyage arising from compliance with Assurers' requirements being refunded to the Assured) and Assurers shall also have a right of veto in connection with the place of repair or repairing firm proposed and whenever the extent of the damage is ascertainable the majority (in amount) of the Assurers may take or may require to be taken tenders for the repair of such damage.

Adventures and perils—sue and labor. Touching the Adventures and Perils which the Assurers are content to bear and take upon themselves, they are of the Seas, Men-of-War, Fire, Enemies, Pirates, Rovers, Thieves, Jettisons, Letters of Mart and Counter-Mart, Surprisals, Takings at Sea, Arrests, Restraints, and Detainments of all Kings, Princes, and Peoples, of what nation, condition, or quality soever, Barratry of the Master and Mariners and of all other like Perils, Losses, and Misfortunes that have or shall come to the Hurt, Detriment, or Damage of the said Ship, etc., or any part thereof; excepting, however, such of the foregoing perils as may be excluded by provisions elsewhere in the policy or by endorsement. And in case of any Loss or Misfortune, it shall be lawful for the Assured, their Factors, Servants, and Assigns, to sue, labor, and travel for, in, and about the Defense, safeguard, and Recovery of the said Vessel, etc., or any part thereof, without prejudice to this insurance, to the Charges whereof the Assurers will contribute their proportion as provided below. And it is expresly declared and agreed that no acts of the Assurers or Assured in recovering, saving, or preserving the property insured shall be considered as a waiver or acceptance of abandonment.

Latent defect and negligence. This insurance also specially to cover (subject to the Average Warranty) loss of or damage to hull or machinery directly caused by the following: Accidents in loading, discharging or handling cargo, or in bunkering or in taking in fuel; Explosions on Shipboard or elsewhere; Bursting of boilers, breakage of shafts or any latent defect in the machinery or hull (excluding, however, the cost and expense of repairing or renewing the defective part); Contact with Aircraft; Negligence of Master, Charterers, Mariners, Engineers, or Pilots: Provided Such loss or damage has not resulted from want of due diligence by the Owners of the Vessel, or any of them, or by the Managers, Masters, Mates, Engineers, Pilots, or Crew not to be considered as part owners within the meaning of this clause should they hold shares in the vessel.

Sister-ship salvage. And it is further agreed that in the event of salvage, towage or other assistance being rendered to the Vessel hereby insured by any vessel belonging in part or in whole to the same Owners or Charterers, the value of such services (without regard to the common ownership or control of the Vessels) shall be ascertained by arbitration in the manner below provided for under the Collision Clause, and the amount so awarded so far as applicable to the interest hereby insured shall constitute a charge under this Policy.

General average. General Average, Salvage, and Special Charges payable as provided in the contract of affreightment, or failing such provision, or there be no contract of affreightment, payable in accordance with the law and Usages of the Port of New York. Provided always, That when an adjustment according to the laws and usages of the port of destination is properly demanded by the owners of the cargo, General Average shall be paid in accordance with same.

G. A. and S. liability. When the contributory value of the Vessel is greater than the valuation herein, the liability of the Assurers for General Average contribution (except in respect to amount made good to the vessel) or Salvage shall not exceed that proportion of the total contribution due from the Vessel that the amount insured hereunder bears to the contributory value; and if because of damage for which the Assurers are liable as Particular Average the value of the Vessel has been reduced for the purpose of contribution, the amount of the Particular Average claim under this policy shall be deducted from the amount insured hereunder and the Assurers shall be liable only for the proportion which such net amount bears to the contributory value.

S., S. C., and S. and L. liability. In the event of expenditure for Salvage, Salvage Charges, or under the Sue and Labor Clause, this Policy shall only be liable for its share of such proportion of the amount chargeable to the property hereby insured as the insured value, less loss and/or damage, if any, for which the Assurers are liable, bears to the value of the salved property. Provided, That where there are no proceeds or there are expenses in excess of the proceeds, the expenses, or the excess of the expenses, as the case may be, shall be apportioned upon the basis of the sound value of the property at the time of the accident and this policy without any deduction for loss and/or damage shall bear its pro rata share of such expenses or excess of expenses accordingly.

Average warranty. Notwithstanding anything herein contained to the contrary, this Policy is warranted free from Particular Average under 3 percent, or unless amounting to $4,850; but nevertheless when the Vessel shall have been stranded, sunk, on fire, or in collision with any other Ship or Vessel, the Assurers shall pay the damage occasioned thereby, and the expense of sighting the bottom after stranding shall be paid, if reasonably incurred, even if no damage be found.

Grounding in the Panama Canal, Suez Canal, or in the Manchester Ship Canal or its connections, or in the River Mersey above Rock Ferry Slip, or in the River Plate (above a line drawn from the North Basin, Buenos Aires, to the Mouth of the San Pedro River) or its tributaries, or in the Danube or Demerara Rivers, or on the Yenikale Bar, shall not be deemed to be a stranding.

Average payable on each valuation separately or on the whole, without deduction of thirds, new for old, whether the Average be Particular or General.

No claim shall in any case be allowed in respect of scraping or painting the Vessel's bottom.

Voyage. The Warranty and conditions as to Average under 3 percent to be applicable to each voyage as if separately insured, and a voyage shall be deemed to commence at one of the following periods to be selected by the Assured when making up the claim, viz: at any time at which the Vessel (1) begins to load cargo or (2) sails in ballast to a loading port. Such voyage shall be deemed to continue during the ensuing period until either she has made one outward and one homeward passage (including an intermediate ballast passage, if made) or has carried and discharged two cargoes, whichever may first happen, and further in either case, until she begins to load a subsequent cargo or sails in ballast for a loading port. When the Vessel sails in ballast to effect damage repair such sailing shall not be deemed to be a sailing for a loading port although she loads at the repairing port. In calculating the 3 percent above referred to, Particular Average occurring outside the period covered by this Policy may be added to Particular Average occurring within such period provided it occur upon the same voyage (as above defined), but only that portion of the claim arising within such period shall be recoverable hereon. The commencement of a voyage shall not be so fixed as to overlap another voyage on which a claim is made on this or the preceding policy.

Constructive total loss. No recovery for a Constructive Total Loss shall be had hereunder unless the expense of recovering and repairing the Vessel shall exceed the insured value.

In ascertaining whether the Vessel is a Constructive Total Loss, the insured value shall be taken as the repaired value, and nothing in respect of the damaged or break-up value of the Vessel or wreck shall be taken into account.

In the event of Total or Constructive Total Loss, no claim to be made by the Assurers for freight, whether notice of abandonment has been given or not.

Unrepaired damage. In no case shall the Assurers be liable for unrepaired damage in addition to a subsequent Total Loss sustained during the term covered by this Policy.

Full Collision—Sister-ship collision. And it is further agreed that if the Vessel hereby insured shall come into collision with any other ship or vessel and the Owners or Charterers in consequence thereof or the Surety for either or both of them in consequence of their undertaking shall become liable to pay and shall pay by way of damages to any other person or persons any sum or sums in respect of such collision, the Assurers will pay the Owners or Charterers such proportion of such sum or sums so paid as the Assurers' subscription hereto bears to the value of the Vessel hereby insured. Provided always, That their liability in respect of any one such collision shall not exceed their proportionate part of the value of the Vessel hereby insured. And in cases where the liability of the Vessel has been contested, or proceedings have been taken to limit liability, with the consent in writing of a majority (in amount) of the Underwriters on the hull and/or machinery, the Assurers will also pay a like proportion of the costs which the Owners or Charterers shall thereby incur, or be compelled to pay; but when both vessels are to blame, then unless the liability of the Owners or Charterers of one or both of such vessels becomes limited by law, claims under the Collision Clause shall be settled on the principle of Cross-Liabilities as if the Owners or Charterers of each Vessel had been compelled to pay to the Owners or Charterers of the other of such Vessels such one-half or other proportion of the latter's damages as may have been properly allowed in ascertaining the balance or sum payable by or to the Owners or Charterers in consequence of such collision; and it is further agreed that the principles involved in this clause shall apply to the case where both Vessels are the property in part or in whole, of the same Owners or Charterers, all questions of responsibility and amount of liability as between the two Vessels being left to the decision of a single Arbitrator. If the parties can agree upon a single Arbitrator, or failing such agreement, to the decision of Arbitrators, one to be appointed by the Managing Owners or Charterers of both Vessels; and one to be appointed by the majority (in amount) of Hull Underwriters interested; the two Arbitrators chosen to choose a third Arbitrator before entering upon the reference, and the decision of such single, or of any two of such three Arbitrators, appointed as above, to be final and binding. Provided always, That this clause shall in no case extend to any sum which the Owners or Charterers may become liable to pay or shall pay for removal of obstructions under statutory powers for injury to harbors, wharves, piers, stages, and similar structures, consequent on such collision, or in respect of the cargo or engagements of the Insured Vessel, or for loss of life, or personal injury. And provided also, That in the event of any claim being made by the Charterers under this clause they shall not be entitled to recover in respect of any liability to which the Owners of the Vessel, if interested in this Policy at the time of the Collision in question, would not be subject, nor to a greater extent than the Shipowners would be entitled in such event to recover.

WAR RISK CLAUSES

It is agreed that this insurance also covers those risks which would be covered by the attached policy (including the Collision Clause) in the absence of the F. C. & S. Warranty contained therein but which are excluded by that warranty.

This insurance, insofar as it relates to war risks, is also subject to the following warranties and additonal clauses:

The Adventures and Perils Clause shall be construed as including the risks of piracy, civil war, revolution, rebellion or insurrection, or civil strife arising therefrom, floating and/or stationary mines and/or torpedoes whether derelict or not, and/or military or naval aircraft and/or other engines of war including missiles from the land, and warlike operations and the enforcement of sanctions by members of the League of Nations, whether before or after declaration of war and whether by a belligerent or otherwise; but excluding arrest, restraint, or detainment under customs or quarantine regulations, and similar arrests, restraints, or detainments not arising from actual or impending hostilities or sanctions.

If the vessels be insured under marine policies which include the risks of pirates, claims arising from piracy shall nevertheless be paid under this policy and the underwriters hereof shall have no right to contribution from the underwriters of such marine policies it being understood that as between the two sets of policies losses due to piracy are payable under marine policies only to the extent that such losses are not collectible under the war risk policies.

The Franchise warranty in the attached policy is waived and average shall be payable irrespective of percentage and without deduction of new for old. The provisions of the attached policy with respect to constructive total loss shall apply only to claims arising from physical damage to the insured vessel.

Warranted free of any claim for delay or demurrage and warranted not to abandon in case of capture, seizure, or detention, until after condemnation of the property insured. Also warranted not to abandon in case of blockade and free from any claims for loss or expense in consequence of blockade or of any attempt to evade blockade; but in the event of blockade to be at liberty to proceed to an open port and there end the voyage.

Warranted free of any claim based upon loss of or frustration of the insured voyage or adventure caused by arrests, restraints, or detainments, of kings, princes or peoples.

Warranted free from any claim arising from capture, seizure, arrests, restraints, detainment, condemnation, preemption, or confiscation by the Government of the United States of America or any State or political subdivision thereof or any government which is or may become party signatory of the "United Nations Pact", promulgated on or about January 2, 1943.

This insurance also covers damage to or destruction of the property insured directly caused by strikers, locked out workmen, or persons taking part in labor disturbances or riots or civil commotions including damage caused by persons acting maliciously, but this paragraph shall not be construed to include or cover any loss, damage, or expense caused by or resulting from (a) civil war, revolution, rebellion, or insurrection, or civil strife arising therefrom, or (b) delay, detention or loss of use.

Where, as a result of a risk or peril hereby insured against, damage sustained by the insured vessel in collision would be payable under the provisions of this policy, liability of the Assured for damage caused by such collision shall be deemed to be covered hereunder subject to the terms and provisions of the Collision Clause of this policy.

WAR RISK ONLY CLAUSES

The following War Risk only Clauses (Clauses A, B, and C) shall be deemed to over-ride P. & I. Clauses (Articles 1 to 25 inclusive) wherever they may be in conflict.

CLAUSE A. This insurance covers only those liabilities which would be covered by this Policy under Articles 1 to 25 inclusive in the absence of the F. C. & S. Clause (Article 25 (d)), but which are excluded by that Clause. The Assurer agrees to indemnify the Assured against loss, damage or expense as aforesaid which the Assured shall become liable to pay and shall pay by reason of the fact that the Assured is the owner, or charterer, or the general or time charter agent or agent or berth-agent or sub-agent of the owner or charterer (mortgagee, trustee, or receiver thereof as the case may be) of the insured vessel.

CLAUSE B. The Assurer shall also indemnify the Assured against losses arising as a result of the Assured's contractual liability, or against costs incurred by the Assured at the direction or in conformity with the wishes of the War Shipping Administration or any other Governmental agency, for repatriation of the crew to a United States port, as required, resulting from capture, seizure, arrest, restraint or detainment, or the consequences thereof or of any attempt thereat, or the consequences of hostilities or warlike operations, whether before or after declaration of war.

CLAUSE C. This Policy is warranted free from any claim arising from capture, seizure, arrests, restraints, detainment, condemnation, preemption, requisition or confiscation by the Government of the United States of America, or any State or political sub-division thereunder, or any Government which is, or may become a party signatory of the "United Nations Pact" promulgated on or about January 2nd, 1942.

"F. AND I. CLAUSES"

(1) Loss of life, injury and illness. Liability for life salvage, loss of life of, or personal injury to, or illness of, any person, not including, however, unless otherwise agreed by endorsement hereon, liability to an employee (other than a seaman) of the assured, or in case of his death to his beneficiaries, under any compensation act. Liability hereunder shall also include burial expenses not exceeding $200, where reasonably incurred by the assured for the burial of any seaman. The term Person as aforesaid shall include any Person or Persons carried on the insured vessel.

(a) Insurance hereunder, shall cover the liability of the assured for claims under any compensation act (other than hereafter excepted) in respect of employees (i) who are members of the crew of the insured vessel, or (ii) who are placed on board the insured vessel with the intention of becoming a member of her crew, or (iii) who, in the event of the vessel being laid up and out of commission, or engaged in the upkeep, maintenance or watching of the insured vessel, or (iv) who are engaged by the insured vessel or its Master to perform stevedoring work in connection with the vessel's cargo at ports in Alaska and ports outside the Continental United States where contract stevedores are not readily available. This insurance, however, shall not be considered as a qualification under any Compensation Act, but, without diminishing in any way the liability of the Assurer under this policy, the Assured may have in effect policies covering such liabilities. All claims under such Compensation Acts for which the Assurer is liable under the terms of this policy are to be paid without regard to such other policies.

(b) Insurance hereunder shall not cover any liability under the provisions of the Act of Congress approved September 7th, 1916, and as amended, Public Act No. 267, Sixty Fourth Congress, known as the U. S. Employees Compensation Act.

(c) Insurance hereunder in connection with the handling of cargo for the insured vessel shall commence from the time of receipt by the Assured of the cargo on dock or wharf, or on craft alongside for loading, and shall continue until due delivery thereof from dock or wharf of discharge or until discharge from the insured vessel on to a craft alongside.

(d) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in Paragraph (20), liability hereunder shall be extended to cover claims of seamen under any Workmen's Compensation Act whether the liability of the Assured for such claims arises under contract or otherwise.

(2) Repatriation expenses. Liability for expenses reasonably incurred in necessarily repatriating any member of the crew or any other person employed on board the insured vessel; Provided, however, That the Assurer's liability for repatriation expenses shall be no greater than if the vessel were privately owned by an American Citizen or than if the employer were a private American Shipowner, and that the Assured shall not be entitled to recover any such expenses incurred by reason of the expiration of the shipping agreement, other than by sea perils, or by reason of the voluntary termination of the agreement. Wages shall be included in such expenses when payable under statutory obligation during unemployment due to the wreck or loss of the insured vessel.

(3) Collision. Liability for loss or damage arising from collision of the insured vessel with another ship or vessel insofar as such liability is excluded from the liabilities insured under the Four-fourths Collision Clause in the American Institute Hull Form of policy: "And it is further agreed that if the vessel hereby insured shall come into collision with any other ship or vessel and the Assured or the Charterers in consequence thereof or the Surety for either or both of them in consequence of their undertaking shall become liable to pay and shall pay by way of damages to any other person or persons any sum or sums in respect of such collision, we, the Underwriters, will pay the Assured or Charterers such proportion of such sum or sums so paid as our respective subscriptions hereto bear to the value of the vessel hereby insured, provided always that our liability in respect of any one such collision shall not exceed our proportionate part of the value of the vessel hereby insured. And in cases where the liability of the vessel has been contested, or proceedings have been taken to limit liability, with the consent in writing of a majority (in amount) of the Underwriters on the hull and/or machinery, we will also pay a like proportion of the costs which the Assured or Charterers shall thereby incur, or be compelled to pay; but when both vessels are to blame, then, unless the liability of the Owners or Charterers of one or both of such vessels becomes limited by law, claims under the Collision Clause shall be settled on the principal of Cross-Liabilities as if the Owners or Charterers of each vessel had been compelled to pay to the Owners or Charterers of the other of such vessels such one-half or other proportion of the latter's damages as may have been properly allowed in ascertaining the balance or sum payable by or to the Assured or Charterers in consequence of such collision; and it is further agreed that the principles involved in this clause shall apply to the case where both vessels are the property, in part or in whole, of the same Owners or Charterers, all questions of responsibility and amount of liability as between the two vessels being left to the decision of a single Arbitrator, if the parties can agree upon a single Arbitrator, or failing such agreement, to the decision of arbitrators, one to be appointed by the Managing Owners or Charterers of both vessels, and one to be appointed by the majority (in amount) of Hull Underwriters interested; the two Arbitrators chosen to choose a third Arbitrator before entering upon the reference, and the decision of such single, or of any two of such three Arbitrators, appointed as above, to be final and binding. Provided always that this clause shall in no case extend to any sum which the Assured or Charterers may become liable to pay or shall pay for removal of obstructions under statutory powers, for injury to harbors, wharves, piers, stages and a similar structure, consequent on such collision, or in respect of the cargo or engagement of the insured vessel, or for loss of life, or personal injury."

Provided, however, That insurance hereunder shall not extend to any liability, whether direct or indirect, in respect of the engagements of or the detention or loss of time of the insured vessel.

(a) Claims hereunder shall be settled on the principles of Cross-Liabilities to the same extent only as provided in the four-fourths Collision Clause above mentioned.

(b) Claims hereunder shall be separated among the several classes enumerated in this policy and each class shall be subject to the special conditions applicable in respect to such class.

(c) Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Assurer shall not be liable for any claims hereunder where the various liabilities resulting from such collision, or any of them, have been compromised, settled, or adjusted without the written consent of the Assurer.

(4) Damage caused otherwise than by collision. Liability for loss of or damage to any other vessel or craft, or to property on board such other vessel or craft, caused otherwise than by collision.

(a) Where there would be a valid claim hereunder but for the fact that the damaged property belongs to the Assured, the Assurers shall be liable as if such damaged property belonged to another, but only for the excess over any amount recoverable under any other insurance applicable on the property.

(5) Damage to docks, buoys, etc. Liability for damage to any dock, pier, jetty, bridge, harbor, breakwater, structure, beacon, buoy, lighthouse, cable or to any fixed or movable object or property whatsoever, except another vessel or craft or property on another vessel or craft or on the insured vessel unless elsewhere covered herein.

(a) Where there would be a valid claim hereunder but for the fact that the damaged property belongs to the Assured, the Assurers shall be liable as if such damaged property belonged to another, but only for the excess over any amount recoverable under any other insurance applicable on the property.

(b) Insurance hereunder shall cover all liabilities for said damages that the insured vessel or her owners would have if she were privately owned by an American citizen and irrespective of the ownership of any property the vessel may damage: Provided, however, That the rights of the Assurer shall be the same as though the vessel were privately owned.

(6) Wreck removal. Liability for costs or expenses of or incidental to the removal of the wreck of the insured vessel if legally liable therefor: Provided, however, That:

(a) From such costs and expenses shall be deducted the value of any salvage from or which might have been recovered from the wreck inuring, or which might have inured, to the benefit of the Assured;

(b) The Assurer shall not be liable for any costs or expenses which would be covered by full insurance under the American Institute Hull form of policy, 7/1/41 issued by the American Marine Hull Insurance Syndicate;

(c) The Assurer shall not be liable for any costs or expenses for which a private American vessel owner would not be legally liable, or for any costs or expenses from which a private American vessel owner could relieve himself by abandonment of the wreck to the United States Government or by other appropriate action.

(7) Cargo. Liability for loss of or damage to or in connection with cargo or other property (except mail or parcel post), including baggage and personal effects of persons other than members of the crew, and not exceeding $100 per person, to be carried, carried, or which has been carried on board the insured vessel: Provided, however, That no liability shall exist hereunder for:

(a) Specie, bullion, jewelry, etc. Loss, damage or expense incurred in connection with the custody, carriage or delivery of specie, bullion, precious metals, precious stones, jewelry, silks, furs, banknotes, bonds or other negotiable documents, or similar valuable property.

(b) Refrigeration. Loss, damage or expense arising out of or in connection with the care, custody, carriage or delivery of cargo requiring refrigeration, unless the spaces, apparatus, and means used for the care, custody and carriage thereof have been surveyed by a classification or other competent disinterested surveyor under working conditions before the commencement of each round voyage and found in all respects fit, and unless the Assurer has approved in writing the form of contract under which such cargo is accepted for transportation;

(c) Deviation. Loss, damage or expense arising from any deviation or proposed deviation, not authorized by the contract of affreightment, known to the Assured in time to insure specifically the liability therefore, unless notice thereof is given to the Assurer and the Assurer agrees, in writing, that such insurance is unnecessary. Knowledge of the United States Governmental Departments or Agencies, other than the War Shipping Administration, its General or Time Charter Agents or Berth Agents in the continental United States, shall not be considered as knowledge of the Assured in respect to deviation or proposed deviation; furthermore, the Assured shall not be prejudiced in respect to insurance hereunder in event of delay in reporting any deviation to the Assurer due to laws or governmental regulations or practices due to military reasons.

(d) Stowage in improper spaces. Loss, damage or expense arising with respect to under deck cargo stowed on deck or with respect to cargo stowed in spaces not suitable for its carriage, unless the Assured shall show that every reasonable precaution has been taken by him to prevent such improper stowage;

(e) Misdescription of goods. Loss, damage, or expense arising out of or as a result of the issuance of bills of lading which, to the knowledge of the Assured, improperly described the goods or their containers as to condition or quantity;

(f) Loss, damage or expense arising from issuance of clean bills of lading for goods known to be missing, unsound or damaged;

(g) Loss, damage or expense arising from the intentional issuance of bills of lading prior to receipt of the goods described therein, or covering goods not received at all;

(h) Loss, damage or expense arising from delivery of cargo without surrender of order bills of lading;

(i) Freight. Freight on cargo short-delivered, whether or not prepaid or whether or not included in the claim and paid by the Assured; And provided further, That:

(j) Liability hereunder shall in no event exceed that which would be imposed by law in the absence of contract;

(k) Protective clauses required in contract of affreightment. Liability hereunder shall be limited to such as would exist if the charter party, bill of lading, or contract of affreightment contained (i) a negligence general average clause in the form hereinafter specified under paragraph (12); (ii) a clause providing that any provisions of the charter party, bill of lading, or contract of affreightment to the contrary notwithstanding, the Assured and the insured vessel shall have the benefit of all limitations of and exemptions from liability accorded to the owner or chartered owner of vessels by any statute or rule of law for the time being in force; (iii) such clauses, if any, as are required by law to be stated therein; (iv) and such other protective clauses as are generally in use in the particular trade;

(l) Carriage of Goods by Sea Act. When cargo carried by the insured vessel is under a bill of lading or similar document of title subject or made subject to the Carriage of Goods by Sea Act of the United States or a law of any other country of similar import, liability hereunder shall be limited to such as is imposed by said Act or law, and if the Assured or the insured vessel assumes any greater liability or obligation, either in respect of the valuation of the cargo or in any other respect, then the minimum liabilities and obligations imposed by said Act or law, such greater liability or obligation shall not be covered hereunder;

(m) Limit of $500 per package. When cargo carried by the insured vessel is under a charter party, bill of lading, or contract of affreightment not subject or made subject to the Carriage of Goods by Sea Act of the United States or a law of any other country of similar import, liability hereunder shall be limited to such as would exist if said charter party, bill of lading, or contract of affreightment contained a clause exempting the Assured and the insured vessel from liability for losses arising from unseaworthiness provided that due diligence shall have been exercised to make the vessel seaworthy and properly manned, equipped and supplied, and a clause limiting the Assured's liability for total loss or damage to goods shipped to $500 per package, or in case of goods not shipped in packages, per customary freight unit, and providing for pro rata adjustment on such basis for partial loss or damage. The provisions of clauses (k), (l) and (m) herein may, however, be waived or altered by the Assurer on terms agreed, in writing.

(n) Oral contract. In the event cargo is carried under an arrangement not reduced to writing, such cargo shall be deemed to be carried under a charter party, bill of lading, or contract of affreightment incorporating the terms and conditions of the War Shipping Administration uniform bill of lading in the present form as published in Vol. 7, No. 134, p. 5246–5251 of the FEDERAL REGISTER or as modified by the War Shipping Administration;

(o) Assured's. Where cargo on board the insured vessel is the property of the Assured, such cargo shall be deemed to be carried under a contract containing the protective clauses described in clauses (k), (l) and (m) herein; and such cargo shall be deemed to be fully insured under the usual form of cargo policy, and in case of loss of or damage to such cargo the Assured shall be insured hereunder in respect of such loss or damage only to the extent that he would have been if the cargo had belonged to another, but only in the event and to the extent that the loss or damage would not be recoverable from marine insurers under a cargo policy as above specified;

(p) Land transportation. No liability shall exist hereunder for any loss, damage or expense in respect of cargo being transported on land or on another vessel;

(q) Cargo on dock. No liability shall exist hereunder for any loss, damage or expense in respect of cargo before loading on or after discharge from the insured vessel caused by flood, tide, windstorm, earthquake, fire, explosion, heat, cold, deterioration, collapse of wharf, leaky shed, theft or pilferage unless such loss, damage or expense is caused directly by the insured vessel, her master, officers or crew;

(8) Fines and penalties. Liability for fines and penalties for the violation of any laws of the United States, or of any state thereof, or of any foreign country: Provided, however, That the Assurer shall not be liable to indemnify the Assured against any such fines or penalties resulting directly or indirectly from the failure, neglect or fault of the Assured or its managing officers to exercise the highest degree of diligence to prevent a violation of any such laws.

(9) Mutiny misconduct. Liability for expenses incurred in resisting any unfounded claim by the master or crew or other persons employed on board the insured vessel, or in prosecuting such person or persons in case of mutiny or other misconduct; not including, however, costs which would not reasonably be incurred by a private American vessel owner under similar circumstances, nor costs of successfully defending claims elsewhere protected in this policy.

(10) Quarantine expenses. Liability for extraordinary expenses, incurred in consequence of the outbreak of plague or other disease on the insured vessel, for disinfection of the vessel or of persons on board, or for quarantine expenses, not being the ordinary expenses of loading or discharging, nor the wages or provisions of crew or passengers: Provided, however, That no liability shall exist hereunder if the vessel be ordered to proceed to a port where it is known that she will be subjected to quarantine:

(11) Putting in expenses. Liability for port charges incurred solely for the purpose of putting in to land an injured or sick seaman, and the net loss to the Assured in respect of bunkers, insurance stores and provisions as the result of the deviation.

(12) Cargo's propn. G/A. Liability for Cargo's proportion of General Average, including special charges, so far as the Assured cannot recover the same from any other source: Provided, however, That if the charter party, bill of lading or contract of affreightment does not contain the negligence general average clause quoted below, the Assurer's liability hereunder shall be limited to such as would exist if such clause were contained therein, viz.:

Negligence G/A. clause. In the event of accident, danger, damage or disaster, before or after commencement of the voyage resulting from any cause whatsoever, whether due to negligence or not, for which, or for the consequence of which, the Carrier is not responsible, by statute, contract, or otherwise, the goods, the shipper and the consignee, jointly and severally, shall contribute with the Carrier in general average to the payment of any sacrifices, losses, or expenses of a general average nature that may be made or incurred, and shall pay salvage and special charges incurred in respect of the goods. If a salving ship is owned or operated by the Carrier, salvage shall be paid for as fully and in the same manner as if such salving ship or ships belonged to strangers.

(13) Expenses and law costs. Liability for costs, charges and expenses reasonably incurred and paid by the Assured in connection with any liability insured under this policy, provided that the Assured shall not be entitled to indemnity for the cost or expense of prosecuting or defending any claim or suit unless the same shall have been incurred with the approval in writing of the Assurer, or the Assurer shall be satisfied that such approval could not have been obtained under the circumstances without unreasonable delay, or that the expenses were reasonably and properly incurred. The cost and expense of prosecuting any claim in which the Assurer shall have an interest by subrogation or otherwise, shall be divided between the Assured and the Assurer, in proportion to the amounts which they would have been entitled to receive respectively, if the suit should be successful.

(14) If the master of the insured vessel shall be sued by reason of any event which imposes on the Assured a liability against which the Assured is indemnified under this policy, the Assurer will pay the costs and expenses of the defense of such suit subject to the provisions of paragraph (13), and will indemnify the master of such vessel to the same extent as though he were an assured under this policy, provided, however, that the Assurer shall not be liable to indemnify the master in excess of the amount (a) for which the owner of said vessel would have been liable, or to which such owner could have limited liability, if such owner has been sued instead of the master, or (b) for which the Assurer would be liable under this policy had the suit been brought against the owner of the vessel.

(15) Expenses which the Assured may incur under authorization of the Assurer in the interest of the Assurer.

GENERAL CONDITIONS AND LIMITATIONS

(16) Prompt notice of claim. In the event of any happening which may result in loss, damage or expense for which the Assurer may become liable, prompt notice thereof, on being known to the Assured, shall be given by the Assured to the Assurer, but failure to give such prompt notice because of wartime emergency conditions shall not prejudice this insurance.

The assurer shall not be liable for any claim not presented to the Assurer with proper proofs of loss within twelve (12) months after payment by the Assured.

(17) Time for suit. In no event shall suit on any claim be maintainable against the Assurer unless commenced within eighteen (18) months after the loss, damage or expenses resulting from liabilities, risks, events, occurrences and expenditures specified under this policy shall have been paid by the Assured.

(18) Settlement of claims. The Assured shall not make any admission of liability, either before or after any occurrence which may result in a claim for which the Assurer may be liable. The Assured shall not interfere in any negotiations of the Assurer for settlement of any legal proceedings in respect of any occurrences for which the Assurer is liable under this policy; Provided, however, That in respect of any occurrence likely to give rise to a claim under this Policy, the Assured is obligated to and shall take such steps to protect his and the Assurer's interests as would reasonably be taken in the absence of this or similar insurance. If the Assured shall fail or refuse to settle any claim as authorized by Assurer, the liability of the Assurer to the Assured shall be limited to the amount for which settlement could have been made.

(19) Defense of claims. Whenever required by the Assurer, the Assured shall aid in securing information and evidence, subject to any governmental limitations as to the confidential character of such information or evidence, and in obtaining witnesses and shall cooperate with the Assurer in the defense of any claim or suit or in the appeal from any judgment, in respect of any occurrence as hereinbefore provided.

(20) Assumed contractual liability. Unless otherwise agreed by endorsement hereon, the Assurer's liability shall in no event exceed that which would be imposed on the Assured by law in the absence of contract: Provided, however, That the acceptance by the Assured of towage contract or agreement limiting the liability of towboats or their owners shall not affect the Assured's right of indemnity from the Assurer for any liability, loss, damage or expense covered under this policy.

(21) Assignment. No claim or demand against the Assurer shall be assigned or transferred, and no person, other than a receiver of the property or the estate of the Assured, shall acquire any right against the Assurer without the express consent of the Assurer: Provided, however, That this shall not affect the rights of any assignee under an assignment made by virtue of any governmental order or decree, in which event such assignee shall have and possess all of the rights of its predecessor in assignment.

(22) Subrogation. The Assurer shall be subrogated to all the rights which the Assured may have against any other person or entity, in respect of any payment made under this policy, to the extent of such payment, and the Assured shall, upon the request of the Assurer, execute all documents necessary to secure to the Assurer such rights.

(23) Double insurance. The Assurer shall not be liable for any loss or damage against which, but for the insurance hereunder, the Assured is or would be insured under existing insurance excepting as provided in Paragraph (1) (a) hereof.

(24) Limitation of liability. If and when the Assured under this policy has any interest other than as an owner or bare boat charterer of the insured vessel, in no event shall the Assurer be liable hereunder to any greater extent than if such Assured were the owner or bareboat charterer and were entitled to all the rights of limitation to which a shipowner is entitled.

(25) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this policy, the Assurer shall not be liable for any loss, damage, or expense sustained, directly or indirectly, by reason of:

(a) Loss, damage or expense to hull, machinery, equipment or fittings of the insured vessel, including refrigerating apparatus and wireless equipment, whether or not owned by the Assured;

(b) Cancelment or breach of any charter or contract, detention of the vessel, bad debts, insolvency, fraud of agents, loss of freight, passage money, hire, demurrage, or any other loss of revenue;

(c) Any loss, damage, sacrifice, or expense which would be payable under the terms of the American Institute Hull form of policy, 7/1/44 issued by the American Marine Hull Insurance Syndicate on hull, machinery, etc., whether or not the insured vessel is fully covered by insurance sufficient in amount to pay such loss, damage, sacrifice or expense.

(d) Capture, seizure, arrest, restraint or detainment, or the consequences thereof, or of any attempt thereat, or the consequences of hostilities or war-like operations, whether before or after the declaration of war;

(e) The insured vessel towing any other vessel or craft, unless such towage was to assist such other vessel or craft in distress to a port or place of safety; provided, however, that this exception shall not apply to claims covered under paragraph (1) of this policy.

(f) For any claim for loss of life, personal injury or illness in relation to the handling of cargo where such claim arises under a contract of indemnity between the Assured and his sub-contractor.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the War Shipping Administration has caused this policy to be signed by the Administrator, but it shall not be valid unless countersigned by or on behalf of the Director of Wartime Insurance.

ROUTING OF TRAFFIC IN NEW YORK HARBOR

At a session of the Interstate Commerce Commission, Division 3, held at its office in Washington, D. C., on the 8th day of September, A. D. 1944.

It appearing, that an emergency exists which, in the opinion of the Commission requires immediate action to best promote the service in the interest of the public and the commerce of the people; it is ordered, That:

(a) Routing of traffic destined Jersey City for lighterage delivery in New York harbor. The Reading Company is hereby directed to divert forthwith from the Central Railroad Company of New Jersey (Shelton Pitney and Walter P. Gardner, Trustees) and deliver to the Lehigh Valley Railroad Company via Manville, New Jersey, and the Lehigh Valley Railroad Company is hereby directed to accept and forward over its line to Jersey City, New Jersey, for lighterage delivery in New York Harbor a total of one hundred (100) open top cars loaded with freight (except railroad ties) which are destined to Jersey City Lighterage, New Jersey, routed over the lines of the Central Railroad Company of New Jersey (Shelton Pitney and Walter P. Gardner, Trustees), and that all rules, regulations, and practices of said carriers with respect to car service are hereby suspended and superseded only as conflicting with the directions hereby made: Provided, That the billing covering all cars so routed shall carry a reference to this order as authority for the routing.

(b) Rates to be applied. Inasmuch as the routing of traffic pursuant to this order is deemed to be due to carriers' disability, the rates applicable to traffic routed pursuant to this order shall be the same as would have applied had the shipments moved without specific routing.

(c) Divisions of rates. In executing the orders and directions of the Commission provided for in this order, common carriers affected shall proceed, even though no division agreements are in effect, over the routes authorized; divisions shall be, during the time this order remains in force, voluntarily agreed upon by and between said carriers; and upon failure of said carriers to so agee, the divisions shall be hereinafter fixed by the Commission in accordance with pertinent authority conferred upon it by the Interstate Commerce Act. If division agreements now exist on the traffic affected, over the routes herein authorized, they shall not be changed or affected by this order. (40 Stat. 101, secs. 402, 418, 41 Stat. 476, 485, secs. 4, 10, 54 Stat. 901, 912; 49 U.S.C. 1 (10)–(17), 15 (4).)

[RO 9A, Order 1]

COAL-WOOD HEATING STOVES

ACQUISITION IN CERTAIN EMERGENCY OIL SHORTAGE AREAS

It has been found that coal and wood are relatively scarce in Arizona, in Florida east of the Appalachicola River, and in the counties of Fresno, Kern, Kings, Madera, Mariposa, Merced, Stanislaus, and Tulare in the State of California. It is, therefore, undesirable to limit applicants in these areas to the acquisition of coal-wood heating stoves.

Accordingly, pursuant to the authority vested in the Director of the Fuel Division of the Office of Price Administration by section 2.3 (b) of Ration Order 9A.

It is hereby ordered, That the State of Arizona, the part of the State of Florida east of the Appalachicola River, and the counties of Fresno, Kern, Kings, Madera, Mariposa, Merced, Stanislaus, and Tulare in the State of California are hereby removed, for the purposes of Ration Order 9A, from the emergency oil shortage area.

This order shall become effective September 9, 1944. Issued this 9th day of September 1944.

An opinion accompanying this amendment, issued simultaneously herewith, has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

Order No. A–1 is amended in the following respects:

1. A new paragraph (a) (40) is added to Order No. A–1 to read as follows:

(40) Modification of maximum prices for building brick (common and unglazed face) and structural clay hollow building tile. (i) The manufacturers' maximum prices established pursuant to Maximum Price Regulation No. 188, as amended, for shale and clay building brick (smooth, sanded, or wire cut) produced in the States of Ohio, West Virginia, Michigan (except the Upper Peninsula), and in that part of Pennsylvania west of and including Potter, Cameron, Clearfield, Blair and Bedford Counties, may be increased by adding thereto an amount not in excess of $3.75 per thousand for standard size brick to the f. o. b. plant prices or delivered prices. (ii) The manufacturers' maximum prices established pursuant to Maximum Price Regulation No. 188, as amended, for structural clay hollow building tile (except ceramic glazed ware) produced in the area described in (i) above, may be increased by adding thereto an amount not in excess of $1.51 per ton to the f. o. b. plant prices or delivered prices.

(iv) The maximum prices established herein shall be subject to at least the same cash, quantity, and other discounts, transportation allowances, services, and other terms and conditions of sale as the seller extended or rendered on comparable sales to purchasers of the same class during March 1942.

Any price adjustments granted prior to September 11, 1944, for any seller of brick and building tile covered by the provisions stated above are hereby revoked.

*Copies may be obtained from the Office of Price Administration.

[Rev. RO 11,[1] Admin. Exception Order 5]

FEDERAL PUBLIC HOUSING AUTHORITY TRAILER CAMP, FARRELL, PA.

FUEL OIL RATIONING REGULATIONS

It appears that the Federal Public Housing Authority of the National Housing Agency operates a trailer project for housing war workers at Farrell, Pennsylvania. This project has 200 house trailers equipped with fuel oil burning heating stoves. 97 of the trailers also have fuel oil burning cooking stoves. The trailers are rented to tenants on a weekly basis, the rental including the use of water and electricity. The tenants are required, however, to purchase the fuel oil for the operation of the heating and cooking equipment.

Under Revised Ration Order No. 11, application for a ration for the operation of heating equipment or for the operation of cooking equipment must be made separately for each house trailer. Since the trailers are rented on a weekly basis, there are frequent changes in trailer occupants, each one of whom is required, under the order, to apply for a ration for the operation of the fuel oil burning equipment in the trailer. Rations for the use of heating esuipment are issued for the balance of the heating year which expires August 31, 1945. Although each ration holder is required to surrender to the Board all unused coupons when his ration expires because he has moved from the trailer, many of these occupants may omit to do so. The frequent changes in trailer occupants will also impose an increased burden upon the local Board in requiring it to pass upon a separate application from each new occupant and to issue individual rations in each case.

Application has been made by the Public Housing Authority for an administrative exception order, under General Ration Order 1, permitting it, instead of each trailer tenant, to apply in one application, for a ration to operate the fuel oil burning heating and cooking equipment in all its trailers at its trailer camp at Farrell, Pennsylvania.

The granting of such an exception order will not constitute an exception to or a waiver or variance of any provision setting forth standards of eligibility or need for fuel oil. Nor will the effectiveness or policy of Revised Ration Order No. 11 be defeated or impaired by permitting such application to be made and rations to be issued upon the conditions set forth in this exception order. It is therefore ordered:

(a) Federal Public Housing Authority may apply, in the manner provided in this order, to the War Price and Rationing Board having jurisdiction of the area, for rations for the operation of the fuel oil burning heating and cooking equipment in its house trailers located at its trailer camp at Farrell, Pennsylvania, even though the trailer occupants use, and are required to pay for, the fuel oil to operate the equipment. Application for the heat ration shall be made on OPA Form R-1100 (Revised), and the applicant shall include in the application the total floor area of all the house trailers in the camp at the time of application, which are to be heated by fuel oil burning equipment. Application for the cooking ration shall be made on OPA Form R-1103 or R-1103A. The Board may issue the rations to the applicant in accordance with this order.

(b) The allowable ration for heating the house trailer included in the application shall be the amount of fuel oil needed for such purpose not exceeding, however, the mid-point of the range (figured under section 5 of Appendix A of Revised Ration Order 11) for the total floor area submitted. If at any time after the issuance of the ration, the applicant satisfies the Board that the ration issued at the mid-point of the range does not meet its heating needs for the trailers, the Board may issue an additional ration for the purpose, all such rations, however, not to exceed twice the maximum of the range for the floor area submitted.

If the application is made after October 31, 1944, the applicant's allowable ration for heating shall be the amount of the annual ration for the 1944-45 heating year reduced for the period for which it is needed as follows: The appropriate percentages shown opposite the dates between which the ration is needed shall be determined from Revised Table VIII (OPA Form R-1130). The annual ration shall be multiplied by the percentage which is the difference between the appropriate percentages so determined. If the dates are not listed, the appropriate percentages are determined by the Board from the nearest dates which are listed. No allowance may be granted for children.

(c) The allowable ration for cooking in the house trailers shall be the amount of fuel oil the Board determines is needed for such purpose. However, the maximum allowable ration per month for cooking shall not exceed the number of the trailers in which the fuel oil burning equipment will be used for the purpose, multiplied by 30 gallons.

(d) Coupon sheets representing the rations shall be issued, and fuel oil on hand for the purpose shall be deducted, in the manner provided in Revised Ration Order 11. If the applicant is required or is eligible to become a ration bank depositor, fuel oil deposit certificates representing the rations shall be issued in the manner provided in Revised Ration Order 11.

(e) The rations issued pursuant to this order shall be used only to enable the occupants of the applicant's trailers to acquire and use fuel oil for the operation of heating and cooking equipment in these trailers. However, no ration evidences acquired pursuant to this order shall be used to obtain fuel oil for equipment if the applicant knows or has reason to believe that the occupant using the equipment has a separate ration for its operation.

(f) Transfers of fuel oil may be made to occupants of the applicant's trailers in exchange for ration evidences surrendered by the applicant to the transferor.

(g) Before any fuel oil may be acquired under this order by any trailer occupant, the applicant must obtain from the occupant a signed statement that he has been issued no fuel oil ration for the purpose of heating the house trailer, and if he also requires fuel oil for cooking, that no ration has been issued for such purpose. Each statement furnished to the applicant pursuant to this section shall constitute a representation to the Office of Price Administration, and must be retained by the applicant at its place of business for at least two years from the date of its receipt and made available at all times to the Office of Price Administration.

This order shall become effective September 9, 1944. Issued this 9th day of September 1944.

JESCOE M. NEY,
Acting Deputy Administrator in Charge of Rationing.

(b) What this order prohibits. Regardless of any contract, agreement, or other obligation, no person shall:

(1) Sell or, in the course of trade or business, buy solid fuels at prices higher than the maximum prices set by this Order, but less than maximum prices may, at any time, be charged, paid or offered; or

(2) Obtain a higher than maximum price by:

(i) Charging for a service which is not expressly requested by the buyer or which is not specifically authorized by this Order;

(ii) Using any tying agreement by making any requirement that anything other than the fuel requested by the buyer be purchased by him; or

(iii) Using any other device by which a higher than maximum price is obtained, directly or indirectly.

(c) Price schedule: Consumer sales. (1) This price schedule sets forth maximum prices for sales of specified solid fuels when delivery is made to any point in Cobb or Cherokee Counties, Georgia.

(2) Maximum authorized service charges and required deductions—(i) Carry or wheel service. If a buyer requests such service, the dealer may not charge more than 50¢ per ton therefor.

(ii) Yard sales. When the buyer picks up the solid fuel covered by this order at the dealer's yard, the dealer must reduce the domestic price at least 50¢ per ton.

(iii) Sacked coal. A dealer may not charge more than 50¢ per 100 lb. bag of egg coal at the yard, or delivered, sack not included.

(iv) Delivery zone. For deliveries made beyond the corporate limits of the city or township in which the dealer's yard is located, the dealer may add 10¢ per ton per mile with a minimum charge of 50¢ for such deliveries. Such delivery charge, if added, must be stated separately from all other charges on the invoice.

(v) Treated coals. If a dealer's supplier has subjected the coal to oil or calcium chloride treatment to allay dust or to prevent freezing and makes a charge to the dealer therefor, the dealer selling such coal may add to the applicable maximum price set by this order the amount of such charge, not to exceed 10¢ per net ton. Any such treatment charge shall be stated separately from all other charges on the invoice.

(vi) Credit. No additional charge over the prices listed in this schedule may be made for the extension of credit.

(d) Ex Parte 148 Freight Rate Increase; transportation tax—(1) The freight rate increase. Since the Ex Parte 148 Freight Rate Increase has been rescinded by the Interstate Commerce Commission, the dealer's freight rates are the same as those of December, 1941; therefore, no dealer may increase any price specified herein on account of freight rates.

(2) The transportation tax. Only the transportation tax imposed by section 620 of the Revenue Act of 1942 may be collected, in addition to the maximum prices set by this order. It may be collected only if the dealer states such tax separately from the price of the coal on the invoice. (The tax need not be stated separately on sales to the United States or any agency thereof—see amendment 12 to Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 122.) No part of this tax may be collected in addition to the maximum prices specified on sales of one-quarter ton or lesser amounts of coal, or on sales of any quantity of bagged coal.

(e) Addition of increases in supplier's prices prohibited. The maximum prices set by this order may not be increased by a dealer to reflect increases in his purchase cost or in his supplier's maximum prices occurring after the effective date hereof, but increases in the maximum prices set hereby, to reflect such increases are within the discretion of the Administrator or of the Regional Administrator of Region IV.

(f) Power to amend or revoke. This order, or any provision thereof, may be revoked, amended, or corrected at any time by the Administrator or by the Regional Administrator of Region IV.

(g) Petitions for amendment. Any person seeking an amendment of this order may file a petition for amendment with the Administrator in accordance with the provisions of Revised Procedural Regulation No. 1, or in the alternative, may file such petition with the Regional Administrator, Region IV, Office of Price Administration, Candler

Building, Atlanta, 3, Georgia. If such petition is filed with the Regional Administrator, action thereon shall be taken by him. When such a petition is filed with the Regional Administrator, all requirements of Revised Procedural Regulation No. 1, relative to the filing of such petitions, are applicable except the place of filing specified therein.

(h) Applicability of other regulations—(1) Licensing and registration. Every dealer subject to this order is subject to the licensing and registration provisions of Sections 15 and 16 of the General Maximum Price Regulation. These sections provide, in brief, that a license is required of all persons selling, at retail, commodities for which maximum prices are established. A license is automatically granted. It is not necessary to apply for a license, but a dealer may later be required to register. A license may be suspended for violations in connection with the sale of any commodity for which maximum prices are established. If a dealer's license is suspended, he may not sell any such commodity during the period of suspension.

(2) Effect of this order on Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 122. To the extent applicable, the provisions of this order supersede the provisions of Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 122.

(i) Records and reports. Every person making sales of solid fuels for which maximum prices are established by this order shall keep a record thereof showing the date, the name and address of the buyer, if known, the per net ton price charged, and the solid fuel sold. The solid fuel shall be identified in the manner in which it is described in this order. This record shall also separately state each service rendered and the charge made therefor.

(1) It is not necessary that these records or your maximum prices be filed with the War Price and Rationing Board.

(j) Posting of maximum prices; sales slips and receipts. (1) Each dealer subject to this order shall post all the maximum prices set hereby for all of his types of sales. He shall post his prices in his place of business in a manner plainly visible to, and understandable by, the purchasing public. He shall also keep a copy of this order available for examination by any person inquiring as to his prices for solid fuels.

(2) Every dealer selling solid fuels for the sale of which a maximum price is set by this order shall, within 30 days after the date of delivery of the fuel, give to the buyer a statement showing: the date of the sale, the name and address of the dealer and of the buyer, the kind, size, and quantity of the solid fuel sold, the price charged, and separately stating any item which is required to be separately stated by this order. This paragraph (j) (2) shall not apply to sales of quantities of less than one-quarter ton or to sales of bagged coal unless the dealer customarily gave such a statement on such sales.

(3) In the case of all other sales, every dealer who during December, 1941 customarily gave buyers sales slips or receipts shall continue to do so. If a buyer requests of a seller a receipt showing the name and address of the dealer, the kind, size, and quantity of the solid fuel sold to him, or the price charged, the dealer shall comply with the buyer's request as made by him.

(k) Enforcement. (1) Persons violating any provisions of this order are subject to the civil and criminal penalties, including suits for treble damages, provided for by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended.

(2) Persons who have any evidence of any violations of this order are urged to communicate with the nearest District Office of the Office of Price Administration.

(l) Definitions and explanations. When used in this order the term:

(1) "Person" includes an individual, corporation, partnership, association, or any other organized group of persons or legal successor or representative of any of the foregoing, and includes the United States, any other government, or any agency or subdivision of any of the foregoing.

(4) "Direct delivery" means dumping or chuting the fuel from the seller's truck directly into the buyer's bin or storage space; but, if this is physically impossible, the term means discharging the fuel directly from the seller's truck at a point where this can be done and at the point nearest and most accessible to the buyer's bin or storage space.

(5) "Direct delivery" of bagged fuel or of any fuel in one-quarter ton or lesser lots always means delivery to the buyer's storage space.

(5) "Carry" and "wheel" refer to movement of fuel to the buyer's bin or storage space by wheel barrow, barrel, sack, or otherwise from the seller's truck or from the point of discharge therefrom when made in the course of "direct delivery".

(6) "Yard sales" means deliveries made by the dealer in his customary manner, at his yard, or at any place other than his truck.

(7) "District No." refer to the geographical bituminous coal producing districts as delineated and numbered by the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, as amended, as they have been modified by the Bituminous Coal Division and as in effect at midnight, August 23, 1943.

(8) "Lump, egg, stove, stoker, etc." sizes of bituminous coal refer to the size of such coal as defined in the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, as amended, and as prepared at the mine in accordance with the applicable minimum price schedule as promulgated by the Bituminous Coal Division of the United States Department of the Interior and in effect (or established) as of midnight, August 23, 1943, except that "run-of-mine" shall be that size sold as such by the dealer.

(9) Except as otherwise provided herein, or except as the context may otherwise require, the definitions set forth in §§ 1340.255 and 1340.266 of Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 122 shall apply to the terms used herein.

(m) This Revised Order No. G–18 under Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 122 incorporates substantially the same provisions as are found in Order No. G–18 under Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 122, except that, as stated in the accompanying opinion, changes have been made in the price list; therefore, as of the effective date hereof, this revised order supersedes said Order No. G–18.

NOTE: The record keeping requirements of this order have been approved by the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

This order shall become effective September 4, 1944.

(i) "Cash" means payment on or before delivery. On sales involving the extension of credit, no dealer subject to this Order may charge more than 50¢ per ton in addition to the schedule prices.

(3) On sales involving quantities of one ton or more where the buyer loads the coal on to his conveyance at the dealers' yard or siding, the dealer shall apply a discount to the per net ton cash price of not less than 50¢ per ton.

(4) An amount not to exceed 25¢ may be added to the fractional per net ton price set out in the foregoing schedule when the dealer sells and delivers ½ ton.

(5) The maximum price on all sales of small lots in quantities of less than one ton put into the buyer's car or other conveyance at the seller's yard shall be 45¢ per cwt. on fuels from Districts 10 and 15, and 60¢ per cwt. on fuels from District 14. In sales of this kind the buyer may be required to furnish the container. If the buyer does not possess a container, the dealer may require a deposit charge equivalent to the replacement cost when such container is furnished.

(d) Service charges. (1) Below and as a part of this paragraph (d) is a schedule that sets forth maximum prices which a dealer may charge for special services rendered in connection with all sales under preceding paragraph (c). These charges may be made only if the buyer requests such services of the dealer and only when the dealer renders the service. The prices for such services shall be separately stated in the dealer's invoice or bill of sale.

(i) A service charge not to exceed 50¢ per ton may be charged for the "carry in" or "wheel in" service. The "carry in" service means the service of carrying in solid fuel from the curb or point nearest and most accessible to the buyer's bin or storage space to the buyer's fuel bin window. The "wheel in" service means the service of wheeling in solid fuel from the curb or point nearest and most accessible to the buyer's bin or storage space to the buyer's fuel bin window. These services do not include the service of carrying fuel up or down stairs.

(ii) An amount not to exceed 50¢ per ton may be charged for the service of "trimming". "Trimming" means the arranging and placing of the fuel in the buyer's bin. This service charge for trimming shall be applicable only to the amount of the fuel actually handled.

(iii) The prices set forth in the foregoing schedule are for raw coal, i. e., coal which has not been treated. On all sales of treated coal whether, oil, paraffin, or calcium chloride treatment and regardless of whether such treatment was applied at the mine or by the dealer, the dealer may charge an amount not to exceed 10¢ per ton in addition to the schedule price.

(iv) A storage service charge not to exceed 80¢ per ton may be charged by the dealer and added to the per net ton cash price when a buyer who has purchased solid fuel leaves it and stores it in the dealer's yard.

(e) Ex parte 148 Freight Rate Increase: Transportation tax: Missouri State Sales Tax—(1) The freight rate increase. Since the ex parte 148 freight rate increase has been rescinded by the Interstate Commerce Commission, the dealers' freight rates are the same as those of December, 1941. Therefore, no dealer may increase any schedule price on account of freight rates.

(2) The transportation tax. Only the transportation tax imposed by Section 620 of the Revenue Act of 1942 may be collected in addition to the maximum prices set out by this order provided the dealer states it separately from the price of fuel and lists it separately on any sales slip or receipt given to the buyer. This tax need not be stated separately on sales to the United States or any agency thereof, the State government or any political subdivision thereof (See § 1340.-265 (b) of Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 122). No part of this tax may be collected in addition to maximum prices on sales of ¼ ton or lesser quantities.

(3) The Missouri State Sales Tax. The seller may add to the prices listed in the schedule in paragraph (c) the sales tax required to be collected by the laws of the State of Missouri. This tax shall be separately stated in the dealer's invoice, sales slip or receipt.

(f) Addition to increase in supplier's price prohibited. (1) The maximum prices set out by this order may not be increased by a dealer to reflect increases in purchase cost or in supplier's maximum prices occurring after the effective date hereof; but increases in the maximum prices set hereby to reflect such increases are within the discretion of the Regional Administrator.

(g) Power to amend or revoke. (1) The Price Administrator or the Regional Administrator of Region V may amend, revoke, or rescind this order, or any provisions thereof, at any time.

(i) License. (1) Every dealer subject to this order is governed by the licensing provisions of Supplementary Order No. 72. This provides in brief that a license is required of all persons selling at retail commodities for which maximum prices are established. A license may be suspended for violation in connection with the sale of any commodity for which maximum prices are established. If a dealer's license is suspended, he may not sell any such commodity during the period of suspension.

(j) Records and reports. (1) Every person making a sale of solid fuel for which a maximum price is set by this order shall keep a record thereof showing the date, the name and address of the buyer, if known, the price charged and the kind and size of fuel sold. The fuel shall be identified in the manner in which the fuel is described in this order. The record shall also state separately each service rendered and the charge made for it.

(k) Posting of maximum prices: Sales slips and receipts. (1) Each dealer subject to this order shall post all of the maximum prices set by it for all types of sales. He shall post his prices in his place of business in a manner plainly visible to and understandable by the purchasing public. He shall also keep a copy of this order available for examination by any person inquiring as to his prices for solid fuel.

(2) In the case of all sales covered by this order every dealer who during December, 1941 customarily gave buyers sales slips or receipts shall continue to do so. In any case if a buyer requests a receipt, the seller shall furnish the buyer with a receipt showing the name and address of the seller, the kind, sizes and quantity of the solid fuel sold to the buyer and the price or prices charged.

(l) Enforcement. (1) Persons violating any provisions of this order are subject to civil and criminal penalties, including suits for treble damages, provided for by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended.

(2) Persons who have any evidence of any violation of this order are urged to communicate with the Kansas City, Missouri District Office of the Office of Price Administration.

(m) Definitions and explanations. (1) "Person" includes an individual, corporation, partnership, association, or any other organized group of persons, or legal successor or representative of any of the foregoing, and includes the United States, or any agency thereof, or any other government, or any of its political subdivisions or any agency of any of the foregoing.

(2) "Sell" includes, sell, supply, dispose, barter, exchange, lease, transfer, and deliver and contracts and offers to do any of the foregoing. The terms "sale", "selling", "sold", "buy", "purchase", and "purchaser" shall be construed accordingly.

(3) "Dealer" means any person selling solid fuel except producers or distributors making sales at or from a mine, a preparation plant operated as an adjunct of any mine, a coke oven or a briquette plant.

(4) "Direct delivery" means dumping or chuting the fuel from the seller's truck directly into the buyer's bin or storage space; but if this is unfeasible, because of the absence of a regular driveway free from all foreign matter which might damage trucks and tires, then direct delivery means discharging the solid fuel from the seller's truck directly at the street curb or at the point nearest and most accessible to the buyer's bin or storage space.

(5) "Production group" and "production groups", as used in this order, refer to the production groups established by the former Bituminous Coal Division pursuant to the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, as amended, and as in effect at midnight, August 23, 1943.

(7) "District No." refers to the geographical bituminous coal producing districts as delineated and numbered by the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, as amended, as they have been modified by the Bituminous Coal Division and as in effect at midnight, August 23, 1943.

(8) "High volatile bituminous coal" means coal produced in high volatile sections of the producing districts specified in this order.

(9) "Low volatile bituminous coal" means coal produced in the low volatile sections of the producing districts specified in this order.

(10) "Solid fuel" (or "solid fuels") means all solid fuel except wood and wood products, including all kinds of anthracite and semi-anthracite; bituminous and semi-bituminous and cannel coal; lignite, all coke, including low temperature coke (except by-products foundry and blast furnace coke, and beehive oven furnace coke produced in the State of Pennsylvania; briquettes made from coke or coal; and sea coal used for foundry facings.

(11) "Egg, nut," etc., sizes of bituminous coal refer to the sizes of such coal as defined in the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, as amended, and as prepared at the mine in accordance with the applicable minimum price schedule promulgated by the Bituminous Coal Division of the United States Department of the Interior, and in effect (or established), as of midnight, August 23, 1943.

Where the minimum price schedules do not make specific mention of any size designated in this order, such size designations shall refer to the sizes of bituminous coal sold as such in the area subject to this order during December 1941.

(12) Except as otherwise specifically provided herein or as the context may otherwise require, the definitions set forth in §§ 1340.255 and 1340.266 of Maximum Price Regulation No. 122, as amended, shall apply to the terms used herein.

(n) Effect of this order on Revised Maximum Price Regulation 122. (1) To the extent applicable, the provisions of this order supersede Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 122.

PORTLAND ELECTRIC POWER CO.

NOTICE OF FILING AND ORDER FOR HEARING

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission, held at its office in the City of Philadelphia, Pa., on the 8th day of September 1944.

The Commission having in its findings, opinion and order of July 1, 1944, issued pursuant to the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935, denied applications for the approval of plans of reorganization for Portland Electric Power Company ("Pepco"), a registered holding company, now in reorganization under Chapter X of the Federal Bankruptcy Act in the District Court of the United States for the District of Oregon, which plans were severally filed by Thos. W. Delzell and R. L. Clark, Independent Trustees of Pepco, by Guaranty Trust Company of New York, as Indenture Trustee under the Indenture of Trust securing the 6% Collateral Trust Income Bonds of Pepco, by a committee representing certain bondholders, and by a committee representing certain Prior Preference stockholders;

The denial of said applications having been after public hearings, notice of which was ordered by the Commission sent to all known bondholders of Pepco and to all of its stockholders of record, which notice recited, among other things, that the hearings were to be for the purpose of considering other plans which might be proposed by any person having a bona fide interest in the reorganization;

The Commission having in its said findings and opinion of July 1, 1944 made suggestions as to the form of plan which the Commission might find to be fair and equitable and otherwise in conformity with the applicable statutory standards, and having directed that any amendments to the plans then on file, or any further plans by any duly qualified person or group, conforming with the findings and opinion of the Commission, be filed in this proceeding within sixty days from July 1, 1944, in default whereof the Commission would give consideration to its power and duty itself to proceed under the provisions of section 11 (f) of the act to formulate a reorganization plan for submission to the Reorganization Court:

Notice is hereby given that an application for approval of an amended plan of reorganization dated August 25, 1944 ("the Plan") has been filed on August 28, 1944 by the Guaranty Trust Company of New York, as Indenture Trustee, the applicant stating that it believes that the Plan conforms to the findings and opinion of the Commission. [2] Including $9,800,340 accrued interest on 1934 Bonds, and $142,636 accrued interest on 1937 Bonds.

[3] Excluding shares held by Casadero to be cancelled and not to participate in the Plan, as follows: 1 share of 6% First Preferred, 20³⁵⁄₁₀₀ shares 7.2% First Preferred, and 4 shares of $6 First Preferred.

4. The authorized common stock of Portland General Electric Company ("PGE"), a subsidiary of Pepco, is to be increased from 500,000 shares to 1,500,000 shares, all without par value. The number of shares of such stock outstanding will be increased from 236,819 shares to 1,015,299.5 shares, without any increase in the total capital stock liability of PGE. The actions brought by the Independent Trustees against The Chase National Bank of the City of New York and against Central Public Utility Corporation are to be retained and enforced by the Independent Trustees. However, the right to receive any net recoveries from such actions will be assigned, as a capital contribution, to PGE. All expenses incurred subsequent to the confirmation of the Plan with respect to enforcement of such actions will be paid by PGE in such reasonable amounts as the Court from time to time may direct. PGE will continue the defense of and prosecution of its counter-claims in the action brought against it by The Chase National Bank of the City of New York and will not settle or compromise said action without approval of the Court. The members of the board of directors of PGE as of the date of confirmation of the Plan are to remain in office until their successors are elected at the first regular meeting of stockholders to be held subsequent to a period of 30 days following the first issuance under the Plan of Certificates of Beneficial Interest in PGE Common Stock.

5. All the outstanding common stock of PGE, except directors' qualifying shares, is to be transferred to an Adjustment Trustee, which shall be such bank or trust company, having its principal office in Portland, Oregon, as shall be selected by the Independent Trustees and approved by the Court and the Commission. The Adjustment Trustee will hold such stock pursuant to an Adjustment Trust Agreement.

(a) The Adjustment Trustee will issue Certificates of Beneficial Interest, Certificates of Contingent Interest and Certificates of Subordinated Contingent Interest, which will be distributed in the manner hereafter described. Said Certificates of Contingent Interest and of Subordinated Contingent Interest will not be transferable except by operation of law.

(b) Such trust will terminate on December 31, 1947 or on such other date as the litigation referred to in paragraph 4 hereof shall be finally terminated or settled, whichever date shall sooner occur, provided that the Court may extend such date upon a showing that additional time is required in order to obtain final termination or settlement of the litigation.

(c) If on or prior to the expiration date PGE shall receive any benefits from the litigation, either through the receipt of assets or reduction of liabilities as shown on the books of PGE as of June 30, 1944, PGE will notify the Adjustment Trustee thereof and the Adjustment Trustee will determine the value, in the manner specified in the Adjustment Trust Agreement, of such benefits so realized by PGE. Such determination will be subject to the approval of the Court and the Commission. PGE will credit the amount so determined to a special reserve account against which shall be charged (i) all expenses of PGE, for which it shall not have been reimbursed, relating to the litigation or to the Adjustment Trust Agreement (exclusive of charges relating to maintaining records concerning Certificates of Beneficial Interest, transferring such Certificates, and forwarding to holders of such Certificates notices of meetings and other printed material) and (ii) any taxes resulting from such benefits of the litigation. Any net credit balance in such reserve account remaining after such charges shall be maintained until termination of the Adjustment Trust, after which the amount carried in such special reserve account may be transferred to PGE's surplus accounts, subject to the approval of the Commission.

(d) As soon as feasible after the expiration date or after the date of final termination or settlement of the litigation, whichever date shall sooner occur, if there be a net amount in the special reserve account available for transfer to surplus accounts as provided above, provided the board of directors of PGE shall not have made the determination referred to below, the Adjustment Trustee will cause PGE to reclassify its outstanding common stock so that the number of shares thereof will be increased by such number as shall result from dividing such net amount in the special reserve account by the then value per share of PGE common stock computed as herein described. Such value per share shall be deemed to be the sum of (i) $21.609 (the value per share as of the effective date of the Plan as determined in the reorganization proceedings) and (ii) the net amount of undistributed net income available for dividends on common stock, accrued from the effective date of the Plan to the last day of the calendar month next preceding the date of reclassification, divided by the number of shares of common stock then outstanding. If the net amount in the special reserve account available for transfer to surplus accounts shall be less than $100,000 and if the board of directors of PGE shall within 20 days after the final determination of such amount determine that it is not in the interest of PGE or of holders of Certificates of Contingent Interest to reclassify the common stock of PGE, then such net amount shall be paid over to the Adjustment Trustee for distribution pro rata to holders of Certificates of Contingent Interest in full satisfaction thereof.

(e) Upon termination of the Adjustment Trust, the Adjustment Trustee will distribute the common stock of PGE held by it to the holders of Certificates of Beneficial Interest, Certificates of Contingent Interest and Certificates of Subordinated Contingent Interest, upon surrender thereof, in accordance with their respective interests: Provided, however, That no fractions of shares shall be so distributed but in lieu thereof scrip certificates.

(f) Prior to the termination of the Adjustment Trust, PGE will not declare or pay any dividends upon its common stock, except out of amounts credited to surplus from earnings subsequent to the effective date of the Plan. If the Adjustment Trustee shall receive from PGE any dividends upon its common stock, such dividends shall be distributed pro rata to the holders of Certificates of Beneficial Interest.

(g) The Adjustment Trustee will have irrevocable power to vote the common stock of PGE with respect to the reclassification of such stock referred to above. For all other purposes, the Adjustment Trustee will vote such stock in accordance with the instructions or authorizations received from the holders of Certificates of Beneficial Interest.

(h) PGE will reimburse the Adjustment Trustee for its reasonable disbursements and will pay a reasonable compensation for services under the Adjustment Trust Agreement.

6. The authorized common stock of Portland Traction Company ("Traction"), subsidiary of Pepco, is to be increased from 150,000 shares to 750,000 shares, all without par value. The number of shares of such stock outstanding will be increased from 131,131 to 576,834 shares, without any increase in the total capital stock liability of Traction. Traction will purchase from Pepco, as of the effective date of the Plan, the Interurban Railroad properties, the Center Street shops and the Water Street freight terminal yards. In consideration for such purchase, Traction will assume all obligations of Pepco relating to the Interurban Railroad, and will issue to Pepco 100,000 shares of additional common stock of Traction. The members of the board of directors of Traction, as of the date of confirmation of the Plan, are to remain in office until their successors are elected at the first regular meeting of stockholders to be held subsequent to a period of 30 days following the first issuance under the Plan of certificates for shares of Traction common stock.

7. All of the 6% Collateral Trust Income Bonds of Pepco held by the Debtor and by Casadero Real Estate Company will be cancelled and will not participate in the Plan. All bonds held by PGE will be transferred to the Debtor for $13,960, the book cost thereof to PGE, and cancelled. The shares of First Preferred Stock of Pepco held by Casadero Real Estate Company will be cancelled and will not participate in the Plan.

8. Pepco and its subsidiaries, Casadero Real Estate Company and Little White Salmon Land Company, will be liquidated and dissolved, and all assets thereof not otherwise distributable under the Plan will be conveyed to a corporation, referred to as Realization Corporation, to be formed under the laws of the State of Oregon or such other state as the Court may direct. Realization Corporation will issue common stock, which will be distributed in the manner hereafter described, and will hold such assets for the purpose of liquidating the same and distributing the net proceeds of such liquidation proportionately among its stockholders. Realization Corporation will have a board of directors consisting of five members who shall initially be designated by the Court. Realization Corporation will assume payment of all reorganization expenses and allowances in the amounts to be approved by the Court.

9. Holders of 1934 Bonds of Pepco are to receive in full satisfaction of the principal amount thereof and accrued interest thereon the following securities with respect to each $1,000 principal amount of such bonds:

Certificates of Beneficial Interest in 60 shares of Portland General Electric Company common stock,

40 shares of Portland Traction Company common stock, and 10 shares of Realization Corporation common stock.

Holders of 1937 Bonds of Pepco are to receive in full satisfaction of the principal amount thereof and accrued interest thereon the following securities with respect to each $1,000 principal amount of such bonds, and a proportionate amount of such securities with respect to such bonds of a principal amount of less than $1,000:

Certificate of Beneficial Interest in 52 shares of Portland General Electric Company common stock,

35 shares of Portland Traction Company common stock,

8 shares of Realization Corporation common stock, and $6.92 in cash,

Provided, however, That no Certificate of Beneficial Interest in fractions of a share of PGE common stock and no certificate for fractions of a share of Traction common stock will be issued but in lieu thereof scrip certificates.

Holders of Prior Preference Stock of Pepco are to receive in full satisfaction of their claim thereon, including all dividends accrued, the following securities with respect to each share of such stock:

Certificate of Beneficial Interest in .860 share of Portland General Electric Company common stock,

Certificate of Contingent Interest in the amount of $157.38 with respect to shares of Portland General Electric Company common stock issuable upon the contingencies, and subject to the limitations, set forth in the Adjustment Trust Agreement,

.569 share of Portland Traction Company common stock, and

.145 share of Realization Corporation common stock,

Provided, however, That no Certificate of Beneficial Interest in fractions of a share of PGE common stock and no certificate for fractions of a share of Traction common stock will be issued but in lieu thereof scrip certificates.

Each holder of First Preferred Stock of Pepco is to receive in full satisfaction of his claim thereon, including all dividends accrued, a Certificate of Subordinated Contingent Interest in the amount of such claim, including dividends accrued through June 30, 1944, with respect to any shares of Portland General Electric Company common stock, exceeding the aggregate number required to satisfy all Certificates of Contingent Interest subject to issuance upon the contingencies set forth in the Adjustment Trust Agreement.

10. The plan states that the assets of Pepco are insufficient to make any provision for holders of Second Preferred Stock or Common Stock of Pepco; that such holders have no equity in the assets and are not affected by the Plan; that the holders of First Preferred Stock have no equity in the assets of the Debtor and have no interest, except upon the contingency that net recoveries may be realized from the litigation in an amount more than sufficient to satisfy the claims of Prior Preference Stock; that the Plan gives adequate protection for the realization by the holders of Prior Preference Stock and First Preferred Stock of the values of their respective equities; and that accordingly, if the Plan by order of the Court is submitted to any class of stockholders for acceptance, and if the Plan is not accepted by the requisite number of such holders, pursuant to section 179 of the Bankruptcy Act, the Plan may nevertheless be confirmed by the Court.

11. All creditors of Pepco, other than bondholders, will be paid in full.

12. All expenses in connection with the Plan and its consummation and all costs of administration and other allowances, in such amounts as shall be approved by the Court, will be assumed by Realization Corporation and paid out of the assets to be transferred to it under the Plan.

13. Consummation of the Plan will be under the supervision of the Court, which may construe the Plan and may cure any defect, supply any omission or reconcile any inconsistency.

It appearing to the Commission that it is appropriate in the public interest and the interest of investors and consumers that a hearing be held with respect to such Plan, in accordance with the provisions of section 11 (f) of the act:

It is ordered, That the hearing in this matter be reconvened on September 28, 1944, at 10:00 a. m., e. w. t., in the offices of the Securities and Exchange Commission, 18th and Locust Streets, Philadelphia 3, Pennsylvania, before William W. Swift, the Trial Examiner heretofore designated, or before such other officer or officers of the Commission as may be designated by it for that purpose. The officer designated to preside at any such hearing is hereby authorized to exercise all powers granted to the Commission under section 18 (c) of the act and to a Trial Examiner under the Commission's rules of practice.

It is further ordered, That without limiting the issues to be considered in this proceeding, particular attention will be directed at the reconvened hearing to the following matters and questions:

(1) Whether the proposed Plan should be approved as fair and equitable, and feasible;

(2) To what extent, if at all, the proposed Plan should be modified or amended to render it fair and equitable, and feasible;

(3) Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, whether the Plan should be amended to provide for an effective date later than June 30, 1944; and if so, as of what date should the Plan be effective;

(4) Whether, in the event that the Commission shall not approve the Plan as filed or as modified, the Commission shall itself propose a Plan for the purposes of section 11 (f), and if so, the nature and content of the Plan so to be proposed.

(5) Whether the various transactions set forth in connection with the Plan meet the requirements of applicable sections of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935, particularly Sections 7, 10, 11 and 12 thereof and the rules and regulations promulgated thereunder, including (but without limitation) the following:

(a) The acquisition by Realization Corporation of assets now owned by Pepco, Casadero Real Estate Company and Little White Salmon Land Company;

(b) The acquisition by Traction of Pepco's Interurban Railroad properties, the Center Street shops and the Water Street freight terminal yard;

(c) The issuance by Realization Corporation of common stock;

(d) The issuance by PGE and Traction of additional shares of common stock without increasing their respective capital stock liabilities;

(e) The issuance by the Adjustment Trustee of Certificates of Beneficial Interest, Certificates of Contingent Interest, and Certificates of Subordinated Contingent Interest.

It is further ordered, That the Secretary of the Commission shall serve notice of the hearing aforesaid by mailing a copy of this order by registered mail to all parties who have heretofore entered their appearances herein, or to their respective counsel of record, and shall give notice to all other persons by publication of a copy of this order in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

It is further ordered, That any person, who has not heretofore entered his appearance herein, desiring to be heard in connection with this proceeding, or otherwise wishing to participate therein, shall file with the Secretary of the Commission, on or before September 26, 1944, his request or application therefor as provided in Rule XVII of the rules of practice of the Commission.

SECTION 1. Objectives. In furtherance of the war effort the Area Director of the War Manpower Commission for the Washington, D. C., Area with the concurrence of the Area Management-Labor Committee has adopted the following program. The purpose of the program is to eliminate wasteful labor turnover, to reduce unnecessary migration by encouraging the full use of local labor, to direct scarce labor where most needed in the war program, and to obtain the maximum utilization of the manpower resources under standards protecting the rights of all concerned.

SEC. 2. Definitions. As used in this employment stabilization program:

(a) "Area covered" is the Washington, D. C., Area comprising the District of Columbia, Montgomery and Prince Georges Counties in Maryland, Arlington and Fairfax Counties and the City of Alexandria in Virginia.

(b) "Essential activity" means any activity included in the War Manpower Commission List of Essential Activities (9 F.R. 3493).

(c) "Locally needed activity" means any activity duly approved by the Area Manpower Director or the Chairman of the War Manpower Commission as a locally needed activity.

(d) "Locally needed establishment" means any establishment designated specifically by the Area Director as a locally needed establishment.

(e) "State" includes Alaska, Hawaii, and the District of Columbia.

(f) "Agriculture" means those farm activities carried on by farm owners or tenants on farms in connection with the cultivation of the soil, the harvesting of crops, or the raising, feeding or management of livestock, bees and poultry, and shall not include any packing, canning, processing, transportation or marketing of articles produced on farms unless performed or carried on as an incident to ordinary farming operations as distinguished from manufacturing or commercial operations.

(g) "Employer" means any person, firm, corporation or the Federal Government who employs persons for consideration except as indicated in "Exclusions." Under this definition the Civil Service Commission represents the Federal Government as an employer insofar as positions subject to the Civil Service Act and rules are concerned.

(h) "Referral" means a statement issued by the United States Employment Service of the War Manpower Commission sending a worker with his consent to a specific job with a specific employer, for consideration of hiring by such employer.

(i) "New employee" means any individual who has not been in the employment of the hiring employer at any time during the preceding 30-day period. For the purpose of this definition, employment of less than seven days' duration and employment which is supplemental to the employee's principal work shall be disregarded.

(j) The terms "employment" and "work" as applied to an individual engaged in principal and supplementary employment means his principal employment.

(k) "Locality" means the area as stated in section 2 (a) above. For purposes of railroad employment, locality means the railroad operation division.

(l) "Record of prior employment" is a written certification by an applicant for employment containing the name and location of each employer for whom he has worked during the 60 days preceding such application, his occupation and the date of separation from his employer.

(m) "Solicitation" means the initiation of contract with an individual orally or through written or published communication for the purpose of inducing him to accept employment. The furnishing of employment by an employer or his agent to individuals who voluntarily and without solicitation make inquiry is not deemed to be soliciting.

(n) An "employment ceiling" is the highest level of total employment or of specified types of employees which an establishment is not permitted to exceed, based upon an approved necessary production schedule. Ceilings may be established to:

(1) Permit employment expansion;

(2) Maintain employment at present levels; or

(3) Reduce to employment level.

The employment ceiling is subject to change as production schedules change.

(o) A "manpower allowance" represents an administrative determination of the number of employees or specified types of employees, within the ceiling, which an establishment is currently not permitted to exceed and is used as the means for the current allocation and referral of available labor. This manpower allowance is subject to change as supply factors in the labor market may warrant.

(p) "Priority referral" is a program which provides that employers, except agricultural employers, may hire workers referred by the United States Employment Service of the War Manpower Commission or in accordance with arrangements approved by the United States Employment Service of the War Manpower Commission, so that workers may be referred to jobs in the order of the relative importance of those jobs to the war effort.

SEC. 3. Control of hiring and solicitation of workers. All hiring and solicitation of workers in, or for work in, the Washington Area shall be conducted in accordance with this Employment Stabilization Plan.

SEC. 4. Hiring procedures. (a) No employer shall hire any individual in, or for work in, the Washington Area except upon referral by, or in accordance with arrangements approved by the United States Employment Service of the War Manpower Commission.

(b) The Area Manpower Director may fix for all or any establishments in the Washington Area, fair and reasonable employment ceilings and allowances, limiting the number of employees or other specified types of employees which such establishments may employ during specified periods. The basic factor in determining such ceilings and allowances will be the relative urgency of the establishment's production or services required for the prosecution of the war or for community war-time needs. Other considerations will be the labor needs of the establishment and the available labor supply. Except as authorized by the Area Manpower Director, no employer shall hire any new employee for work in such establishment if the hiring of such employee would result in such establishment's exceeding the employment ceiling or allowance currently applicable to it.

(c) A new employee whose last regular employment was in agriculture and who is to be hired for non-agricultural work shall be hired only upon referral by or in accordance with arrangements approved by the United States Employment Service of the War Manpower Commission. No such individual shall be referred to non-agricultural work, except after consultation with a designated representative of the War Food Administration, and provided that such an individual may be hired for non-agricultural work for a period of not to exceed six weeks without referral.

(d) Employers shall retain and file statements of availability, referral cards, and records of prior employment, and shall make them available for inspection upon request by a representative of the War Manpower Commission.

SEC. 5. Issuance of statements of availability by employers. A statement of availability shall be issued promptly to an individual when any of the circumstances set forth below is found to exist in his case.

An individual whose last employment is or was in an essential activity or a locally needed establishment shall receive a statement of availability from his employer when:

(a) He has been discharged, or his employment has been otherwise terminated by his employer, or

(b) He has been laid off for an indefinite period; or for a period of seven or more days, or

(c) Continuance of his employment would involve undue personal hardships, or

(d) Such employment is or was at a wage or salary or under working conditions below standards established by State or Federal law or regulations, or

(e) Such employment is or was at a wage or salary below a level established or approved by the National War Labor Board (or other agency authorized to adjust wages or approve adjustments thereof) as warranting adjustment, and the employer has failed to adjust the wage in accordance with such level or to apply to the appropriate agency for such adjustment or approval thereof.

SEC. 6. Referral of workers by United States Employment Service. (a) If the employer fails or refuses to issue a statement of availability the United States Employment Service of the War Manpower Commission, upon finding that the worker is eligible for referral, shall refer the individual to employment in accordance with the provisions of this program.

(b) The United States Employment Service of the War Manpower Commission may refer any individual in the employ of an employer whom the War Manpower Commission finds, after notice, hearing, and final decision, has not complied with any War Manpower Commission employment stabilization program, regulation, or policy, and for so long as such employer continues his noncompliance after such finding.

(c) If an individual is employed at less than full time, or at a job which does not utilize his highest recognized skill for which there is a need in the war effort, the United States Employment Service of the War Manpower Commission may, upon his request, refer him to other available employment in which it finds that the individual will be more fully utilized in the war effort.

(d) The issuance of a referral card by the United States Employment Service of the War Manpower Commission shall constitute a certification that the employee is eligible under War Manpower Commission regulations and this program for employment to which he is being referred and there shall be no obligation on the new employer to inquire with respect to said eligibility.

(e) A worker seeking referral to employment under any circumstances except where he has been laid off or discharged from his last employment by his employer, shall be urged to remain on his job until the statement is issued by his employer or referral is made by the United States Employment Service of the War Manpower Commission unless remaining on the job would subject him to undue personal hardship.

SEC. 7. Special hiring provisions. (a) Railroads, and other employers subject to the Railroad Retirement Act or the Railroad Unemployment Insurance Act, shall hire new workers who have not worked (or resided, if not previously employed) within the locality of the new employment in the 30 days preceding such hiring only through the Railroad Retirement Board's Employment Service. All orders for such workers shall be cleared by the latter agency with the United States Employment Service of the War Manpower Commission before recruiting from outside the area is undertaken.

(b) Since appointments to the Departmental Services of the Federal Government in Washington, D. C., are required by law to be apportioned among the several states, the Civil Service Commission is not required to secure clearance from the United States Employment Service of the War Manpower Commission before recruiting outside the area to fill such positions, and persons recruited to fill such positions may be hired without clearance from the United States Employment Service of the War Manpower Commission in this area. However, the provisions of any employment stabilization program in effect in the area from which the person is recruited will be complied with. Hiring by departments and agencies of the Federal Government for positions which are subject to the rules and regulations of the United States Civil Service Commission, which, so far as is consistent with the laws under which it operates, shall conduct its recruiting activities and make referrals in accordance with the War Manpower Commission's policies, procedures and standards. The provisions of this plan shall not be applicable to transfer between agencies of the Federal Government. Except as indicated the Civil Service Commission shall clear its job openings with the local United States Employment Service of the War Manpower Commission office before recruiting outside the area. The District of Columbia Government shall conform with the provisions of this program insofar as positions subject to the Civil Service Act and Rules and the Joint Regulations are concerned.

(c) The War Shipping Administration shall conduct its recruitment activities and make referrals in accordance with the War Manpower Commission's policies, procedures, and standards.

SEC. 8. Exclusions. No provisions of this employment stabilization program shall be applicable to:

(a) The hiring of a new employee for agricultural employment;

(b) The hiring of a new employee for work of less than seven days' duration, or for work which is supplementary to the employees' principal work, but such work shall not constitute the individual's "last employment" for the purposes of the program, unless the employee is customarily engaged in work of less than seven days' duration;

(c) The hiring of an employee in any territory or possession of the United States, except Alaska and Hawaii;

(d) The hiring by the legislative and judicial branches of the Federal Government or by a foreign, State, county, or municipal government, or to the hiring of any of their employees, unless such legislative or judicial branches of the Federal Government or foreign, State, county, or municipal government or political subdivision or agency or instrumentality has indicated its willingness to conform to the maximum extent practicable under the Constitution and laws applicable to it, with the program;

(e) The hiring of a new employee for domestic service;

(f) The hiring of a school teacher for vacation employment or the re-hiring of a school teacher for teaching at the termination of the vacation period.

SEC. 9. Appeals. Any worker or employer may appeal from any act or failure to act by the War Manpower Commission under the employment stabilization program in accordance with regulations and procedures of the War Manpower Commission. The granting or denial of a referral by the United States Employment Service of the War Manpower Commission may be appealed by an employer or an employee providing an appeal is filed within five days from the receipt of notice of such determination with the United States Employment Service local office.

SEC. 10. Contents of statements of availability. A statement of availability issued to an individual pursuant to the program shall contain only the individual's name, address, social security account number, if any, the name and address of the issuing employer, the date of issuance, and such other information not prejudicial to the employee in seeking new employment as may be authorized or required by the War Manpower Commission.

SEC. 11. Solicitation of workers. No employer shall advertise or otherwise solicit for the purpose of hiring any individual if the hiring of such an individual would be subject to restrictions under this employment stabilization program, except in a manner consistent with such restrictions.

SEC. 12. Hiring. The decision to hire or refer a worker shall be based on qualifications essential for performance of, or suitability for the job, and shall be made without discrimination as to race, color, creed, sex, national origin, or, except as required by law, citizenship.

SEC. 13. Representation. Nothing contained in the program shall be construed to restrict any individual from seeking the advice and aid of, or from being represented by the labor organization of which he is a member, or any other representative freely chosen by him, at any step in the operation of the program. Nothing contained in this program shall change, modify, or restrict any collective bargaining agreement existing between the bargaining agency of the employees and their employers.

SEC. 14. General referral policies. No provision in the program shall limit the authority of the United States Employment Service of the War Manpower Commission to make referrals in accordance with approved policies and instructions of the War Manpower Commission.

SEC. 15. Release of workers hired contrary to the program. If the War Manpower Commission determines that an employer has hired any worker contrary to this program, the employer shall upon notice of such determination release the worker from his employ. Any worker so released shall be referred to his last previous employer if that employer desired to re-hire him; and if not, to employment by, or in accordance with arrangements approved by the United States Employment Service of the War Manpower Commission, where he will contribute most to the furtherance of the war program.

SEC. 16. Discontinuance of inter-area releases. The provisions of the previous Area Employment Stabilization Program, requiring migrant workers to obtain and present inter-area releases, are hereby rescinded.

SEC. 17. Enforcement. The Area Director or his designated representative shall take such action as is necessary to effect compliance with this program in accordance with authority provided under applicable Congressional enactments, executive orders, and regulations of the War Manpower Commission.

SEC. 18. Effective date. The provisions of this program shall become effective July 1, 1944.

All programs in force as of the above effective date, are superseded by this program.

SEC. 19. Interpretations and procedures. Interpretations of this program and instructions or procedures relative to its operation shall be issued from time to time, as may be necessary, by the Area Director of the War Manpower Commission.

Chapter XI—War Food Administration (Distribution Orders)

[WFO 71, Amdt. 2]

PART 1595—FOOD PRIORITIES

FOOD PRIORITIES

War Food Order 71, as amended (8 F.R. 2816, 7213; 9 F.R. 4321, 4319) is hereby completely revised and amended to read as follows:

§ 1595.1 Food Priorities—(a) Definitions. (1) "Person" means any individual, partnership, association, business trust, corporation, or any organized group of persons, whether incorporated or not and includes the States or any subdivision thereof and the United States and any department, agency, or instrumentality thereof.

(2) "Food" means all commodities and products, simple, mixed, or compounded, that are or may be eaten or drunk by either humans or animals, irrespective of other uses to which such commodities or products may be put, and at all stages of processing from the raw commodity to the product thereof in a vendible form for immediate human or animal consumption, and includes all starches; sugars; tobaccos; vegetable, fish, marine animal, and animal fats and oils, whether edible or inedible, including their by-products and residues (whether resulting from refining, distillation, saponification, pressing, or settling); sulfated, sulfonated, and sulfurized fats and oils; tall oil; wool grease; soap; fatty acids; and glycerine.

(3) "Emergency order" means any contract or order for food to which a priority rating is attached or as to which the Director has issued specific directions, as provided in this War Food order.

(4) "Disposition" means the transfer of title to food by sale, gift, or any other means; the transfer of physical possession of food by delivery or otherwise, except for storage purposes; and the use of food in any process of production, manufacturing, or other use whereby the attributes of the food are changed.

(5) "Director" means the Director of Distribution, War Food Administration.

(b) Assignment of priority ratings. (1) The Director may assign priority ratings to contracts, orders, or dispositions for food by means of priority rating certificates or, at his discretion, by other means. Such ratings may be assigned to dispositions under contracts or under orders prior to or after the time of placing or acceptance. Such ratings may be granted subject to conditions imposed on the use thereof by the director. The Director may also issue specific directions as to particular dispositions without assigning specific priority ratings thereto, and such directions shall take precedence over all other dispositions, regardless of any priority which may be assigned.

(2) A priority rating of PR-10 is hereby assigned to every contract of the United States Army, Navy, Coast Guard, Marine Corps (except contracts of Army and Marine Corps post exchanges and Navy and Coast Guard ship's service stores), War Shipping Administration, or War Food Administration (including but not limited to any corporate agency thereof) for the acquisition of food, and shall automatically apply to every contract entered into by any person contracting with any one of the above agencies unless a higher priority rating is assigned to such contract by the Director.

(c) Duration of priority ratings. Unless an emergency order is placed within the period of time specified on the food priority rating certificate or otherwise by the Director, the rating shall expire and be without force and effect. All priority ratings may be revoked at any time by the Director. A priority rating applied or extended before the expiration date continues in effect until the food is delivered, the rating is revoked, or the emergency order is cancelled.

(d) Extension of priority ratings. (1) Extension of priority ratings refers to the use of the rating assigned to such an emergency order by the person filling such order, for the purpose of obtaining the food needed to fill the order or to replace food which he has taken from his inventory to fill the emergency order. No person may extend any priority rating to any of his suppliers or subsuppliers unless the Director specifically authorizes such extension.

(2) Any person authorized to extend a priority rating shall do so only in the following manner:

(i) With respect to a written contract or order, by endorsing on or attaching to each contract or order to which the rating is extended a statement of the priority rating and a certification in substantially the form provided in Appendix A hereof, signed by an official duly authorized for such purpose.

(ii) With respect to an order placed by telegraph, by including in the telegram a certification substantially as follows:

Ratings indicated are extended pursuant to War Food Order 71.

A copy of such telegram signed by a duly authorized official shall, in every case, be furnished to the addressee thereof.

(3) Any person receiving an order or contract with such rating and certification attached shall be entitled to rely on the representations in such certification unless he knows or has reason to believe them to be false.

(4) The person authorized to extend a priority rating must place his order to which such rating is extended within the period of time specified by the Director.

(5) In extending a priority rating, no person shall order or purchase more food than needed to fill the emergency order or to replace in his inventory food used for filling the emergency order, even though he intends to cancel or reduce his orders to the correct quantity prior to delivery.

(6) No priority rating may be extended to any material other than food.

(e) Sequence of priority ratings. Priority ratings under this order shall be referred to and designated as Food Priority Ratings and shall have the following order of precedence: FR–1, FR–2, FR–3, FR–4, FR–5, FR–6, FR–7, FR–8, FR–9, FR–10.

(f) Set aside quantities of food. Unless specifically authorized by the Director, no person shall fill any emergency order by delivering the set aside portion of any food required to be set aside by any War Food order, except to fill an emergency order of an agency named in or designated pursuant to such War Food order.

(g) Compulsory acceptance and delivery under emergency orders. An emergency order must be accepted and filled and all dispositions under such orders must be made, whether pursuant to contract or not, in preference to any other disposition of food to the extent necessary to meet the delivery or production schedule provided in the emergency order, except that acceptance and disposition under such order need not be made:

(1) If the disposition called for cannot be made because of the previous scheduling of emergency orders bearing higher or equal priority ratings.

(2) If the person placing such order is unwilling or unable to pay prevailing market prices (but no more than any maximum price prescribed by the Office of Price Administration) for the food ordered, or is unwilling or unable to meet regularly established terms of sale or payment: Provided, That there shall be no discrimination against such orders in establishing such prices or terms.

(3) If the person with whom the emergency order is placed does not have a supply of such food in sufficient quantity to fill the order, and such food is of a kind which such person is not capable of producing without substantial alteration of or addition to such person's facilities. A person may not avoid acceptance or delivery by changing the form of the food produced by him.

If the person with whom the emergency order is placed is without authority to fill the order by selling the food in his possession, he shall immediately inform the person placing the emergency order of this fact and also inform him of the name of the person having such authority. Until such time as the emergency order is withdrawn or the priority rating is revoked, the person with whom the order is placed shall not make any disposition of food meeting the specifications of the order, or which can be made to meet such specifications, except as permitted by this order: Provided, That as soon as the person placing the order is notified that the person with whom the order is placed is without authority to fill the order, an emergency order shall thereupon be placed with the person owning or otherwise exercising proprietorship over such food. The food priority rating applying to an order for a product shall be deemed to apply also to the use of food to manufacture or produce such product.

Dispositions bearing no priority rating or lower priority ratings shall be deferred to the extent necessary to assure those dispositions bearing higher priority ratings, even though such deferment may cause defaults under other contracts or orders. Each person who has emergency orders on hand must schedule his production and deliveries so that dispositions thereunder will be made on the dates required, giving precedence in the case of unavoidable delay to dispositions bearing the higher rating.

(h) Sequence of deliveries. The sequence of disposition under emergency orders bearing the same priority rating shall be determined by the respective dates on which the emergency orders are placed, the emergency order placed first in point of time having precedence over other emergency orders. If emergency orders bearing the same priority rating are placed on the same day and it is impossible to deliver all the quantities specified on schedule, the sequence of disposition shall be determined by the delivery dates specified in the emergency orders.

(i) Placing of emergency orders. Emergency orders may be placed by regular or registered mail, by telegraph, or by personal service upon the person with whom the order is to be placed.

(j) Failure to comply. When the terms of an emergency order have not been complied with and such failure to comply appears to the person placing such order to be improper, a report shall be filed promptly with the Director setting forth the facts in connection with such failure to comply. The Director may thereupon take such action as he deems appropriate.

(k) Allocations. When specific allocations of a food are made by the War Food Administrator or the Director by a War Food order, unless otherwise provided by the Administrator or Director (as the case may be), such allocation shall be made without regard to any food priority ratings which have been assigned to deliveries under particular contracts or purchase orders and shall prevail over any such priority ratings.

(l) Use of food obtained under priority ratings. Any person who obtains a delivery of any food by the use of a priority rating or pursuant to an order of the Director under paragraph (b) must use such food for the purpose for which it was obtained with priority assistance. If it cannot be used for such purpose, for any reason, such person shall promptly file a report with the Director describing the food and the circumstances and shall make such disposition of the food as the Director may direct.

(m) Contracts. The requirements of this order shall be observed without regard to contracts now existing or hereafter made or any rights accrued or payments made thereunder.

(n) Records and reports. Every person participating in a transaction involving an emergency order shall keep and preserve accurate records sufficient to show the following details concerning all his transactions (including those not involving any food priority) in the food named in the emergency order: (1) A copy of contracts or orders and invoices or sales slips, (2) the dates on which all orders were accepted or rejected, (3) the delivery dates requested and the dates of actual delivery, (4) a description of the food involved, (5) a record of disposition by classes, types, quantities, and values, (6) the names of parties involved in each transaction and disposition, (7) the priority rating, if any, assigned or extended to the order or contract, (8) the names of persons, if any, to whom the priority rating is extended and the quantity of food received under each extension, and (9) the priority rating certificate, if any. The records required above may be kept by preserving the usual business papers and records insofar as they provide the information required. If the food covered by the emergency order is delivered on time, the above records need cover only the period between the placing of the order and delivery and must be preserved for a period of two years. If delivery under the emergency order is deferred, the required records must cover the period beginning with the receipt of the order and ending two months after the time for delivery or actual delivery (whichever is later), and must be preserved for a period of two years. The Director shall be entitled to obtain such information and require such reports and the keeping of such additional records by any person as may be necessary and appropriate in his discretion to the enforcement or administration of the provisions of this order.

(o) Audits and inspections. The Director shall be entitled to make such audits and inspections of the books, records, and other writings, premises or stocks of food of any person participating in any transaction with respect to which any priority rating issued hereunder applies, and to make such investigations as may be necessary or appropriate, in his discretion, to the enforcement or administration of the provisions of this order.

(p) Illegal use of priority rating. No person shall claim or assert any priority rating for any contract or order for food unless such contract or order has priority under paragraphs (b) or (d) hereof, or has priority under paragraph (c) of this order as such paragraph (c) existed prior to the effective date of this amended order.

(q) Petition for relief from hardship. Any person affected by this War Food Order who considers that compliance herewith would work an exceptional and unreasonable hardship on him may file a petition for relief with the Order Administrator. Such petition shall be addressed to the Administrator, War Food Order No. 71, Office of the Director, Office of Distribution, War Food Administration, Washington 25, D. C. The petition shall be in writing and shall set forth all pertinent facts and the nature of the relief sought. The filing of any such petition shall not excuse compliance with any of the provisions of this order unless the Director permits withholding of deliveries pending the disposition of the petition. The Order Administrator may take any action with reference to such petition which is consistent with the authority delegated to him by the Director. If the petitioner is dissatisfied with the action taken by the Order Administrator on the petition, he may, by requesting the Order Administrator therefor, obtain a review of such action by the Director. The Director may, after such review, take such action as he deems appropriate, which action shall be final.

(r) Violations. The Director may prohibit any person who violates any provision of this order from receiving, making deliveries of, or using any material subject to priority or allocation control by the War Food Administrator. In addition, any person who wilfully violates any provision of this order is guilty of a crime, and may be prosecuted under any or all applicable laws including the Act of June 28, 1940, as amended by the Act of May 31, 1941 and Title III of the Second War Powers Act, 1942. Civil action may also be instituted to enforce any liability or duty created by, or to enjoin any violation of, any provision of this order.

(s) Priorities regulations of the War Production Board superseded. This order supersedes all priorities regulations of the War Production Board insofar as such priorities regulations apply to food.

(t) Communications. All reports required to be filed hereunder and all communications concerning this order shall, unless instructions to the contrary are issued by the Director, be addressed to the Administrator, War Food Order 71, War Food Administration, Washington 25, D. C.

(u) Delegation of authority. The administration of this order, and the powers vested in the War Food Administrator, insofar as such powers relate to the administration of this order, are hereby delegated to the Director. The Director is authorized to redelegate to any person within the United States Department of Agriculture any or all of the authority vested in him by this order.

(v) Territorial scope. The provisions of this order shall apply to all persons in the United States, its territories and possessions, and the District of Columbia.

(w) Effective date. This order, as amended, shall be effective September 15, 1944. With respect to violations of said War Food Order 71, as amended, rights accrued or liabilities incurred prior to the effective date of this amendment, said War Food Order 71, as amended, shall be deemed to be in full force and effect for the purpose of sustaining any proper suit, action, or other proceeding with respect to any such violation, right, or liability.

PART 1044—CADMIUM

[General Preference Order M–65, as Amended Sept. 12, 1944]

The fulfillment of requirements for the defense of the United States has created a shortage in the supply of cadmium for defense, for private account and for export; and the following order is deemed necessary and appropriate in the public interest and to promote the national defense:

§ 1044.1 General Preference Order M–65.—(a) Scope of this order. This order controls deliveries of cadmium from a producer or distributor. No producer or distributor shall deliver cadmium to any person, and no person shall accept delivery of cadmium from any producer or distributor, except as provided in this order. The order also restricts the use which may be made of cadmium or cadmium products. The permitted uses will be found listed below in paragraphs (d) and (e).

(b) Definitions. For the purposes of this order:

(1) "Cadmium" means all grades of metallic cadmium, oxide, or plating salts produced directly from ores, concentrates or other primary materials, or redistilled or remelted from cadmium scrap or any secondary cadmium-bearing material; or cadmium-bearing materials suitable for the manufacture of pigments.

(2) "Cadmium product" means an electroplated coating of cadmium.

(3) "Distributor" means any person regularly engaged in the business of buying cadmium and selling the same in forms suitable for general fabrication or electroplating. It also includes laboratory supply houses to the extent they are engaged in buying and selling cadmium in any form to laboratories.

(c) Deliveries of cadmium. Producers and distributors may deliver cadmium, and persons may accept delivery of cadmium from a producer or distributor in the following cases only:

(1) Small order delivery. Deliveries of cadmium from a producer or distributor may be made and accepted without the necessity of obtaining any specific authorization from the War Production Board if (i) The delivery in question, combined with all other deliveries of cadmium to the purchaser during that calendar month, from whatever source, will not aggregate more than 100 pounds of contained cadmium; (ii) The purchaser has not requested from the War Production Board authorization for that particular month to accept delivery of cadmium in any quantity—see paragraph (c) (5) below (a request to the War Production Board shall be deemed a request within the meaning of this paragraph, regardless of whether it has been granted or denied); (iii) The cadmium purchased will be used only as permitted in paragraphs (d) and (e) of this order and not for resale; (iv) The inventory of the purchaser is not, and will not upon acceptance of the delivery become, in excess of a 30-day supply on the basis of his current method and rate of operation; and (v) The producer or distributor may make deliveries without any specific authorization from the War Production Board unless he knows or has reason to believe, that the delivery will be in violation of this paragraph (c) (1) or that the cadmium delivered is to be used in violation of the restrictions of this or other applicable orders of the War Production Board.

(2) Deliveries to distributors. Deliveries of cadmium may be made to and accepted by distributors.

(3) Deliveries to Metals Reserve Company. Deliveries of cadmium may be made to and accepted by Metals Reserve Company for the sole purpose of stockpiling or redistribution.

(4) Deliveries to laboratories. Deliveries of cadmium may be made to and accepted by laboratories.

(5) WPB authorization. Other deliveries of cadmium may be made only on specific authorization of the War Production Board and in accordance with an authorization certificate issued by the War Production Board on Form WPB-945. Deliveries so specifically authorized shall take precedence over any preference rating which may be assigned to deliveries on other contract or orders. Authorization certificates will be issued on or about the first of each month for this purpose. An authorization certificate will authorize the holder to accept from a producer or distributor deliveries of specified amounts of cadmium shipped during the month for which the certificate is issued. The producer or distributor may ship on notification from the purchaser of the date and serial number of the authorization certificate. Any person wishing to apply for an authorization certificate should file an application on Form WPB-945 not later than the fifteenth day of the month preceding the month in which the authorization to purchase is desired.

(d) Restrictions on the use of cadmium. No person may use in any fashion any cadmium except for one or more of the following purposes, and then only to the extent necessary to meet applicable specifications or for the proper service performance of the end product, and to maintain a thirty-day supply of the cadmium containing item on the basis of current rate of deliveries for permitted uses. No person who uses cadmium may deliver the cadmium containing item to any person except on receipt by him, directly or through a dealer, from the person who will receive delivery of the cadmium containing item, of a certification substantially in the form prescribed by Priorities Regulation No. 7 that the cadmium containing item to be delivered will be used for one or more of the following purposes:

(1) For the manufacture of pigments for the following:

Luminescent paint for military uses
Luminescent printing ink for military uses
Luminescent paper for military uses
Luminescent plastic for military uses
Signal and illuminating glass ware for safety, religious, military and industrial uses only Thermometer tubing
Rubber sea buoys
Dental rubber
Artist's colors
X-ray fluoroscopic screens for medical purposes
Luminescent coatings for cathode ray tubes, except tubes to be used in signs, lighting fixtures or lamps.

(2) For the manufacture of silver brazing alloys containing no more than 11% by weight of cadmium to be used for military and industrial purposes to the extent that the use of a less critical material is impracticable except that silver brazing alloys containing up to 19% may be manufactured for applications specifically required by the Armed Services and for identical industrial applications.

(3) For the manufacture of copper base alloys containing no more than 1¼% by weight of cadmium for the following:

(i) Current carrying parts of electrical current interruption devices to the extent that sufficient contact pressure cannot be maintained in service with other less critical materials.
(ii) Parts inside electronic tubes.
(iii) Resistance welding electrodes.
(iv) Overhead electrical contact wire for repair and replacement in railway, street car and trolley bus systems.
(v) Multistrand railroad signal bond wire.
(vi) Shunt wire leads for motors and generators.
(vii) Flexible terminals of resistors, condensers and field coils.

(4) For the manufacture of bearings for the following:

(i) Internal combustion engines for the propulsion of naval vessels when specifically required by the U. S. Navy.
(ii) In radio and radar equipment.

(5) For the manufacture of low melting point alloys for the following:

(i) On dry type rectifier elements.
(ii) In fire protective systems, safety devices and electrical fuses.
(iii) Plugs for screwless fasteners in rimless metal spectacles.
(iv) Dental use.

(6) For the manufacture of low melting point alloys containing no more than 10% by weight of cadmium for the following:

(i) In plastic fire control instruments for the mounting of optics.
(ii) Seals between brass and glass parts of liquid high voltage fuses.
(iii) In the manufacture of inspection gauges.
(iv) Bending of thin wall tubes.
(v) Bending of finished roll-formed and extruded shapes.

PART 3270—CONTAINERS

[Conservation Order M-221, as Amended Sept. 12, 1944]

TEXTILE BAGS

The fulfillment of requirements for the defense of the United States having created a shortage in the supply of textile bags for defense, for private account and for export, the following order is deemed necessary and appropriate in the public interest and to promote the national defense:

§ 3270.23 Conservation Order M-221—(a) Definitions. For the purposes of this order:

(1) "Textile bag" means any hand or machine sewed bag made for commercially packing, storing or shipping some commodity and manufactured of cotton, burlap or other textile fabric including open mesh fabrics woven from cotton or twisted paper yarns, but excepting shopping bags, carry-out bags, and combination textile-paper bags (bags made of textile laminated with paper).

(2) "New textile bag" means any textile bag when neither the fabric nor the bag has been previously used.

(3) "Used textile bag" means any textile bag when the bag or the fabric has been previously used.

(4) "Bag maker" means any person engaged in the business of manufacturing new textile bags.

(5) "Dealer" means any person whose principal business is that of buying, selling, or reconditioning empty textile bags.

(6) "User" means any person who acquired 500 or more empty new or used textile bags for use in his business during 1942 or who acquires such amount during any subsequent calendar year.

(7) "Commercial emptier" means any person who in the preceding three months acquired in his business and emptied 400 filled textile bags.

(8) "Export" means any shipment from the United States (the 48 states, the District of Columbia, the territories, the island possessions of the United States and the Panama Canal Zone).

(9) "Agricultural products" includes, but is not limited to, beans; chocolate; coffee; cotton; feed; flour; fruits; grain; meal; nuts; potatoes; poultry grits; rice; salt; seeds; starch; sugar; tobacco; vegetables.

General Restrictions for All Persons

(b) Joint responsibility. No person shall deliver textile bags to any other person if he has reason to believe that the other person is not entitled to accept them under the provisions of this order or that they will be used for any purpose prohibited by this order.

(c) Sampling bag-contents. No person shall sample the contents of any new or used textile bag except by opening the closure or by inserting a probe or trier without damage to the fabric.

(d) Sand bags. No person shall purchase or accept delivery of any new or used textile bag to be used for protection against air raids or other war hazards.

(e) Size changing. No dealer, user, or commercial emptier shall change the size of any burlap bag, or convert it into a sheet, sewed burlap or bale covering while it has a commercial use as a bag, with or without mending.

(f) Processing of used bags for sale. No dealer, user, or commercial emptier shall sell or deliver any used textile bag to any person for his own use unless the bag has been processed and repaired and all holes, including trier or probe holes, properly mended or patched. Nothing in this paragraph shall prevent the delivery of any bag for the purpose of repair or delivery to the owner. For the purposes of this provision, "process" means to clean a used textile bag by washing, vacuuming, or any other method sufficient to prepare the bag for further reuse.

(g) Sale of used raw sugar bags. No dealer, user or commercial emptier shall sell or deliver any jute (gunny) sugar bags of the type used for packing Puerto Rican or Cuban raw sugar to any person for any use other than packing raw sugar. For the purposes of this paragraph, the bags referred to shall be limited to bags which have been used for packing raw sugar and which are still usable as raw sugar bags, with or without such mending as is commercially practical.

(h) Export of empty bags. No permission from the War Production Board is necessary to export empty new or used textile bags. The War Production Board has assigned an export quota to the Foreign Economic Administration and no person may export such bags to any destination other than Canada unless authorized by the Foreign Economic Administration. Applications for export licenses should be sent to the Foreign Economic Administration, Bureau of Supplies, Requirements & Supply Branch, Washington 25, D. C. General information and instructions for export are contained in the Comprehensive Export Schedule issued by the Foreign Economic Administration.

Additional Restrictions for Bag Makers

(i) Prohibited practices. No bag maker shall overstitch the raw edge or selvage edge of any new cotton textile bag or manufacture any bag in a manner that wastes material, as for example, with a false seam that enables the bag to be packed with a lesser amount of any of the commodities listed in paragraph (j) than its normal capacity.

(j) Bag sizes for certain commodities—(1) Sizes permitted. No bag maker shall manufacture any new textile bag designed for packing any commodity listed below, except in any size of more than 100 lbs. or in any of the sizes specified below for that commodity:

Bag designed for packing commodity specified	Bag size (net weight capacity unless otherwise specified)
(1)	(2)
Beans	2-5-10-25-50-100 lbs.
Cement (standard portland)	94 lbs.
Flour (milled wheat) [1]	2-5-10-25-50-100 lbs.

Sugar (refined cane, beet)	2-5-10-25-50-100 lbs.

[1] "Flour (milled wheat)" means any flour product produced by milling wheat, including blends of wheat flours and bleached, promated, enriched phosphated, and self-rising flours, but excluding durum wheat products (semolina), farina, pancake flour, and cake flour.

[2] These restrictions do not apply to open mesh bags used for packing potatoes.

[3] Additional sizes are permitted as follows: ½ bu. of hybrid seed corn; 5 bu. for cotton seed.

(2) Exception for export. The size restrictions for paragraph (j) (1) above shall not apply to the manufacture of bags to be exported empty or filled.

Additional Restrictions for Commercial Emptiers

(k) Emptying bags. No commercial emptier shall remove the contents of any textile bag except by opening the closure, unless the contents have become so caked or solidified that salvage of the bag is not practicable.

(l) Time-limit on holding empty bags. Within 60 days after emptying any number of textile bags, a commercial emptier shall use, or transfer to dealers or users, an equal number of empty used textile bags from his inventory. Such disposition may be deferred beyond the 60-day period in the following cases:

(1) Seasonal re-use. If the commercial emptier needs the bags for packing a seasonal product (whether or not produced by him), he may retain them until the product becomes available for packing, subject, however, to the inventory restriction of paragraph (m) below.

(2) Carload accumulation. If, in accordance with his past practice, the commercial emptier wishes to accumulate a carload quantity of such bags for return to users for further packing of the kind of product last packed in them, he may retain such bags until he has accumulated a carload quantity.

Additional Restrictions for Users

(m) Inventory restriction. No user shall accept delivery of any empty new or used textile bags at a time when, or when by virtue of the delivery, his inventory of new or used empty textile bags is or will be in excess of a practical minimum working inventory for the uses which are not prohibited by this order. Except in the case of bags required by a user for packing a seasonal product (whether or not produced by him), such inventory shall not exceed the aggregate number of new or used empty textile bags which will be required to carry on his business during the next sixty days.

(n) Bags to be fully packed. No user shall use a bag, for packing any number of pounds of any of the commodities listed in paragraph (j), that is larger than the bag customarily used by the trade for packing that number of pounds of that commodity.

(o) Restrictions on use of new Calcutta wheat bags. During 1944 and each succeeding calendar year, new Calcutta wheat bags shall be used only for packing wheat or small grains and only in the states of Arizona, California, Idaho, Montana, Oregon, Utah and Washington.

(p) Products permitted for new burlap bags. No user shall use any new textile bag made of burlap for packing any products other than the following: agricultural products; crushed oyster shells; fertilizer; meat; mohair; petroleum waxes; stearic acid; edible or inedible tankage; wool, or wool products; or chemicals for export. These restrictions do not apply to surplus new military sand bags which may be used to pack any product.

(q) Products permitted for new cotton bags and open mesh bags made of cotton or twisted paper yarn. No user shall use any new textile bags made of cotton or open mesh bags made of cotton or twisted paper yarn for packing any products other than the following:

Agricultural products; chemicals; cement; coins; currency; fertilizer; glue; gypsum; malt; meat; abrasives; paste; plaster; samples; sand; securities; shell fish; small parts; edible or inedible tankage; tire chains; or such other uses as may be authorized by the War Production Board in writing. Applications for such authorizations should be made on Form WPB-1319, which is to be filed in accordance with the instructions for its use. Applications will be considered only on the basis of the essential need for new cotton bags, the availability of the supply, and the availability of used cotton bags or substitute containers. The application form and the instructions may be obtained at all War Production Board offices.

(r) Mohair bags. No user shall use any new or used textile bag for packing mohair unless the word "mohair" appears in legible type on both sides of the bag.

(s) Use of wool bags. Wool bags shall be used only for packing or wrapping wool or wool products. A "wool bag" is any new or used textile bag, made or burlap between 5½ and 7½ feet in length, ordinarily used to package wool. Such bag shall not be considered a wool bag when no longer capable of carrying any of the following: fleece wools, grease wools, pulled wools, scoured wools, noils, wool wastes or mohair.

General Exceptions

(t) Bags for certain Government agencies. The restrictions of this order shall not apply (1) to the manufacture of textile bags manufactured to meet the packaging specifications of, and for delivery to or for the account of, the persons listed below or (2) to the purchase, acceptance, use, or export of textile bags by those persons: The Army, Navy, United States Post Office, Federal Reserve System, United States Treasury Department (for Lend-Lease requirements and for coin, currency, and securities requirements), War Shipping Administration, Maritime Commission, any person pursuant to authorization by the Maritime Commission under Form WPB-646 (formerly PD-300), or any agency procuring for delivery pursuant to the Act of Congress of March 11, 1941, entitled, "An Act to Promote the Defense of the United States" (Lend-Lease Act).

(u) Certification. No person shall sell or deliver any textile bags in quantities of 1000 or more except under a purchase order or contract validated by the delivery to such person of a purchaser's certificate signed manually or as provided in Priorities Regulation No. 7. The certificate shall be in substantially the form set forth in this paragraph, and, once filed by a purchaser with a supplier covers all future deliveries from that supplier to that purchaser:

The undersigned purchaser certifies, subject to criminal penalties for misrepresentation, that he is familiar with Order M-221 of the War Production Board, and that all purchases from you of items regulated by that order, and the use of the same by the undersigned, will be in compliance with the order, as amended from time to time.

PART 3292—AUTOMOTIVE VEHICLES, PARTS AND EQUIPMENT

[Limitation Order L-158, as Amended Sept. 12, 1944]

PRODUCTION OF REPLACEMENT PARTS FOR MOTOR VEHICLES

The fulfillment of requirements for the defense of the United States having created a shortage in the supply of chromium, copper, nickel, and other materials required for the production of replacement parts for light, medium and heavy motor trucks, truck trailers, passenger carriers, off-the-highway motor vehicles, motorized fire equipment and passenger automobiles for defense, for private account and for export, the following order is deemed necessary and appropriate in the public interest and to promote the national defense.

§ 3292.46 Limitation Order L-158—(a) Definitions. For the purpose of this order:

(1) "Replacement parts" for light, medium and heavy motor trucks, truck trailers, passenger carriers, off-the-highway motor vehicles, motorized fire equipment and passenger automobiles, means only the parts and assemblies listed on Schedules I and II to this order, and the components entering into such items, produced for use in the repair, maintenance or improvement of these vehicles. Schedules I and II may be amended from time to time.

(2) "Component" means any of the integral pieces or parts of the items listed on Schedules I or II. Components include products of types which, while used in automotive parts, are not so used exclusively. Parts which have no functional duty in the operation of the vehicle or are only ornamental or decorative are not considered components of the authorized parts and may not be produced.

(3) "Rebuilt or reconditioned parts" means any replacement parts listed in Schedules I or II which have been used and restored for use through rebuilding or reconditioning operations.

(4) "Parts consumed in use" means those parts whose function in the operation of the vehicle results in a dissipation or deterioration of material, either in whole or in part, so that the residue has little or no salvage value.

(5) "Passenger automobile" means any passenger vehicle, including station wagons and taxicabs, propelled by an internal combustion engine and having a seating capacity of less than eleven (11) persons.

(6) "Light truck" means a complete motor truck or truck-tractor with a gross vehicle weight rating of less than 9,000 pounds, as authorized by the manufacturer thereof, or the chassis therefor.

(7) "Medium and heavy motor truck" means a complete motor truck or truck-tractor with a gross vehicle weight rating of 9,000 pounds or more, as authorized by the manufacturer thereof, or the chassis therefor.

(8) "Truck trailer" means a complete semi-trailer or full trailer designed for transportation of property or persons, or the chassis therefor.

(9) "Passenger carrier" means a complete motor coach for passenger transportation, having a seating capacity of not less than eleven (11) persons.

(10) "Off-the-highway motor vehicle" means a motor truck, truck tractor or trailer operating off the public highway, normally on rubber tires, and specially designed to transport materials, property or equipment on mining, construction, logging or petroleum development projects, or the chassis therefor.

(11) "Motorized fire equipment" means the chassis of a passenger automobile, light, medium or heavy motor truck, truck-tractor or trailer, used for the transportation of fire-fighting personnel or equipment.

(12) "Producer" means any individual, partnership, association, corporation or other form of business enterprise engaged in the manufacture of replacement parts, as defined in paragraph (a) (1) above.

(13) "Supplier" means a person who supplies a producer with materials or the component parts for the production or assembly of replacement parts.

(14) "Distributor" means any person not a producer or supplier whose business consists, in whole or in part, of the sale of replacement parts, as defined in paragraph (a) (1) above, from inventory. Distributor includes wholesalers, jobbers, dealers, retailers and other persons performing a similar function including garages and service stations.

(15) "Consumer" means the owner or operator of the automotive vehicle for which replacement parts are required, or the user of such replacement parts for any other purpose, not including the Army or Navy of the United States, the United States Maritime Commission, and other agencies listed in paragraph (p) (1) below.

(16) "Inventory" means a stock of new replacement parts held by a distributor for his own account. Inventory does not include any "as is", rebuilt, reconditioned or reconditionable parts, and does not include Army surplus stocks of replacement parts purchased from the Procurement Division of the Treasury Department.

Provisions Relating to Production

(b) Preference ratings of AA-1 assigned for truck and bus parts and AA-2X for passenger car and light truck parts. A preference rating of AA-1 is assigned to producers of replacement parts and to manufacturers of the components of such parts, enumerated in Schedules I and II to this order, except those parts and components for light trucks and passenger automobiles for the production of which a preference rating of AA-2X is hereby assigned.

(c) Special provisions for production of replacement parts and components. Priorities and CMP Regulations may be disregarded in applying the provisions of the following subparagraphs (1) and (2). This exemption, however, does not apply where the production authorized by these subparagraphs will interfere with any "frozen" schedule of Component Consumption Requirements issued under Order L-1-c or any other "frozen" schedule, as defined in Priorities Regulation No. 18.

(1) Parts producers. To provide for the production of automotive replacement parts to maintain civilian automotive transportation, each producer of automotive parts for original equipment and for replacement use is authorized to use in any month for the production of those automotive replacement parts on Schedule I up to five per cent (5%) of his total productive man or machine hours, or both, which were devoted during the preceding month to the production of automotive parts for original equipment and replacement use.

(2) Other manufacturers. Each manufacturer of the components of the automotive replacement parts on the list designated Schedule I is authorized to use in any month for the production of such components up to five per cent (5%) of his total productive man or machine hours, or both, which were devoted during the preceding month to the production of automotive type components. Each manufacturer of automotive type components is authorized to ship each month against orders from producers of automotive replacement parts up to five per cent (5%) of his total monthly production of such components.

(3) Basis for calculation. The calculation in respect to productive man or machine hours or both may be made on the basis of a calendar month or any successive period of one month, beginning at any time.

(4) Notice of prospective interference with military orders. Paragraphs (c) (1) and (2) shall not be applied by any producer of replacement parts or manufacturer of components for such parts in such a way as to interfere with the production of orders of the Army or Navy of the United States. Where interference with Army or Navy orders prevents or will prevent the producer of parts or the manufacturer of components from applying subparagraphs (1) and (2) above, the producer or manufacturer shall immediately notify the Automotive Division, War Production Board, in order that adjustments may be at once considered.

(5) Parts actually critical to be produced. The purpose of paragraphs (c) (1) and (2) is primarily to secure more critical replacement parts for civilian use, as enumerated on Schedule I. Production should be made of those Schedule I parts which are critical, against back orders where they exist. It is not the purpose of subparagraphs (1) and (2) to limit the use of facilities for production of parts or components to five per cent (5%) where additional facilities are available for this production.

(d) Correction of critical shortages. Whenever the War Production Board determines that a critical shortage exists in respect to replacement parts, the Board may order any producer or supplier to schedule and deliver his production in such manner as will relieve the shortage; and in addition, may direct any producer or distributor to deliver or sell to any other person, at regularly established prices and terms, such quantities of replacement parts available for civilian distribution as the War Production Board may determine.

(e) Production restricted to listed replacement parts. (1) No person shall manufacture any parts for use in the repair, maintenance or improvement of light, medium and heavy trucks, truck trailers, passenger carriers, off-the-highway motor vehicles, motorized fire equipment or passenger automobiles, except the items, and their components, on Schedule I and Schedule II to this order, as the same may be amended from time to time. See, however, paragraph (r) (1).

(2) In the production of such parts no materials shall be used which are prohibited by any orders, regulations or other restrictions on the use of critical materials now or hereafter issued by the War Production Board.

Standardization and Simplification Provisions

(f) Pistons and bearings. Producers shall make replacement pistons, piston pins, piston rings and engine bearings as components of engines, only according to the following standards:

(1) Pistons as components of engines only in standard sizes and the following oversizes: .005, .020, .030, .040, .060, and semi-finished.

(2) Piston pins as components of engines only in standard sizes and the following oversizes: .003, .005, .010.

(3) Piston rings as components of engines only in standard sizes and the following oversizes: .020, .030, .040, .060; and in addition, for medium and heavy trucks and busses, .080, .100.

(4) Engine bearings as components of engines only in standard sizes and the following undersizes: .002, .010, .020, .030, .040, .060, .090 and semi-finished. In addition, connecting rod bearings with oversize outside diameter, and the "special length Ford main bearings."

Provisions Relating to Distributors' Inventories

(g) Restrictions on distributors' inventories. (1) No distributor of replacement parts whose place of business is located in the eastern or central wartime zone shall accept delivery of new replacement parts which, in combination with his existing inventory of new replacement parts, measured in total dollar cost value, will exceed a sixty-day (60) supply. Sixty-day supply means a supply in dollar cost value equal to the distributor's total sales, at his cost, of such new parts in the preceding two months period.

(2) No distributor of replacement parts whose place of business is located in any other wartime zone shall accept delivery of new replacement parts which, in combination with his existing inventory of new replacement parts, measured in total dollar cost value, will exceed a ninety-day (90) supply. Ninety-day supply means a supply in dollar cost value equal to the distributor's total sales, at his cost, of such new parts in the preceding three months period.

(3) Irrespective of the restrictions in subparagraphs (1) and (2) above, a distributor may accept delivery of specific items of replacement parts even though his inventory then exceeds, or will by reason of such acceptance exceed, his maximum permissible inventory as specified in subparagraphs (1) and (2) above. The quantity of such specific items in dollar cost value shall not exceed the dollar cost value of his sales of such items during the preceding thirty days or the last thirty-day period in which a sale was made if the distributor is located in the eastern or central war time zones, and forty-five days in all other zones.

(h) Initial inventory for new distributors. Notwithstanding the restrictions of paragraph (g) above, any person may establish an initial inventory of replacement parts not to exceed one thousand ($1,000) dollars at dollar cost value for the purpose of selling replacement parts as a distributor.

(i) Return of new replacement parts. New replacement parts, returned by a distributor to another distributor, if not included in the inventory of the person receiving the parts during the calendar quarter in which received, shall be included in his inventory in the next succeeding calendar quarter.

(j) Disposition of traded-in used parts. No distributor may keep in his inventory, in his possession or under his control any used replacements parts which have been traded in and cannot be reconditioned, for a period of more than thirty (30) days after they have been determined to be unserviceable, but he must dispose of them through customary disposal or scrap channels. Traded-in parts which can be reconditioned must be reconditioned, or returned to be reconditioned, as quickly as minimum quantities will permit.

Provisions Relating to Distribution

(k) No preference ratings required for delivery of replacement parts for resale. No producer or distributor need require any preference rating for the delivery of finished replacement parts for resale as such or for use by a consumer, except on Army, Navy, Maritime Commission and War Shipping Administration orders as provided in paragraph (m). All deliveries of such parts for resale or to consumers may be made as if the orders therefor bore the preference ratings assigned to their production in paragraph (b), and without regard to orders bearing a lower rating. In addition, the provisions of this paragraph are applicable to orders for finished parts required for rebuilding or reconditioning operations.

(l) Parts for emergency repairs—(1) How to order parts. Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph (g) above, a distributor may order and accept delivery of replacement parts which he does not have in stock when required by a consumer for the emergency repair of a particular vehicle which cannot be operated without such parts. In such emergency, a distributor must file with his order to the producer a certificate in the following form:

CERTIFICATE FOR EMERGENCY REPAIR ORDER
AUTOMOTIVE REPLACEMENT PARTS

The undersigned purchaser certifies, subject to criminal penalties for misrepresentation that the replacement parts specified in the attached order are essential for the repair of the following vehicle, which cannot now be operated without such parts:

Make _____ Engine Number _____
Signed _____
(Firm, partnership or corporation)
By _____
(Name and title of individual)
(Address of firm, partnership or corporation)
Dated _____

A copy of the certificate must be retained by the distributor issuing it as a part of his records.

The standard form of certificate described in Priorities Regulation No. 7 may not be used in place of the above certificate.

(2) Emergency repair orders take preference. A producer receiving an order accompanied by a certificate for Emergency Repair must give such order precedence in shipment over other orders not of an emergency nature, and in ordering finished parts from suppliers should indicate quantity of such parts required to fill orders of this type.

(3) Use of certificate restricted. The Certificate for Emergency Repair may be used only to secure essential replacement parts for emergency repairs as described in this paragraph (l). It must not under any circumstances be used by a distributor to replenish his stock.

(m) Preference ratings of AA-2X or higher required on sales by distributors to Army, Navy and Maritime Commission. Irrespective of the provisions of this order, no distributor shall sell or deliver any replacement parts to the Army or Navy of the United States, the United States Maritime Commission or the War Shipping Administration except upon receipt of an order bearing a preference rating of AA-2X or higher.

(1) Special provisions for Army orders. No distributor may accept a purchase order for replacement parts, except parts for "post exchange" and "contractor vehicles" (Army owned but contractor operated as defined in War Department Circular 285, dated November 6, 1943), submitted to him by the Army unless the order specifies in accordance with War Department instructions the type, manufacturer, model and United States Army registration number of the vehicles covered by the purchase order; and the order must carry a certification that such vehicles are "dead-lined" for emergency repair. Neither the registration number of the vehicle nor a certification that the vehicle is "dead-lined" for emergency repair is required if the Army certifies instead that the registration number is unavailable and that a survey has been made of Army stocks in accordance with War Department Circular No. 209, dated September 13, or other specified circular, and that the parts are needed to effect immediate shipment overseas. Delivery by distributors of replacement parts against such orders for the Army must be restricted to parts in the distributors' inventory which are in his stock and are available for immediate delivery at the time the order is received from the Army. It is not sufficient that they are in inventory immediately before delivery.

(n) Restrictions on sales to consumers—(1) No sale of new parts where old can be rebuilt or reconditioned. No new replacement part shall be sold or delivered to a consumer to replace a part which the producer or distributor can rebuild or recondition by use of available local reconditioning facilities. The provisions of this paragraph shall not apply to any replacement parts sold to a consumer where the old part is traded in on a unit exchange basis.

(2) Used parts to be turned in. No producer or distributor shall sell or deliver any replacement part either new, used or rebuilt, to a consumer unless the consumer turns in to the producer or distributor, concurrently with his purchase, a used replacement part of similar kind for each such replacement part delivered to the consumer. However, a used replacement part need not be turned in in the following cases:

(i) Where the used part has been consumed in use, lost or stolen;

(ii) Where the used part is a cab assembly;

(iii) Where the consumer is a Federal or Territorial Department, Bureau or Agency, or a State or political subdivision thereof, which is forbidden by law from making such disposal of replacement parts;

(iv) Where the new or rebuilt part is ordered by telephone, telegraph or mail, or is to be installed by the purchaser;

INTERPRETATION 1—RESIZING OF ENGINE PISTONS AND BEARINGS BY PRODUCERS' BRANCHES

The question of resizing engine pistons and bearings in the field to sizes other than those specified in paragraphs (f) (1) and (f) (4), respectively, of § 3292.46. Limitation Order L-158, has been the subject of some uncertainty in the industry. In order to clarify the order, with respect to the intent of these paragraphs, the following interpretation is hereby issued:

Producers' direct factory branches of warehouses, wholly owned or controlled by them, may finish engine pistons and bearings to any intermediate sizes not specified in paragraphs (f) (1) and (f) (4), respectively, of Limitation Order L-158, when ordered from the factory branch by a customer for immediate use in a specific engine. None of these intermediate sizes may be ordered from a factory branch for stock or to be held in inventory. A certificate for emergency order, as provided for in Order L-158, paragraph (l), should accompany each order placed with the factory branch for the intermediate sizes other than those specified in the paragraphs mentioned above, as a means of identifying the need for the part in a specific vehicle. Chapter XI—Office of Price Administration

PART 1315—RUBBER AND PRODUCTS AND MATERIALS OF WHICH RUBBER IS A COMPONENT

TIRES, TUBES, RECAPPING AND CAMELBACK

A rationale for this amendment has been issued simultaneously herewith and has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

Ration Order No. 1A is amended in the following respects:

1. Section 1315.803 (g) is added to read as follows:

(g) Dealer's failure to post inventories or refusal to sell tires. (1) A dealer customarily selling tires to consumers after September 16, 1944, who does not post the notice set forth in subparagraph (2) in the manner described or who does not, under the conditions set forth in subparagraph (3), sell a tire may be prohibited from acquiring tires for sale and from transferring tires to consumers.

(2) The notice must be posted at the start of each business day at each of his establishments in a place and manner which will make it plainly visible to prospective buyers. It shall be headed "New Truck Tires 8.25 or Larger Held for Sale" and shall list, by sizes, the number of all new truck tires with a cross-section size 8.25 or larger which he holds for sale at that establishment.

On any day on which a dealer has no new truck tires 8.25 or larger for sale, he shall post a notice in the same manner and shall show the word "None" following the heading.

The notice is deemed to be a representation to the Office of Price Administration that the dealer has not omitted from the notice any new truck tires 8.25 or larger which he holds for sale.

(3) The dealer must sell any new tire which he holds for sale at his establishment to a consumer who presents a proper certificate and who offers to pay the maximum price of the the tire established by the Office of Price Administration, in cash or by a certified or cashier's check. New tires "held for sale" at a dealer's establishment are all new passenger, new tractor-implement, new industrial-type or new truck tires in the inventory of the establishment, including tires in storage or on consignment with the dealer, but excluding any tires for which he has accepted a certificate from a consumer, or a replenishment portion of a certificate or receipt from a dealer, or an authorization of a District Office permitting their transfer to another dealer, or any tires which the National Office of the Office of Price Administration has authorized him to hold for specified classes of consumers.

(4) A dealer's failure to comply with the provisions of subparagraph (1) shall be determined at a hearing conducted by a special hearing officer who shall be appointed by the District Director for the area in which the dealer's establishment is located. The institution and conduct of the proceeding shall conform with the procedure set forth in Article II of Revised Procedural Regulation No. 4[2] with the special hearing officer exercising the powers and functions specified therein for hearing commissioners in the conduct of suspension hearings. If the special hearing officer determines that the respondent dealer has failed to comply with the provisions of subparagraph (1), he may issue an order prohibiting the dealer from acquiring tires for resale and from transferring tires to consumers. The order shall be effective five days after the date it is personally served on, or mailed to, the respondent. A respondent against whom such an order has been issued may, within 15 days after the date of service thereof, appeal by filing a statement of objections with the special hearing officer. Within three days after the receipt of the statement, the special hearing officer shall forward it, together with a copy of the notice instituting the hearing and a copy of his order, to the hearing commissioner having jurisdiction over the area in which the hearing was conducted. The appeal shall be heard and determined pursuant to the provisions of Article IV of Revised Procedural Regulation No. 4*.

If the special hearing officer determines that no order of prohibition should be issued, he may issue an admonitory order or an order dismissing the proceedings.

This amendment shall become effective September 16, 1944.

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this amendment, issued simultaneously herewith, has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

Section 2 of the Second Revised Maximum Export Price Regulation is amended to read as follows:

SEC. 2. Sales to exporters. On a sale to a person who buys for his own account a commodity for shipment outside the continental United States, the maximum price shall be the seller's maximum domestic price applicable to the transaction, except that—

(a) If such maximum domestic price does not expressly include charges for preparing, packing or otherwise servicing the commodity for shipment abroad or installing or servicing it after shipment abroad, that maximum price may be increased by any amount by which the cost of performing those services exceeds the cost of performing similar services on comparable domestic sales: Provided, however, That no such additional charge may be made unless separately shown on the seller's invoice.

(b) If such maximum domestic price does not expressly apply to sales to exporters as a separately-identified class of purchaser, any seller who, prior to extension of price control to his sales of the commodity, had an established practice whereby he charged exporters prices higher than he charged comparable domestic purchasers but which practice the applicable domestic price regulation has forced him to discontinue, may apply to the Office of Price Administration for approval of maximum prices or pricing methods which reflect that practice. Application for such approval should be addressed to the Export-Import Price Branch, Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., and should fully explain the applicant's former practice, the customary differentials between his domestic prices and his prices to exporters, and the methods of conducting his export business which justify the practice. Approval will be granted where, and to the extent that, it is satisfactorily shown that the practice was in fact regularly established and is necessary to enable the seller to pay customary commissions pursuant to exclusive agency agreements, to effectuate foreign price maintenance policies, to preserve foreign good will for his products, or to protect his export sales representatives from destructive competitive practices.

Chapter XX—Office of Contract Settlement

SUBPART B—PARTIAL PAYMENTS

SEPTEMBER 8, 1944.

Pursuant to the authority conferred upon me by section 4 (b) and section 8 (c) of the Contract Settlement Act of 1944, the following policies, principles, methods, procedures, and standards relating to partial payments on account of termination claims of all war contractors, including cost-plus-a-fixed-fee contractors, are prescribed for all contracting agencies:

Sec.

8008.51 General policies.
8008.52 Types of partial payments.
8008.53 Immediate partial payments based on contractors' estimates.
8008.54 Cost-supported partial payments.
8008.55 Controlled partial payments.
8008.56 Partial payments to subcontractors.
8008.57 Estimates of partial payment arrived at in advance of termination.
8008.58 Assignments.
8008.59 Deduction of outstanding advances, etc.
8008.60 Demands for repayment.
8008.61 Overpayments.
8008.62 Overstatements of claims.
8008.63 This regulation not exclusive.
8008.64 Speed in final settlement.
8008.79 Forms.

§ 8008.51 General policies. The contracting agencies are hereby directed to provide war contractors having any termination claim or claims with adequate interim financing within 30 days after proper application therefor to such agencies. Upon request of war contractors, such interim financing shall be effected through partial payments to the greatest extent practicable. Contracting agencies and war contractors shall take adequate steps to assure that subcontractors receive partial payments when desired by them. Determination of the amount of partial payments to be made under this regulation shall be without prejudice in the negotiation of final settlement. Such payments shall be subject to section 9 (b) of the act, providing any amount paid in excess of the amount finally determined to be due on the termination claim shall be treated as a loan from the Government to the war contractor receiving it.

§ 8008.52 Types of partial payments. (a) The types of partial payments which shall be made are as follows:

(1) Immediate partial payments, based on contractors' estimates;

(2) Cost-supported partial payments; and

(3) Controlled partial payments into special accounts.

(b) Partial payments shall, in general, be made to prime contractors on their own applications based on their own termination charges and on the applications of subcontractors transmitted through the prime contractor and any intervening subcontractors to the contracting agency. Such applications shall be made, by both prime contractors and subcontractors, in substantially the form of Application for Partial Payment provided. In appropriate cases, partial payments may be made to war contractors to enable them in advance of subcontractors' requests, to set up a fund from which prompt partial and final payments may be made to their subcontractors; in such cases, special requests will be made, which need not follow the application form. The contracting agencies may, in addition, vary the application form in such manner as they deem appropriate to the particular case to provide for the making of partial payments upon a group of war contracts.

§ 8008.53 Immediate partial payments based on contractors' estimates. (a) Contracting agencies shall make immediate partial payments for the benefit of any war contractor, whether prime contractor or subcontractor, promptly upon the filing of application therefor. Contracting agencies should promptly grant the request for partial payment in the largest amount believed reasonable under all the circumstances then known, but such amount shall not exceed 90% of the amount certified in the application as due on account of the contractor's own costs allocable to the terminated portion of the contract. In deciding the amount to be paid, the contractor's application should be considered in the light of the general reputation of the contractor and other relevant factors. Contracting agencies should authorize personnel making partial payments to base their determination of the amount to be paid solely on the contractor's application unless there is knowledge of other relevant factors militating against such payment.

(b) An immediate partial payment will be made in each case in an amount not less than 75% of the contract price of completed articles not delivered, plus

*Copies may be obtained from the Office of Price Administration.

75% of the contractor's estimated costs of raw materials, purchased parts, supplies, direct labor and overhead allocable to the terminated portion of a contract (but not including the cost of special facilities or other items deemed likely to be of a controversial character, and not including profit), unless (1) the contracting agency has reason to believe that the application for immediate partial payment was not filed in good faith, or that the amount requested is excessive, or that protection of the Government's interests requires denial of the application or payment in a lesser amount, or (2) unless the contractor requests payment in a lesser amount. This provision for minimum partial payments shall not be construed to limit the responsibility of the contracting agencies to make partial payments in the largest amount believed reasonable under the provisons of paragraph (a) of this section.

§ 8008.54 Cost-supported partial payments. When the contractor has submitted substantial accounting data, and a preliminary review thereof indicates that the application is proper and is supported by the data submitted, the contracting agency, to the extent requested, shall make an additional partial payment, or if none has previously been made, a partial payment, in an amount which, together with any other partial payments previously made on the same termination claim, equals:

(a) An amount equal to 100 percent of the amount payable, at the contract price, on account of acceptable items completed prior to the termination date under the terms of the contract, or completed thereafter with the approval of the contracting agency; plus

(b) An amount equal to 90% of the cost of raw materials, purchased parts, supplies, direct labor, and manufacturing overhead allocable to the terminated portion of the war contract; plus

(c) A reasonable percentage of other allowable costs, including administrative overhead, allocable to the terminated portion of the war contract not included in the foregoing; plus

(d) Such additional amounts, if any, as the contracting agency deems necessary to provide the war contractor with adequate interim financing.

The amount to be paid under paragraphs (a) to (d) above should not be greater than the amount which, in the opinion of the contracting agency after such a preliminary review, is due to the contractor by reason of the termination.

§ 8008.55 Controlled partial payments. When a war contractor requesting, or forwarding an application for a partial payment, is deemed to be insolvent or in imminent danger of insolvency, or when an application for immediate partial payment under the conditions set forth in § 8008.53 above has been in whole or in part denied, partial payments may be deposited in a special account. Partial payments deposited in special accounts will be released as particular items of cost or payments to subcontractors are approved. The interest of the Government in such controlled accounts shall be protected by such methods as the contracting agency considers advisable. Additional payments may be made, from time to time, into the controlled account by the contracting agency.

§ 8008.56 Partial payments to subcontractors. The application of a subcontractor for partial payment shall be filed with the war contractor in the tier immediately above him, and unless that war contractor makes the payment pursuant to authorization from the contracting agency, shall be transmitted through contractual channels to the contracting agency having jurisdiction over the prime contract. Each prime contractor and upper tier subcontractor transmitting the application shall subscribe thereon a statement substantially as set forth on the form of application; or, in any appropriate case, an explanation of its unwillingness to subscribe to such a statement. In the event that the contracting agency totally denies the application for partial payment it shall provide for the transmission of notice of the denial through contractual channels or otherwise, to the applicant. Partial payments to subcontractors are authorized to be made as follows:

(a) Such payments shall, so far as possible, be made to prime contractors in reliance on their agreement to pay over to their subcontractors or to credit against amounts owing from such subcontractors the amounts received by them for the benefit of such subcontractors.

(b) If a prime contractor or an intervening subcontractor is deemed to be insolvent or in imminent danger of insolvency, or for any other reason is unable or unwilling to pay over to his subcontractors any partial payment received for their benefit, the contracting agency may utilize the controlled account procedure set forth in § 8008.55 above.

(c) The contracting agencies may make partial payments directly to subcontractors, in accordance with such procedures as have been or may be authorized by such agencies; and should make such partial payments directly where there is evidence of unwarranted delay under the normal procedures.

In the cases provided for in paragraphs (b) and (c) above, payments may be made without the certificates of intervening contractors, provided that sufficient other information justifying such partial payments is available.

Nothing in this regulation shall be construed to prevent any war contractor from making partial or other payments to its subcontractors pursuant to delegation from the contracting agency, or subject to subsequent approval by the contracting agency.

§ 8008.57 Estimates of partial payment arrived at in advance of termination. Interim financing by means of partial payments will be facilitated if contractors estimate the amounts required where this is practicable, in advance of actual termination. Such prior estimates will be based upon the cost of the estimated inventory, including raw materials and work-in-process, allocable to the terminated portion of a contract at specified stages of completion, excluding those items which he intends to retain. Estimates arrived at between the contractor and a contracting agency in advance of termination will not constitute binding commitments upon a contracting agency but will be subject to confirmation and adjustment by the contracting agency on or after termination. They will, however, provide a realistic means for contractors to discuss their probable financing requirements with contracting agencies and with their immediate customers and will afford a basis on which, prior to termination, the reasonableness of contractors' estimates of costs on which the partial payments will be granted, may be checked, subject to any necessary adjustment after termination.

§ 8008.58 Assignments. Any interim financing by means of partial payments hereunder shall be made in such a manner as not to impair or modify any valid assignment of any claim under a war contract without the consent of the parties thereto. Contracting agencies in making partial payments, however, may rely on the statement in the application that no assignments are outstanding, in the absence of actual knowledge to the contrary by the contracting officer or notice given in accordance with the Assignment of Claims Act of 1940.

§ 8008.59 Deduction of outstanding advances, etc. In determining the amount of partial payments to be made, there shall be deducted from the amount otherwise payable under this regulation:

(a) Any unliquidated balances of advance and partial payments theretofore made to such war contractor, which are allocable to the terminated war contract or the terminated part of the war contract; and

(b) The amount of all credits for the disposal or retention of property as to which costs or estimated costs were included in any application for partial payment under the terminated contract.

§ 8008.60 Demands for repayment. Under the terms of the application form, the contractor requesting a partial payment agrees to repay to the Government, upon demand, the whole or any part of the partial payment if the contractor fails to file the prescribed forms in support of its claim within the required time, and under other stated conditions. Contracting agencies are not required to demand repayment of any partial payment or portion thereof under these conditions, but may do so whenever in their opinion the interest of the Government so requires.

§ 8008.61 Overpayments. Any amount of a partial payment in excess of the amount finally determined to be due on account of the war contractor's own charges shall be treated as a loan from the Government to the war contractor receiving it, and shall be payable upon demand with a penalty of 6% per annum from the date such excess arises until the date such excess is repaid. The contracting agencies shall be charged with the responsibility for instituting procedures for determining the existence of any such excess.

§ 8008.62 Overstatements of claims. If a war contractor overstates the amount due on account of his own termination charges in connection with any partial payment applicable to such charges, he shall pay to the United States a penalty of 6% of the amount of such overstatement; if not paid, this penalty may be deducted in the final settlement of his claim. The Director of Contract Settlement may suspend or modify any such penalty if in his opinion the imposition thereof would be inequitable.

IV. Agreement of applicant. Under section 9 (b) of the Contract Settlement Act of 1944, the amount of any partial payment made to the applicant in excess of the amount finally determined to be due on its termination claim shall be treated as a loan from the Government payable upon demand with a penalty payable by the applicant at the rate of 6% per annum from the date of the excess payment to the date of repayment. Accordingly, in requesting a partial payment, the applicant recognizes its obligation to establish promptly the amount due and to protect the interest of the Government pending final settlement, and in consideration of any partial payment which may be made, agrees as follows:

(1) Prompt preparation of claim. The applicant will, with all reasonable dispatch, prepare and file its statement of costs and inventory lists on the prescribed forms, and will make every reasonable effort to expedite final settlement of the termination claim and the claims of its subcontractors.

(2) Disposal and retention of inventory. Whenever the amount of any proceeds hereafter received by the applicant on the disposal of termination inventory plus the cost or agreed value, as the case may be, of any termination inventory which the applicant thereafter elects to retain, exceeds 10% of the amount stated by the applicant in this application as the amount of his charges (section III, line 9) and the amount of such credits has not been included as a receipt (section III, line c), the applicant within ten days will notify the contracting agency of the amount of credits on account of such inventory disposal or retention.

(3) Repayment. The applicant will repay to the Government upon demand, together with interest from the date of such demand at the rate of 6% per annum, the whole or any part of the partial payment to be made hereunder, if:

APPLICATION FOR PARTIAL PAYMENT UNDER THE CONTRACT SETTLEMENT ACT OF 1944

Instructions

1. Use of form. This application form is for use by all war contractors, either prime contractors or subcontractors, under either fixed-price or cost-plus-a-fixed-fee contracts in obtaining partial payments on their termination claims. If applicant is a cost-plus-a-fixed-fee contractor, the form may be so modified as to conform to his accounting system but must furnish the required cost information.

2. Immediate partial payments based on estimates. (a) Where a contractor has not had adequate time to prepare his settlement proposal, an "immediate partial payment" may be requested based on the contractor's estimate of his own charges. In applying for a payment of this type, the contractor should fill in the information required in Column B of section III. If his accounting system is not adaptable to the cost information required by section III, he should append to the application a comparable schedule of his estimated costs on such basis as his accounting system permits. Supporting data, including financial statements, may be submitted but are not required unless specifically requested by the contracting agency.

(b) The estimates need be no greater than the contractor believes adequate to support his request for partial payment. Low estimates furnished for the purpose of an immediate partial payment will in no way prejudice the contractor in the final settlement of his claim or in subsequent requests for additional partial payments. Successive applications for partial payments may be filed.

3. Cost-supported partial payments. Upon the submission of a settlement proposal, or at any time thereafter, a "cost-supported partial payment" may be requested based on the settlement proposal and accounting data supporting it. In applying for a payment of this type, the contractor should fill in the information required by column A of section III. In addition, he should attach a copy of the settlement proposal.

4. Certificate of applicant. The amount certified in section V as the amount of the contractor's charges should be the total that appears in section III, line 9. If some of the charges are cost-supported and others are estimated, appropriate entries may be made in both columns A and B, and the amount certified should then be the sum of the two figures in line 9.

5. Property disposal credits. In stating costs or estimated costs, the applicant should not include charges with respect to property which he intends to retain at no cost to the Government. Any credits that have resulted from the sale or retention of property as to which costs or estimated costs have been included in any application for a partial payment on this termination claim will be entered in section III, line c.

6. Obligations to subcontractors. Attention is called to the fact that the cost of delivered completed articles may not be included in the termination claim of the producer of those articles. War contractors are obligated to pay at the contract price for completed articles shipped to them by their subcontractors and suppliers prior to the termination of and in accordance with the provisions of the subcontracts or purchase orders calling for delivery of those articles. When necessary, prime contractors and subcontractors should apply for partial payments on their termination claims for the purpose of enabling them to meet such obligations promptly.

7. Applications of subcontractors. Subcontractors applying for a partial payment will submit this application to the contractor immediately above them. Unless that contractor has been authorized by the contracting agency to make a partial payment without obtaining specific approval in each case, he will attach his recommendation on the form provided in section VI and forward the application through the contractors above him to the contracting agency. Contractors above the immediate reviewing contractor will fill in the form of recommendation set forth in section VII and forward the application. If any contractor disapproves of the amount of the requested partial payment, or believes that he cannot properly sign the form of recommendation, he should attach a statement setting forth the reasons for his refusal to sign the form and his recommendation. In the case of an application for a cost-supported partial payment, the settlement proposal need not be forwarded beyond the first reviewing contractor unless expressly requested.

8. Signatures. A person other than an officer, partner, or owner may sign the application or recommendation where properly authorized, but in such a case, a copy of his authority should be attached.

9. The Contract Settlement Act of 1944 provides penalties for overstatements of amounts owing to the contractor in connection with interim financing and for excessive payments (section 8 (d) and 9 (b).) Penalties for fraud are provided for in section 10 of the act.

NOTE: The reporting requirements of this regulation have been approved by the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

ROBERT H. HINCKLEY,
Director.

Chapter I—Interstate Commerce Commission

Subchapter A—General Rules and Regulations

[Rev. S. O. 112]

PART 95—CAR SERVICE

At a session of the Interstate Commerce Commission, Division 3, held at its office in Washington, D. C., on the 11th day of September, A. D. 1944.

It appearing, that certain shippers of fresh or green fruits or vegetables in refrigerator cars have been moving cars from one point of delivery within the switching limits of a city or town to other points of delivery within such limits, and thereby delaying the unloading and increasing the free time for unloading under the demurrage rules; in the opinion of the Commission an emergency exists requiring immediate action to prevent shortage of railroad equipment and congestion of traffic; It is ordered, that:

(a) Definition. For the purpose of applying this order, the destination shall be any point of railroad delivery on any railroad within the switching limits of the city or town at which the car is unloaded or at which it is ordered from one hold, inspection or unloading track to another hold, inspection or unloading track within the same switching limits. A demurrage day consists of a twenty-four (24) hour period or fraction thereof.

(b) The free time allowed at destination on any refrigerator car loaded with fresh or green fruits or vegetables as defined in Service Order No. 70, as amended, shall be as follows:

(1) No free time shall be allowed when car is held for ordering from one location to another location within the switching limits of the same city or town or when held for surrender of bill of lading, advise order, or payment of lawful charges prior to delivery to a connecting line for final delivery in the same switching district.

(i) Demurrage detention on the first such transaction shall be computed from the first 7:00 a. m., after notice of arrival is sent or given to the consignee or party entitled to receive it, when car is held on hold, inspection or public delivery track or from the first 7:00 a. m., after actual or constructive placement when for delivery on an other-than-public delivery track, until order to move car to another location within the switching limits of the same city or town is received by an agent of the railroad holding the car.

Chapter II—Office of Defense Transportation

PART 502—DIRECTION OF TRAFFIC MOVEMENT

FREIGHT SHIPMENTS TO OR WITHIN PORT OR STORAGE AREAS IN THE UNITED STATES, AND TO OR THROUGH THE DOMINION OF CANADA

General outline. This order supersedes General Order ODT 16A and outstanding permits issued thereunder.

The principal revisions made in this order are (1) to free all shipments by motor truck and all shipments by vessel from ODT unit permit requirements, (2) to confine the controls over government domestic or import freight intended for storage in public warehouses at specific port areas to shipments of an aggregate weight of 20,000 pounds or more and, (3) to eliminate entirely the reporting requirements formerly prescribed in § 502.208 of General Order ODT 16A.

Section 502.202 (a) of this order requires an ODT unit permit for a rail carload shipment of "overseas" freight to or within any named port area for storage or for delivery to an ocean carrier. Paragraph (b) of this section prohibits except under certain named conditions (but not a permit) transportation of a less-than-carload shipment of overseas freight or any shipment of like traffic by motor truck or vessel to or within any named port area for storage or for delivery to an ocean carrier. It will be noted that paragraph (a) is directed to both a "person" and a "rail carrier" whereas paragraph (b) is directed to both a "person" and a "carrier".

Section 502.203 requires an ODT unit permit for a rail carload shipment of "export" government freight from points in the United States to or through the Dominion of Canada. This section is directed to both a "person" and a "rail carrier".

Section 502.204 requires an "ODT port storage forwarding permit" for any shipment of domestic or import freight of an aggregate weight of 20,000 pounds or more to or within port areas for storage for a government agency. This would apply to any mode of transportation.

Section 502.205 requires an ODT unit permit for a rail carload shipment to any interior storage areas in the United States designated by the Assistant Director in charge of the Railroad Transport Department when such shipment is intended for reshipment from such interior storage area to a destination outside the United States. This provision is directed to both a "person" and a "rail carrier".

Administrative Order ODT 17A is being issued concurrently with this order.

Nothing in this general outline of the order should be construed as affecting its specific provisions.

The text of General Order ODT 16B follows:

Pursuant to Executive Orders 8989, as amended, and 9156, in order to make available railway cars and other transportation facilities for the preferential transportation of material of war, as contemplated by section 6 (8) of the Interstate Commerce Act, as amended; to assure the orderly and expeditious movement of materials and supplies of war; to coordinate domestic traffic movements with ocean shipping in order to avoid terminal congestion at port areas in the United States, and to expedite the movement of traffic, the attainment of which purposes is essential to the successful prosecution of the war, General Order

ODT 16A (9 F.R. 2749), shall be superseded, and, it is hereby ordered, that:

AUTHORITY: §§ 503.360 to 503.367, inclusive, issued under General Order ODT 16B.

§ 503.360 General provisions. General Order ODT 16B establishes permit requirements with respect to the transportation of (a) carload shipments of overseas freight to or within designated port areas in the continental United States whether for storage or for delivery to an ocean carrier; (b) certain carload shipments from points in the continental United States to or through the Dominion of Canada; and (c) shipments of domestic or import freight of an aggregate weight of 20,000 pounds or more, to or within designated port areas for storage in a public warehouse for account of a government agency. The port areas are named in Appendix A and Appendix B of this administrative order. Provision is made in § 502.206 of General Order ODT 16B for the establishment of permit requirements in connection with the transportation of carload shipments of export or overseas freight to interior storage areas in the continental United States as such interior storage areas may be named and defined in any administrative order issued pursuant to the provisions of such order. No such interior storage areas are named in this administrative order as now issued.

It is provided that shipments of export or overseas freight which are covered by the order shall be subject to "ODT unit permits". An ODT unit permit is defined in the order as "a permit issued by the Assistant Director, Office of Defense Transportation, in charge of the Railroad Transport Department, or his authorized permit agent, as evidence that the property covered by such ODT unit permit is within the aggregate authorization of a specified effective ODT block release." The issuance of ODT block releases by the Assistant Director, Office of Defense Transportation, in charge of the Railroad Transport Department, to his authorized permit agents will be based on applications received from the ocean cargo control agencies, viz., War Shipping Administration, as to (1) commercial overseas freight, and (2) overseas freight within the scope of the War Shipping Administrator's Directive 4, Revised (8 F.R. 1321), or as such Directive may be further revised, amended or reissued; War Department, as to overseas freight for its own account; and Navy Department, as to overseas freight for its own account, setting forth the amount of cargo space which will be available from time to time for the transportation of overseas freight from port areas in the continental United States.

General Order ODT 16B provides that shipments of government domestic or import freight subject to its provisions are to move on "ODT port storage forwarding permits" to be issued by the Director, Division of Storage, Office of Defense Transportation, or his authorized permit agents. Procedures governing the application for and the issuance of ODT port storage forwarding permits are outlined in §§ 503.364 and 503.365 of this Administrative Order ODT 17A.

§ 503.361 Delegation of authority to issue ODT unit permits. (a) Subject to such restrictions, directions, and reporting requirements as are now or may be hereafter established by the Assistant Director, Office of Defense Transportation, in charge of the Railroad Transport Department, the following are hereby authorized to issue ODT unit permits:

(1) Transportation Division, Bureau of Supplies and Accounts, Navy Department, Washington, D. C., may issue requisite ODT unit permits covering the transportation of property originating at a point in the continental United States and consigned to the Navy Department or an officer representative thereof at any port area named in Appendix A hereof;

(2) Association of American Railroads, 30 Vesey Street, New York 7, New York, may issue requisite ODT unit permits covering consignments of commercial freight originating at a point in the continental United States or in Mexico and shipped to, moving within, or delivered at a port area in the continental United States named in Appendix A hereof;

(3) The Transport Controller, Dominion of Canada, Montreal, Quebec, may issue all requisite ODT unit permits covering shipments of overseas freight originating at any point in the Dominion of Canada and moving on through billing to a port area in the continental United States named in Appendix A hereof, subject to such restrictions as may be imposed by the Traffic Control Division, Transportation Corps, Army Service Forces, covering the transportation of such shipments within the continental United States, including the designating of routing within the continental United States, and also after clearance with the Association of American Railroads with respect to consignments of commercial freight subject to ODT unit permit requirements;

(4) The Traffic Control Division, Transportation Corps, Army Service Forces, Washington, D. C., may issue all other requisite ODT unit permits covering shipments of export or overseas freight which are subject to the provisions of General Order ODT 16B, or as such order may be amended, revised, or reissued;

(5) No ODT unit permit shall be issued covering shipments of overseas freight unless (1) the property covered by such permit is within the aggregate authorization of a specified effective ODT block release issued by the Assistant Director, Office of Defense Transportation, in charge of the Railroad Transport Department, and (2) a "W. S. A. forwarding authorization" has been issued if the shipment is subject to such requirement pursuant to the provisions of the War Shipping Administrator's Directive 4, Revised, or as such Directive may be further revised, amended, or reissued. No ODT unit permit shall be issued covering the transportation of shipments of overseas freight to a named port area for storage therein unless arrangements have been made in advance of shipment for the storage of any such shipment immediately on its arrival at such port area. No ODT unit permit shall be issued covering shipments of export freight intended for shipment to or through the Dominion of Canada except on assurances from the Transport Controller, Dominion of Canada, that the transportation of any such shipment will not cause or contribute to traffic congestion or car detention within the Dominion of Canada.

§ 503.362 Types of ODT unit permits; conditions. All ODT unit permits issued shall carry identification comprised of two letters followed by six digits and one letter; for example, WE-2713-12-W. Construction of ODT unit permit numbers shall be governed by code requirements issued from time to time by the Assistant Director, Office of Defense Transportation, in charge of the Railroad Transport Department. Such permits shall be valid for such period of time as specified individually therein, shall cover only the kind and quantity of goods specified therein, and shall be subject to conditions stated therein, including routes named. ODT unit permits issued will be of the following types and will be subject to the additional conditions outlined below which conditions shall be binding on any person offering for transportation, accepting for transportation, transporting or delivering to an ocean carrier, a shipment covered by such permit:

(a) ODT unit permits authorizing the transportation of shipments of overseas freight from a point outside a port area to a named port area for delivery to an ocean carrier;

(b) ODT unit permits authorizing the transportation or delivery of shipments of overseas freight originating in or currently within a named port area to an ocean carrier within such port area;

(c) ODT unit permits authorizing the transportation of shipments of overseas freight to or within a named port area for storage. Such permits do not authorize delivery to an ocean carrier. They will be valid only under the following conditions:

(1) That specified carrier or non-carrier storage space in such port area has been prearranged;

(2) That notwithstanding free time provisions of carrier's tariff shipper agrees on behalf of himself and the consignee that the carrier will receive instructions to deliver the property to such prearranged storage within 48 hours of receipt of carrier arrival notice by consignee, unless an ODT unit permit (as per (b) above) to deliver the property to an ocean carrier has previously been issued and is valid and effective;

(d) ODT unit permits covering the transportation of property to points within the Dominion of Canada. Such permits are valid only within the continental United States and property so transported when within the Dominion of Canada is subject to all requirements of the Transport Controller of the Dominion of Canada.

§ 503.363 Application for ODT unit permits. Application for the issuance of an ODT unit permit shall be made to the appropriate permit agent authorized to issue such permit pursuant to the provisions of § 503.361 hereof and shall contain such information as may be required from time to time by such permit agent, subject to the approval of the Bureau of the Budget, where such approval is required pursuant to the provisions of the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

§ 503.364 Application for and issuance of ODT port storage forwarding permits covering shipments of government domestic freight. Application for the issuance of an ODT port storage forwarding permit authorizing the offering of shipments of domestic freight of an aggregate weight of 20,000 pounds or more for transportation to or within a port area for storage in a public warehouse for account of a government agency, shall be made by the interested government agency to the Director, Division of Storage, Office of Defense Transportation, Washington 25, D. C. Such application shall be submitted on joint application and permit form ODT S-137 which has been prescribed by the Office of Defense Transportation and is reproduced as Appendix D hereof. When approved the document will constitute an ODT port storage forwarding permit authorizing the offering for transportation of the shipments described in such permit, subject to the conditions outlined in the permit.

§ 503.365 Application for and issuance of ODT port storage forwarding permits covering shipments of government import freight; delegation of authority. (a) Application for the issuance of an ODT port storage forwarding permit authorizing the offering of shipments of import freight of an aggregate weight of 20,000 pounds or more for transportation to or within a port area for storage in a public warehouse for account of a government agency shall be made by the interested government agency to the appropriate port storage officer named in Appendix C hereof, on joint application and permit form ODT S-138 which has been prescribed by the Office of Defense Transportation and is reproduced as Appendix E hereof. When such application has been approved by an appropriate port storage officer it will constitute an ODT port storage forwarding permit authorizing the offering for transportation of the shipments described in such permit, subject to the conditions outlined in the permit.

(b) Subject to the general supervision of the Director, Division of Storage, Office of Defense Transportation, each port storage officer named in Appendix C hereof is hereby authorized to issue, in his discretion, ODT port storage forwarding permits authorizing the offering of shipments of government import freight for transportation to or within any port area shown opposite his name in Appendix C hereof to public warehouses located within such port area, or for transportation from such port area to public warehouses located in any other port shown in Appendix C hereof.

§ 503.366 Exemptions. The provisions of General Order ODT 16B shall not apply to:

Upon consideration of a plan for joint action filed with the Office of Defense Transportation by the persons named in Appendix 1 hereof to facilitate compliance with the requirements and purposes of General Order ODT 3, Revised, as amended (7 F.R. 5445, 6689, 7694; 8 F.R. 4660, 14582; 9 F.R. 947, 2793, 3264, 3357, 6778), a copy of which plan is attached hereto as Appendix 2,[1] and

It appearing that the proposed coordination of operations is necessary in order to assure maximum utilization of the facilities, services, and equipment, and to conserve and providently utilize vital equipment, materials, and supplies, of the carriers, and to provide for the prompt and continuous movement of necessary traffic, the attainment of which purposes is essential to the successful prosecution of the war, It is hereby ordered, That:

1. The plan for joint action above referred to is hereby approved and the carriers are directed to put the plan in operation forthwith, subject to the following provisions, which shall supersede any provisions of such plan that are in conflict therewith.

2. Each of the carriers forthwith shall file a copy of this order with the appropriate regulatory body or bodies having jurisdiction over any operations affected by this order, and likewise shall file, and publish in accordance with law, and continue in effect until further order, tariffs or supplements to filed tariffs, setting forth any changes in rates, charges, operations, rules, regulations, and practices of the carrier which may be necessary to accord with the provisions of this order and of such plan; and forthwith shall apply to such regulatory body or bodies for special permission for such tariffs or supplements to become effective on the shortest notice lawfully permissible, but not prior to the effective date of this order.

3. Whenever transportation service is performed by one carrier in lieu of service by another carrier, by reason of a diversion, exchange, pooling, or similar act made or performed pursuant to the plan for joint action hereby approved, the rates, charges, rules, and regulations governing such service shall be those that would have applied except for such diversion, exchange, pooling, or other act.

4. The provisions of this order shall not be so construed or applied as to require any carrier subject hereto to perform any service beyond its transportation capacity, or to authorize or require any act or omission which is in violation of any law or regulation, or to permit any carrier to alter its legal liability to any shipper. In the event that compliance with any term of this order, or effectuation of any provision of such plan, would conflict with, or would not be authorized under, the existing interstate or intrastate operating authority of any carrier subject hereto, such carrier forthwith shall apply to the appropriate regulatory body or bodies for the granting of such operating authority as may be requisite to compliance with the terms of this order, and shall prosecute such application with all possible diligence. The coordination of operations directed by this order shall be subject to the carriers' possessing or obtaining the requisite operating authority.

5. All records of the carriers pertaining to any transportation performed pursuant to this order and to the provisions of such plan shall be kept available for examination and inspection at all reasonable times by accredited representatives of the Office of Defense Transportation.

6. Withdrawal of a carrier from participation in the plan for joint action hereby approved shall not be made without prior approval of the Office of Defense Transportation.

7. The provisions of this order shall be binding upon any successor in interest to any carrier named in this order. Upon a transfer of any operation involved in this order, the successor in interest and the other carriers named in this order forthwith shall notify, in writing, the Office of Defense Transportation of the transfer and, unless and until otherwise ordered, the successor in interest shall perform the functions of his predecessor in accordance with the provisions of this order.

8. The plan for joint action hereby approved and all contractual arrangements made by the carriers to effectuate the plan shall not continue in operation beyond the effective period of this order.

[Suspension Order S–61]

BINGHAM CONSTRUCTION CO.

Roy A. Bingham and Richard S. Bingham are co-partners doing business as Bingham Construction Company at 4734 "J" Street, Sacramento, California. During the period from January 18, 1944, through April, 1944 Bingham Construction Company in four instances, began and thereafter continued certain construction without authorization from the War Production Board. This construction consisted of the remodeling of a five-room dwelling located at 1013 "D" Street, Sacramento, California, the cost of which construction was in excess of $200; the remodeling of, and the making of structural changes in a building located at 716–718 "J" Street, Sacramento, California, the cost of which was in excess of $1,000; the construction of a new addition to the Del Paso Heights Grocery and Meat Market in Sacramento, California, in excess of $200; and the construction of a new repair shed located at 301 N. 16th Street, Sacramento, California, the cost of which construction was in excess of $200; all in violation of Conservation Order L–41. Roy A. Bingham and Richard S. Bingham were aware of the War Production Board restrictions on construction and the beginning and carrying on of each of the above construction jobs without authorization constituted wilful violations of Conservation Order L–41. These violations of Conservation Order L–41 have diverted critical materials to uses not authorized by the War Production Board and have hampered and impeded the war effort of the United States. In view of the foregoing, it is hereby ordered that:

§ 1010.611 Suspension Order No. S–611. (a) Neither Roy A. Bingham nor Richard S. Bingham, doing business as the Bingham Construction Company, or under any other name, their and its successors and assigns, nor any other person, shall do any construction on the premises located at 1013 "D" Street, Sacramento, California, or at 716–718 "J" Street, Sacramento, California, or at the Del Paso Heights Grocery and Meat Market located on the southwest corner of Park Street and Grand Avenue in Del Paso Heights, Sacramento, California, or at 301 N. 16th Street, Sacramento, California, unless hereafter specifically authorized in writing by the War Production Board.

(b) For a period of two months from September 12, 1944 to November 12, 1944, deliveries of material to Roy A. Bingham, Richard S. Bingham, doing business as Bingham Construction Company, their and its successors and assigns, shall not directly or indirectly be accorded priority over deliveries under any other contract or order and no preference rating shall be assigned, applied or extended to such deliveries by means of preference rating certificates, preference rating orders, general preference orders or any other orders or regulations of the War Production Board, unless hereafter specifically authorized in writing by the War Production Board.

(c) The provisions of paragraph (b) above shall not apply to deliveries to Roy A. Bingham, and Richard S. Bingham, doing business as Bingham Construction Company, or otherwise, their and its successors and assigns, of materials required to fill contracts already entered into prior to the date of this order, or to fill any order of or contract with, the Army, Navy, Maritime Commission, or any other governmental department or agency of the United States.

(d) Nothing contained in this order shall be deemed to relieve Roy A. Bingham, Richard S. Bingham or the Bingham Construction Company from any restriction, prohibition, or provision contained in any other order or regulation of the War Production Board except insofar as the same may be inconsistent with the provisions hereof.

Issued this 2d day of September 1944.

These excessive receipts of consumers' goods have interfered with the allocation controls established by the War Production Board and have hampered and impeded the war effort of the United States of America. In view of the foregoing, it is hereby ordered, that:

PART 944—REGULATIONS APPLICABLE TO THE OPERATION OF THE PRIORITIES SYSTEM

PURCHASE OF MACHINE TOOLS, MANUFACTURING MACHINERY, AND SIMILAR EQUIPMENT NEEDED FOR CIVILIAN PRODUCTION

§ 944.45 Priorities Regulation 24—(a) What this regulation does. This regulation tells how purchase orders for machine tools, manufacturing machinery, and similar equipment may be placed by companies who wish to get ready for the resumption or expansion of civilian production when this is possible without interfering with war or essential civilian production. Where suitable existing equipment is not available, this regulation modifies the restrictions on the acceptance and filling of unrated purchase orders which are imposed by the WPB orders listed at the end of this regulation. It is the policy of the War Production Board to encourage the purchase of such equipment primarily from existing excess stocks as they may be made available in order to avoid using scarce materials in making additional new equipment. When these are not available, it is the policy of the War Production Board to permit the placing of unrated orders for new equipment which will be needed for civilian production as long as the filling of these orders does not interfere in any way with direct or indirect war production. This regulation also explains when ratings may be assigned to orders for equipment needed for civilian production.

(b) Removal of restrictions on placing, acceptance and delivery of certain purchase orders. The various WPB orders shown on List A at the end of this regulation forbid the sale of items which they cover to fill unrated orders. Some of them require a rating before a purchase order may be placed and accepted, while others require a rating before an item may be produced or delivered to fill a purchase order. Many of them contain both kinds of restrictions. They may also require a special WPB form. This regulation overrides these restrictions and unrated purchase orders may now be placed, accepted and filled for items covered by the WPB orders mentioned on List A. However, the approval of the War Production Board must be obtained, as explained in paragraph (c), before the unrated purchase order is placed.

(c) How a purchaser gets WPB approval to place unrated orders. A person who wishes to place an unrated order in spite of the restrictions of the WPB order on List A may apply for War Production Board approval by filing a letter in triplicate with his nearest War Production Board field office with a list in triplicate attached giving a description of the equipment which he wishes to get including make, type, size, and approximate price. Approval of the War Production Board will be given on Form GA–1977 if it finds that no suitable existing excess equipment is available. Upon receiving War Production Board approval, the person placing the unrated order must endorse the following statement on his purchase order, signed either manually or as provided in Priorities Regulation 7: "This order approved by the War Production Board in accordance with Priorities Regulation 24." The standard form of certification contained in Priorities Regulation 7 may not be used. Approval by the War Production Board under this paragraph does not give the purchase order a rating of AA–5 under § 944.1 (b) of Priorities Regulation 1.

(d) Report of unrated orders. Producers of equipment subject to any WPB order on List A must file Form WPB–3940 monthly in accordance with the instructions printed on the form, showing the quantity of their rated and unrated shipments. However, if the dollar value of a producer's monthly shipments of unrated orders does not exceed 10 percent of his total shipments he need not file this report, although he must keep unrated purchase orders placed under this regulation filed so that they can be readily segregated and examined.

(e) Effect of other WPB orders and regulations. (1) This regulation does not relieve anyone from complying with the requirements of Priorities Regulation 1 with respect to the compulsory acceptance and filling of rated orders in preference to unrated orders.

(2) If an unrated order under this regulation is put into a production schedule it shall not become a part of any "frozen" schedule in spite of Priorities Regulation 18 or other War Production Board order, but shall be subject to postponement in favor of rated orders in accordance with Priorities Regulation 1.

(3) Attention is called to the fact that this regulation does not authorize any construction contrary to the provisions of Construction Order L–41.

(4) Except to the extent specifically provided in this regulation, it does not waive the restrictions or conditions of any other order or regulation of the War Production Board.

(f) Other cases where unrated orders allowed. Many types of machinery and equipment, including most jigs, dies, fixtures and special tooling, are not subject to a WPB order limiting or restricting the placing or filling of orders. Consequently, unrated orders for these items have always been permissible where they can be filled without interference with rated orders as provided in Priorities Regulation 1. Many types of machinery and equipment may be bought under Priorities Regulation 13 from somebody who is not in the business of selling such machinery and equipment without any preference rating or other authorization. Permission under this regulation is not required in the case of such purchases.

(g) Ratings for equipment required for civilian production. (1) The policy of the War Production Board is not to grant any ratings for equipment needed for resumption or expansion of civilian production where this equipment can be obtained out of existing available stocks or where unrated orders for it can be filled within a reasonable time. However, where this is not the case, and the equipment takes a long time to produce, the War Production Board will consider applications for ratings both for equipment covered by the WPB orders mentioned in List A and for other types of equipment.

(2) If you need equipment for war production or for civilian production which is currently authorized by the War Production Board during the war, you may apply for a rating in accordance with existing procedures and without regard to this regulation. However, if you want equipment for operations which are neither directly related to the war effort nor currently authorized by the War Production Board, you cannot get a rating except by applying on Form WPB–1319 to your War Production Board field office in accordance with the instructions printed at the end of this regulation. This is so whether the equipment you need is covered by the WPB orders on List A or not.

(3) If the War Production Board grants a rating under this regulation, it may be applied only for the make of equipment shown in the application Form WPB–1319. The rating may be applied by use of the standard certification in Priorities Regulation 7 but the following statement must be added: "This rating applied pursuant to Priorities Regulation 24." Such an order may be accepted and filled in spite of any War Production Board order requiring approval on a special form.

NOTE: The reporting provisions of this regulation have been approved by the Bureau of the Budget pursuant to the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

Issued this 13th day of September 1944.

WAR PRODUCTION BOARD,
By J. JOSEPH WHELAN,
Recording Secretary.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR FILING FORM WPB–1319 (SEE PARAGRAPH (g))

Follow the general instructions appearing in the WPB–1319 instruction pamphlet except to the extent the instructions printed here conflict. The following general instructions will be added to the pamphlet as paragraph (12). When the new instructions are added to the pamphlet they will supersede the instructions printed here.

12. Applications filed pursuant to Priorities Regulation 24.—General. Four copies of applications under this regulation must be filed with the nearest WPB field office. You must use a single WPB–1319 for all items of equipment controlled by a single WPB order, or if the items are not controlled by a WPB order, by a single WPB division. Separate forms must be used for items controlled by separate WPB orders or by separate WPB divisions if there is no order. If you are not sure what WPB order or division controls the equipment, consult your nearest WPB office or the WPB publication "Products and Priorities." If possible, file together all applications for equipment required to produce one class of product. If you are unable to file these together, state this in item 20. If you are going to buy from several different suppliers equipment which may be included in a single application, you are not required to file separate applications for each supplier but may file one application.

The authorization on WPB–1319 limits you to the make of equipment shown but you may purchase this from any supplier. If you find that you can obtain sooner a make of equipment different than the one authorized, you may file a letter in duplicate with the War Production Board, Washington 25, D. C., identifying the case number and industry division listed in your original WPB–1319 application and requesting an amendment of the authorization.

Even if the installation of the equipment for which you are applying requires construction as defined in Order L–41, you must nevertheless use form WPB–1319 for the equipment. Note however that approval of your WPB–1319 does not remove the necessity for any approval of construction which may be required by Order L–41.

Special Instructions. Disregard the special instructions for individual items of equipment set forth in the WPB–1319 instruction pamphlet.

Do not fill in blocks 10, 13, 14, 16, 17B, or 19.

In block 6, insert "Priorities Regulation 24" and the WPB order, if any, controlling the equipment.

In block 7, state the industry division controlling the equipment.

In block 8, check the second space (marked "to receive").

In block 19, state also any efforts you have made to get the equipment on an unrated order and why such efforts were not successful.

In block 20, state:

(a) The approximate dollar value of equipment not covered by this application which is needed to resume or increase civilian production and for which preference ratings are necessary;

(b) The approximate dollar value of necessary equipment you can obtain without the use of preference ratings whether new or from excess stocks;

(c) Why you consider this equipment vital to your resumption or increase in civilian production;

(d) Any other pertinent information.

PART 3288—PLUMBING AND HEATING EQUIPMENT

[Limitation Order L-42, Direction 4]

CAST IRON BATHTUBS

The following direction is issued pursuant to Limitation Order L-42:

(a) What this direction does. The War Production Board having determined upon a program of production of metal bathtubs for the remainder of the year 1944, has authorized the production of 50,000 bathtubs for the fourth quarter. This direction tells by whom and for what purposes bathtubs may be made without utilizing labor in critical labor areas in order to produce the required 50,000 metal bathtubs.

(b) Production of bathtubs. Prior to January 1, 1945, in addition to the bathtubs authorized by previous Directions to Limitation Order L-42, the following manufacturers may produce at their plants at the addresses indicated, recess type cast iron bathtubs, no longer than those commercially known as five foot, and in quantities not exceeding the number indicated opposite their names:

American Radiator & Standard Sanitary Corporation, Louisville, Ky.	10,000
Crane Co., Chattanooga, Tenn.	10,000
Eljer Co., Salem, Ohio	10,000
Kohler Co., Kohler, Wis.	10,000
Richmond Radiator Co., Uniontown, Pa.	10,000

(c) Sale of bathtubs. These bathtubs may be delivered only to fill orders (1) of or for ultimate delivery to the Army or Navy, (2) for export authorized by the Foreign Economic Administration, (3) for approved installation in projects authorized on Form GA-1456, Form WPB-2896 or Form WPB-2774, or (4) from petroleum operators, approved by the Petroleum Administration for War. No jobber, or dealer, may accept delivery of any such bathtubs to place in his inventory, whether or not he has previously delivered bathtubs to fill such orders. No jobber, or dealer, may order, or accept delivery of any such bathtubs unless he has in his possession an actual order which has been approved by the Petroleum Administration for War or which calls for the delivery of bathtubs to an authorized project or building with a specified completion date, to or for the account of the Army or Navy or for installation in a project approved by the War Production Board on Form GA-1456, Form WPB-2896 or Form WPB-2774. Shipments for export may be made only if a license has actually been issued by the Foreign Economic Administration. A manufacturer may not accept a rating alone as evidence of his authority to deliver to a dealer, but must obtain, in addition to the standard certification accompanying the extension of the rating, applicable information of the following nature:

(1) For delivery to the Army or Navy: the contract purchase order, or rating certificate number.

(2) For delivery to a petroleum operator or to a project authorized on Form GA-1456 or Form WPB-2896 or Form WPB-2774: the number and location of the project.

(3) For export authorized by the Foreign Economic Administration: the export license number.

(d) Reports. Each manufacturer named in paragraph (b) shall report by letter on or before the 10th day of each month to the Plumbing and Heating Division, War Production Board, Washington 25, D. C., by size, the number of bathtubs produced and the number shipped under this direction during the preceding month. This reporting requirement has been approved by the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

(e) Effect of other orders. The restrictions of Schedule XII to Order L-42 are superseded to the extent necessary to give effect to this direction.

Issued this 13th day of September 1944.

Recording Secretary.

(4) Quota adjustments. For the purpose of the Class B, C and D quotas, referred to in the above schedule:

(i) Use by producer. Amounts of dyestuffs which are or have been used by a producer in any calendar quarter or in 1941, shall be considered as having been delivered to such person in such quarter or in 1941, as the case may be.

(ii) Credit for returned dyestuffs. Amounts of dyestuffs returned to a vendor prior to the 22nd day after the end of the calendar quarter in which they were delivered, shall not be charged as delivered or accepted.

(c) Restrictions on exports—(1) General restrictions. No producer shall export or deliver for export from the United States to any place other than Canada any dyestuffs produced by him, except either upon orders accompanied by individual export licenses issued by the Foreign Economic Administration (the applications for which show thereon the corresponding current domestic sales price of such dyestuffs) or upon orders from an agency of the United States for delivery pursuant to the Act of March 11, 1941, as amended, entitled "An Act to promote the Defense of the United States" (Lend-Lease Act). The total value, exclusive of the exceptions provided in paragraph (d), of dyestuffs so exported or delivered in any quarter shall not exceed:

(i) As to Class A dyestuffs, ½ of 1% of the total value of all Class A dyestuffs delivered by him in 1941.

(ii) As to Class B dyestuffs, 1% of the total of all Class B dyestuffs delivered by him in 1941.

(iii) As to Class C dyestuffs, ¾ of 1% of the total value of all Class C dyestuffs delivered by him in 1941.

(3) Carry-over of undelivered portion of export quota. Amounts of dyestuffs which a producer may export or deliver for export from the United States to all places other than Canada in any calendar quarter and which have not been exported or delivered for export in such quarter, may be exported or delivered for export in the following quarter in addition to the quota for that quarter. For the purposes of this subparagraph (3), all dyestuffs, other than Class A, B or C, shall be considered one class.

(d) General exceptions. The restrictions in subparagraphs (1), (2) and (3) of paragraph (b) (Restrictions on delivery) and the restrictions in paragraph (c) (Restrictions on export) shall not apply to the delivery or acceptance of delivery of dyestuffs.

(1) To or by the Army or Navy of the United States, the United States Maritime Commission, the War Shipping Administration, the United States Post Office, the Government Printing Office, the Bureau of Engraving and Printing or the Government of Canada;

(2) For ultimate delivery to any of the agencies mentioned in subparagraph (1) of this paragraph (d), or for use, to the extent specified in the prime contract, in the manufacture of any item which is being produced for any of said agencies;

(3) For use in the manufacture of materials for uniforms as described in subdivisions (i) to (ix), inclusive, of paragraph (e) (1) of General Limitation Order L–224 (Clothing for Men and Boys) and in paragraph (d) (10) of General Limitation Order L–85 (Apparel for Feminine Wear);

(5) For coloring gasoline and tractor fuels;

(6) For chemical indicators or bacteriological stains;

(7) For medicinal, therapeutic or diagnostic uses;

(8) For ultimate delivery to or by a retailer (who for this purpose means one who sells dyestuffs and other merchandise directly to the general public for its consumption, e. g., a general store, a drug store, etc.) of dyestuffs in containers not exceeding 8 ounces in content; or

(9) To replace in inventory amounts which, although not acquired for any of the uses referred to in any of the subparagraphs of this paragraph (d), were nevertheless used for one or more of such purposes.

(10) For purposes other than coloring (e. g. rubber chemicals).

Provided, That all deliveries of dyestuffs exempted from the restrictions of said paragraphs (b) and (c) by subparagraphs (2), (3), (4), (5), (6), (7), or (9) of this paragraph (d) shall be made only upon the receipt by the vendor from the purchaser of a certificate signed by such purchaser, or by a person authorized to sign in his behalf, in substantially the following form:

> The undersigned hereby certifies to his vendor and to the War Production Board that the dyestuffs to be delivered on the annexed purchase order will be used for one or more of the purposes specified in paragraph (d) of Conservation Order M–103, or will replace inventory so used.

(e) The War Production Board may authorize the delivery and acceptance of delivery, export of and delivery for export of additional quantities of Classes A, B, C and D dyestuffs to be used as specifically directed. Such authority will be issued either in the form of individual letters or by published Directions supplemental to this order. Applications by letter for authorizations under this paragraph may be filed by producers of dyestuffs or commercial dyestuff users. Authorizations for the delivery and acceptance of delivery of additional quantities of Classes A, B, C, or D dyestuffs for domestic use (excluding dyestuffs to be used domestically in dyeing apparel for export) may be granted to the extent that it is necessary for the user to obtain additional dyestuffs to carry out a War Production Board order, direction, or approved program. Additional dyestuffs shall be deemed necessary when the user has insufficient supply of dyestuffs to carry out such orders, directions, or approved programs provided he is not using any of his regular quota to dye or print any material a deeper shade than a standard consistent with available supplies of dyestuffs and the need for the particular shades in carrying out War Production Board orders, directions, and approved programs. The granting of authorizations among dyestuff users participating in the same approved program or direction shall, insofar as practicable, be based on their proportionate participation in such program or direction. Authorizations for dyestuffs to be used in dyeing apparel for export may be granted when the dyestuffs will be used to fill contracts or subcontracts of a government agency or for other essential export uses. Authorization which in the aggregate would require more than a total of 2 per cent of the domestic dyestuff production for export as dyestuffs, or for use in redyeing apparel for export, will be granted only upon program determinations.

(f) Treatment of mixtures. In the case of physical mixtures of different classes of dyestuffs containing a component or components of one class to the extent of at least 90% of the value of such mixture, such mixtures shall be considered as belonging to the class to which said component or components belong. In the case of all other physical mixtures of dyestuffs, the classes of components shall be considered separately.

(g) Restrictions on use of specific dyestuffs. No person shall use any:

(1) [Deleted Oct. 23, 1943.]

(2) Anthraquinone in any physical form in discharging (including color and white discharge), stripping or destroying naphthol (azoic), vat or other dyes already present on textile fibers. This provision shall not prohibit the use of Anthraquinone in the manufacture of dyestuffs.

(3) Annato or annato extracts for coloring any materials other than food products.

(h) Restrictions on inventory. In addition to the restrictions on inventory contained in Priorities Regulation No. 1 (§ 944.14), no person shall accept delivery of any Class A dyestuffs which will increase his inventory thereof beyond an amount which, to the best of his knowledge and belief, will be used by him in the next 45 days.

(i) Appeals. Any appeal from the provisions of this order shall be made by filing a letter in triplicate, referring to the particular provision appealed from and stating fully the grounds of the appeal.

(j) General prohibitions. No person shall deliver or accept delivery of any dyestuffs, if he knows, or has reason to believe, such material is to be used or is to be delivered or accepted in violation of the terms of this order.

(k) Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this order, or who, in connection with this order, wilfully conceals a material fact or furnishes false information to any department or agency of the United States is guilty of a crime, and upon conviction may be punished by fine or imprisonment. In addition, any such person may be prohibited from making or obtaining further deliveries of, or from processing or using material under priority control and may be deprived of priorities assistance.

(l) Applicability of regulations. This order and all transactions affected thereby are subject to all applicable regulations of the War Production Board, as amended from time to time.

(m) Communications to the War Production Board. All communications concerning this order, shall, unless otherwise directed in writing, be addressed to: War Production Board, Textile, Clothing and Leather Bureau, Washington 25, D. C., Reference: M–103.

Issued this 13th day of September 1944.

PART 3293—CHEMICALS

[General Allocation Order M–300, Schedule 47]

COPPER CHEMICALS

§ 3293.1047 Schedule 47 to General Allocation Order M–300—(a) Definition. "Copper chemicals" means the following chemicals, in both cupric and cuprous form:

(1) Copper sulfate.
(2) Copper carbonate.
(3) Copper oxide.
(4) Copper chloride.
(5) Copper cyanide.

(b) General restrictions. Copper chemicals are subject to allocation under General Allocation Order M–300 as Appendix A materials. The initial allocation date is October 1, 1942, when copper chemicals were first put under allocation by Order M–227 (revoked). The allocation period is the calendar quarter and the small order exemption per person per quarter is as follows:

	Pounds
Copper sulphate	4,000
Copper carbonat	1,000
Cupric oxide	1,000
Copper chloride	1,000
Copper cyanide	1,000

The small order exemption for cuprous oxide is 75 lbs. per quarter, but this may only be delivered to and accepted by laboratories and suppliers principally engaged in supplying laboratories, and may be used only by laboratories. (The term "laboratory" means laboratory as defined in Order P–43, whether or not registered under that order:)

(c) Special provision for shift from M–227. Prior to October 1, 1944, copper chemicals may be delivered, accepted and used on the basis of authorizations issued under Order M–227 (revoked). The forms of applications under this schedule are substantially the same as under Order M–227, except for reference to "M–300–47".

(d) Exemption for agricultural and animal uses of copper sulfate. (1) Allocations of aggregate quantities of copper sulfate may be made to any producer, upon his application pursuant to paragraph (e) below, for distribution for soil treatment, or as an insecticide or fungicide for agricultural crops, or for manufacture of animal medicinals. This copper sulfate may then be prepared and delivered by the producer and may be received, redelivered and used by any person for these purposes without further application or authorization under this order, but subject to all other applicable orders and regulations of the War Production Board or of the War Food Administration.

(2) No supplier shall deliver copper sulfate under this exemption to any person unless he has certified that the copper sulfate delivered will be used, or resold for use, only for soil treatment, or as an insecticide or fungicide in the cultivation of agricultural crops, or in the manufacture of animal medicinals. This statement of use shall be put on or attached to the purchase order, followed by the certification prescribed in Appendix D of Order M–300 (the form of certificate formerly prescribed in Order M–227 may continue to be used instead). This certification need be filed only once with each supplier if the purchaser buys copper sulfate exclusively for these purposes and if the statement refers to all future deliveries. This certification need not be filed when ordering in retail packages of 100 lbs. or less labeled for the uses covered by this exemption.

(3) No supplier shall deliver under this exemption copper sulfate allocated for delivery under the regular small order exemption.

[Supplementary Order M-21-a, Direction 4, as Amended Sept. 13, 1944]

CONSUMPTION OF ALLOY STEEL SCRAP IN MELTING ALLOY STEEL

The following direction is issued pursuant to paragraph (e) of Supplementary Order M-21-a. This direction covers the consumption of alloy steel scrap in the melting of alloy steel.

(a) Definitions. For the purposes of this direction:

(1) The term "alloy steel" includes only the types of alloy steel as defined in paragraph (a) of Order M-21-a which contain nickel or molybdenum known to have been added to obtain a desired alloying effect, and within the following composition ranges:

Nickel—0.26% to 5.25%, inclusive.

Molybdenum—0.07% to 1.50%, inclusive.

So-called stainless and/or heat-resisting steels containing 4% or more of chromium are excluded from this direction whether or not they contain nickel or molybdenum within the limits given above.

Tungsten steels are excluded from this direction whether or not they contain nickel or molybdenum within the limits given above.

(2) For the purposes of this direction, the term "alloy steel scrap" includes only scrap containing .30% or more nickel and/or .08% or more molybdenum.

(b) Required alloy steel scrap consumption. (1) In melting alloy steel in each calendar month, each producer in each plant must consume alloy steel scrap of the kinds listed below in not less than the following amounts. These amounts are stated in terms of percentages of the total weight of alloy steel ingots or total melted metal for alloy steel castings produced by the producer in each plant in the particular month:

	Electric furnace alloy steel	Open hearth alloy steel
	Percent	Percent
Total alloy steel scrap (solids plus turnings)	65	32
Alloy steel turnings	8	11

For example: A producer who produces in the month of January 10,000 tons of electric furnace alloy steel ingots must consume in his melting at least 6,500 tons of alloy steel scrap added to the furnace charge either directly or through pig iron. Of the alloy steel scrap he consumes, at least 800 tons must be in the form of alloy steel turnings.

(2) A producer who operates both electric and open hearth furnaces must consume the minimum amounts of alloy steel scrap specified in this direction in each type of furnace.

(c) Request for exceptions. (1) Any request for an exception from the terms of this direction shall be made by filing a letter setting forth the relief requested and the reasons why such relief should be allowed. Such requests should be addressed to Scrap Section, Steel Division, War Production Board, Washington 25, D. C. The War Production Board may grant specific written exceptions in appropriate cases. The approval of a melting schedule shall not constitute the grant of an exception.

Issued this 13th day of September 1944.

PART 3305—PAPERBOARD

[Limitation Order L-239, as Amended Sept. 13, 1944]

FOLDING AND SET-UP BOXES

The fulfillment of requirements for the defense of the United States has created shortages in the supply of materials entering into the production of folding and set-up boxes for defense, for private account, and for export; and the following order is deemed necessary and appropriate in the public interest and to promote the national defense:

§ 3305.16 Limitation Order L-239—(a) What this order does. This order forbids the manufacture of certain boxes and places restrictions on the manufacture of many other types, especially on the size, weight and shape of boxes used for packing various commodities.

(b) Definitions. For the purpose of this order: (1) "Folding box" means any collapsible container, or part thereof, made of paper or paperboard, excepting paper milk containers, liquid tight containers, pails and solid fibre or corrugated shipping containers not made on folding box machinery.

(2) "Blank" means any sheet of paper or paperboard, cut to shape or creased or scored for the purpose of being used as a folding box, set-up box, pail or part thereof.

(3) "Set-up box" means a non-collapsible or rigid container, or part thereof, made of paper or paperboard, excepting paper milk containers, liquid tight containers, cups, round nested paper food containers, pails, and solid fibre or corrugated shipping containers not made on set-up machinery.

(4) "Pail" means a wedge shaped, folded, liquid-tight, paper container.

(5) "Box" unless otherwise specified, includes folding boxes, set-up boxes, pails, blanks, and parts thereof.

(6) "Work in process" means any material for physical incorporation in boxes, on which actual box making operations have been started. No preparatory work such as art work, engravings, electrotypes, dies, or forms shall be deemed "work in process."

(7) "Virgin wood pulp" means pulp manufactured either by mechanical or chemical means from coniferous or broadleaf trees.

(8) "Gauge list" means any gauge list set forth in United States Department of Commerce Simplified Practice Recommendation R44-36 entitled "Box Board Thickness".

(9) "Multiple container" means a box containing a number of separately packaged items of the same commodity.

(10) "Set or combination box" means any box which is specifically designed to contain two or more different articles.

(11) "Liquid tight container" means any spiral or convolute wound paper container with slip-on cover made of paperboard commonly known in the trade as liquid tight container and of the type which is used to package foods for human consumption. This does not include a pail as defined in paragraph (b) (4).

Restrictions

(c) General restrictions. No person shall manufacture or commercially use any box in violation of any provision of this order, including its schedules, or purchase or sell any box which he knows, or has reason to believe, has been, or will be, manufactured in violation of any prohibition or restriction of this order, including its schedules.

(d) Restrictions on use of metal. No person shall manufacture or incorporate in the manufacture of boxes any metal bails or metal handles for boxes.

(e) Restrictions on manufacture of seasonal boxes and sleeves. No person shall manufacture:

(1) Any box for seasonal or other special purpose having a greater pulp content or area or weight of paper or paperboard than contained in the usual commercial box for like contents.

(2) Any sleeves or extra containers for seasonal or other special purposes unless also required for the usual commercial box for like contents.

(f) Restrictions on dummy and display boxes—(1) Dummy boxes. No person shall manufacture any commercial display box simulating a package and not intended for packaging purposes, or use for display purposes, any box not previously used for packaging.

(2) Display boxes. No person shall manufacture any box for simultaneous packaging and display purposes unless it is made without display features that require additional paperboard.

(g) Restrictions on set or combination boxes. No person shall manufacture any set or combination box without permission from the War Production Board in writing. The War Production Board will grant permission to manufacture set or combination boxes only in cases which involve no additional consumption of board over the quantity required to pack the items separately, or in cases where the resultant greater utility to the consumer is commensurate with the additional use of board involved. The restrictions of this paragraph do not apply to boxes for biological or sterile pharmaceutical products or to boxes in which are packed one article with a tool for opening the article.

(h) Restriction on empty boxes. No person shall knowingly manufacture boxes for sale at retail as empty boxes except frozen food locker boxes.

(i) Restrictions on manufacture of boxes from virgin wood pulp. No person shall manufacture any box from any of the following grades of paperboard listed in United States Department of Commerce Simplified Practice Recommendation R44-36 if any virgin wood pulp is contained in any of such paperboard: plan chipboard, filled news board, single news vat-lined chip, bending chip board, colored suit box chip back, solid jute, cracker shell board, or solid news.

(j) Restrictions on pulp inner liners. Except as provided in paragraph (l), no person shall commercially use, on the inside surface of any folding box, any liner made from (1) virgin wood pulp or (2) from any waste paper (including, but not limited to, white cuttings and manila cuttings) which can be processed to simulate the appearance of a virgin wood pulp liner.

(k) Restrictions on virgin wood pulp boards. Except as provided in paragraph (l) no person shall manufacture any box from paperboard containing in its total fibre furnish 50% or more virgin wood pulp or substitute high grade waste paper.

(l) Permitted uses of pulp inner liners and kraft board. The restrictions of paragraphs (j) and (k) shall not apply to boxes designed for use as outer containers in parcel post or express shipments. They also shall not apply to boxes designed for packaging any of the following products:

(1) Wet or oily foods.

(2) Products containing, by weight, 25% or more of metal.

(3) Any other product determined by the War Production Board as requiring the protection of such liner or paperboard to insure its delivery in merchantable condition to the ultimate consumer. Application for such determination may be made by the prospective packager by letter stating the pertinent facts.

(m) Restrictions on size, weight and shape. No person shall manufacture any box to pack a specific item unless it is made:

(1) Of paperboard no heavier than that reasonably required to transport the product with safety.

(2) No larger than is necessary to pack the product.

(3) Without extension edges, top or bottom cards, or padded tops, if the construction used requires an extra sheet of paperboard or an extra head.

Exceptions

(n) Provisions not applicable to material completed or in process. (1) No prohibition or restriction hereof shall apply to boxes completely manufactured or made from work in process prior to the effective date of such restriction.

(2) Where any restriction hereof limits the type, grade, or quality of paperboard which may be used in manufacturing any box, such restriction shall not apply to the use of any paperboard manufactured for that purpose prior to the effective date of such restriction.

(3) Where any restriction hereof limits the use of sheet-lined paperboard in manufacturing any box, such restriction shall not apply to the use of any paperboard sheet-lined prior to the effective date of such restriction.

(o) Provisions not applicable to boxes for certain federal agencies. The restrictions of this order shall not apply to boxes manufactured to meet the packaging specifications of, and delivered to or for the account of, the United States Army, Navy, Maritime Commission, War Shipping Administration, or any agency imposing such specifications for material to be delivered under the Act of Congress of March 11, 1941, entitled "An Act for the Defense of the United States" (Lend-Lease Act).

(p) Inventory restrictions. No person shall accept delivery of any quantity of boxes which will increase his inventory of that size and type of box to more than 25 tons or more than his reasonably anticipated requirements for the next ninety days, whichever is greater. No person shall order any quantity of boxes for delivery to him, or for his account, on any future date, if he has reason to believe that receipt thereof on that date will increase his inventory to more than the amount permitted in the first sentence of this paragraph. No person shall deliver, or accept an order for, any boxes which he has reason to believe will increase the purchaser's inventory to an amount greater than that permitted by this order.

Miscellaneous Provisions

(q) Applicability of regulations. This order and all transactions affected thereby are subject to all applicable provisions of the regulations of the War Production Board, as amended from time to time.

(r) Records. All persons affected by this order shall keep for two years accurate and complete records concerning inventories, purchases, production and sales.

In addition, any such person may be prohibited from making or obtaining further deliveries of, or from processing or using material under priority control and may be deprived of priorities assistance.

(v) Appeals. An appeal from the provisions of this order may be made by a letter stating informally, but completely, the particular provision appealed from, the precise relief desired, the reasons why denial of the appeal would result in undue and excessive hardship, and such other statistical and narrative information as may be pertinent.

(w) Communications to War Production Board. All appeals and other communications concerning this order shall, unless otherwise directed, be addressed to: War Production Board, Paperboard Division, Washington 25, D. C., Ref: L-239.

A landlord who so elects shall file a registration statement under this regulation for all such housing accommodations, accompanied by a written request to the Administrator to consent to such election.

If the Administrator finds that the provisions of this regulation establishing maximum rents are better adapted to the rental practices for such building or establishment than the provisions of the Rent Regulation for Housing, he shall consent to the landlord's election. Upon such consent, all housing accommodations within such building or establishment which are or hereafter may be rented or offered for rent shall become subject to the provisions of this regulation, and shall be considered rooms within a rooming house for the purposes of the provisions relating to eviction.

The landlord may at any time, with the consent of the Administrator, revoke his election, and thereby bring under the control of the Rent Regulation for Housing all housing accommodations previously brought under this regulation by such election. He shall make such revocation by filing a registration statement or statements under the Rent Regulation for Housing, including in such registration statement or statements all housing accommodations brought under this regulation by such election. Such registration statement or statements shall be accompanied by a written request to the Administrator to consent to such revocation. The Administrator may defer action on such request if he has taken or is about to take action to decrease the maximum rents of any housing accommodations within such building or establishment. If the Administrator finds that the revocation so requested will not result in substantial increases in the maximum rents of housing accommodations affected by such revocation, he shall give such consent. Upon such consent, all housing accommodations affected by such revocation shall become subject to the provisions of the Rent Regulation for Housing.

SEC. 2. Prohibition—(a) Prohibition against higher than maximum rents. Regardless of any contract, agreement, lease or other obligation heretofore or hereafter entered into, no person shall demand or receive any rent for or in connection with the use or occupancy on and after the effective date of regulation of any room in a hotel or rooming house within the Defense-Rental Area higher than the maximum rents provided by this regulation; and no person shall offer, solicit, attempt, or agree to do any of the foregoing. However, if, during the year ending on June 30, 1942, a landlord had regular and definite seasonal practices with reference to the renting of rooms on a weekly or monthly basis, he may request the Administrator to approve such practices. When approval is given the landlord shall offer rooms for rent for weekly and monthly terms of occupancy pursuant to the practices so approved. The Administrator may withdraw approval at any time if he finds that the landlord has failed to conform to such practices, or if he finds that the effects of the approval are inconsistent with the Act or this regulation or are likely to result in the circumvention or evasion thereof.

(3) Request by tenant to change term of occupancy. Any tenant on a daily or weekly term of occupancy shall on request be permitted by the landlord to change to a weekly or monthly term unless the landlord is then renting for such term a number of rooms equal to the number which he is required to rent for that term under subparagraph (2). If the room occupied by such tenant was not rented or offered for rent for such term during June 1942, the landlord may transfer the tenant to a room, as similar as possible, which was so rented or offered for rent.

(4) Monthly term of occupancy in tourist camps, etc. Where, since October 1, 1942, a room, cabin, or similar accommodations in a tourist camp, cabin camp, auto court or similar establishment has been or is hereafter rented to the same tenant for a continuous period of 60 days or longer on a daily basis, the landlord shall offer such room, cabin or other accommodations for rent for a monthly term of occupancy, regardless of the provisions of subparagraph (2) of this paragraph. Any tenant of such room, cabin or other accommodations on a daily or weekly basis shall on request be permitted by the landlord to change to a monthly term of occupancy.

(ii) Maximum rent date of July 1, 1943, or later. In Defense-Rental Areas with a maximum rent date of July 1, 1943, or later, in section 2 (b) (2) the words "the thirty days ending on the maximum rent date" shall be substituted for the words "June 1942" and the words "the maximum rent date" shall be substituted for the words "June 30, 1942"; in section 2 (b) (3) the words "the thirty days ending on the maximum rent date" shall be substituted for the words "June 1942"; and in section 2 (b) (4) the words "the maximum rent date" shall be substituted for the words "October 1, 1942."

[Subparagraph (5) added by Am. 10, 8 F. R. 16893, effective 12-16-43; amended by Am. 21, 9 F.R. 5828, effective 6-1-44]

(6) Weekly or monthly terms of occupancy less than 25%. A landlord who is required to rent for weekly or monthly terms of occupancy less than 25% of the rooms in an establishment, under subparagraphs (2) and (4) of this paragraph, may petition the Administrator to be relieved of such requirement. Upon issuance of an order granting such petition, the provisions of subparagraphs (2), (3) and (4) of this paragraph no longer shall apply to the rooms in the establishment; but the maximum rent for a weekly term of occupancy shall apply where, after the date of issuance of the order, a tenant remains in occupancy for a continuous period of more than 10 days, and the maximum rent for a monthly term of occupancy shall apply where, after the date of issuance of the order, a tenant remains in occupancy for a continuous period of more than 30 days, regardless of whether the tenant occupies the same room in the establishment during the specified period. The maximum rent on a weekly or monthly basis, as the case may be, shall apply from the date of issuance of the order or the date on which occupancy commenced, whichever is the later.

The order of the Administrator granting the landlord's petition may fix maximum rents for weekly and monthly terms of occupancy and for different numbers of occupants for those terms pursuant to section 4 (g). Immediately upon issuance of the order the landlord shall post maximum rents established for weekly and monthly terms of occupancy in the manner provided by section 7 (b).

[Subparagraph (6) added by Am. 19, 9 F.R. 5002, effective 5-12-44]

(c) Security deposits—(1) General prohibition. Regardless of any contract, agreement, lease or other obligation heretofore or hereafter entered into, no person on or after September 1, 1944, shall demand or receive a security deposit for or in connection with the use or occupancy of any room in a hotel or rooming house within the Defense-Rental Area or retain any security deposit received prior to or on or after September 1, 1944, except as provided in this paragraph (c). The term "security deposit," in addition to its customary meaning, includes any prepayment of rent except payment in advance of the next periodic installment of rent for a period no longer than one month.

(2) Maximum rent established under section 4 (a). Where the maximum rent of the housing accommodations is established under section 4 (a), no security deposit shall be demanded, received, or retained except in the amount (or any lesser amount) and on the same terms and conditions (or on terms and conditions less burdensome to the tenant) provided for in the lease or other rental agreement in effect on the date determining the maximum rent.

(3) Maximum rent established under section 4 (b) or (c)—(i) Renting prior to effective date of regulation. Where the maximum rent of the housing accommodations is established under section 4 (b) or (c) by renting prior to the effective date of regulation, no security deposit shall be demanded, received or retained except in the amount (or any lesser amount) and on the same terms and conditions (or on terms and conditions less burdensome to the tenant) provided for in the lease or other rental agreement under which the accommodations were first rented or in any order heretofore or hereafter issued with reference to such security deposit. Where such lease or other rental agreement provided for a security deposit, the Administrator at any time, on his own initiative or on application of the tenant, may order a decrease in the amount of such deposit or may order its elimination.

(ii) Renting on or after effective date of regulation. Where the maximum rent of the housing accommodations is established under section 4 (b) or (c) by a renting on or after the effective date of regulation, no security deposit shall be demanded, received, or retained.

(4) Maximum rent established under section 4 (d) or (f). Where the maximum rent of the housing accommodations is established under section 4 (d) or (f), no security deposit shall be demanded, received or retained except in the amount (or any lesser amount) and on the same terms and conditions (or on terms and conditions less burdensome to the tenant) as provided in the lease or other rental agreement in effect on September 1, 1944. Where such accommodations are first rented after September 1, 1944, no security deposit shall be demanded, received, or retained.

(5) Deposits to secure the return of certain movable articles. Notwithstanding the preceding provisions of this paragraph (c), any landlord may petition for an order authorizing the demand and receipt of a deposit to secure the return of movable articles such as keys and ice trays. If the landlord shows that he has a special need therefor, the Administrator may enter an order authorising a security deposit, not in excess of ten dollars to secure the return of the movable articles specified in the order.

[Paragraph (c) added by Am. 30, 9 F.R. 10631, effective 9–1–44]

SEC. 3. Minimum services, furniture, furnishings, and equipment. Except as set forth in section 5 (b), every landlord shall, as a minimum, provide with a room the same essential services, furniture, furnishings and equipment as those provided on the date or during the thirty-day period determining the maximum rent, and as to other services, furniture, furnishings, and equipment not substantially less than those provided on such date or during such period: Provided, however, That where fuel oil is used to supply heat or hot water for a room, and the landlord provided heat or hot water on the date or during the thirty-day period determining the maximum rent, the heat and hot water which the landlord is required to supply shall not be in excess of the amount which he can supply under any statute, regulation or order of the United States or any agency thereof which rations or limits the use of fuel oil.

SEC. 4. Maximum rents. This section establishes separate maximum rents for different terms of occupancy (daily, weekly or monthly) and numbers of occupants of a particular room. Maximum rents for rooms in a hotel or rooming house (unless and until changed by the Administrator as provided in section 5) shall be:

(a) Rented or regularly offered during maximum rent period. For a room rented or regularly offered for rent during the thirty days ending on the maximum rent date, the highest rent for each term or number of occupants for which the room was rented during that thirty-day period, or, if the room was not rented or was not rented for a particular term or number of occupants during that period, the rent for each term or number of occupants for which it was regularly offered during such period.

(b) First rented or regularly offered after maximum rent period. For a room neither rented nor regularly offered for rent during the thirty days ending on the maximum rent date, the highest rent for each term or number of occupants for which the room was rented during the thirty days commencing when it was first offered for rent after the maximum rent date; or, if the room was not rented or was not rented for a particular term or number of occupants during that period, the rent for each term or number of occupants for which it was regularly offered during such period.

(c) First rent after maximum rent date where no maximum rent established under (a) or (b). For a room rented for a particular term or number of occupants for which no maximum rent is established under paragraphs (a) or (b) of this section the first rent for the room after the maximum rent date for that term and number of occupants, but not more than the maximum rent for similar rooms for the same term and number of occupants in the same hotel or rooming house.

(d) Rooms constructed and owned by the government. For a room constructed by the United States or any agency thereof, or by a State of the United States or any of its political subdivisions, or any agency of the State or any of its political subdivisions, and owned by any of the foregoing, the rent generally prevailing in the Defense-Rental Area for comparable housing accommodations on the maximum rent date, as determined by the owner of such room: Provided, however, That any corporation formed under the laws of a State shall not be considered an agency of the United States within the meaning of this paragraph. The Administrator may order a decrease in the maximum rent as provided in section 5 (c) (1).

(e) Meals with room. For a room with which meals were provided during the thirty-day period determining the maximum rent without separate charge therefor, the rent apportioned by the landlord from the total charge for the room and meals. The landlord's apportionment shall be fair and reasonable and shall be reported in the registration statement for such room. The Administrator at any time on his own initiative or on application of the tenant may by order decrease the maximum rent established by such apportionment, if he finds that the apportionment was unfair or unreasonable.

Every landlord who provides meals with accommodations shall make separate charges for the two.

In Defense-Rental Areas with a maximum rent date of March 1, 1942 or earlier, no landlord shall require the taking of meals as a condition of renting any room unless the room was rented or offered for rent on that basis on June 15, 1942. In Defense-Rental Areas with a maximum rent date later than March 1, 1942, no landlord shall require the taking of meals as a condition of renting any room unless the room was rented or offered for rent on that basis on the maximum rent date.

[Above two paragraphs amended by Am. 10, 8 F.R. 16893, effective 12–16–43]

(f) Rooms subject to rent schedule of War or Navy Department. For a room rented to either Army or Navy personnel, including civilian employees of the War and Navy Departments, for which the rent is fixed by the national rent schedule of the War or Navy Department, the rents established by such rent schedule.

[Paragraph (f) amended by Am. 8, 8 F.R. 12798, effective 9–30–43]

(g) Rent fixed by order of Administrator. For a room for a particular term or number of occupants for which no maximum rent has been established under any other provision of this regulation, the rent fixed by order of the Administrator as provided in this paragraph (g).

The Administrator at any time on his own initiative or on petition of the landlord may enter an order fixing the maximum rent and specifying the minimum services for a room for a particular term or number of occupants for which no maximum rent has been established prior to issuance of the order under any other provision of this regulation. Such maximum rent shall be fixed on the basis of the rent generally prevailing in the Defense-Rental Area for comparable housing accommodations on the maximum rent date.

[Paragraph (g) added by Am. 19, 9 F.R. 8002, effective 8–13–44]

SEC. 5. Adjustments and other determinations. In the circumstances enumerated in this section, the Administrator may issue an order changing the maximum rents otherwise allowable or the minimum services required.

In those cases involving a major capital improvement, an increase or decrease in services, furniture, furnishings or equipment, or a deterioration, the adjustment in the maximum rent shall be the amount the Administrator finds would have been on the maximum rent date the difference in the rental value of the housing accommodations by reason of such change: Provided, however, That no adjustment shall be ordered where it appears that the rent on the date or during the thirty-day period determining the maximum rent was fixed in contemplation of and so as to reflect such change.

In all other cases, except those under paragraphs (a) (7), (a) (9), (c) (4), and (c) (5) of this section, the adjustment shall be on the basis of the rent which the Administrator finds was generally prevailing in the defense-rental area for comparable housing accommodations on the maximum rent date.

[Above paragraph amended by Am. 29, 9 F.R. 10188, effective 9–1–44]

In cases involving construction, due consideration shall be given to general increases in costs of construction, if any, in the defense-rental area since the maximum rent date.

In cases under paragraphs (a) (7) and (c) (4) of this section, the adjustment shall be on the basis of the rents which the Administrator finds were generally prevailing in the defense-rental area for comparable housing accommodations during the year ending on the maximum rent date.

[Above paragraphs amended by Am. 17, 9 F.R. 3421, effective 3–29–44; and Am. 27, 9 F.R. 9428, effective 8–3–44]

In cases under paragraph (a) (9) of this section, the adjustment shall be on the basis of the rents which the Administrator finds necessary to relieve the substantial hardship: Provided, That the adjustment shall not result in a maximum rent higher than the rent generally prevailing in the defense-rental area for comparable housing accommodations on the maximum rent date.

In cases under paragraph (c) (5) of this section, the adjustment in the maximum rent shall be in the amount the Administrator finds warranted by the modification or elimination of the necessity for the increase in the maximum rent granted under paragraph (a) (9) of this section: Provided, That no decrease shall be ordered in an amount greater than the adjustment ordered under paragraph (a) (9) of this section.

[Above paragraphs added by Am. 29, 9 F.R. 10188, effective 9–1–44]

(a) Grounds for increase of maximum rents. Any landlord may file a petition for adjustment to increase the maximum rent otherwise allowable, only on the ground that:

(1) Major capital improvement since maximum rent period. There has been, since the thirty-day period or the order determining the maximum rent for the room, a substantial change in the room by a major capital improvement as distinguished from ordinary repair, replacement and maintenance.

(2) Change prior to maximum rent date. There was, on or prior to the maximum rent date, a substantial change in the room by a major capital improvement as distinguished from ordinary repair, replacement and maintenance or a substantial increase in services, furniture, furnishings or equipment, and the rent during the thirty-day period ending on the maximum rent date was fixed by a lease or other rental agreement which was in force at the time of such change or increase.

[Subparagraph (2) amended by Am. 31, effective 9–13–44]

(3) Substantial increase in services, furniture, furnishings or equipment. There has been a substantial increase in the services, furniture, furnishings or equipment provided with the room since the thirty-day period or the order determining its maximum rent.

(4) Special relationship between landlord and tenant. The rent during the thirty-day period determining the maximum rent was materially affected by the blood, personal or other special relationship between the landlord and the tenant, or by an allowance or discount to a tenant of a class of persons to whom the landlord regularly offered such an allowance or discount, and as a result was substantially lower than the rent generally prevailing in the Defense-Rental Area for comparable housing accommodations on the maximum rent date.

(5) Lease for term commencing one year or more before maximum rent date. There was in force on the maximum rent date a written lease, for a term commencing on or prior to the date one year before the maximum rent date, requiring a rent substantially lower than the rent generally prevailing in the Defense-Rental Area for comparable housing accommodations on the maximum rent date.

(6) Varying rents. The rent during the thirty-day period determining the maximum rent was established by a lease or other rental agreement which provided for a substantially higher rent at other periods during the term of such lease or agreement.

(7) Seasonal demand. The rent during the thirty-day period determining the maximum rent for the room was substantially lower than at other times of year by reason of seasonal demand for such room. In such cases the Administrator's order may if he deems it advisable provide for different maximum rents for different periods of the calendar year.

(8) Peculiar circumstances. The rent during the thirty-day period determining the maximum rent was materially affected by peculiar circumstances and as a result was substantially lower than the rent generally prevailing in the defense-rental area for comparable housing accommodations on the maximum rent date.

[Subparagraph (8) added by Am. 25, 9 F.R. 8054, effective 7–17–44]

(9) Substantial hardship from increase in property taxes or operating costs. Substantial hardship has resulted from a substantial decrease in the net income (before interest) of the property for the current year as compared with a representative period to the maximum rent date, due to a substantial and unavoidable increase in property taxes or operating costs.

For the purposes of this paragraph (a) (9) the term:

(i) "Net income (before interest)" means the amount determined by subtracting unavoidable property taxes and operating costs actually paid or accrued from total income earned.

(ii) "Property taxes and operating costs" includes all expenses necessary to the operation and maintenance of the property actually paid or accrued and properly allocated, including depreciation but excluding interest.

(iii) "Property" includes one or more structures operated as a single unit or enterprise.

(iv) "Total income earned" includes rental and other income earned from the property and the rental value of housing accommodations in the property occupied without the full payment of rent.

(v) "Current year" means a period of twelve calendar months beginning on or after the effective date of regulation. The most recent calendar or fiscal year used by the landlord or the twelve calendar months immediately prior to the filing of the petition for adjustment may be used.

[Subparagraph (9) added by Am. 29, 9 F.R. 10188, 10718, effective 9–1–44]

(b) Decreases in minimum services, furniture, furnishings and equipment—(1) Decreases existing on effective date. If, on the effective date of this regulation, the services provided for a room are less than the minimum services required by section 3, the landlord shall either restore and maintain such minimum services, or, within 30 days (or, within 60 days for rooms within the Los Angeles Defense-Rental Area), after such effective date, file a petition requesting approval of the decreased services. If, on such effective date (or, on December 1, 1942 where the effective date of regulation is prior to that date), the furniture, furnishings or equipment provided with a room are less than the minimum required by section 3, the landlord shall, within 30 days after such date, file a written report showing the decrease in furniture, furnishings or equipment.

(2) Decreases after effective date. Except as above provided, the landlord shall, until the room becomes vacant, maintain the minimum services, furniture, furnishings and equipment unless and until he has filed a petition to decrease the services, furniture, furnishings or equipment and an order permitting a decrease has been entered thereon; however, if it is impossible to provide the minimum services, furniture, furnishings or equipment he shall file a petition within 10 days after the change occurs. When the room becomes vacant the landlord may, on renting to a new tenant, decrease the services, furniture, furnishings or equipment below the minimum; within 10 days after so renting the landlord shall file a written report showing such decrease.

(3) Adjustment in maximum rent for decreases. The order on any petition under this paragraph may require an appropriate adjustment in the maximum rent; and any maximum rent for which a report is required by this paragraph may be decreased in accordance with the provisions of section 5 (c) (3). If the landlord fails to file the petition or report required by this paragraph within the time specified, or decreases the services, furniture, furnishings or equipment without an order authorizing such decrease where such order is required, the rent received by the landlord for any rental period commencing on or after such decrease or the effective date of regulation (or December 1, 1942 where the effective date of regulation is prior to that date), whichever is the later, shall be received subject to refund to the tenant of any amount in excess of the maximum rent which may later be fixed by any order decreasing the maximum rent on account of such decrease in services, furniture, furnishings, or equipment. In such case, any order decreasing the maximum rent shall be effective to decrease such rent from the beginning of the first rental period after the decrease in services, furniture, furnishings or equipment or after the effective date of regulation (or after December 1, 1942 where the effective date of regulation is prior to that date), whichever is the later. The foregoing provisions and any refund thereunder do not affect any civil or criminal liability provided by the Act for failure to comply with any requirement of this paragraph.

(c) Grounds for decrease of maximum rent. The Administrator at any time, on his own initiative or on application of the tenant, may order a decrease of the maximum rent otherwise allowable, only on the grounds that:

(1) Rent higher than rent generally prevailing. The maximum rent for the room is higher than the rent generally prevailing in the Defense-Rental Area for comparable housing accommodations on the maximum rent date.

(2) Substantial deterioration. There has been a substantial deterioration of the room other than ordinary wear and tear since the date or order determining its maximum rent.

(3) Decrease in services, furniture, furnishings or equipment. There has been a decrease in the minimum services, furniture, furnishings or equipment required by section 3 since the date or order determining the maximum rent.

(4) Seasonal demand. The rent on the date determining the maximum rent for the room was substantially higher than at other times of year by reason of seasonal demand for such room. In such cases the Administrator's order may if he deems it advisable provide for different maximum rents for different periods of the calendar year.

(5) Modification or elimination of necessity for increase under section 5 (a) (9). There has been a modification or elimination of the necessity for the increase in the maximum rent granted under paragraph (a) (9) of this section, since the order, issued under that paragraph.

[Subparagraph (5) added by Am. 29, 9 F.R. 10188, effective 9-1-44]

(d) Orders when facts are in dispute, in doubt, or not known. If the rent on the date determining the maximum rent, or any other fact necessary to the determination of the maximum rent, is in dispute between the landlord and the tenant, or is in doubt, or is not known, the Administrator on petition of the landlord filed within 30 days after the effective date of regulation, or at any time on his own initiative, may enter an order fixing the maximum rent by determining such fact; or if the Administrator is unable to ascertain such fact he shall enter the order on the basis of the rent which he finds was generally prevailing in the Defense-Rental Area for comparable housing accommodations on the maximum rent date.

(e) Interim orders. Where a petition is filed by a landlord on one of the grounds set out in paragraph (a) or (d) of this section, or a proceeding is initiated by the Administrator under paragraph (d), the Administrator may enter an interim order increasing or fixing the maximum rent until further order, subject to refund by the landlord to the tenant of any amount received in excess of the maximum rent established by final order in such proceeding. The receipt by the landlord of any rent authorized by such interim order shall constitute an agreement by the landlord with the tenant to refund to the tenant any amount received in excess of the maximum rent established by final order. The landlord shall make such refund either by repayment in cash or, where the tenant remains in occupancy after the effective date of the final order, by deduction from the next installment of rent, or both.

[Paragraph (e) added by Am. 8, 8 F.R. 16032, effective 11-25-43]

SEC. 6. Removal of tenant—(a) Restrictions on removal of tenant. So long as the tenant continues to pay the rent to which the landlord is entitled, no tenant of a room within a hotel or rooming house shall be removed from such room, by action to evict or to recover possession, by exclusion from possession, or otherwise, nor shall any person attempt such removal or exclusion from possession, notwithstanding that such tenant has no lease or that his lease or other rental agreement has expired or otherwise determinated unless:

(1) Tenant's refusal to renew lease. The tenant, who had a written lease or other written rental agreement, has refused upon demand of the landlord to execute a written extension or renewal thereof for a further term of like duration but not in excess of one year but otherwise on the same terms and conditions as the previous lease or agreement except insofar as such terms and conditions are inconsistent with this regulation; or

(2) Tenant's refusal of access. The tenant has unreasonably refused the landlord access to the room for the purpose of inspection or of showing the room to a prospective purchaser, mortgagee or prospective mortgagee, or other person having a legitimate interest therein: Provided, however, That such refusal shall not be ground for removal or eviction if such inspection or showing of the room is contrary to the provisions of the tenant's lease or other rental agreement; or

(3) Violating obligation of tenancy or committing nuisance. The tenant (i) has violated a substantial obligation of his tenancy, other than an obligation to pay rent, and has continued, or failed to cure such violation after written notice by the landlord that the violation cease or (ii) is committing or permitting a nuisance or is using or permitting a use of the room for an immoral or illegal purpose; or

(4) Demolition or alteration by landlord. The landlord seeks in good faith to recover possession for the immediate purpose of demolishing the room or of substantially altering or remodeling it in a manner which cannot practicably be done with the tenant in occupancy and the plans for such alteration or remodeling have been approved by the proper authorities, if such approval is required by local law; or

(5) Room not offered for rent. The landlord seeks in good faith not to offer the room for rent. If a tenant has been removed or evicted from a room under this paragraph (a) (5), the landlord shall file a written report on a form provided therefor before renting the room during a period of 6 months after such removal or eviction.

(b) Administrator's certificate. No tenant shall be removed or evicted on grounds other than those stated above unless, on petition of the landlord, the Administrator certifies that the landlord may pursue his remedies in accordance with the requirements of the local law. The Administrator shall so certify if the landlord establishes that removals or evictions of the character proposed are not inconsistent with the purposes of the Act or this regulation and would not be likely to result in the circumvention or evasion thereof.

(c) Notice to Area Rent Office. At the time of commencing any action to remove or evict a tenant (except an action based on non-payment of a rent not in excess of the maximum rent) the landlord shall give written notice thereof to the Area Rent Office stating the title and number of the case, the court in which it is filed, the name and address of the tenant and the grounds on which eviction is sought.

(d) Exceptions from section 6. The provisions of this section do not apply to:

(1) Subtenants. A subtenant or other person who occupied under a rental agreement with the tenant where removal or eviction of the subtenant or other such occupant is sought by the landlord of the tenant, unless under the local law there is a tenancy relationship between the landlord and the subtenant or other such occupant.

(2) Daily or weekly tenants in hotel and daily tenants in rooming house. A tenant occupying a room within a hotel on a daily or weekly basis; or a tenant occupying on a daily basis a room within a rooming house which has heretofore usually been rented on a daily basis: Provided, That the provisions of this section do apply to a tenant on a daily or weekly basis who has requested a weekly or monthly term of occupancy pursuant to section 2 (b) (3) or (4).

(3) Rooms subject to rent schedule of War or Navy Department. Rooms rented to either Army or Navy personnel, including civilian employees of the War and Navy Departments, for which the rent is fixed by the national rent schedule of the War or Navy Department.

(4) One or two occupants. An occupant of a furnished room or rooms not constituting an apartment, located within the residence occupied by the landlord or his immediate family, where such landlord rents to not more than two occupants within such residence.

(5) Renting to family in landlord's residence. A family which on or after August 1, 1943 moves into a furnished room or rooms not constituting an apartment, located within the residence occupied by the landlord or his immediate family, where such landlord does not rent to any person within such residence other than those in the one family.

[Subparagraph (5) added by Am. 2, 8 F.R. 10618, effective 8-1-43]

(e) Local law. No provision of this section shall be construed to authorize the removal of a tenant unless such removal is authorized under the local law.

SEC. 7. Registration and records—(a) Registration statement. On or before the date specified in Schedule A of this regulation every landlord of a room rented or offered for rent shall file a written statement on the form provided therefor, containing such information as the Administrator shall require, to be known as a registration statement. Any maximum rent established after the effective date of regulation under paragraphs (b) or (c) of section 4 shall be reported either on the first registration statement or on a statement filed within 5 days after such rent is established.

(b) Posting maximum rents. Within 45 days after the effective date of regulation (or, on or before May 31, 1943 as to rooms within the Cincinnati Defense-Rental Area), every landlord shall post and thereafter keep posted conspicuously in each room rented or offered for rent a card or sign plainly stating the maximum rent or rents for all terms of occupancy and for all numbers of occupants for which the room is rented or offered for rent. Where the taking of meals by the tenant or prospective tenant is a condition of renting such room, the card or sign shall so state. Should the maximum rent or rents for the room be changed by order of the Administrator the landlord shall alter the card or sign so that it states the changed rent or rents.

The foregoing provisions of this paragraph shall not apply to rooms under section 4 (d). The owner of such rooms shall post a copy of the registration statement in a place where it will be available for inspection by the tenants of such rooms.

(c) Receipt for amount paid. No payment of rent need be made unless the landlord tenders a receipt for the amount to be paid.

(d) Rooms subject to rent schedule of War or Navy Department. The provisions of this section shall not apply to rooms rented to either Army or Navy personnel, including civilian employees of the War and Navy Departments for which the rent is fixed by the national rent schedule of the War or Navy Department.

(e) Records—(1) Existing records. Every landlord of a room rented or offered for rent shall preserve, and make available for examination by the Administrator, all his existing records showing or relating to (i) the rent for each term and number of occupants for which such room was rented or regularly offered for rent during the thirty-day period determining the maximum rent for such room, (ii) the rent on any date determining a maximum rent for such room for a particular term and number of occupants under section 4 (c), (iii) rooms rented and offered for rent on a weekly and monthly basis during June 1942, in Defense-Rental Areas with a maximum rent date of March 1, 1942 or earlier, (iv) rooms rented and offered for rent on a weekly and monthly basis during June 1943, in Defense-Rental Areas with a maximum rent date later than March 1, 1942, but prior to July 1, 1943, (v) rooms rented and offered for rent on a weekly and monthly basis during the thirty days ending on the maximum rent date, in Defense-Rental Areas with a maximum rent date of July 1, 1943, or later.

[Subparagraph (1) amended by Am. 10, 8 F.R. 16893, effective 12-16-43; and Am. 21, 9 F.R. 5820, effective 6-1-44]

(2) Record keeping. On and after the effective date of regulation (or on and after October 19, 1942 where the effective date of regulation is prior to that date), every landlord of an establishment containing more than 20 rooms rented or offered for rent shall keep, preserve, and make available for examination by the Administrator, records showing the rents received for each room, the particular term and number of occupants for which such rents were charged, and the name and permanent address of each occupant; every other landlord shall keep, preserve, and make available for examination by the Administrator, records of the same kind as he has customarily kept relating to the rents received for rooms.

SEC. 8. Inspection. Any person who rents or offers for rent or acts as a broker or agent for the rental of a room and any tenant shall permit such inspection of the room by the Administrator as he may from time to time require.

SEC. 9. Evasion. The maximum rents and other requirements provided in this regulation shall not be evaded, either directly or indirectly in connection with the renting or leasing or the transfer of a lease of a room, by requiring the tenant to pay or obligate himself for membership or other fees, or by modification of the practices relating to payment of commissions or other charges, or by modification of the services furnished with the room, or otherwise.

SEC. 10. Enforcement. Persons violating any provisions of this regulation are subject to criminal penalties, civil enforcement actions, and suits for treble damages as provided for by the Act.

SEC. 11. Procedure. All registration statements, reports and notices provided for by this regulation shall be filed with the Area Rent Office. All landlord's petitions and tenant's applications shall be filed with such office in accordance with Revised Procedural Regulation No. 3,[1] (§§ 1300.201 to 1300.259a, inclusive).

SEC. 12. Petitions for amendment. Persons seeking any amendment of general applicability to any provision of this regulation may file petitions therefor in accordance with Revised Procedural Regulation No. 3 (§§ 1300.201 to 1300.259a, inclusive).

SEC. 13. Definitions. (a) When used in this regulation the term:

AUTHORITY: § 1388.1181 issued under 56 Stat. 23, 765; Pub. Law 383, 78th Cong.

SECTION 1. Scope of this regulation—(a) Housing and defense-rental areas to which this regulation applies. This regulation applies to all housing accommodations within each of the defense-rental areas and each of the portions of a defense-rental area (each of which is referred to hereinafter in this regulation as the "defense-rental area"), which are listed in Schedule A of this regulation, except as provided in paragraph (b) of this section.

In Schedule A, "the maximum rent date" and "the effective date of regulation" is given for each defense-rental area listed. More than one effective date is given for different portions of a defense-rental area where the same effective date is not applicable to the entire defense-rental area. Wherever the words "the maximum rent date" or the words "the effective date of regulation" are referred to in this regulation, the dates given in Schedule A for the particular defense-rental area or portion of the defense-rental area in which the housing accommodations are located shall apply. The effective date listed in Schedule A in each instance is the date rent regulation was effective in the particular defense-rental area or portion of the defense-rental area.

(b) Housing to which this regulation does not apply. This regulation does not apply to the following:

(1) Farming tenants. Housing accommodations situated on a farm and occupied by a tenant who is engaged for a substantial portion of his time in farming operations thereon.

(2) Service employees. Dwelling space occupied by domestic servants, caretakers, managers, or other employees to whom the space is provided as part of their compensation and who are employed for the purpose of rendering services in connection with the premises of which the dwelling space is a part.

(3) Rooms in hotels, rooming houses, etc. Rooms or other housing accommodations within hotels or rooming houses, or housing accommodations which have been, with the consent of the Administrator, brought under the control of the Rent Regulation for Hotels and Rooming Houses pursuant to the provisions of that regulation.

(4) Structures in which more than 25 rooms are rented or offered for rent. Entire structures or premises wherein more than 25 rooms are rented or offered for rent by any lessee, sublessee or other tenant of such entire structure or premises: Provided, That this regulation does apply to entire structures or premises wherein 25 or less rooms are rented or offered for rent by any lessee, sublessee or other tenant of such entire structure or premises, whether or not used by the lessee, sublessee or other tenant as a hotel or rooming house: And provided further, That this regulation does apply to an underlying lease of any entire structure or premises which was entered into after the maximum rent date and prior to the effective date of regulation, while such lease remains in force with no power in the tenant to cancel or otherwise terminate the lease.

(5) Rented to National Housing Agency. Housing accommodations rented to the United States acting by the National Housing Agency: Provided, however, That this regulation does apply to a sublease or other subrenting of such accommodations or any part thereof.

(6) Resort housing—(i) Exemption. Housing accommodations located in a resort community and customarily rented or occupied on a seasonal basis, which were not rented during any portion of the period beginning on November 1, 1943 and ending on February 29, 1944.

The exemption provided by this paragraph (b) (6) (i) shall be effective only from June 1, 1944 to September 20, 1944, inclusive.

(ii) Exception from exemption. The provisions of section 1 (b) (6) (i) shall not apply to housing accommodations in the Madison, Wisconsin, Defense-Rental Area from June 15, 1944 to September 30, 1944, inclusive.

[Subparagraph (6) amended by Am. 17, 9 F.R. 2176, effective 2-24-44; and Am. 26, 9 F.R. 8569, effective 6-15-44]

(c) Effect of this regulation on leases and other rental agreements. The provisions of any lease or other rental agreement shall remain in force pursuant to the terms thereof, except insofar as those provisions are inconsistent with this regulation.

(d) Waiver of benefit void. An agreement by the tenant to waive the benefit of any provision of this regulation is void. A tenant shall not be entitled by reason of this regulation to refuse to pay or to recover any portion of any rents due or paid for use or occupancy prior to the effective date of regulation.

SEC. 2. Prohibition against higher than maximum rents—(a) General prohibition. Regardless of any contract, agreement, lease, or other obligation heretofore or hereafter entered into, no person shall demand or receive any rent for or in connection with the use or occupancy on and after the effective date of regulation of any housing accommodations within the Defense-Rental Area higher than the maximum rents provided by this regulation; and no person shall offer, solicit, attempt, or agree to do any of the foregoing. Lower rents than those provided by this regulation may be demanded or received.

[Paragraph (a) amended by Am. 33, 9 F.R. 10633, effective 9-1-44]

(b) Exception in case of conversion of fuel oil heating units. Notwithstanding any other provision of this regulation, where housing accommodations are heated with fuel oil the landlord of such accommodations may as hereinafter provided enter into an agreement with the tenant providing for payment by the tenant of part or all of the cost of changing the heating unit to use some fuel other than oil or of installing a new heating unit using some fuel other than oil. Prior to making such agreement the landlord shall in writing report the terms of the proposed agreement to the area rent office. The landlord may enter into the agreement either upon its approval by the Administrator or, unless the Administrator has disapproved the proposed agreement within five days after the filing of such report, upon the expiration of such 5-day period.

(c) Lease with option to buy. Where a lease of housing accommodations was entered into prior to the effective date of regulation (or prior to October 20, 1942, where the effective date of regulation is prior to that date) and the tenant as a part of such lease or in connection therewith was granted an option to buy the housing accommodations which were the subject of the lease, with the further provision that some or all of the payments made under the lease should be credited toward the purchase price in the event such option is exercised, the landlord, notwithstanding any other provision of this regulation may be authorized to receive payment made by the tenant in accordance with the provisions of such lease and in excess of the maximum rent for such housing accommodations. Such authority may be secured only by a written request of the tenant to the area rent office and shall be granted by order of the Administrator if he finds that such payments in excess of the maximum rent will not be inconsistent with the purposes of the Act or this regulation and would not be likely to result in the circumvention or evasion thereof.

After entry of such order the landlord shall be authorized to demand, receive and retain payments provided by the lease in excess of the maximum rent for periods commencing on or after the effective date of regulation. After entry of such order, the provisions of the lease may be enforced in accordance with law, notwithstanding any other provision of this regulation: Provided, however, That if at the termination of the lease the tenant shall not exercise the option to buy, the landlord may thereafter remove or evict the tenant only in accordance with the provisions of section 6 of this regulation. Nothing in this paragraph shall be construed to authorize the landlord to demand or receive payments in excess of the maximum rent in the absense of an order of the Administrator as herein provided. Where a lease of housing accommodations has been entered into on or after the effective date of regulation (or on or after October 20, 1942 where the effective date of regulation is prior to that date), and the tenant as a part of such lease or in connection therewith has been granted an option to buy the housing accommodations which are the subject of the lease, the landlord, prior to the exercise by the tenant of the option to buy, shall not demand or receive payments in excess of the maximum rent, whether or not such lease allocates some portion or portions of the periodic payments therein provided as payments on or for the option to buy.

(d) Security deposits—(1) General prohibition. Regardless of any contract, agreement, lease or other obligation heretofore or hereafter entered into, no person on or after September 1, 1944 shall demand or receive a security deposit for or in connection with the use or occupancy of housing accommodations within the Defense-Rental Area or retain any security deposit received prior to or on or after September 1, 1944 except as provided in this paragraph (d). The term "security deposit," in addition to its customary meaning, includes any prepayment of rent except payment in advance of the next periodic installment of rent for a period no longer than one month.

(2) Maximum rent established under section 4 (a) or (b). Where the maximum rent of the housing accommodations is established under section 4 (a) or (b), no security deposit shall be demanded, received, or retained except in the amount (or any lesser amount) and on the same terms and conditions (or on terms and conditions less burdensome to the tenant) provided for in the lease or other rental agreement in effect on the date determining the maximum rent.

(3) Maximum rent established under section 4 (c) or (d). Where the maximum rent of the housing accommodations is established under section 4 (c) or (d) no security deposit shall be demanded, received, or retained except in the amount (or any lesser amount) and on the same terms and conditions (or on terms and conditions less burdensome to the tenant) provided for in the lease or other rental agreement under which the accommodations were first rented or in any order heretofore or hereafter issued with reference to such security deposit. Where such lease or other rental agreement provided for a security deposit, the Administrator at any time, on his own initiative or on application of the tenant, may order a decrease in the amount of such deposit or may order its elimination.

(4) Maximum rent established under section 4 (e), (f) or (j). Where the maximum rent of the housing accommodations is established under section 4 (e), (f) or (j), no security deposit shall be demanded, received, or retained.

(5) Maximum rent established under section 4 (g) or (h). Where the maximum rent of the housing accommodations is established under section 4 (g) or (h), no security deposit shall be demanded, received, or retained except in the amount (or any lesser amount) and on the same terms and conditions (or on terms and conditions less burdensome to the tenant) provided for in the lease or other rental agreement in effect on September 1, 1944. Where such accommodations are first rented after September 1, 1944, no security deposit shall be demanded, received, or retained.

(6) Deposits to secure the return of certain movable articles. Notwithstanding the preceding provisions of this paragraph (d), any landlord may petition for an order authorizing the demand and receipt of a deposit to secure the return of movable articles such as keys and ice trays. If the landlord shows that he has a special need therefor, the Administrator may enter an order authorizing a security deposit, not in excess of ten dollars, to secure the return of the movable articles specified in the order.

[Paragraph (d) added by Am. 33, 9 F.R. 10633, effective 9-1-44]

SEC. 3. Minimum services, furniture, furnishing and equipment. Except as set forth in section 5 (b), every landlord shall, as a minimum, provide with housing accommodations the same essential services, furniture, furnishings, and equipment as those provided on the date determining the maximum rent, and as to other services, furniture, furnishings and equipment not substantially less than those provided on such date: Provided, however, That where fuel oil is used to supply heat or hot water for housing accommodations, and the landlord provided heat or hot water on the date determining the maximum rent, the heat and hot water which the landlord is required to supply shall not be in excess of the amount which he can supply under any statute, regulation or order of the United States or any agency thereof which rations or limits the use of fuel oil.

SEC. 4. Maximum rents. Maximum rents (unless and until changed by the Administrator as provided in section 5) shall be:

(a) Rented on maximum rent date. For housing accommodations rented on the maximum rent date, the rent for such accommodations on that date.

(b) Not rented on maximum rent date but rented during two months ending on that date. For housing accommodations not rented on the maximum rent date, but rented at any time during the two months ending on that date, the last rent for such accommodations during the two-month period.

(c) First rent after the maximum rent date but before effective date. For housing accommodations not rented on the maximum rent date nor during the two months ending on that date, but rented prior to the effective date of regulation, the first rent for such accommodations after the maximum rent date. The Administrator may order a decrease in the maximum rent as provided in section 5 (c).

(d) Constructed or changed before effective date. For (1) newly constructed housing accommodations without priority rating first rented after the maximum rent date and before the effective date of regulation, or (2) housing accommodations changed between those dates so as to result in an increase or decrease of the number of dwelling units in such housing accommodations, or (3) housing accommodations changed between those dates from unfurnished to fully furnished, or from fully furnished to unfurnished, or (4) housing accommodations substantially changed between those dates by a major capital improvement as distinguished from ordinary repair, replacement and maintenance, the first rent for such accommodations after such construction or change: Provided, however, That, where such first rent was fixed by a lease which was in force at the time of a major capital improvement, the maximum rent shall be the first rent after termination of such lease. The Administrator may order a decrease in the maximum rent as provided in section 5 (c).

(e) First rent after effective date. For (1) newly constructed housing accommodations without priority rating first rented on or after the effective date of regulation, or (2) housing accommodations changed on or after such effective date so as to result in an increase or decrease of the number of dwelling units in such housing accommodations, or (3) housing accommodations not rented at any time during the two months ending on the maximum rent date nor between that date and the effective date, the first rent for such accommodations after the change or the effective date, as the case may be, but in no event more than the maximum rent provided for such accommodations by any order of the Administrator issued prior to September 22, 1942. Within 30 days after so renting the landlord shall register the accommodations as provided in section 7. The Administrator may order a decrease in the maximum rent as provided in section 5 (c).

If the landlord fails to file a registration statement within the time specified, the rent received for any rental period commencing on or after the date of the first renting or October 1, 1943 or the effective date of regulation, whichever is the later, shall be received subject to refund to the tenant of any amount in excess of the maximum rent which may later be fixed by an order under section 5 (c) (1). In such case, the order under section 5 (c) (1) shall be effective to decrease the maximum rent from the date of such first renting or from the beginning of the first rental period on or after October 1, 1943 or the effective date of regulation, whichever is the later. The foregoing provisions and any refund thereunder do not affect any civil or criminal liability provided by the act for failure to file the registration statement required by section 7.

[Above paragraph added by Am. 9, 8 F.R. 13390, effective 10-1-43; and amended by Am. 34, effective 9-13-44]

(f) Priority-constructed housing. For housing accommodations newly constructed with priority rating from the United States or any agency thereof for which the rent is approved by the United States or any agency thereof prior to the maximum rent date or, if the accommodations were not rented on that date, prior to the first renting of the accommodations after that date, the rent so approved, but in no event more than the rent on the maximum rent date, or, if the accommodations were not rented on that date, more than the first rent after that date: Provided, however, That if, prior to the maximum rent date or, if the accommodations were not rented on that date, prior to the first renting of the accommodations after that date, the landlord made a written request to the appropriate agency of the United States to approve a higher rent than the rent initially approved because of increased costs of construction, and a higher rent is approved by such agency on or after March 29, 1944, because of such increased costs of construction, the maximum rent on and after the date of such approval shall be the rent so approved.

The provisions of this paragraph (f) shall apply to the approval of rents for such housing accommodations by the United States or any agency thereof in connection with the grant of an application for priority rating filed on any of the application forms of the Office of Production Management or the War Production Board, including the September 1941 form in use by the Office of Production Management prior to the revision of this form on December 15, 1941.

The provisions of this paragraph (f) shall not apply to housing accommodations resulting from the alteration or remodeling of an existing structure.

[Paragraph (f) amended by Am. 20, 9 F.R. 3422, effective 3-29-44; and Am. 21, 9 F.R. 4028, effective 4-15-44]

(g) Housing owned and constructed by the government. For housing accommodations constructed by the United States or any agency thereof, or by a State of the United States or any of its political subdivisions, or any agency of the State or any of its political subdivisions, and owned by any of the foregoing, the rent generally prevailing in the Defense-Rental Area for comparable housing accommodations on the maximum rent date, as determined by the owner of such accommodations: Provided, however, That any corporation formed under the laws of a State shall not be considered an agency of the United States within the meaning of this paragraph. The Administrator may order a decrease in the maximum rent as provided in section 5 (c).

(h) Housing subject to rent schedule of War or Navy Department. For housing accommodations rented to either Army or Navy personnel, including civilian employees of the War and Navy Departments, for which the rent is fixed by the national rent schedule of the War or Navy Department, the rents established by such rent schedule.

[Paragraph (h) amended by Am. 8, 8 F.R. 12795, effective 9-20-43]

(i) Rent established under former section 5 (e). For housing accommodations with a maximum rent established, prior to March 1, 1943, under the first paragraph of section 5 (e) as that paragraph appeared in Maximum Rent Regulations issued prior to such date,[8] the rent on March 1, 1943, or, if the accommodations were not rented on that date, the last rent prior thereto, but in no event more than the maximum rent established under such first paragraph of section 5 (e). The Administrator may order a decrease in the maximum rent as provided in section 5 (c) (8).

(j) Changed on or after July 1, 1943 or the effective date of regulation, whichever is the later, from unfurnished to furnished. For housing accommodations changed on or after July 1, 1943 or the effective date of regulation, whichever is the later, from unfurnished to fully furnished, the first rent for such accommodations after such change. The Administrator may order a decrease in the maximum rent as provided in section 5 (c) (1).

Within 30 days after the accommodations are first rented fully furnished, the landlord shall register the accommodations as provided in section 7. If the landlord fails to file a registration statement within the time specified, the rent received from the time of such first renting shall be received subject to refund to the tenant of any amount in excess of the maximum rent which may later be fixed by an order under section 5 (c) (1). In such case, the order under section 5 (c) (1) shall be effective to decrease the maximum rent from the time of such first renting. The foregoing provisions and any refund thereunder do not affect any civil or criminal liability provided by the act for failure to file the registration statement required by section 7.

[8] The first paragraph of section 5 (e) read as follows: "Where, at the expiration or other termination of an underlying lease or other rental agreement, housing accommodations or a predominant part thereof are occupied by one or more subtenants or other persons occupying under a rental agreement with the tenant, the landlord may rent the entire premises for use by similar occupancy for a rent not in excess of the aggregate maximum rents of the separate dwelling units, or may rent the separate dwelling units for rents not in excess of the maximum rents applicable to such units."

[Paragraph (j) added by Am. 2, 8 F.R. 9020, effective 7-1-43; and amended by Am. 34, effective 9-13-44]

SEC. 5. Adjustments and other determinations. In the circumstances enumerated in this section, the Administrator may issue an order changing the maximum rents otherwise allowable or the minimum services required.

In those cases involving a major capital improvement, an increase or decrease in the furniture, furnishings or equipment, an increase or decrease of services, an increase or decrease in the number of subtenants or other occupants, or a deterioration, the adjustment in the maximum rent shall be the amount the Administrator finds would have been on the maximum rent date, the difference in the rental value of the housing accommodations by reason of such change: Provided, however, That no adjustment shall be ordered where it appears that the rent on the date determining the maximum rent was fixed in contemplation of and so as to reflect such change.

In all other cases except those under paragraphs (a) (7), (a) (12), (a) (13), (c) (6), and (c) (9) of this section, the adjustment shall be on the basis of the rent which the Administrator finds was generally prevailing in the defense-rental area for comparable housing accommodations on the maximum rent date: Provided, That in cases under paragraph (c) (8) of this section due consideration shall be given to any increased occupancy of the accommodations since that date by subtenants or other persons occupying under a rental agreement with the tenant.

[Above paragraph amended by Am. 32, 9 F.R. 10188, effective 9-1-44; and amended by Am. 34, effective 9-13-44]

In cases involving construction, due consideration shall be given to general increases in costs of construction, if any, in the defense-rental area since the maximum rent date.

In cases under paragraphs (a) (7) and (c) (6) of this section the adjustment shall be on the basis of the rents which the Administrator finds were generally prevailing in the defense-rental area for comparable housing accommodations during the year ending on the maximum rent date.

[Above paragraphs amended by Am. 20, 9 F.R. 3422, effective 3-29-44]

In cases under paragraph (a) (12) of this section, the adjustment in the maximum rent shall be in the amount the Administrator finds necessary to relieve the substantial hardship: Provided, That the adjustment shall not result in a maximum rent higher than the rent generally prevailing in the defense-rental area for comparable housing accommodations on the maximum rent date.

In cases under paragraph (c) (9) of this section, the adjustment in the maximum rent shall be in the amount the Administrator finds warranted by the modification or elimination of the necessity for the increase in the maximum rent granted under paragraph (a) (12) of this section: Provided, That no decrease shall be ordered in an amount greater than the adjustment ordered under paragraph (a) (12) of this section.

[Above paragraphs added by Am. 32, 9 F.R. 10188, effective 9-1-44]

In cases under paragraph (a) (13) of this section the adjustment shall be in the amount of the difference between the rent on the date determining the maximum rent and the rent agreed upon by the landlord and tenant as a result of a continuous process of bargaining on interrelated matters.

[Above paragraph added by Am. 34, effective 9-13-44]

(a) Grounds for increase of maximum rent. Any landlord may file a petition for adjustment to increase the maximum rent otherwise allowable, only on the grounds that:

(1) Major capital improvement after effective date. There has been on or after the effective date of regulation a substantial change in the housing accommodations by a major capital improvement as distinguished from ordinary repair, replacement and maintenance.

(2) Change prior to maximum rent date. There was, on or prior to the maximum rent date, a substantial change in the housing accommodations by a major capital improvement as distinguished from ordinary repair, replacement and maintenance or a substantial increase in the services, furniture, furnishings or equipment, and the rent on the maximum rent date was fixed by a lease or other rental agreement which was in force at the time of such change or increase.

[Subparagraph (2) amended by Am. 34, effective 9-13-44]

(3) Substantial increase in services, furniture, furnishings or equipment. There has been a substantial increase in the services, furniture, furnishings or equipment provided with the housing accommodations since the date or order determining its maximum rent. No increase in the maximum rent shall be ordered on the ground set forth in this paragraph (a) (3) unless the increase in services, furniture, furnishings or equipment occurred with the consent of the tenant or while the accommodations were vacant: Provided, That an adjustment may be ordered, although the tenant refuses to consent to the increase in services, furniture, furnishings or equipment, if the Administrator finds that such increase (i) is reasonably required for the operation of a multiple dwelling structure or other structure of which the accommodations are a part or (ii) is necessary for the preservation or maintenance of the accommodations.

(4) Special relationship between landlord and tenant. The rent on the date determining the maximum rent was materially affected by the blood, personal or other special relationship between the landlord and the tenant and as a result was substantially lower than the rent generally prevailing in the Defense-Rental Area for comparable housing accommodations on the maximum rent date: Provided, That no adjustment under this subparagraph increasing the maximum rent shall be made effective with respect to any accommodations regularly rented to employees of the landlord while the accommodations are rented to an employee, and no petition for such an adjustment will be entertained until the accommodations have been or are about to be rented to one other than an employee.

(5) Lease for term commencing one year or more before maximum rent date. There was in force on the maximum rent date, a written lease, for a term commencing on or prior to the date one year before the maximum rent date, requiring a rent substantially lower than the rent generally prevailing in the Defense-Rental Area for comparable housing accommodations on the maximum rent date; or the housing accommodations were not rented on the maximum rent date, but were rented during the two months ending on that date and the last rent for such accommodations during that two-month period was fixed by a written lease, for a term commencing on or prior to the date one year before the maximum rent date, requiring a rent substantially lower than the rent generally prevailing in the Defense-Rental Area for comparable housing accommodations on the maximum rent date.

(6) Varying rents. The rent on the date determining the maximum rent was established by a lease or other rental agreement which provided for a substantially higher rent at other periods during the term of such lease or agreement.

(7) Seasonal rents. The rent on the date determining the maximum rent was substantially lower than at other times of year by reason of seasonal demand, or seasonal variations in the rent, for such housing accommodations. In such cases the Administrator's order may if he deems it advisable provide for different maximum rents for different periods of the calendar year.

(8) Substantial increase in occupancy. There has been, since the maximum rent date, either (i) a substantial increase in the number of subtenants or other persons occupying the accommodations or a part thereof under a rental agreement with the tenant, or (ii) a substantial increase in the number of occupants, in excess of normal occupancy for that class of accommodations on the maximum rent date, or (iii) an increase in the number of occupants over the number contemplated by the rental agreement on the date determining the maximum rent, where the landlord on that date had a regular and definite practice of fixing different rents for the accommodations for different numbers of occupants.

(9) On the date determining the maximum rent the housing accommodations were temporarily exempt from real estate taxes, the landlord was passing the benefit of this tax exemption on to the tenant, and as a result the rent on that date was substantially lower than the rent generally prevailing in the defense-rental area for comparable housing accommodations on the maximum rent date.

[Paragraph (9) added by Am. 6, 9 F.R. 12660, effective 9-15-43]

(10) Priority rating granted on September 1941 application form of Office of Production Management. The maximum rent for the housing accommodations is established under section 4 (f), the application for priority rating for the construction of the housing accommodations was filed on the September 1941 form in use by the Office of Production Management prior to the revision of this form on December 15, 1941, the landlord did not make, prior to the maximum rent date or, if the accommodations were not rented on that date, prior to the first renting of the accommodations after that date, a written request to the appropriate agency of the United States to approve a higher rent than the rent initially approved because of increased costs of construction, and the maximum rent for the accommodations is substantially lower than the rent generally prevailing in the defense-rental area for comparable accommodations on the maximum rent date, giving due consideration to general increases in costs of construction, if any, in the defense-rental area since the maximum rent date.

This paragraph (a) (10) shall apply only to housing accommodations which were first rented prior to March 29, 1944.

[Subparagraph (10) added by Am. 20, 9 F.R. 3422, effective 3-29-44; and amended by Am. 21, 9 F.R. 4028, effective 4-15-44]

(11) Peculiar circumstances. The rent on the date determining the maximum rent was materially affected by peculiar circumstances and as a result was substantially lower than the rent generally prevailing in the defense-rental area for comparable housing accommodations on the maximum rent date.

[Subparagraph (11) added by Am. 29, 9 F.R. 8054, effective 7-17-44]

(12) Substantial hardship from increase in property taxes or operating costs. Substantial hardship has resulted from a substantial decrease in the net income (before interest) of the property for the current year as compared with a representative period prior to the maximum rent date, due to a substantial and unavoidable increase in property taxes or operating costs.

For the purposes of this paragraph (a) (12) the term:

(i) "Net income (before interest)" means the amount determined by subtracting unavoidable property taxes and operating costs actually paid or accrued from total income earned.

(ii) "Property taxes and operating costs" includes all expenses necessary to the operation and maintenance of the property actually paid or accrued and properly allocated, including depreciation but excluding interest.

(iii) "Property" includes one or more structures operated as a single unit or enterprise.

(iv) "Total income earned" includes rental and other income earned from the property and the rental value of housing accommodations in the property occupied without the full payment of rent.

(v) "Current year" means a period of twelve calendar months beginning on or after the effective date of regulation. The most recent calendar or fiscal year used by the landlord or the twelve calendar months immediately prior to the filing of the petition for adjustment may be used.

This section 5 (a) (12) shall not apply to maximum rents established under section 4 (f) where the accommodations are first rented after the maximum rent date or to maximum rents established under section 4 (c), (d), (e), or (j).

[Subparagraph 12 added by Am. 32, 9 F.R. 10188, effective 9-1-44]

(13) Rented to an employee of landlord. The housing accommodations were rented to an employee of the landlord both on the date determining the maximum rent and at the time the order under this paragraph (a) (13) is issued, and after the date determining the maximum rent but prior to the effective date of regulation the landlord and tenant agreed, as the result of a continuous process of bargaining on interrelated matters, upon a wage increase and a rent increase, and the wage increase agreed upon has been put into effect.

[Subparagraph 13 added by Am. 34, effective 9-13-44]

(b) Decreases in minimum services, furniture, furnishings and equipment— (1) Decreases prior to effective date. If, on the effective date of regulation, the services provided for housing accommodations are less than the minimum services required by section 3, the landlord shall either restore and maintain such minimum services or, within 30 days (or, for housing accommodations within the Los Angeles Defense-Rental Area, within 60 days) after such effective date, file a petition requesting approval of the decreased services. If, on such effective date (or on December 1, 1942 where the effective date of regulation is prior to that date), the furniture, furnishings or equipment provided with housing accommodations are less than the minimum required by section 3, the landlord shall, within 30 days after such date, file a written report showing the decrease in furniture, furnishings or equipment.

(2) Decreases after effective date. Except as above provided, the landlord shall, until the accommodations become vacant, maintain the minimum services, furniture, furnishings, and equipment unless and until he has filed a petition to decrease the services, furniture, furnishings, or equipment and an order permitting a decrease has been entered thereon; however, if it is impossible to provide the minimum services, furniture, furnishings, or equipment he shall file a petition within 10 days after the change occurs. When the accommodations become vacant the landlord may, on renting to a new tenant, decrease the services, furniture, furnishings, or equipment below the minimum; within 10 days after so renting the landlord shall file a written report showing such decrease.

(3) Adjustment in maximum rent for decreases. The order on any petition under this paragraph may require an appropriate adjustment in the maximum rent; and any maximum rent for which a report is required by this paragraph may be decreased in accordance with the provisions of section 5(c)(3). If the landlord fails to file the petition or report required by this paragraph within the time specified, or decreases the services, furniture, furnishings, or equipment without an order authorizing such decrease where such order is required, the rent received by the landlord for any rental period commencing on or after such decrease or the effective date of regulation (or December 1, 1942 where the effective date of regulation is prior to that date), whichever is the later, shall be received subject to refund to the tenant of any amount in excess of the maximum rent which may later be fixed by any order decreasing the maximum rent on account of such decrease in services, furniture, furnishings, or equipment. In such case, any order decreasing the maximum rent shall be effective to decrease such rent from the beginning of the first rental period after the decrease in services, furniture, furnishings, or equipment or after the effective date of regulation (or after December 1, 1942 where the effective date of regulation is prior to that date), whichever is the later. The foregoing provisions and any refund thereunder do not affect any civil or criminal liability provided by the Act for failure to comply with any requirement of this paragraph.

(c) Grounds for decrease of maximum rent. The Administrator at any time, on his own initiative or on application of the tenant, may order a decrease of the maximum rent otherwise allowable only on the grounds that:

(1) Rent higher than rents generally prevailing. The maximum rent for housing accommodations under paragraph (c), (d), (e), (g), or (j) of section 4 is higher than the rent generally prevailing in the Defense-Rental Area for comparable housing accommodations on the maximum rent date.

[Subparagraph (1) amended by Am. 2, 8 F.R. 9020, effective 7-1-43]

(2) Substantial deterioration. There has been a substantial deterioration of the housing accommodations other than ordinary wear and tear since the date or order determining its maximum rent.

(3) Decrease in services, furniture, furnishings or equipment. There has been a decrease in the minimum services, furniture, furnishings or equipment required by section 3 since the date or order determining the maximum rent.

(4) Special relationship between landlord and tenant or peculiar circumstances. The rent on the date determining the maximum rent was materially affected by the blood, personal, or other special relationship between the landlord and the tenant, or by peculiar circumstances, and as a result was substantially higher than the rent generally prevailing in the defense-rental area for comparable housing accommodations on the maximum rent date.

[Subparagraph (4) amended by Am. 29, 9 F.R. 8054, effective 7-17-44]

(5) Varying rents. The rent on the date determining the maximum rent was established by a lease or other rental agreement which provided for a substantially lower rent at other periods during the term of such lease or agreement.

(6) Seasonal rent. The rent on the date determining the maximum rent was substantially higher than at other times of year by reason of seasonal demand, or seasonal variations in the rent, for such housing accommodations. In such cases the Administrator's order may if he deems it advisable provide for different maximum rents for different periods of the calendar year.

(7) Substantial decrease in occupancy. There has been a substantial decrease in the number of subtenants or other occupants since an order under paragraph (a) (8) or (c) (8) of this section.

(8) Rent established under section 4 (f). The maximum rent is established under section 4 (f) and is higher than the rent generally prevailing in the defense-rental area for comparable housing accommodations on the maximum rent date, taking into consideration any increased occupancy of such accommodations since that date by subtenants or other persons occupying under a rental agreement with the tenant: Provided, That no decrease shall be ordered below the rent on the maximum rent date.

(9) Modification or elimination of necessity for increase under section 5 (a) (12). There has been a modification or elimination of the necessity for the increase in the maximum rent granted under paragraph (a) (12) of this section, since the order issued under that paragraph.

[Subparagraph (9) added by Am. 32, 9 F.R. 10188, effective 9-1-44]

(d) Orders where facts are in dispute, in doubt, or not known. If the rent on the date determining the maximum rent, or any other fact necessary to the determination of the maximum rent, is in dispute between the landlord and the tenant, or is in doubt, or is not known, the Administrator on petition of the landlord filed within 30 days after the effective date of regulation, or at any time on his own initiative, may enter an order fixing the maximum rent by determining such fact; or if the Administrator is unable to ascertain such fact he shall enter the order on the basis of the rent which he finds was generally prevailing in the defense-rental area for comparable housing accommodations on the maximum rent date.

(e) Sale of underlying lease or other rental agreement. Where housing accommodations or a predominant part thereof are occupied by one or more subtenants or other persons occupying under a rental agreement with the tenant, the tenant may petition the Administrator for leave to exercise any right he would have except for this regulation to sell his underlying lease or other rental agreement. The Administrator may grant such petition if he finds that the sale will not result, and that sales of such character would not be likely to result, in the circumvention or evasion of the Act or this regulation. He may require that the sale be made on such terms as he deems necessary to prevent such circumvention or evasion.

(f) Interim orders. Where a petition is filed by a landlord on one of the grounds set out in paragraph (a) or (d) of this section, or a proceeding is initiated by the Administrator under paragraph (d), the Administrator may enter an interim order increasing or fixing the maximum rent until further order, subject to refund by the landlord to the tenant of any amount received in excess of the maximum rent established by final order in such proceeding. The receipt by the landlord of any rent authorized by such interim order shall constitute an agreement by the landlord with the tenant to refund to the tenant any amount received in excess of the maximum rent established by final order. The landlord shall make such refund either by repayment in cash or, where the tenant remains in occupancy after the effective date of the final order, by deduction from the next installment of rent, or both.

[Paragraph (f) amended by Am. 12, 8 F.R. 16032, effective 11-28-43]

(g) Adjustments in case of options to buy. No adjustment in the maximum rent shall be ordered on the ground that the landlord, since the date or order determining the maximum rent, has, as a part of or in connection with a lease of housing accommodations, granted the tenant an option to buy the accommodations which are the subject of the lease. Where a lease of housing accommodations was in force on the date determining the maximum rent, and the landlord had on that date, as a part of or in connection with such lease, granted the tenant an option to buy the accommodations which are the subject of the lease, the Administrator may, on or after the termination of such lease, on his own initiative or on application of the tenant, enter an order fixing the maximum rent on the basis of the rents which the Administrator finds were generally prevailing in the defense-rental area for comparable housing accommodations not subject to an option to buy on the maximum rent date.

SEC. 6. Removal of tenant—(a) Restrictions on removal of tenant. So long as the tenant continues to pay the rent to which the landlord is entitled, no tenant shall be removed from any housing accommodations, by action to evict or to recover possession, by exclusion from possession, or otherwise, nor shall any person attempt such removal or exclusion from possession, notwithstanding that such tenant has no lease or that his lease or other rental agreement has expired or otherwise terminated, and regardless of any contract, lease, agreement or obligation heretofore or hereafter entered into which provides for entry of judgment upon the tenant's confession for breach of the covenants thereof or which otherwise provides contrary hereto, unless:

(1) Tenant's refusal to renew lease. The tenant, who had a written lease or other written rental agreement, has refused upon demand of the landlord to execute a written extension or renewal thereof for a further term of like duration but not in excess of one year but otherwise on the same terms and conditions as the previous lease or agreement, except insofar as such terms and conditions are inconsistent with this regulation; or

(2) Tenant's refusal of access to landlord. The tenant has unreasonably refused the landlord access to the housing accommodations for the purpose of inspection or of showing the accommodations to a prospective purchaser, mortgagee, or prospective mortgagee, or other person having a legitimate interest therein: Provided, however, That such refusal shall not be ground for removal or eviction if such inspection or showing of the accommodations is contrary to the provisions of the tenant's lease or other rental agreement; or

(3) Violating obligation of tenancy or committing nuisance. The tenant (i) has violated a substantial obligation of his tenancy, other than an obligation to pay rent, and has continued, or failed to cure, such violation after written notice by the landlord that the violation cease, or (ii) is committing or permitting a nuisance or is using or permitting a use of the housing accommodations for an immoral or illegal purpose; or

(4) Subtenants on expiration of tenant's lease. The tenant's lease or other rental agreement has expired or otherwise terminated, and at the time of termination the occupants of the housing accommodations are subtenants or other persons who occupied under a rental agreement with the tenant, and no part of the accommodations is used by the tenant as his own dwelling; or

(5) Demolition or alteration by landlord. The landlord seeks in good faith to recover possession for the immediate purpose of demolishing the housing accommodations or of substantially altering or remodeling it in a manner which cannot practicably be done with the tenant in occupancy and the plans for such alteration or remodeling have been approved by the proper authorities, if such approval is required by local law; or

(6) Occupancy by landlord. The landlord owned, or acquired an enforceable right to buy or the right to possession of, the housing accommodations prior to the effective date of regulation (or prior to October 20, 1942 where the effective date of regulation is prior to that date, or prior to November 6, 1942 for housing accommodations within the Hastings Defense-Rental Area), and seeks in good faith to recover possession of such accommodations for immediate use and occupancy as a dwelling for himself. If a tenant has been removed or evicted under this paragraph (a) (6) from housing accommodations, the landlord shall file a written report on a form provided therefor before renting the accommodations or any part thereof during a period of six months after such removal or eviction.

(b) Administrator's certificate—(1) Removals not inconsistent with act or regulation. No tenant shall be removed or evicted on grounds other than those stated above unless, on petition of the landlord, the Administrator certifies that the landlord may pursue his remedies in accordance with the requirements of the local law. The Administrator shall so certify if the landlord establishes that removals or evictions of the character proposed are not inconsistent with the purposes of the Act or this regulation and would not be likely to result in the circumvention or evasion thereof.

(2) Occupancy by purchaser. A certificate shall be issued authorizing the pursuit of local remedies to remove or evict a tenant of the vendor, for occupancy by a purchaser who has acquired his rights in the housing accommodations on or after the effective date of regulation (or on or after October 20, 1942 where the effective date of regulation is prior to that date, or on or after November 6, 1942 for housing accommodations within the Hastings Defense-Rental Area), only as provided in this paragraph (b) (2).

(i) Where the Administrator finds that the payment or payments of principal made by the purchaser aggregate twenty per cent or more of the purchase price, he shall, on petition of either the vendor or purchaser, issue a certificate authorizing the vendor or purchaser to pursue his remedies for removal or eviction of the tenant in accordance with the requirements of the local law. Except as hereinafter provided, the certificate shall authorize pursuit of local remedies at the expiration of three months after the date of filing of the petition.

The payment or payments of principal may be made by the purchaser conditionally or in escrow to the end that they shall be returned to the purchaser in the event the Administrator denies a petition for a certificate.

Any payments of principal made from funds borrowed for the purpose of making such payments shall be excluded in determining whether twenty per cent of the purchase price has been paid, unless the Administrator finds that the loan is made in good faith and not for the purpose of circumventing or evading the provisions of this paragraph (b) (2).

Where property other than the housing accommodations which are the subject of the purchase is mortgaged or pledged to the vendor to secure any unpaid balance of the purchase price, the payment requirement shall be deemed satisfied if the value of such security, plus any payments of principal made from funds not borrowed for the purpose of making such principal payments, equal twenty per cent or more of the purchase price.

(ii) Where the Administrator finds (a) that equivalent accommodations are available for rent into which the tenant can move without substantial hardship or loss, or (b) that the vendor has or had a substantial necessity requiring the sale and that a reasonable sale or disposition of the accommodations could not be made without the removal or eviction of the tenant, or (c) that other special hardship would result, a certificate may be issued although less than twenty per cent of the purchase price has been paid and may authorize the vendor or purchaser to pursue his remedies for removal or eviction of the tenant at a time less than three months after the date of filing of the petition.

(c) Exceptions from section 6—(1) Subtenants. The provisions of this section do not apply to a subtenant or other person who occupied under a rental agreement with the tenant, where removal or eviction of the subtenant or other such occupant is sought by the landlord of the tenant, unless under the local law there is a tenancy relationship between the landlord and the subtenant or other such occupant.

(2) Housing subject to rent schedule of War or Navy Department. The provisions of this section shall not apply to housing accommodations rented to either Army or Navy personnel, including civilian employees of the War and Navy Departments, for which the rent is fixed by the national rent schedule of the War or Navy Department.

(3) One or two occupants in landlord's residence. The provisions of this section shall not apply to an occupant of a furnished room or rooms not constituting an apartment, located within the residence occupied by the landlord or his immediate family, where such landlord rents to not more than two occupants within such residence.

[Subparagraph (4) added by Am. 3, 8 F.R. 10018, effective 8-1-43]

(d) Notices required—(1) Notices prior to action to remove tenant. Every notice to a tenant to vacate or surrender possession of housing accommodations shall state the ground under this section upon which the landlord relies for removal or eviction of the tenant. A written copy of such notice shall be given to the area rent office within 24 hours after the notice is given to the tenant.

No tenant shall be removed or evicted from housing accommodations by court process or otherwise, unless at least ten days (or, where the ground for removal or eviction is non-payment of rent, the period required by the local law for notice prior to the commencement of an action for removal or eviction in such cases, but in no event less than three days) prior to the time specified for surrender of possession and to the commencement of any action for removal or eviction, the landlord has given written notices of the proposed removal or eviction to the tenant and to the area rent office, stating the ground under this section upon which such removal or eviction is sought and specifying the time when the tenant is required to surrender possession: Provided, however, That the requirement of this sentence shall not apply to housing accommodations within the City of Baltimore, Maryland, the Northeastern New Jersey Defense-Rental Area, or the Trenton Defense-Rental Area, when the ground for the removal or eviction of a tenant is non-payment of rent.

Where the ground for removal or eviction of a tenant is non-payment of rent, every notice under this paragraph (d) (1) shall state the rent for the housing accommodations, the amount of rent due and the rental period or periods for which such rent is due. The provisions of this paragraph (d) (1) shall not apply where a certificate has been issued by the Administrator pursuant to the provisions of paragraph (b) of this section.

(2) Notices at time of commencing action to remove tenant. At the time of commencing any action to remove or evict a tenant, including an action based upon non-payment of rent, the landlord shall give written notice thereof to the area rent office stating the title of the case, the number of the case where that is possible, the court in which it is filed, the name and address of the tenant, and the ground under this section on which removal or eviction is sought.

(e) Local law. No provision of this section shall be construed to authorize the removal of a tenant unless such removal is authorized under the local law.

SEC. 7. Registration—(a) Registration statement. On or before the date specified in Schedule A of this regulation, or within 30 days after the property is first rented, whichever date is the later, every landlord of housing accommodations rented or offered for rent shall file in triplicate a written statement on the form provided therefor to be known as a registration statement. In any subsequent change of tenancy the landlord shall exhibit to the new tenant his stamped copy of the registration statement, and shall obtain the tenant's signature and the date thereof, on the back of such statement. Within five days after renting to a new tenant, the landlord shall file a notice on the form provided therefor, on which he shall obtain the tenant's signature, stating that there has been a change in tenancy, that the stamped copy of the registration statement has been exhibited to the new tenant and that the rent for such accommodations is in conformity therewith.

When the maximum rent is changed by order of the Administrator, the landlord shall deliver his stamped copy of the registration statement to the area rent office for appropriate action reflecting such change.

(b) Receipt for amount paid. No payment of rent need be made unless the landlord tenders a receipt for the amount to be paid.

(c) Exceptions from registration requirements—(1) Housing under section 4 (g). The provisions of this section shall not apply to housing accommodations under section 4 (g). The owner of such housing accommodations shall file a schedule or schedules, setting out the maximum rents for all such accommodations in the Defense-Rental Area and containing such other information as the Administrator shall require. A copy of such schedule or schedules shall be posted by the owner in a place where it will be available for inspection by the tenants of such housing accommodations.

(3) Housing in Cincinnati Defense-Rental Area. The provisions of this section shall not apply to housing accommodations in the Cincinnati Defense-Rental Area so long as the maximum rent for such accommodations is established solely under paragraph (a) or (b) of section 4: Provided, however, That no payment of rent need be made by any tenant of such accommodations unless the landlord tenders a receipt for the amount to be paid.

(d) Housing in Puerto Rico Defense-Rental Area. The provisions of this section 7 (d) shall be substituted for the provisions of section 7 (a) for housing accommodations in the Puerto Rico Defense-Rental Area.

The landlord shall prepare the notice in duplicate and shall send one copy to the tenant and one copy to the area rent office.

(2) Registration statement. The landlord shall prepare the form known as "Registration Statement" if the maximum rent for the dwelling unit is determined under any paragraph of section 4 other than paragraph (a), (g), or (h). The landlord shall prepare the Registration Statement in triplicate and shall send the three copies to the area rent office. The Administrator shall retain one copy on file, and he shall cause one copy to be delivered to the tenant and one copy, stamped to indicate that it is a correct copy of the original, to be returned to the landlord.

In all other cases except those under paragraphs (a) (7), (a) (12), (a) (13), (c) (6), (c) (8), and (c) (9) of this section, the adjustment shall be on the basis of the rent which the Administrator finds was generally prevailing in the defense-rental area for comparable housing accommodations on March 1, 1943.

In cases under paragraph (a) (13) of this section the adjustment shall be in the amount of the difference between the rent on the date determining the maximum rent and the rent agreed upon by the landlord and tenant as a result of a continuous process of bargaining on interrelated matters.

2. Section 5 (a) (2) is amended to read as follows:

(2) Change prior to March 1, 1943. There was, on or prior to March 1, 1943, a substantial change in the housing accommodations by a major capital improvement as distinguished from ordinary repair, replacement and maintenance or a substantial increase in the services, furniture, furnishings or equipment, and the rent on March 1, 1943 was fixed by a lease or other rental agreement which was in force at the time of such change or increase.

3. Section 5 (a) (13) is added to read as follows:

(13) Rented to an employee of landlord. The housing accommodations were rented to an employee of the landlord both on the date determining the maximum rent and at the time the order under this paragraph (a) (13) is issued, and after the date determining the maximum rent but prior to the effective date of regulation the landlord and tenant agreed, as the result of a continuous process of bargaining on interrelated matters, upon a wage increase and a rent increase, and the wage increase agreed upon has been put into effect.

This amendment shall become effective September 13, 1944.

NOTE: All reporting and record-keeping requirements of this amendment have been approved by the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

Issued this 12th day of September 1944.

Administrator.

AUTHORITY: Sections 1 to 15 inclusive (§ 1389.551) issued under 56 Stat. 23, 765; 57 Stat. 566; Pub. Law 383, 78th Cong.; E.O. 9250, 7 F.R. 7871; E.O. 9328, 8 F.R. 4681.

SECTION 1. Scope of this regulation—(a) What garments are covered by this regulation. A list of the women's, girls', children's and toddlers' outerwear garments which must be priced under this regulation is given in Appendix A at the end of the regulation. Only the garments described in that list are covered by this regulation. Hereafter the women's, girls', children's and toddlers' outerwear garments covered by this regulation are referred to as "garments."

(b) What kinds of sales are covered. This regulation applies to sales by retailers and wholesalers. It does not apply to sales by manufacturers, manufacturing-retailers, custom-tailors or dressmakers, as these terms are defined in section 15.

(1) "Retailer" means a person who sells to an ultimate consumer (other than an industrial or commercial user) a garment which he purchased in substantially the same form as that in which he sells it.

(2) "Wholesaler" means a person who sells to an industrial or commercial user or to a person other than an ultimate consumer, a garment which he purchased in substantially the same form as that in which he sells it.

(3) "Seller" means a person who sells any of those types of women's, girls', children's and toddlers' garments covered by this regulation. Where a seller makes sales through more than one selling unit (other than salesmen making sales at uniform prices and chains operating under orders of authorization for uniform pricing) each separate selling establishment of the seller shall be deemed to be a separate seller. Each separate department in a selling establishment constitutes a separate seller. Each separate seller in a chain, if it does not operate under an order of authorization for uniform pricing, must continue to determine its ceiling prices on the basis of its own experience during the base periods.

(c) Where this regulation applies. This regulation shall be applicable to the continental United States and the District of Columbia, but not to the territories and possessions of the United States.

SEC. 2. How to find your ceiling prices under this regulation—(a) Explanation of rules. You find your ceiling price under this regulation by calculating the markup which you took on garments you delivered during the "base period", and then applying that markup to the cost of the garments you are pricing. You find what the "base period" markup is by using one of the pricing rules which are given in section 4.

(b) What is a "category." The garments covered by this regulation are listed in Appendix A. Each kind of garment (such as dresses, coats, suits, skirts) is broken down into certain size groups. Each size group is described as a "category" and given a category number.

For example, all "women's" coats in sizes 32 and up are placed in Category 1; all "misses'" and "junior misses'" coats in sizes from 7 to 20, inclusive, are in Category 2; all "teen age" coats in sizes from 10 to 16, inclusive, are in Category 3; "women's" jackets sizes 32 and up are in Category 11; "girls'" dresses in sizes from 7 to 14, inclusive, are in Category 24, etc.

(c) What is the "base period." The base period is very important because you must figure your mark-up from your deliveries of garments during that period.

(1) For sales of toddlers' garments, or blouses under size 30, or slacks and slack suits. (i) The "base period" for all garments in categories 5a, 10a, 15a, 20a, 25a, 26a, 26b, and 32–39 is the period between August 1 and December 31, 1942 for retailers and the period between July 1 and October 31, 1942 for wholesalers.

(ii) For retailers who made their first delivery of garments in categories 5a, 10a, 15a, 20a, 25a, 26a, 26b, or 32–39 after October 1, 1942 (September 1, 1942 for wholesalers) but before May 18, 1944 the "base period" is the first four months immediately following the first delivery of garments.

(2) For sales of garments in all other categories. (i) The "base period" for retailers is the period between August 1 and December 31, 1941; for wholesalers, it is the period between July 1 and October 31, 1941.

(ii) For retailers who made their first delivery of garments in these categories after October 1, 1941 but before May 18, 1944, and for wholesalers who made their first delivery of garments after September 1, 1941, but before May 18, 1944 the "base period" is the first four months immediately following the first delivery of garments.

SEC. 3. Pricing charts. In order to price under this regulation you must have a pricing chart. If you price under section 5 your order of authorization will set forth your pricing chart, and you do not need to file a chart. On or before October 15, 1944, every seller subject to this regulation (except sellers who apply under section 5 and sellers who are members of chains which have received orders authorizing uniform pricing from the OPA), must file two signed copies of a pricing chart with the Office of Price Administration at the district office having jurisdiction over the area in which the seller is located. You must keep a copy of the pricing chart for your own use. On and after November 15, 1944, you may not sell or deliver any garments subject to this regulation unless you have received an acknowledgment from the OPA of the filing of your pricing chart as required by this section.

(a) How to prepare a pricing chart. Each pricing chart must contain the following:

(1) The seller's name and address.

(2) Type of seller (wholesaler-with stock, without stock, etc.; retailer-basement department, chain outlet, specialty shop, etc.).

(3) If your first delivery of any category covered by this regulation was after October 1, 1941 (September 1, 1941 for wholesalers), then list the date of such first delivery.

(4) A list of the categories you delivered during your base period.

(5) A list of the cost prices at which you purchased garments in each of these categories. You must indicate whether this is a unit or dozen price. If you intend to use the exception provided in Rule 1 (section 4 (b) (1)) for any cost prices, such cost prices on your pricing chart should be preceded by the symbol "S".

(6) The discount, terms or allowance at which you purchased the largest number of garments at each cost price listed in (5). (Wholesalers must also include the discounts, terms and allowances on which they customarily sold.)

(7) The selling price at which you delivered, during the base period, the largest number of garments of each cost price listed in (5).[1] If during the base period you delivered an equal number of garments at two or more different selling prices, list the lowest of these selling prices. (Wholesalers must indicate whether this is a unit or dozen price.)

For example: During the base period you delivered a total of 250 women's dresses (Category 21) which you bought at a $6.75 cost price. Of these 250 dresses, your selling price was $9.95 for 50 of the dresses, $10.95 for 125 of them, and $11.95 for 75 of them. You list $10.95 on your pricing chart as the price at which you delivered during the base period the largest number of women's dresses costing $6.75. If you had delivered 125 of these dresses at $9.95 and 125 at $10.95, you would list $9.95 as the selling price at which you delivered the largest number of women's $6.75 dresses.

[1] The selling price authorized for a particular cost price in any category by an order granting an adjustment under MPR 153, as amended, shall be deemed to be the selling price at which the seller during the base period delivered the largest number of garments of that category having the same cost price.

(8) The percentage markup taken on each selling price listed in 7.*

An example of a pricing chart and detailed instructions for its preparation are found in Appendix B.

Selling price lines and percentage markups of sellers who made their first deliveries after June 15, 1942 may be revised at any time by the OPA if they were improperly established or are based on an improper selection of competitors.

NOTE: Throughout this regulation, reference is made to categories, prices and markups listed on the seller's pricing chart. The expression "pricing chart" is intended to refer to a pricing chart correctly prepared in accordance with the instructions contained in paragraph (a) of this section. If a seller's pricing chart is improper or inaccurate, his maximum prices under section 4 of this regulation shall be prices calculated on the basis of a correct pricing chart.

(b) How to amend a pricing chart. If you have filed your pricing chart, and then find that it was incorrect, you may file with the district office where you filed your original chart two signed copies of an amended pricing chart setting forth the inaccuracies and the reasons therefor. However, until you have received an acknowledgment from the OPA of the receipt of this amended pricing chart, you must not take a higher percentage markup than that previously reported, or permitted under this regulation, whichever is lower.

SEC. 4. Pricing rules—(a) Summary of pricing rules. In order to find your ceiling price for a garment, you use whichever of the four following pricing rules is applicable. You will note that your ceiling price generally depends upon the relationship between your present cost and one of the cost prices listed in your pricing chart. If your present cost is based on different terms or on a different discount from those listed for the cost prices in your pricing chart, you must adjust your present cost accordingly.

For example: Your present cost is $19.75 less 5% EOM. In order to determine which pricing rule to use, you look at your pricing chart to find which cost prices listed there, if adjusted to a net basis, would be closest or equal to the actual net cost of your $19.75 less 5% EOM. You find cost prices of $19.75 less 5% EOM and $18.75 less 1/10 EOM listed on your pricing chart. To compare your present cost with those listed on your chart, you adjust all three cost prices to a net basis. Thus the $19.75 less 5% EOM which you now purchase is adjusted to $18.17 ($19.75 x 92% = $18.17); your $19.75 less 5% EOM is adjusted to $19.16 ($19.75 x 97% = $19.16); and your $18.75 less 1/10 EOM is adjusted to $18.56 ($18.75 x 99% = $18.56).

In calculating your maximum price for this $19.75 less 5% EOM line under any of the pricing rules you must adjust that cost to reflect the terms or discount listed on your pricing chart for the cost price to which you are comparing it. (For an illustration of this requirement, see the example under Rule 2 (iv).

(1) Rules 1 and 2. You first look at your pricing chart to find whether the category of garment which you are pricing is listed on the chart. If it is, you find your ceiling price by using Rule 1 or 2.

(2) Rule 3. If the category is not listed on your pricing chart you use Rule 3.

(3) Rule 4. If you are making a "cross-stream" or "up-stream" sale you use Rule 4.

(b) Pricing rules for garments of a category listed on the seller's pricing chart. To find your ceiling price for a garment of a category listed on your pricing chart, you compare the cost prices listed on the chart for the same category with the cost of the garment now being priced and then use whichever of the next two rules applies. However, for "cross-stream" and "up-stream" sales, see paragraph (d) of this section.

(1) Rule 1. Garments purchased at a cost price listed on the seller's pricing chart. The ceiling price for a garment which has a cost to you the same as a cost price listed for that category on your pricing chart is the selling price listed for that cost price on your chart.

However, there is an exception permitting you to price garments of the same cost as garments of the same category listed on your pricing chart under Rule 2 (ii) rather than Rule 1 if both of the following conditions are met:

(i) If this cost is lower than the cost price of any garment in the same category which was both delivered to you and offered by you for sale during the base period; and

(ii) If the selling price listed on your pricing chart for that category and cost price is substantially lower than your initial offering prices of the same styles of garments in Spring 1941 (Spring 1942 for categories 5a, 10a, 15a, 20a, 25a, 26a, 26b and 32–39).

NOTE: This exception is meant to apply to sellers who held over garments delivered to them in the Spring of 1941, and sold them at reduced prices during the base period, although they normally did not carry garments of such low price lines in the Fall. The seller must be able to show that he originally offered certain garments of a particular cost price at higher prices in Spring 1941 than the prices at which he delivered them during the base period, and that he did not offer for sale during the base period any garments of that cost price which were delivered to him during the base period.

For example: You want to find your ceiling price for girls' suits (Category 9) which you now purchase at $8.75. You delivered 130 girls' suits of that cost price in a particular style at $5.98 in Spring 1941, and 70 of the same style at $4.50 during the base period. These were the only $8.75 suits you delivered during the base period. Moreover, you did not offer for sale during the base period any girls' suits delivered to you during the base period at a cost of $8.75 or less. You need not price the $8.75 girls' suits which you now purchase, at $4.50 by using this Rule, but you may price them under Rule 2 (ii).

(2) Rule 2. Garments purchased at a cost not listed on the seller's pricing chart—(i) Garments purchased at a cost higher than any listed on the seller's pricing chart. The ceiling price for a garment whose cost is greater than the highest cost price listed for the same category on your pricing chart is calculated by applying to the cost of the garment you are pricing the "average percentage markup" for that category. The "average percentage markup" is found by adding together all the cost prices listed for a category, adding together all the selling prices listed for that category, and then dividing the difference between these totals by the total of the selling prices.

For example: The retailer whose pricing chart is shown in Appendix B (a) (1) wishes to find his ceiling price for a woman's dress (Category 21) which he purchased for $12.75. Since the highest cost price listed for women's dresses on his pricing chart is $10.75, he must price under Rule 2 (1). To find his average percentage markup for women's dresses he first adds together the cost prices listed for women's dresses ($5.75+$4.75+$5.50+$6.75+$6.75+$9.75+$10.75=$50.00); then he adds together the selling prices listed for those cost prices ($5.98+$7.95+$8.95+$10.95+$13.95+$14.95+$16.95=$79.68); next he subtracts the total of the cost prices from the total of the selling prices ($79.68−$50.00=$29.68); finally, he divides the remainder just obtained by the total of the selling prices ($29.68÷$79.68=37.2%). His average percentage markup is therefore 37.2%, and he finds that his ceiling price for his $12.75 cost dress is $20.30 by subtracting 37.2% from 100% (100%−37.2%=62.8%) and dividing the cost by the remainder ($12.75÷62.8%=$20.30). Note that this retailer will use the same average percentage markup of 37.2% in pricing all women's dresses costing more than $10.75.

(ii) Garments purchased at cost prices lower than any listed on the seller's pricing chart. Your ceiling price for a garment whose cost is less than the lowest cost price listed on your pricing chart for the same category is calculated by applying to the cost of the garment you are pricing, the percentage markup listed on your pricing chart for the lowest cost price in that category. This is done by subtracting the percentage markup from 100%, and dividing the cost of the garment you are pricing by the difference. The result is your ceiling price. If you can use the exception provided in Rule 1, you will have marked an (S) preceding one or more of the lowest cost prices on your pricing chart. In using this rule you disregard cost prices preceded by (S).

For example: You have some women's dresses (Category 21) that you bought for $2.75. During the base period you did not deliver any women's dresses costing less than $8.75. Your pricing chart shows you that the selling price at which you delivered the largest number of $8.75 dresses is $5.98. It also shows you that your percentage markup was 37.3%. By applying this same markup in pricing your $2.75 dresses, you find that your ceiling price is $4.39 ($2.75÷62.7%=$4.39).

However, if you find that your $3.75 cost price for women's dresses is marked with an (S) you disregard the percentage markup listed for that cost price and find your ceiling price for your $2.75 dresses by applying the percentage markup listed on your pricing chart for the lowest cost price line of women's dresses not preceded by (S).

(iii) All other garments purchased at cost prices not listed on the seller's pricing chart. Your ceiling price for a garment whose cost is between the lowest and the highest cost price listed on your pricing chart for the same category, but is not the same as any cost price listed on the chart for that category, is calculated by applying to the cost of the garment you are pricing, the percentage markup listed on your pricing chart for the next lower cost price in that category. This is done by subtracting the percentage markup from 100%, and dividing the cost of the garment you are pricing by the difference. The result is your ceiling price.

For example: You want to find your ceiling price for women's dresses (Category 21) that you now buy at $7.35. On your pricing chart you have listed women's dresses at cost prices of $6.75 and $8.75, but none at $7.75. To calculate your ceiling price you take the percentage markup listed on your chart for women's dresses costing $6.75. This is 38.4%. You apply this markup to your cost of $7.75 and find that your ceiling price is $12.58 (100% − 38.4% = 61.6%; $7.75 ÷ 61.6% = $12.58).

(iv) Adjustment of cost prices to reflect different terms or discounts. Where you find that a garment which you now purchase has a different cost price from any garment of the same category listed on your pricing chart, and that you bought such garment on terms different from those listed for the next lower cost price on your pricing chart, you must adjust the cost of the garment you are now pricing to reflect the terms listed on your pricing chart for the next lower cost price, and then, using the adjusted cost, take the percentage markup of the next lower cost price.

$18.75 1/10 EOM
22.75 8/10 EOM

He now wishes to price a woman's coat (Category 1) purchased at $19.75 less 3/10 EOM. This is clearly not the same cost as the $19.75 less 6/10 EOM listed on his pricing chart. He adjusts both of his $19.75 cost prices and his $18.75 less 1/10 EOM to reflect net terms. The $19.75 less 6/10 EOM listed on his pricing chart had a net cost of $18.17 ($19.75 x 92% = $18.17); the $19.75 less 3/10 EOM which he now purchases has a net cost of $19.16 ($19.75 x 97% = $19.16); the $18.75 less 1/10 EOM had a net cost of $18.56 ($18.75 x 99% = $18.56). Therefore, in pricing his woman's coat purchased at $19.75 less 3/10 EOM under Rule 2 (iii) the seller uses the percentage mark-up on his next lower cost price. This is his $18.75 less 1/10 EOM. Since this cost price was purchased at 1/10 EOM, he adjusts his $19.75 less 3/10 EOM to reflect a discount of 1/10 EOM and now shows a cost price of $19.35 less 1/10 EOM ($19.75 x 97% = $19.16 ÷ 99% = $19.35). Applying the percentage mark-up listed for $18.75 cost price (37.4%) to the woman's coat with an adjusted cost of $19.35, he finds that $30.91 is his ceiling price for women's coats purchased at $19.75 less 3/10 EOM ($19.35 ÷ 62.6% = $30.91).

(v) Special provision for certain mail order catalogue establishments. Those mail order catalogue establishments making sales on the basis of orders received by mail, the printing of whose Fall 1944 catalogues was completed or substantially completed (i. e. printing plates had been made) prior to August 31, 1944, may at their option continue to price garments ordered from such Fall 1944 catalogues under Rule 2 of MPR 330, but they must price under subparagraph (2) (i) of this section all garments of appropriate selling price lines ordered from any subsequent catalogue.

(c) Pricing rules for garments of a category not listed on the seller's pricing chart. To find your ceiling price for a garment in a category not listed on your pricing chart, you compare the cost of the garment you are pricing with the cost prices listed for other categories on your pricing chart.

(1) Rule 3. Your ceiling price for a garment in a category not listed on your pricing chart is calculated by applying Rules 1 and 2 above as if all the cost and selling price lines and percentage markups listed on your entire pricing chart were price lines and markups for the category of garment you are pricing. That is, where you have listed for some other category a cost price which is the same as that of the garment you are pricing, you use Rule 1; where you have not listed the same cost price for some other category you use Rule 2. However, in using Rule 2 (i) in such case, you use the average percentage markup for all categories, found by totalling all the cost prices for all categories, and all the selling prices for all categories listed on your pricing chart. Note, also, that in using Rule 2 (iii) you use the percentage markup listed for the cost price next lower than the cost of the garment you are pricing, regardless of category, and in using Rule 2 (ii) you use the percentage markup listed on the chart for the lowest cost price in any category.

For example: You want to find the ceiling price for misses' suits (Category 7) which you now buy at $9.25. You did not list any misses' suits on your pricing chart, nor did you list a cost price of $9.25 for any category at all. You did list a cost price of $8.75 for women's dresses (Category 21) which is the next lower cost price listed on your pricing chart for any category. Your pricing chart shows a percentage markup of 37.3% for these $8.75 women's dresses, since the selling price is listed at $13.95. Accordingly, your markup for your $9.25 misses' suits is 37.3%, and your ceiling price is $14.75 (100% − 37.3% = 62.7%; $9.25 ÷ 62.7% = $14.75).

However, in applying this rule you may find that you have listed the same cost price for more than one category, and that the selling prices and percentage markups listed for that cost price are different for the several categories. In any such case, you must, when applying this rule, use the selling price or the percentage markup which gives you the lowest ceiling price.

For example: In the preceding example you might have found, when pricing the misses' suits which you now buy at $9.25, that on your pricing chart you listed a cost price of $8.75 for both women's dresses (Category 21) and women's coats (Category 1), but that you listed a percentage markup of 32% on the coats and a percentage markup of 37.3% on the dresses. Using the 32% markup for your $9.25 misses' suits, you would have a ceiling price of $13.60 ($9.25÷68%=$13.60). If you could use the 37.3% markup, your ceiling price would be $14.75 ($9.25÷62.7%=$14.75). However, you must take the percentage markup which will give you the lowest ceiling price. This is 32%, and your ceiling price for your $9.25 misses' suits is therefore $13.60.

(d) Rule 4. Special provision for "cross-stream" and "up-stream" sales. The maximum price for a "cross-stream" or "up-stream" sale or delivery is the cost of the garment to the seller plus any freight paid by him. The following are "cross-stream" or "up-stream" sales:

(1) Sales by a retailer to another retailer;

(2) Sales by a wholesaler to another wholesaler;

(3) Sales by a retailer to a wholesaler;

(4) Sales by a wholesaler or retailer to a manufacturer or manufacturing-retailer.

SEC. 5. Maximum prices for sellers who made no deliveries of garments prior to May 18, 1944, or who cannot otherwise price—(a) Who must file an application for authorization to establish maximum prices. This section is used when you find that none of the preceding four pricing rules applies to your situation. Except in cases of transfers of business under section 6, if you did not deliver any garments under MPR 330 prior to May 18, 1944, you may not sell or deliver any garments covered by this regulation until you have received authorization from the OPA to establish maximum prices. However, if you made your first delivery of garments subject to MPR 330 between May 18, 1944, and September 18, 1944, you may continue to sell and deliver garments at ceiling prices formerly established under MPR 330 without regard to this RMPR 330 until an order has been issued to you under this section: Provided, That you file your application under this section on or before October 15, 1944.

If you do not file your application on or before October 15, 1944, you may not sell or deliver any garments subject to this regulation until an order has been issued to you under this section.

To prevent increases in the cost of these garments to consumers, ceiling prices will be authorized, in general, at or below the level of prices established under this regulation. In authorizing ceiling prices lower than the level of ceiling prices, the prior experience of the applicant, if any, and the level of ceiling prices in the trading area will be considered. Where the applicant is a department in a selling establishment (this includes leased departments) percentage markups will not be authorized in excess of the prior experience of the selling establishment or its lessees. Except as stated above, percentage markups will be based upon the markups of similar departments in competitive selling establishments. This paragraph applies to all separate sellers as defined in section 1 (b) (3).

* Any percentage markup authorized for a particular cost price and/or category by an order granting an adjustment under MPR 188, as amended, shall be deemed to be the percentage markup taken by the seller on the largest number of garments of that cost price and/or category delivered during the base period.

(b) Filing and contents of application. Three signed copies of an application for authorization to establish maximum prices (an example appears in Appendix C) shall be filed with the Office of Price Administration at the district office having jurisdiction over the area in which you are located, setting forth the following:

(1) Applicant's name and address and the name and address of the proposed seller.

(2) Names of all owners, officers or principals of applicant. (Owners holding less than 5% of the total number of shares of corporate applicants need not be listed.)

(3) Previous business connections of all owners, officers or principals of applicant.

(4) Total number of sellers under this regulation owned or operated by applicant or by any of the applicant's owners, officers or principals.

(5) Category numbers of garments desired to be sold.

(6) Cost prices at which applicant expects to purchase each category number listed in (5).

(7) Selling price lines desired for each cost price line listed in (6).

(8) Percentage markup desired for each cost price line in (6).

(9) Discounts at which applicant intends to purchase and sell garments.

(10) Special services applicant intends to offer: installment selling, charge accounts, other credit terms, or free delivery service.

(11) A list of the names and addresses of three sellers whose method of doing business is most nearly like that by which applicant intends to operate. These sellers must be located in the same trading area as applicant.

(12) If applicant is a leased department, the name and address of the prior lessee. If the department was previously operated by the lessor, the applicant should so state.

If authorization is given, it will be accompanied by instructions as to a method for establishing maximum prices of the garments to be sold. This authorization may be revised or revoked at any time by the OPA.

(c) Reports of changes in ownership. Any seller who has received an order authorizing him to establish prices under this section, must report any change in ownership to the district or regional office of the OPA which granted the order. However, if the seller is a corporation, only transfers of more than 5% of the corporate stock to any individual need be reported. The report should include the names of any new owners or principals and their previous business connections.

SEC. 6. Transfers of business. (a) If a substantial part of the business, assets or stock in trade of any business shall be or shall have been sold or otherwise transferred after April 28, 1942, and the transferee carries on the business, or continues to deal in the same type of commodities or services, in an establishment separate from any other establishment previously owned or operated by him, the maximum prices of the transferee shall be the same as those to which his transferor would have been subject if no such transfer had taken place, except as provided in paragraphs (b) and (c) of this section, and his obligation to keep records sufficient to verify such prices shall be the same. The transferor shall either preserve and make available, or turn over, to the transferee all records of transactions prior to the transfer, which are necessary to enable the transferee to comply with the record, reporting and pricing provisions of this regulation.

(b) No person shall buy, sell, transfer, lease or exchange the business, assets or stock in trade of a business for the purpose of securing higher or more advantageous markups, or for the purpose of securing any other benefit which may be prohibited to him by this regulation.

(c) If after September 18, 1944, two or more sellers merge, consolidate or combine and continue to operate as one seller, the seller who continues to operate shall establish his ceiling prices under this regulation as if he were the seller who had the largest dollar volume of sales during the twelve months immediately preceding the combination, consolidation or merger.

SEC. 7. Records. (a) You must keep a record showing, for each price established under this regulation, (1) the cost of the garment, (2) the selling price, (3) if you did not price under Rule 1, the percentage markup used in establishing the ceiling price, and (4) the pricing rule under which the ceiling was calculated. This record may be of the kind which you customarily kept.

(b) You must preserve the purchase invoices which you receive for all garments subject to this regulation. Upon request of any authorized agent of the OPA you must show to such agent for examination your purchase invoice for any garment covered by this regulation.

(c) You must preserve duplicate copies of all invoices and sales slips delivered by you pursuant to section 8.

(d) You must also preserve the records that you were required to prepare by § 1389.8 of MPR 153, as amended, and by § 1389.557 of MPR 330.

SEC. 8. Invoices and sales slips—(a) Invoices. Every wholesaler, in connection with every sale to a retailer shall deliver an invoice or other similar document showing (1) the date, (2) the name and address of the seller and purchaser, (3) the style number and category of each of the different styles of garment sold, (4) the quantity of each different style of garment sold, (5) the price of each different style of garment sold, and (6) all discounts, allowances and other price differentials.

(b) Sales slips. Every retailer who has customarily given his customers a sales slip, receipt or similar evidence of purchase must continue to do so. Upon request from a customer, a retailer, regardless of previous custom, must give the purchaser a receipt showing (1) the date, (2) the name and address of the seller, (3) the name and description of each garment sold, and (4) the price received for it.

SEC. 9. What acts are prohibited by this regulation. On and after September 18, 1944, regardless of any contract or other obligation, the following practices are forbidden:

(a) Charging more than ceiling prices. Every person is prohibited from selling or delivering any garment at a price higher than the ceiling price permitted by this regulation. A lower price may, of course, be charged.

(b) Buying for more than ceiling price. Every person is prohibited from buying or receiving, in the course of trade or business, any garment sold in violation of any of the provisions of this regulation.

(c) Changing customary terms of sale. Every person is prohibited from changing his customary discounts, allowances or price differentials on sales of garments, if the change results in a higher net price.

(d) Combination sales. Every person is prohibited from requiring any purchaser to buy or agree to buy any other article, service, package or wrapper in connection with the sale or delivery of any garment covered by this regulation. Every person is likewise prohibited from making a sale of garments which is conditioned directly or indirectly on the purchase of any other commodity or service. (Matched sets, however, if designed by the manufacturer for sale at a unit price, and so purchased by the seller, may be sold at a unit price unless such sale is prohibited by any order of the War Production Board.)

(e) Indirect price increases. Every person is prohibited from doing any other act which directly or indirectly increases, above the maximum price, the consideration paid for a garment or delivery of any garment, or, for the purposes of evading the price limitations set forth in this regulation, to purchase, deliver, contract, deal or otherwise operate with or through any other person under common control with, controlled by, controlling or otherwise affiliated with the seller. No person shall do any other act which directly or indirectly increases the consideration paid for any garment. Any practice which is a device to secure the effect of a higher-than-ceiling price is as much a violation as an outright raising of the maximum price. This applies to devices making use of commissions, services, transportation arrangements, premiums, discounts, special privileges, tying agreements, trade understandings and all similar practices.

(f) Indirect violations. Every person is prohibited from agreeing, offering, soliciting, or attempting to do any of the acts prohibited by this regulation.

SEC. 10. Licensing and enforcement—(a) Licensing. The provisions of Licensing Order No. 1,[1] licensing all persons who make sales under price control, are applicable to all sellers subject to this regulation. A seller's license may be suspended for violations of the license or of this regulation. A person whose license is suspended may not, during the period of suspension, make any sale for which his license has been suspended.

(b) Penalties. Any person who violates any provision of this regulation is subject to the criminal penalties, civil enforcement actions, suits for treble damages, and proceedings for suspension of licenses provided by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended.

SEC. 11. Relation to other maximum price regulations—(a) General Maximum Price Regulation.[4] The General Maximum Price Regulation does not apply to sales of garments covered by this regulation, except that the following provisions of the General Maximum Price Regulation are made a part of this regulation and you must observe them:

(1) Sellers operating more than one retail establishment (§ 1499.4a).

(2) Federal and state taxes (§ 1499.7).

(3) Marking and posting of cost-of-living commodities (§ 1499.13) except that paragraph (b) of § 1499.13 (filing of cost-of-living statements) does not apply.

(4) Adjustment of prices of commodities subject to Fair Trade Agreements (§ 1499.18 (d)).

(b) Export sales. This regulation does not apply to export sales of women's, girls', children's or toddlers' garments. Such sales are covered by the Second Revised Maximum Export Regulation.[5]

(c) Import sales. This regulation does not apply to deliveries of garments made from points outside the continental United States. (For pricing of such garments see the Maximum Import Price Regulation.[6]) This regulation does, however, apply to domestic sales of garments originally imported into the United States.

(d) Summer seasonal commodities. Maximum Price Regulation 142, Retail Prices for Summer Seasonal Commodities[7] shall not apply, and this regulation shall apply to sales by retailers of girls' slacks, slack suits and overalls of cotton and rayon.

(e) War procurement agencies. This regulation does not apply to sales of garments made according to military specifications, when the sales are made to any war procurement agency as defined in Maximum Price Regulation 157[8], Sales and Fabrication of Textiles, Apparel and Related Articles for Military Purposes.

SEC. 12. Adjustable pricing agreements. If you wish, you may sell at the maximum price permitted by this regulation subject to an agreement with the buyer to charge a higher price if it becomes the legal maximum price by the time delivery is made. But you must never charge a price which is higher than the maximum price in effect at the time of delivery. Moreover, unless authorized by the OPA, you must not deliver at a price which is to be adjusted upward in accordance with action taken by the OPA after delivery. This authorization will be given only where: (1) A request for a change in the applicable price is pending; (2) authorization is necessary to promote distribution or production; and (3) it will not interfere with the purposes of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended.

SEC. 13. How this regulation may be amended. Any person seeking an amendment of any provision of this regulation may file a petition for amendment of general applicability. Any such petition must be filed in accordance with the provisions of Revised Procedural Regulation No. 1[9] issued by the OPA.

SEC. 14. Delegation of authority. Any Regional Office of the OPA or such other offices as may be authorized by order issued by the appropriate Regional Office, may act on all (a) pricing charts and amendments thereto filed pursuant to section 2; (b) applications for authorization to establish maximum prices pursuant to section 5 (a); and (c) reports on changes in ownership filed under section 5 (c).

SEC. 15. Definitions. (a) Unless the context otherwise requires or unless otherwise specifically provided herein, the definitions set forth in section 302 of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, and in § 1499.20 of the General Maximum Price Regulation, shall apply to the terms used in this regulation.

(b) A "manufacturer" is a person who sells a garment which he has fabricated or which has been fabricated for him by an agent or by a "contractor" as that term is defined in Maximum Price Regulation No. 172.[10]

(c) A "manufacturing-retailer" is a manufacturer who maintains one or more establishments selling at retail, or who otherwise sells to ultimate consumers and who sells substantially all of the garments that he manufactures to ultimate consumers.

(d) A "custom tailor" or "dressmaker" is a manufacturer who sells to ultimate consumers from his own establishment, garments fabricated by himself to the individual specifications and at the special order of such ultimate consumers.

(e) "Cost price line", "cost price" and "cost" have the same meaning when used in this regulation. You find the cost of a garment by taking whichever of the following is lower:

(1) The actual cost of the garment, or

(2) The maximum price, at the time of purchase, that the regulations of the OPA permit your source of supply to charge for the garment.

APPENDIX A—WHAT GARMENTS MUST BE PRICED UNDER THIS REGULATION

This regulation covers the garments listed below, if fabricated from yard goods (including knitted fabrics and laces). It does not cover garments fabricated from materials obtained by the assignment of an A-2 preference rating by the War Production Board, pursuant to Limitation Order M-207; nor does it cover uniforms and women's work clothing which would ordinarily be purchased only for wear in industrial, commercial, institutional or agricultural occupations. Any seller (including a separate department described in section 1 (b) (3)) who sells the following pairs of size ranges and who customarily delivered garments of both size ranges at the same percentage markups, may, at his option, establish the same ceiling price for garments in each pair of size ranges having the same cost price:

(1) Women's and misses' or junior misses' sizes.

(2) Teen-age and girls' sizes.

(3) Children's and toddlers' sizes.

A seller who selects this option, must then, in preparing his pricing chart, combine garments in each pair of size ranges when calculating the selling price at which he delivered the largest number of garments of each cost price during the base period.

For example: A department store operates a department which sells girls' and teen age coats and suits. It was the customary practice of this department to deliver girls' and teen age coats (Categories 4 and 3 respectively) at the same percentage markups, and to deliver girls' and teen age suits (Categories 9 and and 8 respectively) at the same percentage markups. In calculating the selling price at which it delivered the largest number of coats of a particular cost price, the department may use the total number of girls' coats and of teen age coats of that cost price delivered during the base period, and may establish the same ceiling price for all girls' and teen age coats having the same cost price. Similarly, in calculating the ceiling prices of its girls' and teen age suits, the department may combine the number of garments sold in both categories, and may establish the same ceiling price for all girls' and teen age suits having the same cost price.

(b) How to prepare your pricing chart. (1) State your name and address.

(2) State your type of business (wholesaler—with stock, without stock, retailer-basement department, chain outlet, specialty store, etc.).

(3) If you made your first delivery of any category covered by the regulation after October 1, 1941 (September 1, 1941 for wholesalers) state the date of your first delivery.

(4) In Column A, list the categories of the garments you are pricing. (You will find the categories in Appendix A.)

(5) In Column B, list all the cost prices at which you purchased garments that you delivered during the base period. (Section 2 (c) explains what the base period is.) If you are permitted to use the exception provided in Rule 1 (section 4 (b) (1)) for any cost prices, you should place the symbol "(8)" preceding each such cost price in your pricing chart.

(6) In Column C, list the discount, terms or allowance at which you purchased the largest number of garments at each cost price listed in Column B.

(7) If you are a wholesaler, list separately in Column C, the discounts, terms or allowances at which you customarily sold garments in each cost price listed in Column B.

(8) In Column D, list the selling price line at which you delivered during the base period the largest number of units of each cost price listed in Column B. If you delivered the same number of units at two or more selling price lines, you list the lowest selling price line.

(9) In Column E, list the percentage markup taken on each cost price listed in Column B. This is how you make this calculation:

Step 1. You subtract the cost price (Column B) from the selling price line (Column D) and the difference is the dollar markup.

Step 2. Divide this dollar markup by the selling price line (Column D) and the result is the percentage markup.

For example: In the retailer's pricing chart shown in paragraph (a) (1) above, in order to find the percentage markup taken on the $3.75 cost price for women's dresses (Category 21), you subtract $3.75 (Column B) from $5.98 (Column D). The difference is $2.23. By dividing $2.23 by $5.98 (Column D), you find your percentage markup to be 37.3%.

NOTE: The percentage markups illustrated in Column E and in the examples given throughout the regulation are markups on selling price calculated without deducting any discount on the cost price. If you usually calculate your markups on your cost prices, or if you usually deduct discounts before calculating markup, you may, under this regulation, continue to calculate your markups on cost instead of on selling price and you may deduct discounts before calculating your markup. However, you must calculate your markups in the same manner now that you did in the base period.

Appendix—Shipping Container Specifications

Amending order Aug. 16, 1940, as follows (add):

Specification 9—Seamless or Welded or Brazed Steel Cylinders

GENERAL

1. Compliance. Required in all details.

2. Type and size. Must be seamless, welded, or brazed (brazing material must have a melting point of not less than 1000° F.). The maximum water capacity of containers in this class shall not exceed 86 cubic inches. Longitudinal seams are prohibited.

(a) Service pressure. Service pressure must be 200 pounds per square inch.

INSPECTION

3. Inspection by whom and where. By competent inspector; chemical analyses and tests, as specified, to be made within limits of the United States. Interested inspectors are authorized.

4. Duties of inspector. Inspect all material and reject any not complying with requirements.

(a) Verify chemical analysis by obtaining certified analysis of each heat from steel manufacturer; or if such certified analysis is lacking, then a certificate from the manufacturer of container giving sufficient data to indicate compliance with requirements is acceptable when certified by duplicate analyses from 6 samples taken at random from each shipment of steel and one cylinder selected at random from each day's production, except if a day's production be less than 1000 cylinders, then this sample shall be taken from the lot.

(b) Verify compliance of cylinders with all requirements including markings; inspect inside before closing in both ends; verify heat treatment as proper; select samples for all tests and for check chemical analyses; witness all tests; verify threads by gauge; report volumetric capacity (see report form) and minimum thickness of wall noted.

(c) Render complete report (paragraph 19) to purchaser, cylinder maker, and the Bureau of Explosives.

MATERIAL

4. Steel. Open-hearth or electric steel of uniform quality. Content percent for the following not over: Carbon, 0.150; phosphorus, 0.045; sulphur, 0.055.

6. Identification of material. Required; any suitable method.

7. Defects. Material with seams, cracks, laminations, or other injurious defects, not authorized.

CONSTRUCTION

8. Manufacture. By proper appliances and methods; dirt and scale to be removed as necessary to afford proper inspection; no defect acceptable that is likely to weaken the finished cylinder appreciably; reasonably smooth and uniform surface finish required. Seams must be made as follows:

(a) Circumferential seams. By welding or by brazing. Heads attached by brazing must have a driving fit with the shell, unless the shell is crimped, swaged, or curled over the skirt or flange of the head, and be thoroughly brazed until complete penetration by the brazing material of the brazed joint is secured. Depth of brazing from end of shell must be at least four times the thickness of shell metal.

9. Wall thickness. The wall stress at 600 pounds per square inch shall not exceed 24,000 pounds per square inch. The minimum wall for any cylinder shall be 0.040 inch.

(a) Calculation must be made by the formula:

$$S=\frac{600\ (1.3D^2+0.4d^2)}{D^2-d^2}$$

where S=wall stress in pounds per square inch; D=outside diameter in inches; d=inside diameter in inches.

10. Heat treatment. Body and heads formed by drawing or pressing must be uniformly and properly heat treated prior to tests.

11. Openings in cylinder and connections (valves, fuse plugs, etc.) for such openings. (a) Threads required; to be clean cut, even, without checks, and tapped to gauge.

(b) Taper threads to be of length not less than as specified for American Standard taper pipe threads.

(c) Straight threads having at least 4 engaged threads, to have tight fit and calculated shear strength at least 10 times the test pressure of the cylinder; gaskets required, adequate to prevent leakage.

12. Safety devices must be as required by the Interstate Commerce Commission's regulations that apply.

CYLINDER TESTS

13. Pressure tests. (a) Each cylinder produced shall be tested by dried air [1] or other dried gas [1] or by any suitable anhydrous liquid at a pressure of 400 pounds per square inch, held for at least 30 seconds, and shall show no leak or other defect when inspected by suitable means.

(b) One out of each 1000 cylinders or less successively produced shall be hydrostatically tested to destruction and must not burst below 1200 pounds per square inch. Each such 1000 cylinders or less successively produced shall constitute a lot and if the test cylinder shall fail, then the entire lot must be rejected. All cylinders constituting a lot shall be of identical size, design, construction, heat treatment, finish and quality.

14. Flattening test. Between knife edges, wedge shaped, 60° angle, rounded to ½ inch radius; test 1 cylinder taken at random out of each lot of 1000 or less, after pressure test. This flattening test is required and the test cylinder shall not have cracked when the outer surfaces of the walls are apart not more than a distance of 6 times the thickness of such walls.

15. Reheat treatment authorized for lots failing to meet the requirements of paragraph 14; such lots of cylinders after this treatment must pass all prescribed tests.

16. Only repair of brazed seams by brazing and welded seams by welding is authorized, provided such cylinders are retested and pass the tests prescribed in paragraph 13 (a).

MARKING

17. On each cylinder. By embossing plainly and permanently on top or bottom before heat treatment, the marks ICC 9, registered symbol of manufacturer, and registered symbol of original owner.

(a) Other marks as prescribed in (c) of this paragraph must be shown on a permanently attached name plate or by printing or decalcomania, provided that such markings are waterproofed and adherent and not easily impaired when subjected to water immersion and weathering under service conditions, or are coated over with a water-insoluble transparent lacquer.

(b) Such marks must be maintained in a legible condition and if at any time the cylinder is returned for refilling and such marks are illegible, then the cylinder must not be returned to service until it has been retested as prescribed in paragraph 13 (a) and new test date applied.

(c) Inspector's official mark; lot number; date of test (such as 5–37 for May, 1937), so placed that dates of subsequent tests can be easily added.

18. Size of embossed marks. At least ¼ inch high.

19. Inspector's reports. Required to be clear, legible, and in following form:

The steel used was identified by heat or analysis numbers as shown on the "Record of Chemical Analysis of Steel for Cylinders" attached hereto.

The steel used was verified as to chemical analysis and record thereof is attached hereto.

All material was inspected and each cylinder was inspected both before and after closing; all accepted material and cylinders were found free from seams, cracks, laminations, and other defects which might prove injurious to the strength of the cylinder. The processes of manufacture and heat treatment were supervised and found to be efficient and satisfactory.

A test cylinder of each lot was measured and had a minimum wall thickness and volumetric capacity as shown in table below.

Date of test	Lot No.	No. in lot	Minimum wall thickness, in.	Volumetric capacity, cu. in.

Each and every cylinder was properly tapped; the threads were inspected and found to be clean cut, of proper length, and correct as to gauge.

One finished cylinder out of each lot was taken at random and burst by interior hydrostatic pressure with the following results:

Date of test	Lot No.	Pressure at which cylinder ruptured, pounds per square inch

Each and every cylinder was subjected to an interior pressure of 400 pounds per square inch and showed no leak or other defect.

Hydrostatic tests, pressure tests, flattening tests, and other tests, as prescribed in specification No. 9 were made in the presence of the inspector and all material and cylinders accepted were found to be in compliance with the requirements of that specification.

I hereby certify that all of these cylinders proved satisfactory in every way and comply with the requirements of Interstate Commerce Commission's specification No. 9 except as follows:

[Region VI Rev. Order G-1 Under MPR 280]

FLUID MILK IN CHICAGO REGION

For the reasons set forth in an opinion issued simultaneously herewith, and under the authority vested in the Regional Administrator of the Office of Price Administration by § 1351.817a of Maximum Price Regulation No. 280: It is hereby ordered, That Regional Order No. G-1, as amended, be redesignated as Revised Order No. G-1 under Maximum Price Regulation No. 280 and that it be revised and amended to read as follows:

(a) Maximum prices for handler sales. The maximum price for handler sales of 3.5% butterfat content milk f. o. b. handlers' plant shall be the base price as set forth in paragraph (b) plus the additions permitted by paragraph (c). For sales of milk having a butterfat content of other than 3.5% the handler shall apply a differential of 5¢ for each 1/10 of 1% variation in butterfat content. The periods for which maximum prices are determined shall be as follows:

(1) The maximum prices for handlers whose purchases of milk are subject to the provisions of any order, license, or agreement issued pursuant to the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended, shall be determined each month with the use of a base price determined for the same month.

(2) The maximum prices of all other handlers shall be determined for semi-monthly periods from the 1st to the 15th of a month, inclusive, and from the 16th to the end of the month, inclusive. In computing the maximum price for any semi-monthly period the base price to be used shall be the base price for the preceding semi-monthly period.

(b) Computation of base prices. The base price for any handler sale shall be the price computed under sub-section (1) or (2) of this section, whichever shall be applicable, plus any additions which may be provided by sub-section (3) of this section.

(1) Agricultural marketing agreement areas. The base price for any handler whose purchases of milk are subject to the provisions of any order, agreement, or license issued pursuant to the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended, shall be the class 1 price established for such purchases of milk.

(2) Base price outside of agricultural marketing agreement areas. The base price for each grade of milk shall be the weighted average price for 3.5% butterfat milk during the applicable semi-monthly period. For any milk received other than 3.5% butterfat milk, the handler shall compute a price determined as if such milk had in fact had a butterfat content of 3.5% by applying the butterfat differential customarily used by him in purchases of milk from producers.

(3) Transportation allowances. The prices used in the arrival at the base price shall be prices f. o. b. the handler's plant. Where the handler has paid an independent carrier for hire to transport milk from the producer to the handler's plant, the amount actually paid for such transportation may be added. Where, however, the handler has transported milk to his plant in his own conveyance, such milk shall not be included in arriving at the base price.

(c) Additions to base prices. Whichever of the following markups is applicable may be added to the base price determined under paragraph (b) of this order:

(1) 45¢ per cwt. when the handler receives milk in his plant, prepares it for bulk shipment, and makes delivery into a tank truck or tank car.

(2) 50¢ per cwt. when the handler receives milk in his plant, prepares it for bulk shipment, and places it in cans provided by the purchaser.

(3) 55¢ per cwt. when the handler receives milk in his plant, prepares it for bulk shipment, and places it in cans provided by the handler.

(4) 15¢ less per cwt. than the price computed under (c) (1), (2), or (3), whichever is applicable, for deliveries pursuant to an agreement, whether written or oral, covering a period of four or more months to supply a quantity of milk on a regular basis (such as a fixed number of days a week) during the operation of the agreement and pursuant to which the buyer agrees to accept at least a minimum ascertainable quantity during the contract period.

(d) Inability to fix maximum prices. If a handler cannot compute his maximum price for handler sales of milk under the terms of this order, he shall apply to the Regional Office of the Office of Price Administration for a maximum price. Such application shall contain a statement of the reason why the applicant cannot avail himself of the pricing provisions of this order and such additional information as the applicant may deem necessary to the proper consideration of his application. The applicant shall furnish such additional information as the Regional Office may subsequently request in order to act on the application.

(e) Definitions. As used in this order: (1) "Handler sale" shall mean any sale of fluid milk by a person who, on his own behalf or on behalf of others, purchases fluid milk from producers, associations of producers, or other handlers, and who sells such fluid milk at wholesale in bulk (other than in glass or paper containers) to any person other than commercial and industrial users, stores, hotels, restaurants, institutions, ultimate consumers, and governmental agencies. "Handler sale" shall not include any sale of milk to a manufacturer for use in manufacturing dairy products such as butter, cheese, evaporated or condensed milk, powdered milk, casein, and ice cream. Sales by a farmers' cooperative shall be considered handler sales in all cases where it sells fluid milk which has been processed in a plant owned or leased by it or which it has had processed for it in some other plant.

(2) "Handler" shall mean any person who makes a handler sale.

(3) "Producer" means a farmer, or other person or representative, who owns, superintends, manages, or otherwise controls the operation of a farm on which milk is produced. A farmers' cooperative is a producer with regard to all sales of fluid milk by it, except sales of fluid milk which have been processed in a plant owned or leased by it or which it has had processed for it in some other plant.

(4) "Plant" shall mean an establishment equipped to receive milk, prepare it for bulk shipment, by weighing, inspecting, testing, cooling, and placing it in cans or in tank trucks or tank cars.

(5) "Milk" means raw or pasteurized liquid cows' milk which is sold for human consumption in fluid form (including skim milk and buttermilk).

(6) "Grade" refers to the quality standards established by public health authorities or commonly used by the trade.

(f) Applicability. This order applies to all handler sales of fluid milk for resale for human consumption at or from a plant located in the States of Illinois, Iowa, Minnesota, Nebraska, North Dakota, South Dakota, Wisconsin, and in Lake County, Indiana.

(g) Revocability. This order may be revoked, modified or corrected at any time, or may be superseded by any regulation hereafter issued, the provisions of which may be inconsistent herewith.

This order shall become effective September 1, 1944 with respect to all handlers whose purchases of fluid milk are subject to the provisions of any order, license, or agreement issued pursuant to the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended. As to all other handlers, this order shall become effective September 16, 1944.

Subchapter B—Executive Vice-Chairman

AUTHORITY: Regulations in this subchapter issued under sec. 2 (a), 54 Stat. 676, as amended by 55 Stat. 236 and 56 Stat. 176; E.O. 9024, 7 F.R. 329; E.O. 9125, 7 F.R. 2719; W.P.B. Reg. 1 as amended March 24, 1943, 8 F.R. 3666, 3696; Pri. Reg. 1 as amended May 15, 1943, 8 F.R. 6727.

PART 1010—SUSPENSION ORDERS

ELIZABETH ALLEN

Elizabeth Allen of St. Louis, Missouri, in March 1943, began and thereafter carried on construction of a residence located on Old Jamestown Road approximately two miles west of Black Jack, Missouri, without authorization from the War Production Board. The cost of this construction was approximately $4,100, which amount exceeded the limit of $200 permitted by Conservation Order L–41 and was in violation of that order. Elizabeth Allen was aware of War Production Board restrictions on construction and the beginning and carrying on of this construction without authorization constituted a wilful violation of Conservation Order L–41.

The violation of Conservation Order L–41 has diverted critical materials to uses not authorized by the War Production Board, and has hampered and impeded the war effort of the United States. In view of the foregoing, it is hereby ordered, that:

§ 1010.625 Suspension Order No. S–625. (a) Neither Elizabeth Allen, her successors or assigns, nor any other person, shall do any construction on the premises owned by her and located on Old Jamestown Road approximately two miles west of Black Jack, Missouri, including putting up or altering the structures located on the said premises, unless hereafter specifically authorized in writing by the War Production Board.

(b) Nothing contained in this order shall be deemed to relieve Elizabeth Allen, her successors or assigns, from any restrictions, prohibitions or provisions contained in any other order or regulation of the War Production Board, except insofar as the same may be inconsistent with the provisions hereof.

Issued this 13th day of September 1944.

PART 3290—TEXTILE, CLOTHING AND LEATHER

[Limitation Order L–99, Direction 2]

CONVERSION OF LOOMS TO PRODUCTION OF TENTAGE FABRICS

The following direction is issued pursuant to Limitation Order L–99:

(a) Notwithstanding any of the provisions of Limitation Order L–99 or any of the schedules of that order and regardless of any rated order heretofore or hereafter placed, commencing October 26, 1944 looms which on July 1, 1944 produced or were assigned to produce the cotton textiles listed in column I may, to the extent of the percentage indicated for each group in column II, produce only the cotton textiles of the constructions specified in column III, unless otherwise expressly authorized in writing by the War Production Board. The percentages are applicable to the daily average number of looms on assignment or production. All column references in this direction are to Table I.

(b) Each loom which under this direction may be operated only to produce the fabrics listed in column III shall be operated at least as many hours per week as the loom which is operated the most hours per week at the same plant.

(c) All the fabrics produced on looms which under this direction may be operated only to produce the fabrics listed in column III may be sold or delivered only to the U. S. Army or Navy unless rejected in writing by both the Army and Navy.

(d) No application for an exception from the provisions of this direction will be considered unless it is filed in triplicate with the War Production Board, Textile, Clothing and Leather Bureau, Washington 25, D. C., not later than September 25, 1944 and contains the following information with respect to each plant affected by this direction:

(1) Total number of spindles (running and idle) classified according to ring sizes.

(2) Total number of looms (running and idle), stating with respect to each loom (i) the name of the manufacturer, (ii) the model, (iii) the width between swords, and (iv) the auxiliary shaft and cam equipment.

(3) A list of fabric constructions now being woven in the plant and number of looms assigned to or being operated on each construction.

(4) The yardages due on outstanding contracts for each of the fabric constructions listed in column I, classified according to proposed uses, i. e., type of clothing or other product, where known.

(e) Each person operating looms affected by this direction must report in writing to the War Production Board by September 25, 1944 the Army and Navy contracts (direct or subcontracts) he holds for fabrics which are presently being produced on the looms affected by this direction. This information may be included in an application filed in accordance with paragraph (d).

(f) Each person operating looms affected by this direction must report in writing to the War Production Board not later than October 30, 1944, the number of his looms that have been converted to produce each of the fabrics listed in column III and the estimated weekly production of each such fabric construction.

The reporting requirements of this direction have been approved by the Bureau of the Budget pursuant to the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

PART 1042—IMPORTS OF STRATEGIC MATERIALS

[General Imports Order M–63, as Amended Sept. 14, 1944]

The fulfillment of requirements for the defense of the United States has created a shortage in the supply of certain imported materials for defense, for private account, and for export; and the following order is deemed necessary and appropriate in the public interest and to promote the national defense:

§ 1042.1 General Imports Order M–63—(a) Definitions. For the purposes of this order:

(1) "Person" means any individual, partnership, association, business trust, corporation, or any organized group of persons, whether or not incorporated.

(2) "Owner" of any material means any person who has any property interest in such material except a person whose interest is held solely as security for the payment of money.

(3) "Consignee" means the person to whom a material is consigned at the time of importation.

(4) "Import" means to transport in any manner into the continental United States from any foreign country or from any territory or possession of the United States (including the Philippine Islands). It includes shipments into a free port, free zone, or bonded custody of the United States Bureau of Customs (bonded warehouse) in the continental United States and shipments in bond into the continental United States for transshipment to Canada, Mexico, or any other foreign country.

(5) "Place of initial storage" means any warehouse, yard ground storage, or other place, to which the person making the entry or withdrawal from custody of the United States Bureau of Customs of material imported subject to this order directs or has directed that such material be transported from the port of entry to be held until disposed of pursuant to this order.

(6) Material shall be deemed "in transit" if it is afloat, if an on board ocean bill of lading has actually been issued with respect to it, or if it has actually been delivered to and accepted by a rail, truck, or air carrier, for transportation to a point within the continental United States.

(7) "Governing date" with respect to any material means the date when such material first became subject to General Imports Order M–63.

(b) Restrictions on imports of materials—(1) General restriction. No person, except as authorized in writing by the War Production Board shall purchase for import, receive, or offer to receive on consignment for import, or make any contract or other arrangement for the importing of, any material subject to this order after the governing date. The foregoing restrictions shall apply to the importation of any material subject to the order, regardless of the existence on the governing date or thereafter of any contract or other arrangement for the importation of such material. The materials subject to this order are those listed from time to time upon List I, List II, and List III attached hereto.

(2) Authorization by War Production Board. Any person desiring such authorization, whether owner, purchaser, seller, or consignee of the material to be imported, or agent of any of them, shall make application therefor in duplicate on Form WPB–1041 (formerly PD–222C) addressed to the War Production Board, Ref.: M–63, Washington 25, D. C. Unless otherwise expressly permitted, such authorization shall apply only to the particular material and shipment mentioned therein and to the persons and their agents concerned with such shipment; it shall not be assignable or transferable either in whole or in part.

(3) Restrictions on financing of imports. No bank or other person shall participate, by financing or otherwise, in any arrangement which such bank or person knows or has reason to know involves the importation after the governing date of any material subject to this order, unless such bank or person either has received a copy of the authorization issued by the War Production Board under the provisions of paragraph (b) (2) or is satisfied from known facts that the proposed transaction comes within the exceptions set forth in paragraph (b) (4).

(4) Exceptions. Unless otherwise directed by the War Production Board, the restrictions set forth in this paragraph (b) shall not apply:

(i) To the Foreign Economic Administration, U. S. Commercial Company, Commodity Credit Corporation, Metals Reserve Company, Defense Supplies Corporation, or any other United States governmental department, agency, or corporation, or any agent acting for any such department, agency or corporation; or

(ii) To any material of which any United States governmental department, agency, or corporation is the owner at the time of importation, or to any material which the owner at the time of importation had purchased or otherwise acquired from any United States governmental department, agency or corporation; or

(iii) To any material which on the governing date was in transit to a point within the continental United States.

(iv) [Deleted Mar. 30, 1944]

(v) To any material consigned as a gift or imported for personal use where the value of each consignment or shipment is less than $100.00; or to any material consigned or imported as a sample where the value of each consignment or shipment is less than $25.00; or to any used material in the category of household goods imported by the owner for his own personal use; or

(vi) To materials consigned as gifts for personal use by or to members of the Armed Services of the United States; or

(vii) To any material on List I or List II imported by any person under any contract or other arrangement made before, or in existence on the governing date and which, on December 26, 1942, was in transit to a point within the continental United States; or

(viii) To manufactured materials which are imported in bond solely for the purpose of having them repaired and then returned to the owner outside the continental United States; or

(ix) To materials which were grown, produced, or manufactured in the continental United States, and which were shipped outside the continental United States on consignment or pursuant to a contract of purchase, and which are now returned as rejected by the prospective purchaser; or

(x) To materials shipped into the United States in transit from one point in Mexico to another point in Mexico, or from one point in Canada to another point in Canada.

(c) Restrictions on disposition of List I material. Except as hereinafter specifically provided in paragraph (d) hereof:

(1) Restrictions upon owners and consignees. No owner or consignee of any material on List I which is imported after the governing date shall in any way, directly or indirectly:

(i) Dispose of any interest in such material;

(ii) Process or in any way change the physical condition of such material;

(iii) Transfer possession, or cause or permit a transfer of possession, of such material except to the port of entry and from the port of entry to the place of initial storage of such material; or

(iv) Change, or cause or permit a change of, the location of such material except to the port of entry and from the port of entry to the place of initial storage of such material.

Provided: That a consignee of such material may dispose of his interest in such material to the extent necessary to complete any commitment or contract made prior to the governing date. The person to whom he disposes of such interest shall be subject to all restrictions imposed upon owners by this order.

(2) Restrictions upon banks and persons similarly situated. No bank or other person which, as agent, pledgee, beneficiary under a trust receipt, or otherwise, has possession of or any interest in any written instrument evidencing any interest in any material on List I shall in any way, directly or indirectly, dispose of any such interest, or transfer possession, or cause or permit a transfer of possession, of such instrument, unless:

(i) Such material was imported before the governing date; or

(ii) Such person neither knows nor has reason to know that such material was imported after the governing date; or

[3] Moved from List I 3/30/44.

N. S. C.—No separate class or commodity number has been assigned for the material as described by the Department of Commerce, Statistical Classification of Imports.

INTERPRETATION 1

No authorization under paragraph (b) of the order is necessary for the release or withdrawal of materials on List II or List III from a free port, a free zone, or the bonded custody of the United States Bureau of Customs (bonded warehouse) in the continental United States regardless of the date when such materials first entered such place. The actual importation, which is the subject of restriction under paragraph (b), is deemed to have occurred before the question of release or withdrawal arises. Also no authorization under paragraph (d) of the order is necessary for the subsequent disposition, processing, or shipment of such released or withdrawn List II and List III materials.

As to List I materials which are similarly situated, no authorization under paragraph (b) of the order is necessary for their release or withdrawal from free port, free zone, or bonded custody, but authorization under paragraph (d) of the order is necessary for their subsequent disposition, processing, or shipment unless they are shipped in bond to Canada, Mexico, or some other foreign country, in which event the foreign destination is deemed to be the place of initial storage as such term is used in the order: Provided, however, That List I materials which are imported in bond after July 2, 1942, can be shipped to Mexico, Canada, or some other foreign country without the express authorization required under paragraph (d) only if the import application filed under paragraph (b) stated that the material was being imported for the purpose of such export shipment. (Issued June 30, 1942, and amended Sept. 23, 1943.)

INTERPRETATION 2

The following official interpretation is hereby issued by the War Production Board with respect to the meaning of the term "in transit" as defined in paragraph (a) (6) of General Imports Order M-63 (§ 1042.1) as amended:

By amendment dated December 17, 1942, the definition of material "in transit" was changed by adding the following clause, "or if it has actually been delivered to and accepted by a rail, truck, or air carrier, for transportation to a point within the continental United States." The question has been raised as to the meaning of the term as applied to a case where the material on the governing date had been delivered to and accepted by a rail, truck, or air carrier on a through bill of lading for transportation to a specified port and from thence by boat to a point within the continental United States.

The material in the stated case is not deemed to be in transit within the meaning of the term as used in the order. If the material is to be carried to the port of arrival in the continental United States by ship, the material must have been afloat, or an on board ocean bill of lading must have been issued with respect to it, on the governing date in order for it to be considered as having been in transit on such date.

Material which has been delivered to and accepted by a rail, truck, or air carrier on the governing date for transportation to a point within the continental United States is deemed to be in transit within the meaning of the term as used in the order only when the transportation specified in the bill of lading issued by such carrier calls for delivery of the material at the port of arrival in the continental United States by rail, truck, or air carrier, not by ship. (Issued March 8, 1943.)

When by amendment of the order a material already on List II or List III is moved to List I and hence becomes subject to the restrictions of paragraph (c) covering the disposition, processing, transfer, or change of location of such material, the governing date for the application of such restrictions is the effective date of the amendment by which the material was moved to List I and not the date when such material first became subject to General Imports Order M-63. (Issued May 14, 1943.)

This includes delivery for 30 miles or less. These prices apply to all sales where lumber produced by small mills reaches the purchaser without first being graded, dressed, inspected, tallied or otherwise made ready for shipment at a concentration yard or mill subject to 2d RMPR 19, in conformity with that regulation, or without becoming an integral part of the stock of a distribution yard as defined in 2d RMPR 215.

The maximum prices for lumber produced by sawmills in Virginia is $2.00 per M'BM higher than the prices above.

2. Section 4 is amended to read as follows:

SEC. 4. Delivery. If you make delivery over 30 miles, you can add 5 cents per M for each mile over 30 and up to 100 miles, with no addition for the return trip. For example, if you deliver 50 miles, you can add $1.00 per M. If you make delivery over 100 miles, you can add only the carload rail freight for the whole distance from the nearest rail loading-out point to destination.

If the buyer makes the pick-up at the sawmill, the regular log-run price must be reduced $2.50 per M.

Maximum Price Regulation No. 515 is amended in the following respects:

1. Section 1 (a) (6) is added to read as follows:

(6) This regulation shall have no application to any purchase by the United States or any of its agencies under such circumstances of emergency as to make immediate delivery imperative, and as to render it impossible to secure, or unfair to require immediate delivery at the maximum price which would otherwise be applicable, if such purchases and deliveries are made pursuant to the provisions of section 4.3 (f) of Revised Supplementary Regulation No. 1 to the General Maximum Price Regulation, as amended; Provided, however, that the Administrator may, by order, waive the reporting of any part of the information required by section 4.3 (f) in connection with a particular purchase or group of purchases, upon determining that such information may not reasonably be required under all the circumstances, and he may, in lieu thereof, require the reporting of other information more suited to the circumstances.

2. Section 10 is amended in the following respects:

a. The definition of the term "country shipper" is amended to read as follows:

"Country shipper" means, with respect to any lot of soybeans, a person who has received the soybeans from a producer or a trucker merchant, and who has placed them in country storage facilities, such as in an elevator or warehouse located at a country shipping point.

b. The following definitions are added to the regulation:

"Storage facilities" means an elevator, warehouse or other facility used for the storage of soybeans.

"Country storage facilities" means an elevator, warehouse or other facility used for the storage of soybeans, located at a country shipping point, the term being intended to designate storage facilities through which a country shipper makes his sale.

3. Section 11 (d) is amended to read as follows:

(d) All other sales. The maximum price for the sale of soybeans by any seller not specifically provided for in paragraphs (a) through (c) of this section, shall be the maximum price which the seller's supplier could lawfully have charged the seller, plus actual lawful transportation charges necessarily incurred by the seller in delivering to his purchaser, plus, to the extent permitted under subparagraph (1) of this paragraph, the appropriate one of the following markups:

If the seller owns or maintains storage facilities, except country storage facilities, and he unloads the lot into them, a maximum markup of 2½ cents per bushel; or

In all other cases, a maximum markup of 1 cent per bushel.

(1) The aggregate markup for all sales by all sellers whose maximum prices are established under this section shall not exceed the applicable maximum markup specified in this paragraph, and the markup which a subsequent seller may add on resale is reduced or eliminated, as the case may be, by the amount of the markups taken by prior sellers establishing a maximum price under this paragraph (d).

This amendment shall become effective September 19, 1944.

CHESTER BOWLES,
Administrator.

[Directive 7]

CUBAN AND PUERTO RICAN DIRECT-CONSUMPTION SUGAR

The War Food Administrator has, by letter dated September 8, 1944, recommended certain measures as being necessary to obtain the importation of additional supplies of direct-consumption sugar needed to meet military, lend-lease, and civilian requirements. These measures include reimbursement of importers for certain demurrage costs on ocean vessels, increasing importers' warehouse allowance, and the payment of certain excess transportation costs in connection with the release from purchase contracts of the Commodity Credit Corporation of additional raw sugar to be refined in Puerto Rico and Cuba for shipment to the United States. Pursuant to the authority vested in me as Economic Stabilization Director, I do hereby find that such measures are necessary to insure the maximum necessary production and distribution of direct-consumption sugar to meet military, lend-lease and civilian requirements and the War Food Administration is hereby authorized and directed to carry out through the Commodity Credit Corporation such measures as described in the War Food Administrator's letter and the memorandum enclosed therewith.

TITLE 38—PENSIONS, BONUSES AND VETERANS' RELIEF

Chapter I—Veterans' Administration

PART 36—REGULATIONS UNDER SERVICEMEN'S READJUSTMENT ACT OF 1944

PAYMENTS TO INSTITUTIONS OF COLLEGIATE GRADE FOR EDUCATION OR TRAINING

Sec.
36.207 Authority of manager to pay institutions.
36.208 Definition of "ordinary school year".

AUTHORITY: §§ 36.207 and 36.208 issued under 58 Stat. 248.

---

*Copies may be obtained from the Office of Price Administration.

[1] 9 F.R. 2235, 2477.

Veterans Regulation Numbered 1 (a), as amended, elects his course of training and chooses the approved educational or training institution where he wishes to pursue his course of training and is accepted by and enrolled in a full-time or a part-time course in such approved institution, the manager of the regional office is authorized to pay to such institution for the veteran's tuition, laboratory, library, health, infirmary and other similar fees, and for books, supplies, equipment and other necessary expenses, exclusive of board, lodging, other living expenses and travel, as are generally required for the successful pursuit and completion of the course by other students in the institution.

(a) Charges for tuition, laboratory, library, health, infirmary and other similar fees. Pursuant to the authority contained in the Servicemen's Readjustment Act of 1944, the Administrator hereby determines that the charges established in accordance therewith, and pursuant to the limitations thereof, the following provisions are fair and reasonable for the purpose of enabling the institutions to give the services required by said act and are within the intent and authority of paragraph 8, section 400 (b), Title II, of said act.

(i) The charges for tuition, laboratory, library, health, infirmary and other similar fees customarily made by the approved institution for any student who pursues the particular course of training, except that the charge for the tuition fee of a full-time veteran trainee shall be not less than $10.00 per month ($30.00 per quarter or $40.00 per semester), provided that the proper official certifies to the manager of the regional office the charges customarily made to any student pursuing the particular course.

(ii) In the case of State and municipal colleges or universities the charges for tuition, laboratory, library, health, infirmary and other similar fees are determined for all veteran trainees as the charges customarily made to nonresident students which were in effect prior to June 22, 1944, except that the charge for the tuition fee of a full-time veteran trainee shall be not less than $10.00 per month ($30.00 per quarter or $40.00 per semester), provided that the charges are not in conflict with existing laws or other legal requirements.

(iii) Arrangements pursuant to (i) and (ii) do not require a formal contract with institutions and payments will be made at the end of each term, semester, or quarter prorated in the cases of veteran trainees who withdraw during the term on the same basis as for non-veteran students.

(b) Charges for books, supplies, equipment and other necessary expenses. The charges for books, supplies, equipment and other necessary expenses customarily incurred for or by any student who pursues the particular course of training shall be estimated and included in the statement required of the institution under the established procedure of the Veterans Administration. Payments will be made at the end of each term, semester, or quarter on submission of a voucher by the institution to the manager of the regional office certifying to the actual cost of such books, supplies, equipment and other expenses for each veteran and also certifying that the material has been delivered to the trainee and that the institution has evidence of such delivery and of such expenditures on hand and available for the inspection of the Veterans Administration.

(c) All provisions for payment stated in this section are subject to the provision of the law that such payments may not be paid in excess of $500 for an ordinary school year in respect to any person.

§ 36.208 Definition of "ordinary school year." The "ordinary school year" is defined as a period of two semesters or three quarters—not less than thirty nor more than thirty-eight weeks in total length. Under this definition an institution may be paid as much as $500 for each "ordinary school year" which is completed, regardless of the time required for such completion. Thus $500 might be paid for each of four "ordinary school years" which are completed within three twelve months periods. (September 11, 1944.)

Chapter IV—Office of the Coordinator of Fisheries

[Order 1838, General Directions P-10 to P-14]

PART 401—PRODUCTION OF FISHERY COMMODITIES OR PRODUCTS

COORDINATED PILCHARD PRODUCTION PLAN

Pursuant to paragraph (n) of § 401.2 (Order No. 1838 of the Secretary of the Interior, as amended) (9 F.R. 7171, 9749), the Pilchard Order, because it is deemed necessary to accomplish the purposes of that order, the following general directions, numbered P-10 to P-14 inclusive, are hereby issued.

[General Direction P-10]

GENERAL PROVISIONS

(a) Definitions. In construing all general directions, specific directions, instructions, delegations of authority, and other administrative instruments and statements based upon the Pilchard Order, the definitions in paragraph (b) of the order are applicable except where the context clearly indicates otherwise. Any general direction which may be issued adding or regrouping ports pursuant to paragraph (c) (4) of the Pilchard Order shall thereafter control the interpretation of all such directions, instruments, and statements, except where the contrary is clearly indicated by the context.

(b) Effective date. Except where a contrary provision is expressed, all general directions shall become effective on the date of issue. The general directions numbered P-10 to P-14 inclusive now being issued, however, shall become effective at noon on Sunday, September 17, 1944.

(c) Suspension of directions between seasons. Except where expressly provided otherwise, all general directions shall be suspended, for the several ports in California, during the period between pilchard (sardine) seasons as defined for those ports respectively in section 1065 of the California Fish and Game Code. However, any person may be held responsible after such suspension, for acts occurring during the pilchard (sardine) season. Suspension of all general directions does not affect the necessity for securing fishing permits, as required by paragraph (e) of the Pilchard Order for all operations in any gainful pursuit during the whole year.

(d) Revocation of former general directions. The only general directions heretofore issued, those numbered 1 to 8 inclusive, are superseded by these general directions now being issued, and are hereby revoked.

[General Direction P-11]

DISPATCHING SYSTEMS, SAN FRANCISCO AND MONTEREY

(a) Systems established. Pursuant to paragraph (i) (1) of the Pilchard Order, and because in the opinion of the representative of the Fishery Coordinator, it is necessary to do so for the reasons set out in that paragraph, systems are hereby set up in San Francisco and Monterey for distributing pilchard landings by direction of each load brought in to those ports in any pilchard vessel of 20 net tons or over. No load of pilchard (sardines) shall be delivered by any such vessel to any processing plant in either of those ports, nor received from any such vessel by any person for such plant, except in accordance with a dispatching direction or other consent of the Port Supervisor or his Assistant. At San Francisco, the Port Supervisor or his Assistant will be stationed adjacent to the St. Francis Yacht Club Harbor; at

Monterey the Port Supervisor or his Assistant, will be stationed at the United States Naval Section Base, Monterey Breakwater.

(b) Directions to vessels. The master of each such pilchard vessel entering San Francisco Bay to deliver pilchard (sardines) shall report at once to the Port Supervisor or his Assistant at the waterfront, giving as near as may be his estimate of the weight of his load; he shall then receive directions as to the delivery of the load. The same procedure shall be followed on entering Monterey Bay, except that the report to the Port Supervisor at the waterfront shall include also a statement of his opinion as to the condition and size of the fish, and except for Moss Landing deliveries which are provided for in the following paragraph.

(c) Moss Landing deliveries. Any permittee operating such pilchard vessel fishing from Monterey and receiving directions from the Port Supervisor or Assistant Port Supervisor at Monterey to deliver all pilchard brought in during a specified period at Moss Landing, shall deliver his fish in accordance with such direction, except as provided in the last sentence of this paragraph. Any vessel making delivery of pilchard (sardines) at Moss Landing shall report to and receive delivery direction from the Assistant Port Supervisor on the waterfront at Moss Landing, such report to include the weight of his load and the condition and size of the fish as set out in the preceding paragraph for other vessels entering Monterey Bay. Any permittee operating such pilchard vessel and arriving at Moss Landing to make delivery there, whether pursuant to directions received before going out fishing from the Port Supervisor or Assistant Port Supervisor at Monterey or pursuant to an emergency modification of his permit, and who finds on arrival at Moss Landing that the conditions of sea, tide or weather make such delivery unduly hazardous, may report to the Port Supervisor or his Assistant at Monterey and receive substitute directions for delivery of his load.

(d) Prompt delivery. When directions have been given pursuant to the foregoing paragraphs (a), (b), or (c), the master shall deliver his load at once in accordance with the direction. If an emergency exists preventing prompt delivery, the master shall apply to the Port Supervisor or his Assistant for modification of the direction given.

(e) Operations of smaller vessels. Vessels of less than 20 net tons are not subject to control by the dispatching systems set up above; but the Port Supervisor and his Assistant will help the operator of such a vessel to find a market for any fish he brings in if they are large fish and in good condition. In the port of San Francisco, no person shall take any delivery of pilchard (sardines) from any such smaller vessel for processing, until after the Port Supervisor or his Assistant shall first have been informed, as by telephone from the processing plant, and shall have consented to such delivery. Any deliveries received from such vessels in either port shall be reported to the Port Supervisor just as are those received from larger vessels.

[General Direction P–12]

DISPATCHING SYSTEM, SAN PEDRO

(a) System established. Pursuant to paragraph (i) (1) of the Pilchard Order, and because in the opinion of the representative of the Fishery Coordinator, it is necessary to do so for the reasons set out in that paragraph, a system is hereby set up in San Pedro for distributing pilchard landings by direction of each load brought in to that port. No load of pilchard (sardines) shall be delivered by any vessel to any processing plant in that port, nor received by any person for such plant, except in accordance with a dispatching direction or other consent of the Port Supervisor or his Assistant.

(b) Advance dispatch. The Port Supervisor in San Pedro will receive joint applications, signed by the boat-owner and the processor concerned, to have a particular boat dispatched to a specified plant for a period of time in advance, and will act appropriately on all such applications; but any advance dispatch shall be subject to be modified by a direction, oral or otherwise, given pursuant to the preceding paragraph (a) whenever reasonably necessary in the opinion of the Port Supervisor or his Assistant to attain the objectives of the Pilchard Order.

(c) Cancellation and replacement of advance dispatch. Any advance dispatch issued pursuant to the preceding paragraph (b), is also subject to cancellation or modification by the issuance of another advance dispatch whenever reasonably necessary in the opinion of the Port Supervisor or his Assistant to attain the objectives of the Pilchard Order.

(d) Prompt delivery. All pilchard (sardines) shall be delivered in accordance with whatever direction dispatching the fish shall be applicable, as soon as is reasonably possible after arrival in port. If an emergency exists preventing prompt delivery, the master shall apply to the Port Supervisor or his Assistant for modification of the direction given.

[General Direction No. P–13]

SMALL FISH LIMITS, MONTEREY

(a) Limit fixed; margin of error. The maximum load of small pilchard (sardines) which may be brought into a port where this direction applies, in any one vessel, is fixed at 30 tons, and no person shall bring into the port a load of small pilchard (sardines) aggregating more than 30 tons in weight: Provided, however, That where there has been a bona fide mistake in estimating the weight of the load a five ton margin of error shall be allowed, so that if any person bringing in a load of small pilchard (sardines) has aimed to limit his load to 30 tons but unknowingly, by mistake, brings in not over 35 tons, he shall not be deemed to have violated this direction.

(b) Receipt of over-size load. No person shall take delivery of any part of a load of small pilchard (sardines) in excess of 35 tons except pursuant to a direction expressly applicable to such excess tonnage given by the Port Supervisor or his Assistant with full knowledge of the facts; and where a load of pilchard (sardines) which it appears may violate this direction is being delivered, in order to enable the person receiving delivery to secure such a direction and clear himself of the danger of liability for violating it, the person making delivery shall stop unloading for a reasonable time on a signal from the person receiving delivery, when 30 or more tons have been delivered.

(c) Limit on number of loads. No person shall bring in more than one load of small pilchard (sardines) in any one vessel during one twelve hour period.

(d) Definition. The phrase "load of small pilchard" as used herein shall be taken to have the same meaning heretofore customarily given by the pilchard fishery and processing industry generally in the port concerned to that phrase, or to the phrase "load of small fish" or "load of small sardines", with the further limitations expressly set out above.

(e) Application. This direction shall apply only to the port of Monterey, including Moss Landing.

LIMITATION OF DELIVERIES

(a) Setting limitations. Whenever pilchard (sardines) are being brought in to any port in such quantities that in the opinion of the Area Coordinator for Area II, they are being unloaded only after unreasonable delay and resulting substantial loss of fishing time by some of the vessels or are being processed only after unreasonable delay and resulting substantial loss of food value from the product so that in his opinion it is reasonably necessary to accomplish the purposes of the Pilchard Order, the Port Supervisor, pursuant to instructions to be given by the Area Coordinator, shall limit the amount of pilchard (sardines) which each vessel may thereafter bring into such port daily. The limits shall be set by the Port Supervisor for each day at an amount which, in his opinion, will provide the maximum tonnage which will be unloaded and processed properly and without unreasonable delay on that day by the processing equipment and labor then available in that port. The limits shall be changed from day to day as deemed necessary by the Port Supervisor but except as otherwise provided herein shall be the same for all vessels on the same day.

(b) Notice of limits. Notice of the fixing of limits, and of the maximum tonnage limits set for each day, shall be given by posting a statement thereof at least two and one half hours before sunset on the preceding day at the office of the Port Supervisor. If a notice is so posted, ignorance thereof by any person shall not excuse any violation of this direction. If any person interested does not secure information elsewhere as to the limit so fixed for a certain day, he shall secure it by telephone or other communication with the office of the Port Supervisor, before departing on the preceding day for fishing. But if any vessel remains out of port for two or more successive nights, and for that reason fails to learn of the limit for the day on which it delivers fish, its delivery of fish up to the limit set on the day it left port shall not be considered a violation of this direction.

(c) Exceptions for specific vessels. Whenever it shall have been determined by the Area Coordinator for Area II that the catch of any vessel or group of vessels has been materially lowered by reason of their previously operating under permits amended pursuant to paragraph (f) (3) of the Pilchard Order, the Port Supervisor may set a higher limit for such vessels than for the remainder of the fleet. Whenever a permit has been issued subject to the condition expressed in the permit or in a letter to the permittee accompanying the permit when issued, such condition specifying that it might be necessary to limit the catches of the vessel because the permit is being granted at the request of the permittee for a port which is already well supplied with vessels for the season, the Port Supervisor may set a lower limit for such a vessel than for the remainder of the fleet; moreover the procedure described herein may be used to set limits applicable to such a vessel, when deemed necessary as set out in paragraph (a) above, even though it is not deemed necessary to fix limits for other vessels in the port.

(d) Violations. No person shall knowingly bring into such port a load of pilchard (sardines) in excess of the applicable limits so fixed: Provided, however, That where there has been a bona fide mistake in estimating the weight of the load, a five-ton margin of error shall be allowed so that if any person bringing in a load of pilchard (sardines) has aimed to keep his load within the applicable limit so fixed, but by mistake brings in not more than five tons in excess of that limit, he shall not be deemed to have violated this direction. In addition the Port Supervisor may, in his discretion, delay dispatching any vessel bringing in such a load, for delivery of its load, or may cancel any dispatching direction already given for such load, or as to any part thereof, until all other pilchard deliveries in the port for that day are completed. He may also, in his discretion, set limits for the vessel for following days below those for other vessels in the port; the lowered limits may be such as to reduce actual deliveries by such vessel to an aggregate amount equal to or less than the aggregate tonnage it would have delivered if it had complied with this direction. No person shall take delivery of any part of a load of pilchard (sardines) in excess of five tons over the applicable limit for the load in question except pursuant to a direction expressly applicable to such excess tonnage given to the Port Supervisor or his Assistant with full knowledge of the facts.

(a) Representative of Area Coordinator, termination of limits. Any of the Area Coordinator's functions under this direction, in his absence or inability to act, may be performed by his representative. NATIONAL WAR LABOR BOARD.

INDUSTRY COMMISSIONS AND PANELS

AMENDMENTS AFFECTING TRUCKING COMMISSION, DETROIT BOARD AUTOMOTIVE SECTION, AND NATIONAL AIRFRAME PANEL

The National War Labor Board has issued the following amendments and supplements to certain directives and related orders with regard to industry commissions and panels which appeared in the FEDERAL REGISTER, March 23, 1944.

[Directive Order, June 8, 1944]

Order Amending Order Establishing Trucking Commission

By virtue of and pursuant to the powers vested in it by Executive Order No. 9017 of January 12, 1942, the Executive orders and regulations issued under the act of October 2, 1942, and the War Labor Disputes Act of June 25, 1943, the National War Labor Board hereby amends paragraph 2 of its directive order of July 30, 1943,[1] defining the jurisdiction of the Commission, to read as follows:

2. The Commission shall have jurisdiction over labor disputes and voluntary wage or salary adjustments involving persons employed in the following types of trucking operations: over-the-road (common, contract or private carrier) local pick-up and delivery; transfer and storage. The Commission shall have jurisdiction over labor disputes and voluntary wage or salary adjustments involving trucking employees as defined in paragraph 3 of this order which arise in the District of Columbia. The Commission shall have power (1) to hear and determine and to issue directive orders in labor dispute cases and (2) to make final rulings on voluntary wage or salary adjustments submitted for the approval of the National War Labor Board in accordance with the National Wage Stabilization policy.

[1] 9 F.R. 3171.

Resolution Restating Jurisdiction of the Automotive Section of the Detroit Board (Region XI)[1]

Resolved, That the jurisdiction of the Automotive Section of the Eleventh Regional War Labor Board shall extend to all voluntary wage and disputes cases involving any of the plants of the corporations listed below in whatever region they may be located and regardless of the union involved, except such cases as the Board may determine to process itself or by vote of the Board may refer to some other of its subordinate agencies:

General Motors Corporation.
Ford Motor Company.
Chrysler Corporation.
Briggs Manufacturing Company.
Packard Motor Car Company.
Hudson Motor Car Company.
Murray Corporation.
United Motor Service, Inc.
Chrysler Motor Parts Corp.
General Motors Truck and Coach Division (formerly Yellow Coach & Truck Mfg. Co.).

Be it further Resolved, That the Automotive Section is instructed to make arrangements to hear cases which are essentially of local interest only at or near the places in which these cases arise, thus avoiding the necessity of having the parties come to Detroit for hearings. To this end, it may utilize not only its own hearing officers but may request the appropriate Regional Board to designate a hearing officer from its staff or to appoint a panel to conduct the hearing and make a report on the facts to the Automotive Section.

Be it further Resolved, That the Automotive Section is instructed to continue its present practice of consulting with the appropriate Regional Board in cases assigned to it which involve changes in wage rates which may be disturbing to the existing area rates and will give due weight to the regional bracket determinations in deciding such cases.

[Resolution, July 21, 1944]

Resolution Revising Paragraph II (a), III (a), IV and VII of the Rules of Organization and Procedure of the National Airframe Panel[2]

II. Jurisdiction—(a) In general. Except as otherwise specified herein, the jurisdiction of the Panel shall include (1) all dispute and voluntary cases involving airframe companies whose names appear on the list to be approved by the Board from time to time (hereafter called the "Listed companies"), or (2) such other cases as may be referred to the Panel by the Board. The Panel, unless the Board otherwise directs, shall have jurisdiction of all issues in such cases. The names of the listed companies shall be made available to the New Case Committee of the Board, to the Regional War Labor Boards and other agents of the Board, and to all interested parties.

III. Referral of Cases to Panel—(a) By new Case Committee of the Board. Any dispute case involving "listed companies" shall be referred to the Panel by the New Case Committee of the Board.

IV. Retention of cases by the Panel. Upon receipt of any case, dispute or voluntary, the Panel shall determine whether the case falls within its jurisdiction as defined in paragraph II (a) above. If the Panel determines that the case does not fall within its jurisdiction, or that the case is one which would be handled by a Board agent, the Panel shall return the case, according to its source to the New Case Committee of the Board or to the Regional Board or other agent of the Board for appropriate action. If in any case the decision of the Panel with respect to its jurisdiction is not unanimous, the case shall, upon the request of a dissenting member, be referred to the Board for determination of the jurisdictional question. Such question shall be presented to the Board by the Chairman of the Panel.

VII. Monthly reports. The Chairman of the Panel shall present in writing to the Board monthly reports which shall contain, with respect to each case retained by it during the period covered by the report, information as to the wage or salary issues involved therein, including the size and nature of the wage or salary adjustments requested, the number of workers affected by such proposed adjustments, price relief and production cost data, and any other information pertaining to specific cases which the Panel deems it necessary to supply.

Executive Director.

COMMUNITY GAS AND POWER CO., ET AL.

NOTICE OF FILING AND NOTICE OF AND ORDER FOR HEARING

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission, held at its office in the City of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, on the 13th day of September A. D. 1944.

In the matter of Community Gas and Power Company, American Gas and Power Company, File No. 54-68; Community Gas and Power Company, American Gas and Power Company and the subsidiary companies thereof, File No. 59-55, respondents; Southern Natural Gas Company, File No. 70-962.

Notice is hereby given that Community Gas and Power Company ("Community"), a registered holding company, and American Gas and Power Company ("American"), a registered holding company and a subsidiary company of Community, have filed with this Commission Amendment No. 8 to their amended plan heretofore filed pursuant to section 11 (e) of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 for the purpose of effecting compliance with section 11 (b) of the act.

Notice is further given that a declaration or application (or both) has been filed with this Commission pursuant to sections 9 (a) (1) and 10 of the act by Southern Natural Gas Company ("Southern"), a registered holding company and a subsidiary company of Federal Water and Gas Corporation, also a registered holding company.

All interested persons are referred to said Amendment No. 8 and to said declaration or application (or both), which are on file in the office of the Commission, for statements of the transactions therein proposed, which are summarized as follows:

Amendment No. 8. 1. By order of the Commission dated July 2, 1943, American was directed, among other things, pursuant to section 11 (b) (1) of the act, to dispose of its interest in Birmingham Gas Company ("Birmingham"). The amended plan of Community and American pending before the Commission under section 11 (e) of the Act provides for the sale by American of its interest in Birmingham.

2. In Amendment No. 8 Community and American propose that American shall sell to Southern all its interest in Birmingham, consisting of 142,955 shares (62.82%) of the outstanding $2 par value common stock of Birmingham, for the sum of $1,358,072.50, equivalent to $9.50 per share. Under the contract American would also receive its pro rata portion of one-half of Birmingham's net earnings accruing to said shares of common stock from January 1, 1944, to the date of closing. The remaining shares of common stock of Birmingham (84,593.1 shares) are held by the public.

3. Of the Birmingham stock to be sold by American, 139,993 shares are pledged with The New York Trust Company as Successor Trustee under the Debenture Agreement of American, dated as of May 1, 1928, as supplemented and amended. American proposes to deposit the proceeds of sale of said 139,993 shares ($1,329,933.50) with the Trustee, pending disposition of all the pledged assets under the amended plan.

4. Community and American estimate that the expenses incident to the proposed sale of the Birmingham stock (all to be borne by American) will amount to approximately $17,500, consisting of traveling expense, telegrams, telephone calls, postage, Trustee's charges, counsel fees and other miscellaneous expense. No commissions are to be paid by American.

5. American requests that the Commission approve Amendment No. 8 as a separate step in carrying out the amended plan pending under section 11 (e) of the act.

6. American requests that, in order that it may have the exemption afforded by section 1806 (f) of the Internal Revenue Code, the Commission approve the transactions proposed in Amendment No. 8 as necessary or appropriate to effectuate the provisions of section 11 (b) of the act, and specify and itemize the transfers of securities called for by said Amendment.

Declaration or application of Southern. 7. Southern proposes to acquire from American, pursuant to the contract referred to above, said 142,955 shares of the common stock of Birmingham for the sum of $1,358,072.50. Southern proposes to expend such funds out of treasury cash, and proposes no issuance of securities at the present time in connection therewith.

8. Southern estimates that the total of its expenses in connection with the proposed acquisition, including auditors' fees, legal fees, traveling and miscellaneous expenses, will be approximately $5,000, and states that it does not consider that it is obligated for the payment of any commission. Southern states, however, that G. L. Ohrstrom has asserted that he is entitled to the payment of a commission in connection with the proposed acquisition.

It appearing to the Commission that it is appropriate in the public interest and in the interests of investors and consumers that a hearing be held with respect to said Amendment No. 8 to the amended plan of Community and American and with respect to said declaration or application (or both) filed by Southern, and that the transactions proposed by said Amendment No. 8 should not be approved nor said declaration be permitted to become effective nor said application granted except pursuant to further order of the Commission; and

It further appearing to the Commission that some of the evidence in the pending proceeding on the amended plan of Community and American filed under section 11 (e) (File No. 54-68) and in the proceeding instituted by the Commission under section 11 (b) (1), 11 (b) (2), 12 (c), 12 (f), 13, 15 and 20 (a) of the act (File No. 59-55), which proceedings have heretofore been consolidated by Order dated August 12, 1943, is relevant to the issues presented by said Amendment No. 8 and by said declaration or application (or both), and that all such proceedings involve common questions of law and fact and should be consolidated;

It is ordered, That such proceedings be and the same are hereby consolidated.

It is further ordered, That a hearing on such matters under the applicable provisions of the act and rules of the Commission thereunder be held on September 28, 1944, at 10:00 a. m., e. w. t., at the offices of the Commission, 18th and Locust Streets, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. On such day the hearing room clerk in room 318 will advise as to the room where such hearing will be held. At such hearing cause shall be shown why such transactions proposed in said Amendment No. 8 should be approved, such application granted and such declaration permitted to become effective.

It is further ordered, That Willis E. Monty, or any officer or officers of the Commission designated by it for that purpose, shall preside at the hearings on such matters. The officer so designated to preside at any such hearing is hereby authorized to exercise all powers granted to the Commission under section 18 of the act and to a trial examiner under the Commission's rules of practice.

It is further ordered, That without limiting the scope of the issues presented in the consolidated proceedings, particular attention will be directed at the hearings to the following matters and questions:

1. Whether the proposed sale by American meets the requirements of section 12 (d) of the act and the applicable rules thereunder.

2. Whether the proposed acquisition by Southern meets the requirements of section 10 of the act, and particularly section 10 (c) thereof.

3. Whether, pursuant to sections 10 (b) (2) and 12 (d) of the act, the proposed price is reasonable and bears a fair relation to the sums invested in and the earning capacity of the utility assets underlying the common stock of Birmingham.

4. Whether, pursuant to sections 10 (b) (2) and 12 (d) of the act, the fees, commissions and other remuneration to be given directly or indirectly in connection with the proposed transactions are reasonable in amount.

5. Whether it is necessary or appropriate in the public interest or for the protection of investors, pursuant to section 10 (b) of the act, for the Commission to condition its approval of the proposed acquisition by Southern upon a fair offer by Southern to purchase shares of the common stock of Birmingham held by others than American.

6. Whether it is necessary or appropriate in the public interest or for the protection of investors or consumers to impose terms and conditions with reference to the proposed transactions, and if so, what the terms and conditions should be.

7. Generally, whether the proposed transactions are detrimental to the public interest or to the interests of investors and consumers, or would tend to circumvent any provisions of the act or of the rules, regulations or orders promulgated thereunder.

It is further ordered, That notice of said hearing is hereby given to Community, American and their subsidiary companies, to Southern and its subsidiary companies, and to all interested persons; said notice to be given to Community, American, Southern and The Alabama Public Service Commission by registered mail, and to all other persons by publication of this notice and order in the FEDERAL REGISTER and by a general release of the Commission distributed to the press and mailed to the mailing list for releases issued under the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935.

WAR PRODUCTION BOARD.

[C-397]

FLUORESCENT LITE EQUIPMENT CO.

Harry Goodman, doing business as Fluorescent Lite Equipment Company, 918 Commerce Street, Dallas, Texas, is charged by the War Production Board with having delivered fluorescent lighting fixtures on preference ratings of MRO AA-8 and without preference ratings, in violation of General Limitation Order L-78, during the period from January 1, 1944, to August 15, 1944. The War Production Board has further charged that those sales were made with knowledge of the existence of restrictions imposed by such limitation order and in wilful violation of the order.

Harry Goodman, doing business as Fluorescent Lite Equipment Company, admits the sales of the fixtures in question and, although he does not admit or deny, does not wish to contest the charge of the War Production Board that the above acts were wilful and done with knowledge of the pertinent regulations of the War Production Board.

Wherefore, upon the agreement of Harry Goodman, doing business as Fluorescent Lite Equipment Company, the Regional Compliance Chief and the Regional Attorney, and upon the approval of the Compliance Commissioner, it is hereby ordered, That:

(a) Harry Goodman, doing business as Fluorescent Lite Equipment Company, shall not from the effective date of this order until December 1, 1944, apply or extend any preference ratings or use any CMP allotment symbols, regardless of the delivery date named in any purchase order to which such ratings may be applied or extended or on which CMP allotment symbols are used.

(b) All preference ratings, allotments and allocations presently outstanding in connection with orders for delivery of fluorescent lighting fixtures or other material to Harry Goodman, doing business as Fluorescent Lite Equipment Company, are void and shall not be given any effect by suppliers of Harry Goodman, doing business as Fluorescent Lite Equipment Company, or by any other person. This does not apply to fixtures or material already delivered or in transit for delivery to him on the effective date of this order.

(c) Harry Goodman, doing business as Fluorescent Lite Equipment Company, shall not from the effective date of this order until December 1, 1944, receive or accept delivery of any fluorescent lighting equipment as defined in, or governed by, General Limitation Order L-78. This does not apply to material and fixtures in transit for delivery to him on the effective date of this order.

(d) The restrictions and prohibitions contained herein shall apply to Harry Goodman, doing business as Fluorescent Lite Equipment Company, his successors and assigns, or persons acting in his behalf. Prohibitions against the taking of any action include the taking indirectly as well as directly of any such action.

(e) Nothing contained in this order shall be deemed to relieve Harry Goodman, doing business as Fluorescent Lite Equipment Company, his successors or assigns, from any restriction, prohibition or provision contained in any other order or regulation of the War Production Board except insofar as the same may be inconsistent with the provisions hereof.

(f) This order shall take effect on the date of issuance, and shall expire on December 1, 1944.

Issued this 13th day of September 1944.

802.75 Transmittal of findings to appropriate government agencies.

AUTHORITY: E.O. 9250, Oct. 3, 1942, 7 F.R. 7871; as amended by E.O. 9381, Sept. 25, 1943, 8 F.R. 13083; E.O. 9328, Apr. 8, 1943, 8 F.R. 4681; Regulations of Economic Stabilization Director, Oct. 27, 1942, 7 F.R. 8748, 8 F.R. 6489, 6490, 11960, 12139, 12238, 16702; Inflation Control Act of 1942, Act of October 2, 1942, C. 578, 56 Stat. 765, Pub. Law 729, 77th Cong.

§ 802.70 Composition of Enforcement Divisions and Panels. (a) Cases arising in any War Labor Board region involving alleged contravention of the Stabilization Act of 1942, as amended (56 Stat. 765) and the orders and regulations promulgated thereunder (hereinafter referred to as the "Act") shall be dealt with by an Enforcement Division designated by each Regional War Labor Board.[1] Each Regional Enforcement Division shall be tri-partite in character, and shall be composed of one or more representatives each of Labor, Industry, and the Public. A representative of the Public shall be designated as Chairman of each Enforcement Division. Each Regional War Labor Board may appoint as members of the Enforcement Division such number of representatives of Industry, Labor, and the Public as it sees fit: Provided, That in any particular case of alleged contravention of the act, any hearing shall be held before, and findings and recommendations made by, not less than three nor more than six members of the Enforcement Division consisting of equal representation of Labor, Industry and the Public, with a public member acting as Chairman. Such members shall constitute the Enforcement Division for purposes of such case.

(b) An Enforcement Division may from time to time appoint ad hoc Panels of tri-partite composition, consisting of non-members of the Enforcement Division, to hear any specified case or cases involving alleged contravention of the act. Any such Panel shall, after hearing a case, make its proposed findings and recommendations which shall be reviewed by the Enforcement Division, as provided in § 802.73.

§ 802.71 Jurisdiction of Enforcement Divisions. (a) In any case involving alleged contravention of the act by any employer, an Enforcement Division shall have authority, by majority vote, to make findings as to all pertinent facts and, if it finds that there has been a contravention of the Act by the employer, to recommend whether, in the light of all the circumstances in the case, any portion or all of the sanctions prescribed by the act shall be withheld. Unless such recommendation in any case provides for a withholding of all the sanctions prescribed by the act, or unless the employer waives a hearing or consents to the making of a recommendation, by the Enforcement Division, the recommendation shall be made only after a hearing, as prescribed by this procedure.

(b) Action of an Enforcement Division in any case of alleged contravention of the act, as evidenced by its findings and recommendations, shall be final, subject to appeal to the National War Labor Board as provided in § 802.74. Each Enforcement Division, however, shall be subject to general policy directives of the Regional War Labor Board and shall report to the Regional War Labor Board from time to time on its activities.

(c) If the situation requires such action, any party may be called upon to show cause before the Enforcement Division, within such time as is deemed proper by the Enforcement Division, why he should not refrain from making or receiving payment of wages at rates reported to be in contravention of the act, pending a hearing and decision by the Enforcement Division.

§ 802.72 Notice and conduct of hearing. (a) In any case where the Regional Attorney believes that an employer has made wage or salary payments in contravention of the act and that a hearing should be held in the matter, he shall report such case to the Enforcement Division. The Enforcement Division, after consideration of the allegation, may direct that the employer with respect to whom the allegation is made be notified to appear at a hearing before the Enforcement Division or before a Panel designated by it.

(b) Not less than ten days' written notice of a hearing shall be served personally or by registered mail upon the employer. Such notice shall contain (1) a concise statement of the nature of the alleged contravention of the act; (2) a statement advising the employer that at the hearing he may be represented by counsel and will be given full opportunity to present written or oral testimony and to examine and cross-examine witnesses on all matters relating to the allegations.

(c) If any party to a proceeding appears by attorney, notice of that fact shall be filed with the Enforcement Division and thereafter all papers shall be served upon him.

(d) For good cause shown, any hearing may be adjourned from time to time by the Enforcement Division or Panel.

(e) An employer may, at his own expense, provide for the making of a stenographic transcript of proceedings, in which case copies thereof shall be furnished without cost to the Enforcement Division or Panel and at the regular cost per copy to other persons.

(f) Evidence in support of the allegation shall be presented by the Regional Attorney. Opportunity shall be given to the employer or his counsel to present all relevant evidence and argument, written or oral.

§ 802.73 Findings and recommendations of Enforcement Division. (a) If a hearing is before a tri-partite Panel, the Panel shall, after the conclusion of the hearing, make proposed findings and recommendations which shall be mailed to the employer or his attorney and filed with the Enforcement Division. Within 14 days after mailing of the proposed findings (unless such time is extended by the Enforcement Division), the employer and the Regional Attorney may exchange and submit to the Enforcement Division written comments or objections to the proposed findings. At the expiration of such 14 days, the Enforcement Division shall, unless it directs a rehearing, make its final findings and recommendations in the case.

(b) If a hearing is before the Enforcement Division, the latter shall, after conclusion of the hearing, make its findings and recommendations in the case.

(c) The findings and recommendation of the Enforcement Division shall be in writing, showing the names of the members of the Division participating in such decision. If the Enforcement Division finds that the allegation of contravention of the act has been established by a preponderance of the evidence, it shall, in appropriate cases, also make findings as to the existence of any extenuating circumstances in connection therewith, and shall recommend whether there shall be withheld by the Executive Departments and other governmental agencies all or any portion of the sanctions prescribed by the act. Any dissent from the majority decision of the Enforcement Division shall be recorded on the findings and recommendation.

(d) The findings and recommendation shall be forwarded to the National War Labor Board, and a copy thereof shall be served, by registered mail on the employer or upon his attorney.

[1] Wherever in this procedure the term Enforcement Division is used, it shall also include the West Coast Lumber Commission and the Tool & Die Commission, or any agency especially designated by the National War Labor Board with jurisdicton over enforcement cases.

§ 802.74 Appeal to the National War Labor Board. (a) The findings and recommendation of an Enforcement Division shall be final, subject, however, to the right of the employer or the Regional Attorney, to appeal to the National War Labor Board for a review of the findings and recommendation. Such appeal shall be taken within 14 days from the date of receipt by the employer of the findings and recommendation. If the employer appeals he shall, within such 14 days, mail an original and five copies of a petition for review, including any supporting memorandum of law, to the Regional Attorney. If the Regional Attorney appeals he shall, within such 14 days, file the petition for review and four copies, including any supporting memorandum, with the Enforcement Division and mail a copy thereof to the employer or his attorney. If timely request is made to the Enforcement Division within such 14 days, the time for filing a petition for review may be extended by the Enforcement Division or agreement for such extension may be made by the Regional Attorney and the employer or his attorney.

(b) Any petition for review shall set forth concisely the respects in which it is claimed the findings were erroneous and shall state in detail the particular ground of objection to the findings or recommendation making specific reference to those portions of the record upon which reliance is placed.

(c) Either the employer or the Regional Attorney may, within 14 days from the date of mailing of a petition for review, make a reply thereto. Such reply shall be mailed and filed in the same manner and subject to the same conditions as are prescribed in paragraph (a) above for the petition for review.

(d) Upon receipt of all appeal papers filed in any case, the Enforcement Division shall cause to be sent to the National War Labor Board the entire file of the case.

(e) If no timely petition for review is filed and if the National War Labor Board does not review on its own motion, the findings and recommendation of the Enforcement Division shall, on the day following the last day for filing a petition for review, stand confirmed as the findings and recommendation of the National War Labor Board.

(f) Upon consideration of a petition for review, the National War Labor Board will render its decision upon the entire record of the case. In special cases, upon request duly made in the petition for review and upon good cause shown, the National War Labor Board may permit further oral or written argument or proof. In rendering its decision the National War Labor Board may affirm, reverse or modify the findings or recommendations or any part thereof or send the case back to the Enforcement Division for appropriate action.

§ 802.75 Transmittal of findings to appropriate Government agencies. (a) If within the 14 days stated above, a petition for review is not filed, or the time therefor extended, the National War Labor Board will, in due course, forward the findings and recommendation in a case to the appropriate governmental agency or agencies.

(b) If a timely petition for review is filed, the National War Labor Board, after its consideration and decision will, in appropriate cases, likewise forward the findings and recommendation in the case, accompanied by its order, to the appropriate governmental agency or agencies.

FRED E. DESMOND,
Acting Executive Director.

[SFAW Rev. Reg. 21, Amdt. 1]

PART 602—GENERAL ORDERS AND DIRECTIVES

ELIMINATION OF COKE FROM SCARCER SOLID FUELS

Because coke 1¼" and smaller has recently become available in greater quantities, it is deemed advisable to amend SFAW Revised Regulation No. 21 (9 F.R. 8289, 10558) so as to eliminate such coke from the classification of scarcer kinds of solid fuels. Accordingly, SFAW Revised Regulation No. 21 is hereby amended in the following respects:

1. Section 602.411 (g) is hereby amended to read as follows:

(g) "Scarcer kinds of solid fuels" means (1) all sizes of bituminous coal, except slack, produced in District 7 or District 8, (2) packaged fuel or briquettes containing any bituminous coal produced in District 7 or District 8, and (3) all western coke except reclaimed coke, run-of-oven beehive coke, and coke which has passed through a 1⅛" screen opening. (For purposes of this paragraph, resultant coal 1½" x 0 and smaller produced in District 7, and resultant coal 2½" x 0 and smaller produced in District 8, shall be considered slack.)

2. Section 602.412 (b) is hereby amended to read as follows:

(b) During the period April 1, 1944 to March 31, 1945, inclusive, no equipped or unequipped retail dealer may deliver, and no consumer may receive from all sources combined, the scarcer kinds of solid fuels (as defined in § 602.411 (g)) in an amount which, when added to (1) the consumer's inventory of such solid fuels as of April 1, 1944, and (2) the tonnage of such solid fuels received by the consumer after April 1, 1944, exceeds 90 per cent of the consumer's annual requirements for solid fuels.

This amendment shall become effective on the date of issuance.

PART 933—COPPER

[Conservation Order M–9–c, as Amended Aug. 31, 1944, Amdt. 1]

Section 933.4 Conservation Order M–9–c is hereby amended in the following respects:

1. Paragraph (i) (2) is amended to read as follows:

(2) Applications under Priorities Regulation 25, applications for specific authorization, and appeals—(i) Exceptions under Priorities Regulation 25. Except as noted below in subparagraph (iii) of this paragraph, all requests for exceptions from the restrictions in paragraph (a) on manufacture, processing, assembling or finishing of any articles on the combined list (or part of an article) must be filed under Priorities Regulation 25. Some other orders of the War Production Board contain restrictions on the use of copper products or copper base alloy products. An authorization granted under Priorities Regulation 25 will not waive the other restrictions unless the order containing them or a direction to Priorities Regulation 25, states that it will. In the absence of such a statement, it is also necessary to get relief from the restrictions of the other order in the manner provided in that order.

(ii) Applications for specific authorization. Where the order specifies that certain things may not be done unless the specific authorization of the War Production Board is obtained, applications for authorization should be made by letter in duplicate to the Copper Division in Washington.

(iii) Appeals. No appeal shall be filed from the provisions of paragraph (a) of this order except where a person wishes to make an article which is on the combined list and not on the "Military Exemption List" for one of the agencies mentioned in paragraph (f) (1) in a manner not permitted by the terms of this order. Any such appeal, or any appeal from the provisions of paragraphs (c) (1) and (c) (3) of this order, shall be made by filing Form WPB–1477 with the War Production Board, Copper Division, Washington, 25, D. PART 937—ZINC

[General Preference Order M–11, as Amended Sept. 15, 1944]

SLAB ZINC

Section 937.1 General Preference Order M–11 is amended to read as follows:

The fulfillment of requirements for the defense of the United States has created a shortage in the supply of zinc for defense, for private account and for export; and the following order is deemed necessary and appropriate in the public interest and to promote the national defense:

§ 937.1 General Preference Order M–11—(a) Definitions. (1) "Zinc" means all grades of metallic slab zinc (spelter) produced directly from ores, concentrates or other primary material; or redistilled from zinc scrap, including ashes, dross, skimmings, clippings, castings, engravers' plates, die cast scrap, or any secondary zinc-bearing material.

(2) "Producer" means any person producing zinc and any person who has zinc produced for him under toll agreement.

(3) "Dealer" means any person who regularly receives a physical delivery of zinc and sells or holds the same for resale without changing the form. A person who produces any zinc or who has the same produced for him under toll agreement, is a producer as to such zinc, and not a dealer.

(b) Deliveries of zinc. (1) Any person may accept delivery of zinc provided that the person accepting such delivery of zinc will not, after acceptance, have an inventory in excess of a practicable minimum working inventory.

(2) Any person unable to obtain zinc should make application by written communication to the War Production Board, giving quantity and grade of zinc required and such facts as are pertinent to the case.

(c) Reports. (1) All producers and dealers shall file Form WPB–1012 by the fifteenth of each month with the Tin, Lead and Zinc Division.

(2) Each consumer accepting delivery of zinc shall file Form 6–1151–M, in duplicate, by the fifteenth day of each month, with the United States Department of Interior, Bureau of Mines, Washington, D. C., if he has accepted or hereafter accepts as much as twenty short tons of zinc in any calendar month subsequent to December 1943.

(3) All producers, dealers and users of zinc shall file, subject to the approval of the Bureau of the Budget pursuant to the Federal Reports Act of 1942, such other reports as the War Production Board shall from time to time prescribe.

(d) Special directions. The War Production Board may issue special directions as to the source, destination, specific kinds, and amounts of zinc to be delivered or acquired or to any or all producers to set aside some portion of their production subject to further direction of the War Production Board.

(e) Applicability of regulations. Except as specifically provided herein, this order and all transactions affected thereby are subject to all applicable regulations of the War Production Board, as amended from time to time.

(f) Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this order, or who, in connection with this order, wilfully conceals a material fact or furnishes false information to any department or agency of the United States, is guilty of a crime, and, upon conviction, may be punished by fine or imprisonment. In addition, any such person may be prohibited from making or obtaining further deliveries of, or from processing or using, material under priority control, and may be deprived of priorities assistance.

(g) Communications. All communications concerning this order shall, unless otherwise directed, be addressed to: War Production Board, Tin, Lead and Zinc Division, War Production Board Department 7512, Washington 25, D. C., Reference M–11.

NOTE: The reporting requirements of this order have been approved by the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

PART 3290—TEXTILE, CLOTHING & LEATHER

COTTON DUCK

§ 3290.56 Conservation Order M–91. (a) (1) "Cotton duck" means cotton fabrics commonly known by that name, in any weight, 15 inches or wider, in the grey, bleached, dyed, printed or proofed state, including but not limited to the following types:

(1) Shelter tent duck
(2) Numbered (wide or sail) duck
(3) Narrow or naught duck
(4) Hose or belting duck
(5) Harvester duck
(6) Filter duck or twills
(7) Chafer duck (chafer fabric), single or plied yarn
(8) Army duck (including woven awning stripe)
(9) Single or double filling flat duck
(10) Shoe duck
(11) Gem duck
(12) Bootleg duck
(13) Ounce duck
(14) Enamelling duck
(15) Cover duck
(16) Apron duck
(17) Breaker fabric, plain or leno

(2) "Producer" means a producer of cotton duck.

Restrictions

(b) No producer shall deliver cotton duck even though he receives a rated order, unless:

(1) It is to fill a direct order or contract (not including subcontracts) with the Army or Navy of the United States, the Maritime Commission or the War Shipping Administration; or

(2) It is hose or belting duck, single yarn chafer fabric, numbered duck, filter duck or filter twill produced on looms which on April 7, 1944 were producing or were assigned to produce cotton duck for manufacture into items listed on Schedule A, and the purchaser states in writing that it will be used for that purpose (Authorization to deliver other types of cotton duck may be granted on written application when specifications of the Army or Navy of the United States or the Maritime Commission require other types), or

(3) The producer is authorized, after application by him on Form WPB–678 (formerly PD–329), to deliver it for specified purposes. Deliveries of cotton duck, when so authorized, shall be made by such producer as nearly as possible pro rata to purchasers of cotton duck from him for the specified purposes during the year 1943, and only to purchasers who certify that the cotton duck will be used only for the purposes specified in the authorizations; or

(4) The purchaser is authorized, after application by him on Form WPB–678 (formerly PD–329) to accept delivery of cotton duck. However, no purchaser needing cotton duck for direct or ultimate delivery to, or for incorporation into any material to be delivered directly or ultimately to the Army or the Navy of the United States, the Maritime Commission or the War Shipping Administration, will be authorized to buy it unless, before filing his application with the WPB on Form 678, he has first made application for the necessary duck to the agency whose prime contract is to be filled or to the Office of the Quartermaster General, Washington, D. C., and accompanies his application to the WPB with a letter from such agency or the Office of the Quartermaster General refusing the delivery requested; or

(5) It has been rejected in writing by both the Army and Navy of the United States; or

(6) It is in lengths not exceeding ten yards produced in the ordinary course of manufacture; or

(7) [Deleted Sept. 14, 1944.]

(8) [Deleted Sept. 14, 1944.]

(c) No producer who has any loom designated for but not needed to fill orders for cotton duck for manufacture into items listed on Schedule A, shall use such looms except for deliveries to the Army or Navy of the United States. Notwithstanding any contract or purchase order made with the Army or Navy of the United States for the production of such looms, the War Production Board may at any time direct that the production of such looms shall be delivered solely or to the extent designated for manufacture into items listed on Schedule A.

(d) No industrial consumer shall:

(1) Accept delivery in a calendar month of cotton duck designated for Schedule A items, in excess of 1/12 of the yards or pounds (whichever is the standard unit of purchase) which such person put into process in 1941 for the manufacture of such items. (The fact that cotton duck for the manufacture of items on Schedule A is needed for the delivery to the Armed Services or to persons producing for the Armed Services does not permit any industrial consumer to accept more cotton duck under paragraph (b) (2) than is permitted by paragraph (d) (1).)

(2) Accept delivery of Schedule A items, unless required by him within sixty days after receipt for actual use or resale in the 48 states (or within ninety days after receipt for actual use or resale outside the 48 states) or to enable him to have minimum spare materials in stock as a reserve for emergency breakdown.

NOTE: Paragraph (c) (1), formerly paragraph (e), redesignated Sept. 14, 1944.

(e) (1) No producer shall manufacture any cotton duck on looms which on April 7, 1944 were operating on or were assigned to produce cotton duck for incorporation into any item on Schedule A, except cotton duck for incorporation into Schedule A items, or for delivery to the Army or Navy of the United States to the extent permitted by paragraph (c).

(2) Every producer of cotton duck shall operate each of his looms suitable for the production of Army Duck (8 oz. on a 28½" width basis, and heavier), Numbered Duck, Flat Duck (12.10 oz. per square yard, and heavier) or Shelter Tent Duck at least as many hours per week as the loom which is operated the most hours per week in his plant.

General Provisions

(f) All communications concerning this order shall, unless otherwise directed in writing, be addressed to the War Production Board, Textile, Clothing and Leather Bureau, Washington 25, D. C., Ref. M–91.

(g) Any appeal from the provisions of this order shall be made by filing a letter in triplicate, referring to the particular provision appealed from and stating fully the grounds of the appeal.

(h) Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this order, or who in connection with this order wilfully conceals a material fact or furnishes false information to any department or agency of the United States is guilty of a crime, and upon conviction may be punished by fine or imprisonment. In addition, any such person may be prohibited from making or obtaining further deliveries or from processing or using materials under priorities assistance by the War Production Board.

(i) This order and all transactions affected thereby are subject to all applicable regulations of the War Production Board, as amended from time to time, except as otherwise provided in this order.

Issued this 14th day of September 1944.

Anti-Hog-Cholera Serum and Hog-Cholera Virus

PROPOSED MARKETING AGREEMENT

Notice of report and opportunity to file written exceptions in respect to a proposed marketing agreement and to a proposed amended order regulating the handling of anti-hog-cholera serum and hog-cholera virus.

Pursuant to § 132.12 (c) of the rules of practice and procedure (8 F.R. 7743), Bureau of Animal Industry, notice is hereby given of the filing with the hearing clerk of this report of the Chief of the Bureau of Animal Industry with respect to a marketing agreement and amended order regulating the handling of anti-hog-cholera serum and hog-cholera virus.

Interested parties may file exceptions to the report with the Hearing Clerk, Room 1331, Department of Agriculture, Washington, D. C., not later than the close of business on the 15th day after publication of this notice in the Federal Register. Exceptions should be filed in duplicate.

The proceedings were inaugurated by the Bureau of Animal Industry following the receipt of a request from the Control Agency under date of November 27, 1939, for a public hearing on a series of Amendments proposed by it to remedy alleged defects in the marketing order that had been in effect since December 7, 1936. After consideration of the proposed amendments, notice of a public hearing was issued on April 12, 1940, and a hearing held on April 17, 18, 19 and 20, 1940, in Chicago, Illinois. During this hearing, and later, objections were voiced by the Illinois and Iowa Farm Bureaus and others to the proposed amendments. The Illinois and Iowa Farm Bureaus were particularly concerned with the proposed amendments eliminating volume contract purchasers and relating to offers to sell at other than current posted prices. Negotiations and conferences between the interested parties followed. A tentative draft of a completely revised marketing agreement was presented to the Bureau by the Control Agency on November 2, 1942. This tentative draft was considered by the Department and on February 12, 1943, a formal request was made by the Control Agency for a public hearing on this amended agreement. On December 18, 1943, notice was given of a hearing on the tentatively amended agreement which was held in Washington on January 24, 1944. This hearing in effect was a continuation of the hearing in Chicago on April 17, 18, 19 and 20, 1940. At the hearing held on January 24, 1944, no significant objections were offered to the tentatively amended agreement by those present, which included representatives of the Illinois and Iowa Farm Bureaus. However briefs were filed later by the Control Agency, the American Cooperative Serum Association, Sioux City, Iowa, and the Peters Serum Company, Kansas City, Missouri. The main purpose of the amended agreement is to remedy defects which have become apparent since 1936 and in the main most of the changes proposed are agreeable to all interested parties.

The major issues developed in these hearings were concerned with (1) Definition of the terms, "Consumer," "Dealer," "Wholesaler," "Volume Contract Purchaser," "Branch House," "Price," "Discount" and "Terms of Sale," (2) Filing of prices to all classes of buyers, (3) Trade practices involving loaning or giving syringes and equipment to buyers.

With respect to these issues it is concluded that:

(1) The terms "Consumer," "Price," "Discount," "Branch House," and "Terms of Sale" should now be defined and the definitions of "Dealer," "Wholesaler" and "Volume Contract Purchaser" should be revised to describe more clearly these classes of the trade.

(2) The filing of prices for Volume Contract Purchasers need not be required provided each selling handler files with the Control Agency and the Secretary of Agriculture executed copies of all contracts entered into with the handlers classified as volume contract purchasers within ten days after execution of each contract.

(3) The loaning or giving syringes or anything of value to dealers or wholesalers by handlers should be prohibited as an aid to fair practices in marketing.

The following amended agreement is recommended as the detailed means by which these conclusions may be carried out.

Marketing Agreement Regulating the Handling of Anti-Hog-Cholera Serum and Hog-Cholera Virus

The parties to this agreement are the contracting handlers of anti-hog-cholera serum and hog-cholera virus in the United States and the Secretary of Agriculture of the United States. Now, therefore, the parties hereto agree as follows:
